

The High School Bulletin

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, MAUDE PRATT.

On Tuesday morning, January 2nd, the school children again wended their way to the Hall of Learning after a happy and profitable vacation of two weeks and a day. In the meantime the janitor and assistants had cleaned the rooms up generally, so that everything was spic and span for the school work of 1906.

Last Friday evening, as the third number of the lecture course, Dr. A. A. Willis gave his lecture on "Sunshine." As Prof. Scott said in introducing the lecturer, although over 84 years of age, Dr. Willis is certainly the prince of lecturers. His strong personality, pleasing voice and refreshing humor kept his audience spellbound. His lecture vividly showed that sunny temperaments make beautiful faces; the unchangeable crime of those who "murder" human happiness by their ill temper; unselfishness as the best source of happiness; the fallacy of using religion as a "fire escape"; and that the best gift we can give our fellow-men is a sunny disposition. Perhaps his lecture could best be summed up in the rhyme he gave for every one to remember:

That man is blest
Who does his best
And leaves the rest—
Don't worry.

Certainly no one could hear his simple philosophy for a happy life without wishing to adopt it.

Prof. Scott gives us two weeks of grace in which to prepare for exams. No basket ball games, no nothing but good hard work till exams are over.

Wednesday morning the hills leading to the school house were one glare of ice and many a school child, and school marm too, took a grand old tumble. The ashes and salt sprinkled on the walks were appreciated by all who undertook to climb them.

This week the Sinters band in their biennial attempts at oratory. Surely they will astonish the world by their solution of its most complex subjects.

The days of wonders are not ended, as some of our illustrious Juniors come to class day after day with no lessons prepared and then make from 80 to 95 per cent in examination. There must be a screw loose somewhere.

Another humorous crime: "The Mystery of the Weedville Hotel; or Who Stole that Freshie's Trousers?"

It seems to be the motto of one in class '08 to "laugh and grow fat"—only she doesn't grow fat.

Judging from the new things worn, Santa Claus must have been pretty good to the Sophomores.

Adda Myers, one of the class of '05, visited rooms 14 and 15 Tuesday of last week.

Hereafter when excused from the room, please don't stay all day.

"I'm not prepared" is getting to be a by-word in the literary society.

Luck and Chance.

Luck and chance don't figure in the making of Prizer Stoves and Ranges. They are the result of good materials, careful workmanship and the best experience in stove making. They contain many good ideas that lighten kitchen work and add to the comfort and convenience of the house-keeper. Come in and let us tell you about them. Sold and guaranteed by Reynoldsville Hardware Co.

The Reynoldsville Trust Company.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of this company will be held at their banking house on West Main Street, Reynoldsville, Pa., on Thursday, February 8th, 1906, between the hours of 1 and 2 p. m., for the election of officers to serve for the ensuing year and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

DEATH ENDS THE CAREER OF BENJAMIN KLINE.

One of the Most Prominent Citizens of Winslow Township Expired Wednesday Evening, January 3rd. Was a Veteran of the Civil War.

Benjamin Kline, a well known and prominent citizen of Winslow township, who had resided in this community about forty-five years, coming here when this section was a wilderness, died suddenly at his home at 8 45 p. m. Wednesday, January 3, 1906. He was eating supper at five o'clock when he was suddenly seized with an intense pain in the region of the stomach. He was carried to the lounge and one of his sons made a fast ride to town for a doctor. The doctor found Mr. Kline suffering with such terrible pains that he gave him a hypodermic injection of did team work for Powers, Brown & Co. until he paid for his farm. Mr. Kline was the first man to hire a team to Powers, Brown & Co. when the Soldier Run branch railroad was built. Mr. Kline was a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge in Reynoldsville. He joined the lodge in 1873 and went through all the chairs in the lodge. He joined the Baptist church a number of years ago, when Rev. Samuel Mills was pastor. He was a member of the John C. Connor Grand Army Post of Reynoldsville. THE LATE BENJAMIN KLINE.

