The Reynolds Drug Co.

A Little of Everything.

Sleighting parties were numerous last week. Two weeks from next Sunday until Easter. Next Sunday is "April fools" day, April 1st. The trout season opens April 15 and closes July 15. The West Reynoldsville meat market has been closed. Born to Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Merritt Monday, March 26, 1906, a son. Ten days sleighing after the middle of March is the record made in 1906. The barbers of Pittsburg have raised the price of a shave from 10 to 15 cents. J. N. McEntire has moved from Reynoldsville to Blacklick Station, Indiana Co. Moving pictures in colors at Assembly hall next Monday evening, April 2nd. Eight degrees below zero last Friday morning was pretty chilly for a spring morning. Sunday was another busy day for the liverymen. Horses and sleighs were in big demand. Several township schools have closed and most of the others will close in the next two weeks. From July 1, 1905, to January 1, 1906, there were 1023 births and 308 deaths in Jefferson county. The Mission Band of the Presbyterian Sunday school held a social in the chapel last evening. The auditors report of the finances of Winslow township will be found in this issue of THE STAR. The Baptist church will hold its annual business meeting on Tuesday evening at 7.30, April 4th. Witnesses are now being secured for the breach of promise suit that is to be tried in Reynoldsville next month. It was reported here last evening that "Cap" Donahue, formerly of this place, had been killed at Barnesboro Sunday. The Utopia Society will hold a social at home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gillespie on Fifth street Friday evening. Some of our citizens went to Punsxutawney last Friday evening to see "Wizard of Oz" in the Jefferson Theatre. There are parties in town getting up a directory for Reynoldsville, Punsxutawney, Big Run, Sykesville and DuBois. The spring session of the Clarion Presbytery will be held in the Brookville Presbyterian church April 17 and 18. W. G. Brenholtz, proprietor of the Star Dairy Wagon, has been off duty a couple of weeks nursing a carbuncle on his neck.

Prof. Elliott, trainer for commencement, will arrive here Saturday or Sunday and will get the pupils in training next week. Ford Fink, who was in a Pittsburg hospital with typhoid fever, has recuperated sufficient to be able to return to his home in this place. It is expected now that the new Methodist Episcopal church in this place will be dedicated April 29th, four weeks from next Sunday. It is reported that there were ten small wrecks on the Low Grade Division in two days last week, seven on Tuesday and three on Wednesday. Postmaster Edward C. Burns has been recommended by Congressman W. O. Smith for re-appointment as postmaster at Reynoldsville. Thieves broke into two stations on the Low Grade Division, at Falls Creek and Fuller, Sunday night, but got very little plunder for their trouble. The public road near top of hill back of West Reynoldsville was drifted full of snow and impassable all of last week. Teams had to go through the fields. George R. Adam, editor of Brockwayville Record, has been recommended by Congressman W. O. Smith for the postmastership at Brockwayville. The monthly meeting of the M. E. stewards was held at home of Dr. L. L. Means Monday evening. Fine refreshments were served after the meeting. On the criminal trial list of the April term of court, beginning the second Monday in April, there are two murder cases and one case of assault with intent to kill. A preliminary meeting of the stockholders of the new opera house was held last night to make arrangements for applying for charter and some other matters. The ladies of Presbyterian church will hold an apron sale and market at the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store on Saturday afternoon and evening, March 31. The Brockwayville Record, George R. Adam editor and publisher, entered its twenty-second year last Friday. The Record is one of the best papers published in the county. Ben McEnteer, of DuBois, an erstwhile Reynoldsville boy, now a student at Kiskiminitas, played with the Kiski Independent basketball team at this place Monday night. Genuine moving pictures in natural colors will be exhibited in Assembly hall next Monday afternoon at 4.00 and in the evening at 8.15. All the great popular masterpieces. John H. Bell, of Punsxutawney, former citizen of this place, accompanied the delegation of I. O. O. F. from Punsxutawney and Lindsey who were in town Saturday night. John M. Stephenson, who is working at Summersville now, but whose family reside in Pittsburg, was in town this week. He just returned from spending a couple of weeks at his home. Mrs. Ethel Bates, clerk in the Adams Express office, was sick several days the past week and Express Agent Jos. Shaffer did the office work and Thomas Black had charge of the express wagon. The Jeffersonian Gold Medal Minstrels will play in the Belvidere opera house at Brookville to-morrow, Thursday, night. The company will return to Reynoldsville on a special train after the performance. On the ninth sleep of Plant Moon—April 9th—the Improved Order of Red Men of Reynoldsville will hold a public installation in their lodge room on third floor of the Boyle building, over Stoke and Feicht Drug Co. store. The Indiana high school basketball team will play the Reynoldsville high school team in the Enterprise Athletic Association rooms in this place on Friday evening, March 30. Game will be called at 8.30. Admission 25 cents. Rev. E. T. Chisholm, who was pastor of the Falls Creek Presbyterian church several years, has resigned that pastorate and gone to Gridley, California. Rev. Chisholm closed his work at Falls Creek Sunday and the Presbyterian pulpit at that place has been declared vacant. A sleighing party from a neighboring town came to Reynoldsville one night last week and got supper at Bohren's Cafe. After the party had gone about a dozen silver teaspoons were missed. When accused of taking the spoons they denied the charge and the spoons have not been found. The Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association is now working in the thirty-third series. The eleventh series matured last November and the twelfth series will close in May or June. This building and loan association has been the most successful of any similar association in this section of the country. A party was given at home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herpel in West Reynoldsville last Thursday evening in honor of Curt Mueller, Cornell University student, who was the guest of Harry Herpel. There were fifteen young people present. Games were played. Luncheon was served. It was a pleasant party.

