One of the biggest musical farce comedy successes of the season, Stephens and Linton's "My Wife's Family," will open an engagement of one night at the Reynolds opera house Feb. 24th. It has a plot that is somewhat new to theatergoers, but it is one of those that is bound to please and hold the attention of the audience as few farces can. From the rising of the curtain until the final drop, merriment reigns supreme. The costumes, scenery, music and dances furnish a feast to delight the eye and ear of the most refined.

While Arthur Don and Frank Beamish, those exceptionally clever comedians, are given ample opportunity to display their abilities, it is a performance given by sterling comedians and comedienne, bubbling over with wit, humor, song and artistic specialties. Mirth-provoking situations, in which the leading characters participate, drive dull care away and crown a deluge of delightful diversions with a pleasurable sensation which always follows a hearty laugh.

There has been no expense spared to make this the leading musical farce comedy of the season. Nature and art have been drawn upon and they have responded in the most lavish manner. The theme of the play is the time honored mother-in-law idea; but it is presented in an entirely new way and is uproariously funny. Jack Gay, the husband, engages the services of Doc Knott, a man about town, to rid his home of his mother-in-law and all her relations. The complications which follow Knott's attempts to fulfill this service for his friend, are side-splitting.

The comedy is handsomely costumed, correctly staged and cast with the following well known players: Arthur Don, Frank Beamish, Tom Linton, George Gale, William Collins, Rita Knight, Minnie May Thompson, Mabel Grey, Maude Wensley, Lillian Northorpe, Gussie Dorothea and Mattie Dorothea. Specialties of a high class nature and very entertaining will be given by various members of the organization. Seats on sale at the Stoke drug store. Admission 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

Deer Foot Tribe Instituted.

Friday night of last week a tribe of the Improved Order of Red Men was instituted at Brookville with a membership of sixty-four. The new tribe will be known as Deer Foot Tribe. About fifty members of Mazomania Tribe of Reynoldsville participated in the institution of Deer Foot Tribe. District Deputy Great Sachem Grant Rhoads and Mazomania Tribe Degree Team instituted the tribe. A couple of hundred Red Men from various tribes were present. A big street parade was given in the evening. A feast was spread after the tribe was instituted. The Reynoldsville Red Men say they were royally provided for by the Brookville tribe.

Barclay-Nichols Wedding.

D. Cearing Barclay and Miss Blanche Nichols, two highly esteemed young people of this place, were married at Limestone, N. Y., Monday of last week, February 12, 1906. They returned home Tuesday evening on the five o'clock train. A table was set and waiting, with all the bounties of the season, which was prepared by Mrs. E. C. Melzer and sisters Edna and Maude Nichols. Many friends called and they all enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Mr. Barclay is a young man of energy and is worthy of the wife he acquires. With happy congratulations their many friends of this vicinity wish them a happy and prosperous life in the future.

Collision on Low Grade.

Wednesday morning of last week the westbound passenger train due here at 6.30 a. m. collided with a freight train on the Iowa passing siding about seven o'clock. After the freight train had backed into siding to wait for the passenger train to pass, the brakeman neglected to close the switch and the passenger train ran on to siding and collided with freight train. Fortunately the train had stopped at Iowa station, a short distance east of the side track, to take on a passenger, or the collision would have been more serious, as the engineer had not gotten up full speed when the collision occurred. The passenger engine was badly damaged, Engineer Edward Hause, known as "Shorty" Hause, was slightly injured, Fireman William Clusterman had his left ankle sprained in jumping from engine. No one else injured. Engineer Hause did not see the open switch in time to jump from his engine and had train been running at full speed he would have been killed. The big freight engine was not badly damaged.

FORMER CITIZEN DEAD.

Richard B. Taylor Died Suddenly at His Home in Butler.

Richard B. Taylor, who was a resident of Reynoldsville a quarter of a century ago, died suddenly at his home in Butler on Sunday morning, February 18, 1906. Heart trouble was cause of his sudden demise. Mr. Taylor was in his 74th year. For some years Mr. Taylor was a large contractor and was well known in this section. Among the buildings Mr. Taylor erected were the old M. E. church at Reynoldsville that was torn down last summer, the county court house at Brookville, Butler county court house at Butler, Schuylkill county court house at Pottsville, opera house at Clearfield, high school buildings at Mansfield and Kitzanning. Wesley Motter, of this place, assisted Mr. Taylor in the erection of some, if not all, of these and a number of other large buildings.

Mr. Taylor was one of the organizers and the first president of the Butler County National bank. He was also the first president of the Bradford Glass Company. He operated extensively in the oil fields of Butler and Allegheny counties and made and lost considerable money in the oil business.

Mr. Taylor is survived by his wife, one son and three daughters, William J. Taylor, of Butler, Mrs. C. C. Benecoter, of Brookville, Mrs. G. S. Swope, of East Brady, Pa., and Mrs. E. C. Hughes, of Chicago.

Bad Payers Exposed.

Nearly all the merchants of this and neighboring towns have united in supporting a system for their mutual protection. This work is known as the "Merchant's and Professional Men's Credit Manual," a book in which will be recorded the names of all persons who ignore paying their just bills together with the amount, what is owed for and the date of transaction. Each subscriber will have this book for reference and be in position to protect himself against the individuals who go the "rounds" paying for little or nothing. Better pay up or you may soon find your name amongst the "black sheep" and credit refused you in the future.—It

These bonds are a first and prior lien on all of the real estate, buildings, machinery, equipments, franchises, property and revenues of the American Production Company, and a special condition in the mortgage provides that bonds to the amount of $2,500.00 shall be retired every year, after the first two years.
