A Little of Everything.

The King of Rogues. The spring election will be held February 20th. M. M. Davis, Esq., was in DuBois yesterday. G. W. Sykes had business in DuBois yesterday. High School Bulletin column on eighth page. Burgess L. L. Gourley has resigned as borough auditor. David Stoner, undertaker of Knoxdale, was in town Monday. Special meetings are still in progress in the Baptist church at this place. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Trudgen, Jr., January 12, 1906. The extra session of the legislature convened at Harrisburg Monday afternoon. A house owned by the coal company at Soldier was burned down Monday morning. The Republican state convention will be held in Harrisburg Wednesday, June 6th. Hughes & Fleming, undertakers, got a new hearse last week. It is certainly a very fine hearse. Marian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ferguson, of West Reynoldsville, has the diphtheria. Lawyer G. M. McDonald's name is mentioned as a candidate for burgess on the Democratic ticket. L. A. Merica, merchant of east Main street, cut an ugly gash in his right hand a couple of days ago with a butcher knife. The Utopia Society will hold a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Hall on Main street Friday evening of this week. William Rhoads, of Penfield, shot a very large wildcat near that place one day last week and expressed it to James McKallip at Wishaw. S. J. Burgoon, a plumber who comes from Lindsay, has opened a plumbing shop in the Stoke building on Fifth street, near the gas office. Prof. J. R. Wilson, principal of the West Reynoldsville public schools, will be an instructor in the Summersville Academy, which opens May 1st. The Democrats of Winslow township will hold a suggestion meeting in hose house No. 1, Reynoldsville, at 2.00 p. m. next Saturday, January 20th. The Jeffersonian Gold Medal Minstrels is the name of a company that has been organized in Reynoldsville and will give an entertainment in the opera house in a few weeks. Mrs. society's magician, bewildered the senses of an audience of over a thousand people. He is a wonder.—Philadelphia Times. At Assembly hall Friday evening, Jan 26th.

District Deputy J. K. Womeldurf installed new officers in the Rathmel, Paradise and Horntown Granges during the past week. Constable Perry B. Love, of Reynoldsville, was the constable in charge of the grand jury in the criminal court at Brookville last week. All members of the Improved Order of Red Men are requested to attend the meeting on Monday evening as business of importance is to be considered. The public installation and ten cent social given in the K. of P. hall Friday evening by the Women's Relief Corps was well attended. A good entertainment was given. One of the Italians taken to the Warren asylum last week by County Commissioner McGaw, takes a notion occasionally to fast. On one of his fasting periods he did not eat anything for twenty days. According to a statement published in one of the DuBois papers yesterday morning, it is entirely indefinite yet what route will be selected for the Franklin & Clearfield railroad east of Brookville. Maro showed a wonderful versatility, being equally at home in magic, art and music.—Albany (N. Y.) Argus. At Assembly hall Friday evening, Jan. 26. This will be the fourth entertainment on the high school lecture course. Rev. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church, assisted by Harvey Deter and George White, is holding special meetings in Marinaro's hall at Soldier this week. The meetings will likely be kept up all of next week. What is known as the Falls Creek pig case, wherein a jeweler is charged with stealing a pig from a Beechwoods farmer, was not tried in the county court last week, as was expected. It was continued until the next term of court. According to the new law that was passed by the legislature last year and went into effect the first of this year, graves must be dug nine feet deep. Any sexton or other person violating this law is liable to a fine of from $10.00 to $100.00. Elmer E. Snyder, a carpenter who works with the Low Grade Division P. R. R. carpenter crew, was married at Emporium, Pa., the latter part of last month to Elsie Verbeck, of Driftwood. They will reside in West Reynoldsville. Rev. McMinn, of Sykesville, will preach for the M. E. congregation at this place next Sunday morning and Rev. Godwin will preach in the evening. Dr. J. A. Parsons, the pastor, will assist in dedicating a new M. E. church near Grove City Sunday. Rev. Jacob Booth and wife, Mrs. James Hanley and Dr. A. H. Bowser were called to Ford City last Wednesday by the serious illness of Dr. Fred K. Booth, who has pneumonia. Dr. Booth is much better now and the doctors think he has passed the danger line. The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Reber, of Urbana, Ohio, formerly of this place, will be sorry to learn that their son, about a month old, died several days ago. The little body will be buried at Shippenville, Pa., beside the little daughter they buried when residing in Reynoldsville. Martin L. Hetrick says he was mistaken about making statement in THE STAR several weeks ago of some person stealing the lock off his sled that was on vacant lot near STAR office. They stole the whole front part of the bob sleds. It would be well for the persons to return the part of sled stolen. It was announced in THE STAR that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Clay Manufacturing Company would be held last Thursday to elect a board of directors and transact other business, but there was not enough stock represented to make a quorum and there was no election. The Enterprise Athletic Association team and Punsxutawney team will play basket ball in the Athletic Association rooms in this place on Friday evening of this week, January 19. Game will be called at 8.30. Admission 25 cents. A special trolley car will leave Reynoldsville after the game, at 10.45 p. m. for Punsxutawney. Committeemen having the matter in charge should bear in mind that under existing law February 23 is the last day for the filing of certificates of nomination for township and borough offices, and February 5th is the last day for the filing of nomination papers for borough and township officers. These papers should be filed with the County Commissioners, who will furnish the necessary blanks for that purpose. No holidays occur on Sunday this year. New Year's day was on Monday, Washington's birthday will be on Thursday, Memorial day on Wednesday, Independence day on Wednesday and Labor day on Monday. Other special days are Valentine's day on Wednesday, Hallowe'en on Wednesday, Thanksgiving, Nov. 29th, and Christmas on Tuesday. There will be only one eclipse, that of the moon, visible in this locality during the year. This will be at midnight on February 8th. The eclipse will be total.