MINERS TO QUIT WORK.

Miners and Operators in Convention at Indianapolis Have Failed to Reach an Agreement. The miners and operators in convention at Indianapolis have failed to agree yet on wage scale and the indications are that the joint convention will adjourn without reaching a settlement. On account of the unchanged condition at Indianapolis and the fact that the present working agreement expires April 1st, all the miners in District No. 2, which includes the mines of this section, have been notified by the district officials to suspend work after March 31st. The suspension to continue until the miners and operators of the district meet at Clearfield April 3rd. Won Another Game. The Enterprise Athletic Association basketball team defeated the Kiskiminitas Independent team in a game in the Association rooms at this place on Monday evening. The score was 32 to 17. Big Crop of Onions. D. W. Deemer, a nearby farmer, was in town Saturday and sold the last bushel of 160 bushels of fine onions raised on his farm last year. Mr. Deemer did not have much trouble in selling his onions. Meetings Closed. The evangelistic meetings held in the Presbyterian church three weeks, closed last Friday evening. Sunday morning four persons were received into the church by letter and thirteen on confession of faith. Buried Sunday. Three-day-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Addison Wells, of West Reynoldsville, died Friday night, March 23, 1906, and was buried Sunday afternoon. Funeral service was held at the family residence at 2.00 p. m., conducted by Rev. J. A. Parsons. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery. Normal Team Defeated. The Clarion State Normal School basketball team played the Enterprise Athletic Association team of Reynoldsville in the Association rooms at this place last Thursday evening. The home team won the game by a score of 24 to 16. The visitors played good ball but the home team was to fast for them. Miners' Convention Postponed. The convention of District No. 2, United Mine Workers of America, that was to have been held at Clearfield yesterday has been postponed until Tuesday of next week, April 3rd. The postponement was necessary on account of the district officers being in attendance at the national convention in Indianapolis. Initiation and Banquet. Last Saturday evening about seventy Odd Fellows from Punsxutawney and Lindsey visited the I. O. O. F. lodge in Reynoldsville. They brought two candidates to be initiated in the second Degree. The Reynoldsville Degree Team initiated them. After lodge adjourned a banquet was enjoyed by the visitors and home members. Headley & Merica Dissolve. N. A. Headley and L. A. Merica, who were engaged in the mercantile business under the firm name of Headley & Merica, dissolved partnership on Monday of this week, Mr. Merica retiring from the business. Mr. Headley, who is an enterprising and hustling young man, will continue the business. His store is located at the corner of Main and Tenth street. Association Building. J. W. Dawson and others interested in the Enterprise Athletic Association are talking of organizing a stock company and erecting a building this year for the Association. Mr. Dawson thinks enough stock can be sold to buy a site and erect a comfortable and suitable building for the association. Six per cent will be paid on the money invested. Death of An Infant. Elmer Elsworth Riggs, six-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Riggs, of Allegheny City, died Friday, was brought to home of Mrs. Riggs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William DeHart, in this place at noon Saturday and was buried in the Reynoldsville cemetery Sunday afternoon. Rev. J. C. McEntire conducted funeral service at residence of Mr. DeHart. Pneumonia was cause of death. Father of the baby is a son of W. M. Riggs, Fifth street grocer. The parents have the sympathy of their numerous friends in Reynoldsville. Birthday Anniversary. Friday, March 23, was the 71st birthday for W. J. Boner, of Sandy Valley, and Mrs. Boner decided to give her husband a birthday surprise by inviting the pastor and session of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church to take dinner at the Boner residence on Friday. The wives of members of session were included. Squire W. L. Johnston and wife, Miss Mary Johnston, James Campbell and wife and A. T. McClure were all that were able to attend. Mr. Boner was in Reynoldsville that day and went up to Sandy Valley on same train with the Reynoldsville guests and before reaching his residence it dawned on Mr. Boner that it was his birthday and that there was "something doing." It was an enjoyable social gathering.

