ITALIAN SHOT TO DEATH.

Man Supposed to Have Done Shooting Now in Jail.

Sunday night about nine o'clock Antonio Mazzo was shot and killed instantly in an Italian boarding house at Walston. County Coroner Kyle and District Attorney Murray held an inquest at Punxsutawney yesterday and as a result of inquest Frank Marigliano is in the county jail to be tried at the April term of court for killing Mazzo. The evidence was strong against Marigliano as the man who shot Mazzo, but whether the commonwealth can prove it a case of murder will be determined when the case is tried in court. Mazzo and several other Italians had gone with another Italian, who was intoxicated, to his boarding house and went up stairs with him. There was no one in the house when they entered, but while they were up stairs some of the boarders came home and began shooting at them and they shot back. It was during this fusiliade that Mazzo noldsville cannot afford to lose control of was killed.

Sergeant R. P. Logan, of the State police, brought Marigliano to Reynoldsville on the 7.10 trolley last evening, and from here to Brookville on the eight o'clock train. A large number of men and boys followed the officer and his prisoner down to the train.

Butler 19, Reynoldsville 14.

The team of all stars from Butler which played the Enterprise Athletics game of basket ball on the Reynoldsville floor Monday evening of this week, won by a score of 19 to 14. There never was a game played in Reynoldsville so skillfully contested or which furnished as much excitement for the spectators as this one. The Butler boys won by no chance or good luck but by superb passing and shooting of the ball. The game was very close throughout and Manager Dawson has good reason to be proud of the showing of the Enterprise team against the Butlerites-the strongest five they have weakened by the absence of Cleer but Deible and McKee made good substitutes. The first half ended with the core 7-11 in favor of Butler and ther was a time during the second half when Reynoldsville needed but one score to tie with their opponents. It was then that excitement reached fever heighth and the Reynoldsville players struggled like demons to guide the lightningwinged ball towards their basket, but in vain. It was good clean sport thoroughly appreciated by the big

Debt Should be Paid.

Several years ago a number of enterprising citizens, interested in Reynoldsville's prosperity, organized a company known as the Reynoldsville Land and Improvement Company and solicited money from our citizens to buy a large tract of land south of town to be given to industries looking for a location as an inducement, with all our other natural advantages, to get them to locate in Reynoldsville. There are now six good industries located on that tractthat would not likely have been located here had it not been for the excellent free site that the town had to give for that purpose. All the citizens who should have done so, did not contribute money to purchase the land and the Improvement Co. found it necessary to borrow some money and there is still about $1,500 of a debt to be paid. There is more than enough unoccupied land to pay the debt, but the Land Improve ment Co. wants to keep the land for free sites, which is the right thing to do. Reythis land and an effort should be made to raise enough money by subscription to pay for the land, and every person interested in the town's future should be willing to help a little in paying this

Reynoldsville Summer School

Reynoldsville's summer school begins Monday, May 14th, and will continue eight weeks. The purpose of the school is sevenfold. To give instruction (1) to teachers of elementary schools who desire to pursue further study; (2) to teachers who desire to review before taking teachers' examination; (3) to students who wish to prepare themselves for teaching; (4) to high school students who have college requirements to satisfy; (5) to public school pupils who have failed or who desire to make themselves stronger in their grades; (6) to anyone desiring special work, as in French or German; (6) to beginners who wish to get a start before regular erm opens.

There will be a corps of competent eachers in charge. The tuition for normal and high school work will be $7.00 per term or $1.00 per week for less than term. For grammar, intermediate and primary instruction $5.00 or 75 cents per week. Tuition due at enrollment. Application should be made at an early date. Address, C. J. Scott.

"A Woman's Power."

"In a Woman's Power," that is billed to appear at Reynolds opera house Tuesday, March 20, is a tale of country life in England, it tells a story of a mar inder the guise of a peasant who goes about among the poorer class playing a violin and is known by the name of "Fiddlestrings." In reality, "Fiddle-strings" is a nobleman born, but having quarrelled with his father when but left his home and elder brother behind forever. Nothing more is heard of him by his relatives until in the last act the elder brother discovers in the famous "Fiddlestrings" his only

"Fiddlestrings."

"In a Woman's Power," a melo-drama hat comes to the Reynolds opera house darch 20 with Mr. True S. James in the great character of "Fiddlestrings," s one of the best of its kind seen at popular prices. Mr. James as "Fiddlegives to the stage a most unique character. An accurate des-cription of "Fiddlestrings" may be of uterest to the reader.

"Fiddlestrings," as he is seen in the play is a strong, jolly, good natured Bohemian, who has travelled all over the world, and in England, his native country, is known by all the rich and poor alike; but being a commoner in all his principles, he associates only with his own class of people, who love im for his many acts of kindness and numan philosophy, and the many cheer-ul hours he has charmed them with nis rendition of many melodies upon violin. All they know of him and all they care to know, is that he is their idol, bearing only the unique name of "Fiddlestrings." Seats on sale at the stoke drug store.

DuBois Team Won.

A bowling team from DuBois defeated Reynoldsville team at The Grand Bowling alleys in this place last Thursday evening by 16 pins. It was, perhaps, the finest game all through that was ever played at this place. The total pins: DuBois, 2502; Reynoldsville, 2576. The Reynoldsville players were: Fred Foley, Joseph Williams, Edward Hoganmiller, Hugh Morrison, J. M. Dailey. John T. Barkley, former r of The Grand, who has ac epted a position as traveling salesman the DuBois Candy Company, played with the DuBois team and m nighest score marked to the credit of any of the DuBois players.