McMillen-Phalen. Raul McMillen and Miss Catherine B. Phalen, both of this place, were united in marriage at the Catholic parsonage on Thursday evening, January 11, 1906. Father T. Brady officiated. Almost Fatal. The two and a half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Enfer drank a bottle of Dr. Hand's Colic Cure last Friday and was a pretty sick child for several hours. A doctor was called who gave the child an antidote and she recovered from the effects of the overdose of colic medicine. "Spiders" A large number of children attended the meeting in the Baptist church at 4.00 p. m. last Friday for "children only." Rev. C. H. Fitzwilliam, pastor of the Punsxutawney Baptist church, who has been assisting Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek in the revival meetings now in progress, delivered a very interesting and instructive address to the children. His subject was "Spiders." Change of Name. Stockholders in the American Production Company received notice last week that a meeting will be held in the company office in Reynoldsville at 2.00 p. m. Monday, January 22nd, for the purpose of taking action upon the changing of the name of the American Production Company to that of the Pittsburg Industrial Iron Works. License Court. License court was held at Brookville Monday and all the old licenses in the county were renewed, but only three new applicants were granted license. The new ones are: The New Commercial Hotel, Sykesville, Robert T. Smith, proprietor, The National Hotel, Punsxutawney, David W. Naylor, proprietor, Jackson House, Anita, John Jackson, proprietor. Fine Monument. Mrs. Reynolds had a fine monument set up last week at the grave of her husband, Albert Reynolds, in the Reynoldsville cemetery. It stands over six feet high and is of dark barrie granite. The Masonic emblem is on top of monument. It is one of the finest, if not the finest, monument in that cemetery. C. H. Chittister, marble dealer of New Bethlehem, set up the monument. Charged With Desertion. James Cox, of Pardus, was tried in the Jefferson county court last week for desertion and had his choice of paying a certain sum of money or serving six months in the county jail. James preferred to board with Sheriff Scheafnocker six months and was so sentenced. Some thirty years ago Jim was married and soon after went to Colorado and while residing in that state secured a divorce from his wife. Recently she had him arrested on charge of desertion and, as stated above, the case was tried last week and Jim is now in jail. Ladies Golden Eagle. D. G. T. Mrs. Tamar Sayers, of Pleasant Valley Temple, No. 25, Ladies Golden Eagle, installed the following officers in that Temple last Thursday evening: P. T. Mrs. Hannah Tyson; N. T. Mrs. Frances Reed; V. T. Mrs. Edith Helberg; M. of C. Miss Mollie Yenewine; Prop. Mrs. Dorothy McGinness; Priestess, Mrs. Araminta Tyson; G. of R. Mrs. Tamar Sayers; G. of F. Mrs. Eliza Reed; G. of Ex. Mrs. Hannah Yenewine; G. of M. Miss Frances Sayers; G. of I. P. Mrs. M. A. Cottle; G. of O. P., Mrs. M. A. Gricks. W. R. C. Officers. The following officers were installed in John C. Conser Women's Relief Corps No. 75: President, Mrs. William Barkley; Senior Vice, Mrs. Arthur O'Donnell; Junior Vice, Mrs. William Lucas; Chaplain, Mrs. J. D. Woodring; Treasurer, Mrs. Julia Reynolds; Conductor, Mrs. Elisha Evans; Guard, Mrs. Wayde Breakey; Assistant Guard, Mrs. Edward Barry; Assistant Conductor, Mrs. John Baum; Color Bearers, No. 1 Mrs. Robert Sayers, No. 2 Mrs. Nancy Foley, No. 3 Mrs. John Yenewine, No. 4 Mrs. Sam'l Saxon; Press Correspondent, Mrs. David Reynolds; Patriotic Instructor, Mrs. Clarence R. Hall; Musician, Mrs. Thomas C. Shields. DuBois Outclassed Friday Evening. In the game of basket ball played in the Athletic Association rooms at this place Friday evening between a "crack" team from DuBois and the Athletic team of Reynoldsville the visitors were outclassed and were badly defeated. The score was 49-9. The home team played a fine game. Their team work was too fast for the visitors and was a surprise to them. A large crowd witnessed the game. John Thornton, Fred McEntire, Ed. Cleer, Frank Bohren and E. A. Oberlin composed the Athletic team. The Courier does not know yet, or at least has not announced to its readers, that the first basket ball game of that town was defeated in a game at Reynoldsville Friday night. The acknowledgment, perhaps, would be too humiliating for that paper to make.