KILLED ON RAILROAD.

Giacomo Angiolini Struck by a Passenger Train Yesterday. The westbound P. R. R. passenger train, due here at 5.07 p. m., Charles H. Montgomery engineer, and James Martin conductor, struck and killed Giacomo Angiolini, an Austrian, near Pancost yesterday. The report is that Angiolini was walking on the track when the train struck him. His neck was broken, two and a half inch gash cut in his head, right hip broken and right leg broken above the knee. Angiolini had been working at Sherwood mine, but had quit, gotten his time and had gone to DuBois yesterday to get his money, having about $30.00 coming to him, and was returning home when killed. The body was brought to Priester Bros. undertaking rooms and prepared for burial. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery. Very Narrow Escape. George A. Farrell, son of M. J. Farrell, of this place, who is employed in the office of Harbison & Walker Brick Works at Homestead, had a narrow escape from being instantly killed one day last week. George and two other men were sitting at their desks in the company office working when a car heavily loaded with steel jumped the track and crashed into the office, completely wrecking the building, destroying the office furniture and fixtures and valuable books and documents. The escape of the men was miraculous. It is hardly necessary to add that they were badly frightened, and they had good reason to be frightened. Will Receive Due Consideration. W. W. Wiley, proprietor of the City Hotel, who is very much interested in the future prosperity of Reynoldsville, received the following letter several days ago from the manager of a large industry in New York City that is talking of looking for a new location: "We are in receipt of your esteemed favor of 19th inst., and in reply have to say that we have not decided on any location for any probable change we may make, nor are we likely to for some time to come, but when we do Reynoldsville will receive due consideration." Visited New Bethlehem Council. Friday evening of last week the following seven members of Century Council No. 789, Royal Arcanum, of Reynoldsville, went to New Bethlehem and installed new officers in the Royal Arcanum Council in that place: M. J. Farrell, W. W. Higgins, J. W. Gillespie, M. E. Weed, Solomon Friedman, L. L. Gourley and Harry K. Pifer. There was a banquet after the installation. The Reynoldsville gentlemen were well pleased with the hospitality given them at New Bethlehem. Matinee Monday Afternoon. Thomas A. Edison's genuine moving pictures in natural colors, with noise effects, will be exhibited in Assembly hall at matinee next Monday afternoon at four o'clock and in the evening at 8.15. This is claimed to be an exhibition of the highest quality and perfection. All the great popular masterpieces. Tickets on sale at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store Friday morning, March 30. Reserved seats 30 cents; general admission 10 and 20 cents. Put the Lid On. On account of a number of cases of measles and scarlet fever at Rathmel, and in some cases the parents were not obeying the quarantine law, a representative of the State Board of Health visited Rathmel last week to see that the quarantine law would be strictly obeyed. A Reynoldsville doctor said yesterday, "The lid is on tight now and there is not much danger of the diseases spreading at Rathmel." Congregational Meeting. On Wednesday evening of next week, April 4, at eight o'clock, the annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church will be held. Reports will be heard from all organizations connected with the church and new officers will be elected. After the business meeting the ladies of the congregation will serve refreshments. All church members are expected to attend. Kindly Respond. A number of our subscribers have kindly responded to the notices we sent out recently of the delinquency on subscriptions, but there are others whom we have not heard from yet: We will appreciate it if all will give this matter their attention as soon as possible. There are a few notices we have not sent out yet, but they will be mailed this week. Opening, Saturday March 31, in the Centennial hall—J. J. Long's new bargain store. If you want to buy or sell anything, or lose or find anything, try our "want" column. Sure of good results. Take your watches to Samuel Katzen the jeweler, who guarantees all his work for one year. Next door to post-office, Reynoldsville. B fit properly in the latest style shoes at Harmon's.

