THOS. J. WHITE MORTALLY INJURED AT GLEN CAMPBELL

Died in Adrian Hospital Monday and Body was brought to Reynoldsville for Interment.

Thomas J. White, of Reynoldsville, met with an accident in the coal shaft at Glen Campbell, Indiana county, about 8:00 a. m. on Wednesday of last week which resulted in his death in the Adrian Hospital at 6:00 a. m. Monday of this week, February 19, 1906. It is miraculous that Mr. White was not instantly killed, and had it not been for a strong constitution he would not have survived as long as he did. The shaft is 133 feet deep. At one time a pump was used in the shaft and an inch and one-quarter steam pipe ran from top down into the mine. The pump was taken out, but the steam pipe was not removed and the frequent blasting in the shaft loosened the pipe until it finally fell and caused the fatal accident. Wednesday morning, coming off night shift, Mr. White and another miner were standing in the bucket waiting to be lifted out of mine, when a sixty foot piece of the steam pipe became disconnected at top of shaft and shot swiftly down the shaft, striking Mr. White on left shoulder and tearing its way down through his body, coming out within two inches of the rectum. The sixty foot piece of iron pipe had to be pulled up through the body to get it out. It was an excruciating ordeal for Mr. White and a heart sickening task for the men to perform, but it had to be done. Mr. White was taken to the National Hotel and everything possible was done for his comfort. The doctors did not expect him to live many hours, but Thursday morning there seemed to be a possible chance of saving his life and he was moved to the Adrian hospital at Punxsutawney. He seemed to get along nicely up until Sunday afternoon and his loved ones began to have hopes that he would recover, but Sunday evening his condition changed for the worse and at daybreak Monday his spirit took its flight to the Eternal Land.

The body was brought to Hughes & Fleming's undertaking rooms in this place Monday afternoon, prepared for burial and taken to the family residence Monday night.

Thomas White was born in England May 30, 1858, and would have been 48 years old next May. He came to America in 1880. In 1883 he was married to Mary Ann Pillow at Mannona, Mich. They came to Reynoldsville in 1885. He is survived by his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. John Cottle, his wife, six children, Bessie, Thomas, William, Mary, George, Leona and one brother, William White.

Mr. White was a coal miner by occupation and had worked in the mines at this place a number of years. He had only worked at Glen Campbell about three weeks. He was a member of the United Mine Workers of America. Had been secretary of the Local Union several years, was a delegate to the National convention a couple of times. Politically he was a Republican and took some active part in political affairs. Was auditor in this borough one term. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias Lodge and Knights of Golden Eagle of Reynoldsville. Members of these lodges will attend the funeral in a body.

Funeral will be held at the family residence at 2.00 p. m. to-morrow, Thursday, conducted by Rev. Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, and interment will be made in the Reynoldsville cemetery.

Mrs. Thos. Claubaugh Dead.

Mrs. Thomas Claubaugh died at her home on Main street at 8.00 a. m. Monday, February 19th, 1906, after a month's illness with heart trouble. Her maiden name was Jermania Fetterman. She was born in Indiana county, Pa., March 14th, 1851, and would have been fifty-five years old next month. Funeral service will be held at the family residence at 2.00 p. m. to-day, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, and interment will be made in Beechwood cemetery.

Off For California. Mrs. Elizabeth Ashman and two daughters, Misses Lillian and May, of Reynoldsville, and Caleb Ashman, wife and daughter, Miss Olive, of DuBois, started yesterday for Sacramento, California, where they will likely remain permanently. Miss Lillian Ashman is a robust girl and it is hoped that the California climate will benefit her health.

Fine Elocutionist.

Rev. Dr. Driver delivered his "Long-fellow" lecture here Friday to the largest and most refined audience that ever assembled in the church. The doctor is a fine elocutionist and changed his audience from laughter to tears at will.—Chicago Times. At Assembly hall March 1st.

Soot burning in a chimney at Frank P. Alexander's residence on Grant street a few minutes before twelve o'clock yesterday raised a big smoke and called out the fire company, but their service was not needed. The burning soot set fire to a few shingles but they were damp and there was no damage done.

See Martha and George at I. O. O. F. hall Feb. 22, 1906.