MELLINGER-SMITH NUPTIALS. Mr. George Mellinger, of Reynoldsville, married to a Kittanning Lady. George Mellinger, a prominent citizen of Reynoldsville, was united in marriage to Mrs. Lillian M. Smith at her home on North Grant Avenue, Kittanning, at 3.00 p. m. Tuesday, January 9, 1906. Rev. H. L. Mayers, D. D., performed the marriage ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Mellinger left Kittanning an hour after they were married on a short wedding trip to Buffalo and Niagara Falls. They came to Reynoldsville Saturday evening and will reside in Mr. Mellinger's fine residence at corner of Grant and Third streets. Mrs. Mellinger is highly spoken of by those who are personally acquainted with her. Mr. Mellinger, who was superintendent of the large coal works at Reynoldsville a number of years, is well known in this section. The announcement of his marriage was quite a surprise to many of his friends. Maro, the Magician. There is nothing more delightful to the little ones, or the older ones either, than an entertainment in magic. They have all read about Aladdin and his wonderful lamp. They have all read the fascinating books of Hans Anderson, and the marvelous "Grimm's Fairy Tales," and know the different wizards in these stories so well that if they met them on the street they wouldn't be the least afraid. But it is one thing to read about these wizards of "ye olden times" and quite another to see one in this enlightened day of the world. To be sure there are only a few, a very few real meritorious and recognized conjurers in our country to-day, and "the youngest of the great and the greatest of the young" of these wonder-workers is Maro. His easy graceful manner and pleasant conversational way of presenting things to his audience at once wins their confidence and esteem. For by his peculiar method of working he gives out the impression that he is not trying to deceive his audience, and to this fact alone may be attributed a greater portion of Maro's success, for his auditors at once become on friendly terms with him, and enter into the various illusions almost as ardently as the magician himself. Maro is always looking about him for something new, and is constantly presenting a program of late novelties. He may be termed a "popular conjuror," for he is just wise enough for the sedate, humorous enough for the jovial, refined enough for the fashionable, and just mysterious enough to please the old and the young alike. At Assembly hall Friday evening, January 20th. Augustave Hilbig. Augustave Hilbig, a well-known and respected citizen of Panic, died of paralysis Friday, January 5, aged 59 years, five months and two days, and was buried Sunday at 1.00 o'clock, p. m., Rev. H. G. Teagarden, of this place, assisted by Rev. Fulton of the U. B. church, Knoxdale officiating. Mr. Hilbig was first stricken with partial paralysis on New Year's day. On Wednesday a second attack followed after which he gradually passed into a state of unconsciousness. The deceased, who was born in Vardor, Saxony, Germany, came to this country in 1867. Seven years later he married Miss Ellen Dickey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Dickey, and settled at Panic, where he began his occupation, that of a blacksmith, which he followed successfully until stricken with paralysis.—Punsxutawney Spirit. Mr. Hilbig was a resident of Reynoldsville some years ago. Good Business. For past ten days our special "your move" sale was big success, of course all goods advertised in this sale were not all sold—some lots were cleaned out, some lots few left—which will be sold at same prices as advertised in last week's sale. The 16 skirts were sold first 3 days. Now we have 16 men's overcoats at one-third off the regular price. Don't wait too long on this bargain in overcoats. Bing-Stoke Co. Notice. The Republican primaries of the borough of Reynoldsville will be held Saturday, January 27, 1906, from 3.00 to 8.00 p. m. Voters of second precinct vote at borough lookup; first precinct at home house. COMMITTEE. LOST—On Jan. 15, between bridge and Jos. McKernan's residence, Pike st., West Reynoldsville, one small black pocket book containing $9.05 and one large medal. Finder will return to Margaret McKernan and be properly rewarded. John Probia left a package at the National Hotel which he is requested to call and get.—It Don't fail to see "The King of Rogues," due at the Reynolds opera house on Thursday, Jan. 18th, and is one of the biggest melodramas on the road, exciting scenes and thrilling climaxes follow in rapid succession, and the four acts are said to contain more realistic features than three dramas of the ordinary kind put together. Dr. McCoy will visit patients in Reynoldsville Monday afternoon, January 22, stopping at Imperial Hotel.