Debt Must be Paid.

Mention was made in THE STAR two weeks ago that the Reynoldsville Land Improvement Company still owed about $1,400 on the tract of land south of town that was purchased for the purpose of giving free sites to industries looking for location. We have been informed that unless the money is raised before the fifteenth of April to pay the note of $1,400 the Land Improvement Company owes to the Albert Reynolds estate, that C. W. Flynn, Esq., attorney for the executrix of the aforesaid estate, will proceed to collect the amount by the law process. Neither Mrs. Reynolds nor her lawyer are desirous of selling the land by sheriff sale to get their claim, but they want to get estate settled and want the note paid for that purpose. The Reynoldsville Land and Improvement Co. will make a mistake if they let the free site land get out of their control. Whatever is done will have to be done quickly. An effort should be made to pay off the note and hold the land. Moving Pictures. The moving pictures at the Presbyterian church last night under the auspices of the R. R. Y. M. C. A., was a decided success. The audience was a large one considering the blizzard which prevailed. The color effect was a new feature and the noise effect made the pictures appear real lifelike. It was conceded by many to be the best moving picture entertainment ever given in DuBois. A new program will be given to-night. By numerous requests, the Train Robbery will be repeated and on account of not having a matinee Jack and the Bean Stalk will be shown. Come and bring the children.—DuBois Morning Courier. At Assembly hall April 2. Admission 10, 20 and 30 cents. Reserved seat tickets will be on sale at Stoke & Feicht drug store Saturday morning. Lutheran Church Services. Trinity Lutheran church, Rev. J. W. Myers pastor. Services next Sunday at 7.30 p. m. Lenten service Friday at 7.30 p. m. Confirmation and communion service on Easter Sunday. Passion service each evening, except Saturday evening, during the week before Easter. Emerickville Lutheran church. Service next Sunday at 10.30 a. m. Lenten service Wednesday at 7.30 p. m. Confirmation and communion on Easter Sunday at 3.00 p. m. Chestnut Grove Lutheran church. Service next Sunday at 2.30 p. m. Lenten service Thursday at 7.30 p. m. Confirmation and communion on Palm Sunday, April 8, at 2.30 p. m. City Milliners. Misses Dailey and Loidold, experienced and first-class milliners from New York City and Buffalo, N. Y., are opening a millinery store on the balcony of Milliners department store in this place. On Thursday of next week, April 5, they will have their spring opening of New York and Buffalo pattern hats. They extend a general invitation to all the ladies of Reynoldsville and vicinity to attend this opening. Miss Murphy, pianist, pupil of Dresden Conservatory of Germany, will play Thursday. Come and hear her. Progressive Salmagundi. Miss Faunie Alexander entertained a number of young people at her home on Grant street last night in honor of the five school mates visiting her, whose names appear in the personal column. Progressive Salmagundi was the entertainment for the evening. Fine refreshments were served. Carpets and Rugs. Our new spring lines of carpets and rugs surpasses any we have ever had for beauty, style or values. We carry also a large stock of linoleum, oil cloths and matings. Our lace curtains, portiers and couch covers attract the attention of all buyers. Our art and china department is the largest ever shown in the town. Call, look and be convinced. C. R. Hall. Fire at Kane. In the big fire at Kane Monday afternoon all the household goods of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Clayton were burned. Mrs. Clayton has been visiting at home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Marshall, in this place the past ten days and was not at Kane when her goods were destroyed. Williamsport Commercial College. Spring term begins Monday, April 16th. Thirty students placed in good positions during March. Write for catalogue. F. F. HEALEY, Prop. Souvenir postal cards of the new and old M. E. churches are on sale at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store, Bing-Stoke Co. department store and at THE STAR printing office. Opening, Saturday, March 31, in the Centennial hall—J. J. Long's new bargain store. If you want to buy or sell anything, or lose or find anything, try our "want" column. Sure of good results. Take your watches to Samuel Katzen the jeweler, who guarantees all his work for one year. Next door to post-office, Reynoldsville. B fit properly in the latest style shoes at Harmon's.

