A Little of Everything.

H. A. Sherwood has bought the meat market near the Burns house. The West Reynoldsville public schools will have a commencement this year. Tax collector William Copping has moved his office into Froehlich's tailor shop. W. H. Vaeblender, photographer, moved into his new house on Mabel street last week. New hardwood floors have been put in the halls and several rooms in the Catholic parsonage. The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. A. D. McKay at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, April 10th. Harvey Deter's Sunday school class will hold a dime social at home of W. C. Murray to-morrow evening. Rev. A. J. Meek will deliver an address on Sunday next at 3:00 p. m. W. N. Kinney, tuba player in the Keystone band, has bought a new silver plated tuba horn. It is a good one. Grady Rhoads was injured on right shoulder and right leg one day last week by fall of coal in the Burns mine. The breach of promise case will be tried the last week of April. At least that is the expectation of those interested. Reynoldsville Opera House Company is the name of the company that will build the new opera house here the coming summer. William Bauer was at Fairmount City Sunday attending the funeral of an uncle, Fred Bauer, who was killed in mine last Friday. Drayman George Hartman had his left foot injured Monday while unloading the heavy door for the vault in the Citizens National Bank. George Burton, Beechwoods farmer, sold potatoes in Reynoldsville Saturday at 40 cents a pound. He sold five pounds for two dollars. W. A. Leach, proprietor of the West Reynoldsville planing mill, had a hemorrhage of the lungs recently and will be unable to work for several months. There was a large attendance at the meeting of Mazomania Tribe, I. O. R. M., Monday night. Twelve pale faces were taught the mysteries of Redmen-ship. Wm. Roller had the ligaments of his left leg badly injured by stepping into a hole in a boat while going down the Ohio river and he now has to use a cane to walk. A horse owned by Ambrose Straues, Winslow township farmer, slipped and sprained itself so badly a week or two ago that it died. This is the second horse Mr. Straues lost this year.

G. W. Harman, who has been employed at the steel plant two years, has started on a two months trip to Washington state and territories. The M. E. church at Sabula was completely destroyed by fire Sunday night. Loss $3,000. The DuBois Express says the fire was evidently of incendiary origin. The announcement of a summer normal has been well received by the public and present indications are that it will be highly successful. A good attendance is already assured. David Sowers moved from Ohl to Reynoldsville last week. Mr. Sowers was one of the substantial and highly respected citizens of Beaver township and we welcome him to Reynoldsville. A big land slide at Rimerton, on River Division of P. R. R. Saturday interfered with traffic on that division all day. The Pittsburg daily papers did not arrive here until late Saturday night. Mrs. John H. Kaucher and daughter, Miss Laura, while in Washington, D. C., recently had the pleasure of calling on President Roosevelt at the White House. The President gave Miss Laura a beautiful rose, which she prizes very highly. Charles C. Herpel, Henry Priester and Mrs. H. W. Herpel were at Fairmount City Sunday attending the funeral of Fred Bauer, who was killed in the Alcoa mines last Friday by a fall of rock. Mr. Bauer was about forty years old. The ex-commissioners of Clarion county, who were in office when the county home was built in that county, and the contractor, have been indicted by a Clarion county grand jury for a $22,000 graft that it is claimed somebody got. Jane, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Painter, of Rathmel, died April 2, 1906. Scarlet fever and spinal meningitis was cause of death. Short funeral service was conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday and interment was made in Beulah cemetery. The summer normal which will be opened in Reynoldsville May 14th gives an opportunity for students to strengthen themselves in their grades which should not be overlooked. There will also be a special department for beginners, fitting them to commence the regular work next winter. Misses Elvie Coleman, Kate King and Mary McClure, of this place, attended a party at the home of Misses Laura and Ruth H. Idriek in Brookville last Thursday evening. The party was given after the Jeffersonian Gold Medal Minstrel entertainment in the Belvidere opera house. Some of the show boys also attended the party. Dr. A. H. Bowser took Jeremiah East to Pittsburg last week to have an operation performed on his eyes for a cataract, but the doctors would not perform operation yet, as it was not ready for an operation. Mr. East was in Pittsburg about one year ago and the doctors then said to wait six months. Now they advise to wait six months longer. Mr. East is almost entirely blind. Rev. A. J. Meek, assisted by Rev. I. S. Hawkins, officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Minnie Hewitt at Falls Creek on Wednesday of last week at 3:00 p. m. Mrs. Hewitt was an excellent lady. