Appointed by Mayor McClelland. James W. Stevenson, of Brooklyn, N. Y., son of Henry Stevenson, of Sandy Valley, and son-in-law of M. M. Davis, Esq., of Reynoldsville, has been appointed by George B. McClelland, mayor of New York City, to the important and responsible position of bridge commissioner in Brooklyn. Mr. Stevenson, who for four years was Deputy Controller and was secretary to the Board of Estimates, and as all plans for bridges and bridge terminals had to be submitted to the Board of Estimates, Mr. Stevenson is, therefore, familiar with the duties that will devolve upon him. The Brooklyn Eagle, in speaking of his appointment says:

"Mr. Stevenson goes into office under the most favorable conditions. He has experience. He enjoys the confidence of the Mayor as a practical man of business and not as a politician. He is personally known and liked by the members of the Board of Estimate. He knows the needs of Brooklyn as well as any man. He has the close personal friendship of Controller Grout, than whom there is no man better qualified to advise concerning Manhattan and especially Brooklyn matters."

"THE APOSTLE OF SUNSHINE."

Dr. Willits Fully Sustained His Reputation as an Entertainer and Lecturer. Dr. A. A. Willits, of Spring Lake, N. J., the noted lecturer and entertainer, now in his eighty-fifth year, who lectured in Assembly hall last Friday evening, even surpassed the expectation of the large audience that assembled to hear him lecture on "Sunshine," although they expected to hear something good. The lecture was great and deep, and it was broad with the unbounded wisdom of sunshine in itself, yet it was clothed in the simplest of language, brightened by witticism and illustrated by stories dealing with homely and familiar subjects. His style was conspicuously simple and his vocabulary was free from affectation and strong in earnestness. The minds of the people were kept keen by the kind and impressive humor of the speaker. Dr. Willits gave a few rules for a happy life. The first one was to count your blessings. He pointed out how much sunshine there is in every life, how easily that sunshine is in everybody's reach, and how much joy the sunshine brings to every man and to every woman who will but take it as it comes. He did some preaching, but it was always in a kindly and humorous manner that won the hearts of the listeners. He said that more young people were driven away from the christian religion by the long-facedness and dismal humor of many church members than by all the infidels in the world.

While time is reducing Dr. Willits' physical strength, yet he is vigorous mentally and has a strong voice. To hear him speak and not see him one would think they were listening to a man not over fifty years old. He is certainly a remarkable old man.

POMONA GRANGE MEETING.

Good Program Rendered—Reports from Committees—Several Resolutions Adopted. The meeting of Jefferson County Pomona Grange No. 20, Patrons of Husbandry, held in the Odd Fellows hall at Reynoldsville on Wednesday of last week, Jan. 3, was well attended and was an interesting meeting. A full report of the business transacted, program rendered and resolutions adopted would be too lengthy for publication, therefore, from Secretary E. R. Syphrit's minutes of the meeting we publish a partial report.

At the last session of Pomona Grange a committee was appointed to consider the advisability of starting what will be known as the Patrons Real Estate Agency, and that committee submitted the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Pomona Grange secretary and treasurer be secretary and treasurer for the Patrons Real Estate Agency. That the secretary keep record as brought before him at each session of Pomona; and the treasurer to receive and receipt for all moneys coming in from this source. That one person be elected by Pomona Grange at this session to be known as general agent; that each grange appoint some one person out of their own subordinate grange to act as local agent, to report all goods or property handed in for sale to be advertised, to the general agent; the general agent to see that such property be properly advertised, and if possible, be disposed of as agents and owners may agree. Also that this grange will not charge owner more than actual cost of expense of disposing of said goods or land, providing the parties are members of the grange, and an additional one per cent be added if not members of the grange, and that this to go into Pomona Grange treasury. That all agents shall be farmers in good standing in a grange."

It was resolved to accept an invitation to participate in a farmers' and grangers' reunion in Brookville on Wednesday of the ensuing fair week, which has been designated by the fair association as "Grange Day."

It was resolved that hereafter at each quarterly meeting of Pomona Grange one session be held to initiate candidates in the fifth degree.

Among the resolutions presented was this one: That the grangers of Jefferson county petition the Honorable Judge of the courts of Jefferson county to stop the sale of intoxicating drink on all legal holidays."

W. L. McCracken was instructed to draw up the petition to be presented to Judge John W. Reed after it was presented to Pomona Grange and unanimously accepted.

Resolutions of respect on the death of Minnie L. Hetrick of Horntown Grange were adopted.

By vote it was decided to hold the next Pomona Grange meeting in Brookville.

A vote of thanks was extended J. K. Womold for securing such an excellent place as I. O. O. F. hall for the meeting and at such reasonable rates.

Resolutions of Respect. At the last meeting of Pomona Grange of Jefferson county, assembled, these resolutions of love and respect on the death of Miss Minnie L. Hetrick were submitted:

Resolved, That we, the members of Pomona Grange No. 20, of Jefferson county, do humbly bow in submission to His divine will in removing from our midst our beloved sister, and co-worker, Miss Minnie L. Hetrick, of Horntown Grange No. 1239, and

Resolved, That we tender our sympathy to the bereaved family and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, and also printed in THE STAR or any other paper designated.

Some Sidel Oil News. Another oil well was brought in near Sigel on Wednesday of last week. It is owned by the Jefferson Gas company, and is thought to be about a fifteen barrel well. There are now some fifteen or sixteen wells producing, eight more are drilling and five new rigs are going up. The territory is holding out well, and there is great activity among the operators. The development is still young, and it is not known whether the oil producing territory is large or small. So far it has proved to be very satisfactory.—Brookville Democrat.