MRS. MICHAEL BEST DEAD.

She was in Her Seventy-Ninth Year—Had Resided in this Section All Her Life. Mrs. Juliana Best, widow of Michael Best, who died seven years ago, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Augustus Schugers, near Hopkins, Winslow township, at 7.40 p. m. Wednesday, March 21st, 1906. She was sick three weeks. Old age was cause of her death. Funeral service was held in the Lutheran church at Emerickville Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. D. E. Baldwin. Interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery at Emerickville. Mrs. Best joined the Lutheran church when a girl. Deceased was born on the old Deemer homestead in Paradise 79 years ago. Her maiden name was Juliana Deemer, daughter of Jonathan Deemer, deceased. She is survived by five daughters and three sons, Mrs. Augustus Schugers, of Hopkins, Mrs. Frank Schugers, of Horntown, Mrs. H. L. Hoke, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. S. S. Blas and Mrs. W. Harry Thompson, who reside near Reynoldsville, John W., Augustus and Frank R. Best, of Reynoldsville; also three brothers living, Jonathan Deemer, of Sykesville, Z. A. Deemer, near Deemers Cross Roads and John J. Deemer, of Paradise. Mrs. Best had resided in this section all her life. She was one of the old residents of this section of country. She was an excellent woman, a good mother and kind neighbor. Took Wrong Cow. Friday of last week a Paradise farmer came into town and bought a cow from Austin Robinson, of the Star Grocery. Mr. Robinson was busy and told the farmer where he would find the cow, but did not go with him to get her. The farmer started after the cow and met Postmaster E. C. Burns near the Burns livery stable and inquired where he would find Mr. Robinson's barn, and was given the information. It so happened that Mr. Burns had a valuable cow in the barn adjoining the one where Mr. Robinson's cow was kept and that the farmer got into the wrong barn and innocently led Postmaster Burns' cow away. The cow was not missed until evening and then a search over town was made for the bovine but she could not be found. Mr. Burns then remembered that some one had inquired for Mr. Robinson's barn during that day and the discovery was made that the wrong cow had been taken. Mr. Burns had to take a trip into Paradise Saturday morning and the farmer led the cow back into town. The Last Honors. The death of the Rev. P. A. Reno, pastor of the First M. E. Church, Sharon, Pa., was a great loss to the church, the conference and the world, as well as a grievous blow to the family. He was beloved by all and eminently successful. The high character he bore and the value of his work were attested by the great number who attended his funeral March 7, and by the simplicity and deep feeling which marked the services. More than fifty brethren of the ministry were present and the tributes paid to his memory by men who had known him long and loved him much were peculiarly appropriate and tender. The business places of the city were closed and all the people joined to do honor to a great and good leader.—Pittsburg Advocate. Veteran Employee. M. J. Farrell, P. R. R. agent at this place, who has been in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company since 1861, was recently elected a member of the Veteran Employees Association of the Pittsburg Division of P. R. R. He has been a member of the Middle Division several years. No one is entitled to membership in this association who were not an employee of the P. R. R. previous to 1895. Communion Set. The Baptist church has purchased an individual communion set which they will use for the first time on Sunday morning next. The trays, base and cover are aluminum of beautiful design. The filler is aluminum silver lined. Your Baby Would look so sweet in one of our go-carts. We have them all styles and prices. Come in and look them over. No trouble to show them. Reynoldsville Hardware Company. Millinery Opening. Call and see our early spring ready-to-wear hats Thursday, April 5th. Mrs. S. V. Hays. The tax collector of Brookville has given the delinquent taxpayers of that borough until the first of April to pay their taxes, and after that date unpaid taxes will be collected by law. Opening, Saturday, March 31, in the Centennial hall—J. J. Long's new bargain store. Ucanmatchem—Harmon's shoes. Have your moving and carting done by Nelson Smith. Special moving van. M. Singleback will give prompt attention to all orders for cleaning closets and back yards.