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Lukehart, of Falls Creek, and a sister of Mrs. John R. Sowers of West Reynoldsville. Funeral services were held in the Falls Creek Baptist church, which was crowded by neighbors and friends. The Utopia Society held a social at home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gillespie on Fifth street last Friday evening. It was the fifteenth anniversary of the organization of the society. The charters members and their husbands were seated at one large table in the center of which was a large white cake with fifteen red and white lighted candles on it. Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Snyder, of Clearfield, attended the social. The fittings we have for this week are: J. W. Dawson moving from Grant street to the Sealey house on Main street, next door to W. H. Boll; L. P. Byrne from West Reynoldsville to Fourth street in this borough; M. E. Williams from the O'Donnell building over Stauffer & Son's grocery store to Ohio street; A. E. Fleming moving Curwensville to Mrs. Armore's house on Grant street. The Jeffersonian Gold Medal Minstrel of Reynoldsville gave an entertainment in the Belvidere opera house at Brookville last Thursday evening. The Keystone band accompanied the boys to Brookville and they gave a creditable parade in the afternoon. There was a good sized audience at the opera house to see the show. We were informed by several Brookville people that the people were well pleased with the show. Arthur H. Haskins, of Reynoldsville, has been engaged as pianist for the Jefferson Theatre Orchestra. Mr. Haskins is a composer of national reputation and his compositions are now being played by Pryor's, Sousa's and other large bands and orchestras while his songs are sung in every state. His latest ballad, entitled "Down in the Meadows Where the Blue Bells Grow," bids fair to out- rival any of his former successes.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Re-Appointed Postmaster. Ex-Sheriff E. C. Burns, who has been postmaster at Reynoldsville four years, has been reappointed for another term. President Roosevelt sent his name to the Senate last Thursday. Moving Pictures Were Good. The moving picture entertainment given in Assembly hall Monday evening was one of the best ever given here. The color scheme and noise effects were good. The audience was pleased with the entertainment. Ridgway vs. Reynoldsville. Friday evening, April 6th, the Ridgway high school basketball team will come to this place for a game with the Reynoldsville high school boys. This is the only team that has ever defeated the champion high school team of Jefferson county and a very warm contest is anticipated. An Enjoyable Party. Misses Elvira and Ruth Johnston entertained the members of their classes, seniors and juniors, of the West Reynoldsville public schools, at their home on Pike street last Saturday evening. Prof. Wilson, principal, was also present. Various kinds of games were played and refreshments were served. It was a very pleasant and enjoyable party. Died at County Home. Daniel Gallagher, who was sick at the New Commercial Hotel in Sykesville several months, was moved to the county home last Thursday and died at 4:00 a. m. the next morning, Friday, March 30, 1906. The body was brought to Priester Bros. undertaking rooms in this place Friday evening and Saturday afternoon was buried in the Catholic cemetery. Deceased was 48 years old. Telephone Co. Organized. Wednesday evening of last week a meeting of residents in Paradise settlement was held in Grange hall and the Paradise Telephone Company was organized. The following officers were elected: President, Noah Syphrit; Vice-President, Ed. Cochran; Secretary and Treasurer, J. W. Syphrit. Another meeting will be held this Wednesday evening at which time the route of line will be decided upon and arrangements made to apply for a charter. Too Fast for Visitors. The Indiana high school and Reynoldsville high school basketball teams played a game in the Athletic Association rooms at this place Friday evening. The score was 29 in favor of the Reynoldsville high school boys. The Indiana boys were good players, but our boys were