He was a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge in Reynoldsville. He joined the lodge in 1873 and went through all the chairs in the lodge. He joined the Baptist church a number of years ago, when Rev. Samuel Mills was pastor. He was a member of the John C. Connor Grand Army Post of Reynoldsville. He was supervisor of Winslow township two years and was treasurer of the township school board three years. Politically he was a Republican and took an active part in politics until recent years, but was always reserved and never aspired to official position, and when his name was suggested for some office he preferred to turn the honor over to some other person. Mr. Kline was the father of thirteen children and the first break in the family circle in thirty-three years occurred May 19, 1905, when his son, Reed E. Kline, was killed at Verona, Pa., in attempting to get on a moving passenger train. Mr. Kline is survived by his widow, eight sons and three daughters, Lawyer B. R. Kline, of New Kensington, Pa., who practices in Westmoreland and Allegheny counties; Lawyer Will G. Kline, of Gettysburg, Pa., who practices in Potter and Clearfield counties; George Kline, of Reynoldsville; Harry Kline, of Colorado Springs, Col., conductor on the Colorado & Cripple Creek Short Line; H. Bruce Kline, of Braeburn, passenger brakeman on the River Division of the P. R. R., Fred Kline, of New Kensington, Ralph and James Kline at home, Mrs. L. C. Price, of DuBois, Misses Lora and Ella Kline at home. Deceased is also survived by three brothers, and one sister, Washington Kline, of Shamokin, Pa., Edwin Kline, of Ballard, Wash., Harry Kline, of Renovo, Pa., and Mrs. Kate Forney, of Minerville, Pa. Harry Kline was the only member of the family who did not get here to attend the funeral. The funeral service was held in the Baptist church at 2:00 p. m. Monday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, assisted by Rev. J. E. Dean. It was a large funeral. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery. The Odd Fellows had charge of the service at the cemetery. A firing squad of the Sons of Veterans fired a salute over the grave. Members of the G. A. R., S. of V. and I. O. O. F. attended the funeral. The floral tribute was very pretty, consisting of a maltese cross of roses and carnations from the Women's Relief Corps; I. O. O. F. emblem, three links, roses and carnations, from I. O. O. F. lodge No. 824; cycle of wheat, lilies, &c., from family. Following is the last will and testament of Benjamin Kline, made August 30th, 1905, and recorded Jan. 9, 1906: First. After the payments of my just debts, I bequeath to my wife, Elmira Kline, all my personal property. Second. I also direct that she shall have for her home, my farm, and the entire income of said farm during her natural life; and at her death said farm shall be disposed of as my executors may find most profitable, and the proceeds divided share and share alike among my children. I also desire that my wife shall keep said farm in the same productive condition, which it now is. I direct that George W. Kline and L. C. Price shall be my sole executors.

An Irish Singer.

Since the days of Dion Boucicault, who first introduced the refined, whole-souled singing Irish character on the American stage, up to the present time there has always been a demand for the Hibernian comedy drama. Many singers have earned fame and fortune in this style of entertainment, among whom the most loved and famous was William J. Scanlon, whose songs have been whistled and sung in almost every American home. The youngest exponent of this elevating type of Irish character is Wm. Francis Burke, whose work resembles that of the lamented Scanlon. He possesses a luscious brogue, a sweet singing voice of marvelous range and quality, and gives a clean interpretation of the rollicking Irish peasant, also introducing many charming Irish ballads written by himself.

Little Geraldine McCann, of whom so much has been written and said in praise of her marvelous ability, is co-star with Mr. Burke. She is styled the "Little Magnet" and is the peer of all child actresses. Manager McCann has surrounded these young people with a company selected from the best stocks in this country and feels confident that he has organized in the Burke-McCann Company one of the very best popular priced attractions on the road. They begin a three night engagement at the Reynolds opera house Monday night, January 15, in an elaborate scenic production of the newest Irish drama, "An Irish Nobleman."

The managers are especially desirous of stating that this is a good attraction. The Burke-McCann Company has played a week's engagement at DuBois during the past three seasons and Manager Way speaks very highly of it. A number of good specialty artists are with the company. Don't miss the first chapter. Seats on sale at the Stoke drug store. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

In Memoriam. God, who doeth all things well, has taken a lark from the chain of Reynoldsville Lodge No. 824, I. O. O. F., by the death of our aged brother, Benjamin Kline, therefore, be it Resolved, That a patriarch has fallen whose memory we cherish, forgetting his imperfections and remembering his virtues. Our sympathy goes out to the bereaved family, whose loss is greater than ours and with them we mourn. Yet it is not without hope, for in the resurrection he shall rise again and with the bereaved family we say, "Gods will be done." Be it further Resolved, That as a mark of our respect our charter be draped for 30 days and a copy of this memorial be spread on the minutes of the Lodge, the same be sent to the family of the deceased and also be printed in the Reynoldsville papers.