DR. FOUST A CANDIDATE. Prominent Citizen of Reynoldsville After Nomination for Assembly. Dr. J. W. Foust, a prominent citizen of Reynoldsville, is a Republican candidate for the nomination for Assemblyman from Jefferson county. Dr. Foust is well and favorably known in the county, having been an active politician for a number of years. He served one term as associate judge in Jefferson county; he has been a member of the school board in Reynoldsville twenty-seven years, consecutively, was postmaster in Reynoldsville four years, is president of the Star Glass Co. and is interested in other industries in this place. Dr. Foust is well qualified to represent the people of Jefferson county in the legislative halls; he would look after their interests faithfully. Considering the fact that Dr. Foust is a capable man for the office and that never has a citizen of Reynoldsville represented Jefferson county as Assemblyman, it would seem but right and just that Dr. Foust be given the nomination at the primary election on the 20th of next month. Number of Dogs Killed. The latter part of December N. A. Fulmore, of Philadelphia, special agent for the State Live Stock Sanitary Board, under the direction of Dr. Leonard Pearson, State Veterinarian, came to Reynoldsville and had notices posted, and also published in THE STAR, notifying owners of dogs in Reynoldsville, West Reynoldsville and Winslow township, that all dogs were quarantined for a period of 100 days from December 27, 1905. The notice will be found on the eighth page of this issue of THE STAR. If you have not read it, do so this week. Mr. Fulmore returned to Reynoldsville last Wednesday and found that the notice had been disregarded and that a number of dogs were running the streets and public roads without muzzles on. Mr. Fulmore hired a man to do the shooting and they started out Thursday to look for unmuzzled dogs. Seven or eight dogs in the borough were shot and then dog owners muzzled or tied their dogs. Mr. Fulmore and his assistant went to Rathmel and Soldier Friday and Saturday and shot a number of dogs. Mr. Fulmore will make occasional trips to Reynoldsville during the dog quarantine and if you don't want your dog killed you had better not disregard the warning the State Live Stock Sanitary Board has given. Mr. Fulmore is likely to make his appearance most any day in the borough or township and your dog, if not muzzled, may be shot and legal proceedings may be brought against you for disregarding the law in this matter. To Provide Proper Treatment. The cases of hydrophobia or rabies that have been reported in different parts of the State recently have prompted Commissioner of Health Samuel G. Dixon to call attention to an act passed by the last legislature and approved by Governor Pennypacker March 31, 1905, as the act seems apparently little known. It provides for furnishing treatment to needy persons who have been bitten by mad dogs and reads as follows: That in each and every county of this Commonwealth it shall be the duty of the proper officers of the several poor districts, in such counties, to provide all needy persons, who may be bitten by dogs suffering from hydrophobia or rabies, with the proper medical attention to prevent the development of the disease in the person or persons so bitten, which medical attention may include the treatment known as the Pasteur treatment. Special Attraction. "The King of Rogues," a four act melodrama, is to be the offering at the Reynolds opera house on Thursday evening, Jan. 18th. It is at the present time, one of the most popular plays on road and if the many thrilling climaxes count for success, it may then be said that "The King of Rogues" leads all competitors. While the action is brisk and sensational, it can be truthfully said that the play is not of the clap trap order, as it is well constructed and mounted with due regard for the many opportunities for lavish scenic display. The presenting company is strictly first class and the one big melodramatic sensation of the season may be expected. Seats on sale at the Stoke drug store. Ladies' Coats. Prices cut in two; not many left. $7.50 coats now $3.50; $10.00 coats now $5.00. You pay just half the former price. Bing-Stoke Co. "Notice to Farmers." Lancaster almanacs 10c at the Reynolds Drug Co. Send 10c with carrier, or call. Found. The best $3.50 shoe made, Harmon's surpass, all leathers. Ucanmatchem—Harmon's shoes. Blank house leases may be obtained in any quantity at THE STAR office. Save 30 per cent on shoes and rubbers at the Cash New York Racket Store.