Reynoldsville-- Official.

AN ORDINANCE—granting the Red Bank Telephone Co., a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the state of Pennsylvania with its office at Brookville, Pa., its successors and assigns, the right to erect, maintain and operate a telephone line in and along certain streets and alleys of the borough of Reynoldsville, subject to the limitations and restrictions of Section (1) of Ordinance No. 38, approved March 1, 1897, Ordinance book page 15.

BE IT ORDAINED and enacted by the town council of the borough of Reynoldsville, Jefferson county, Pennsylvania, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by authority of the same.

Section 1. That the right of way be and the same is hereby granted to the Red Bank Telephone Co., its successors and assigns, to erect and maintain lines of poles, main and wires along, in, under, over, through and across the following alleys, viaducts and ways in the borough, viz: Alleys or any part thereof designated by council by resolution for the purpose of operating a telephone exchange and telephone lines, provided said lines of poles shall be placed as required by section (1) of ordinance No. 38 aforesaid and kept properly painted and not less in size than 15 inches in diameter or 6 feet from butt, wires not to be less than 30 feet elevation from ground.

Section 2. Hereafter the wires of all electric lights, telegraph or telephone companies to be erected or standing at an angle across the wires of said telephone company shall not be allowed to place its wires nearer than two feet to the wires of said other company. The provisions of this section are to apply with equal force to motor wires for street railway purposes, except in so far as they may interfere with proper placing of motor wires hereafter to be placed in which case it shall be the duty of the said telephone company to yield the right of way of said motor wires and change the placing of their lines accordingly. In case of the violation of this section it shall be the duty of the town council to notify the offending company to remove its wires, poles or fixtures so erected in violation thereof, within three days of such notification, and on failure to comply with such notice it shall be the duty of the town council to remove the same forthwith at the expense of the offending party or company.

Section 3. That it is agreed by the said company, that in the consideration of the grant of right of way as herein provided, that the said company will put up and provide a telephone exchange on Main street in said borough; also a phone in the city or municipal building, or elsewhere, as the council may direct, for the use of the borough officers free of charge. The use of the poles of the company by the borough for carrying electric fire and police alarm wires shall be permitted free of expense to said borough.

Section 4. That the said telephone company shall at all times save and keep harmless the said borough from all costs, expenses and damages, resulting by reason of the construction, maintenance and operation of said telephone lines.

Section 5. That the rights and privileges hereby granted shall be held and used subject to the terms and provisions of the laws and ordinances of the borough of Reynoldsville, now in force or hereafter to be passed, relating to and regulating the same.

Section 6. The council reserves the right to amend, revise or repeal the provisions of this ordinance at any time after the period of fifteen years from the time it becomes a law.

Section 7. In case the aforesaid telephone company does not have its system of poles and lines in place and in working condition in one year from the date of this ordinance then and in that case this ordinance and the franchise hereby granted, shall at the option of the said borough be considered forfeited and become null and void of no effect.

Section 8. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and acceptance by the Red Bank Telephone Company, on behalf of itself, its successors and assigns, and its publication as provided by law. Provided the said company shall file with the clerk of council its written acceptance within ten days and paying for the publication of said ordinance.

Section 9. That any ordinance, or part of ordinance, conflicting with the provisions of this ordinance be, and the same is hereby repealed, so far as the same affects this ordinance. Enacted and ordained by the town council of the borough of Reynoldsville, Pennsylvania, at a regular meeting held at the council chamber on December 14th, 1905, at 9:30 o'clock p. m. J. C. SAVENS, J. Pres. of Council. L. J. McENTHIRE, Clerk of Council. Approved this 30th day of December, 1905. L. L. GOURLEY, Chief Burgess.

In the matter of an ordinance granting to the Red Bank Telephone Company, its successors and assigns, the right to erect, maintain and operate a telephone line in and along certain streets and alleys of the borough of Reynoldsville.

And now, December 19th, 1905, the Red Bank Telephone Company, hereby files with the clerk of council its acceptance of the terms of the above ordinance passed the 14th day of December, 1905, and agree to be governed by the terms thereof, according to the true intent and meaning thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Red Bank Telephone Co. the day and year above written. RED BANK TELEPHONE CO., By T. W. COPENHAVEN, President. Attest: LEWIS EVANS, Sec.