swift for the visitors. The Reynoldsville players were: Leonard Harris forward, Lax Sykes forward, Bert Hoffman center, John Thornton guard, Frank King guard. Surprise Party. About 35 friends and neighbors gave J. J. Kirkwood a complete surprise on Monday evening last. At about 7:00 o'clock several persons arrived and later others joined them. The ladies took possession of the kitchen and made ready to serve refreshments. The friends sang Mr. Kirkwood's favorite hymn, "Every Day and Hour." Prayer was offered by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Meek. Rev. Meek presented to Mr. Kirkwood a well-filled purse as a token of regard from his many friends. At ten o'clock they all departed wishing Mr. Kirkwood many more happy birthdays. Two Granges Organized. District Deputy J. K. Womeldorf, accompanied by K. B. Deemer, of Hornetown Grange, and J. M. Norris, and a number of other members of Paradise Grange, went to Dutch Paradise Monday evening and organized a new grange with thirty-five charter members. It will be known as the Hornetown Grange. The grangers did not encounter any opposition on their trip to Dutch Paradise this time, as they did two weeks ago. Members of the new grange think from the fierceness of the grange "goat" it might well be called a grizzly bear, but J. K. has the "goat" pretty well under control. District Deputy J. K. Womeldorf and K. B. Deemer organized a grange at Lanes Mills last Friday evening with a good sized membership. Accepted Position at Altoona. Wesley Motter, who has had charge of F. M. Brown's greenhouse and lawn for a number of years, has resigned that position to accept a more lucrative one as head gardener in the Lake Mount Park. Mr. Motter was at Altoona the latter part of last week to accept the position and make arrangements about moving. He has rented his house on Fifth street to Ed. Gooder and will move to Altoona next week. In his new position Mr. Motter will have two assistants all the time and during the summer will have eight or nine men under his supervision. Mr. Motter is a trustworthy gentleman and thoroughly understands the work of taking care of flowers and lawns. While we are sorry to lose him and his estimable wife, we are glad he has such a good position. Notice to Taxpayers. All taxes not paid on or before May 1st, 1906, will be collected according to law. The borough and county need the money and it must be paid. Wm. Copping, Collector in Reynoldsville. For price and quality come and examine our Anchor Brand clover and timothy seed before buying elsewhere. Best seed in the market. At the Keystone Hardware, Reynoldsville. Ninian Cooper. B fit properly in the latest style shoes at Harmon's. Special bargain in shoes at J. J. Long's bargain store in Centennial hall building. We have a number of last year's carpet samples that will be disposed of for rugs at almost our own price. Reynoldsville Hardware Co. Easter display of fine eastern hats at Flo Best's Thursday, April 12th. Don't fail to attend the grand millinery opening Thursday, April 6th, at Millirens. Millinery opening at Millirens Thursday, April 6th.

Mrs. Agnes Hynd Dead. Mrs. Agnes Hynd, well known in this place as Mrs. Drylie, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Martin, at Prescottville at 3:00 a. m. yesterday, April 3, 1906. Dropsy was cause of her death. She had been a resident of Reynoldsville about thirty years. Her maiden name was Agnes Nesbit. She was born in Scotland July 4, 1843, and was 62 years and 9 months old at time of death. She was married to Adam Drylie, who died 17 years ago. About five years ago Mrs. Drylie returned to her native land and four years ago was married to Mr. Hynd, who was killed three years ago in a mine disaster in Scotland. Two years ago Mrs. Hynd returned to this country. She is survived by two sons and four daughters to her first husband. They are: Mrs. Charles Stitt, Mrs. Stiner, of Allegheny, Pa.; Mrs. William Anderson, of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Margaret Martin, of Prescottville, Pa.; Adam Drylie, of Cleveland, Ohio; and James Drylie, of Allegheny. Funeral service will be held at home of Mrs. Martin in Prescottville at 2:30 p. m. to-morrow, Thursday, conducted by Rev. A. D. McKay, and interment will be made in Beulah cemetery. Hughes & Fleming undertakers. The sons and daughters will all be here to attend the funeral. Scientific Krokinoles. Four young men of this place have become quite interested in the game of krokinoles. This is a game that is very often underrated because it is supposed that there is little or no play in it, but there must be some play in the game as is being demonstrated by these young men. They engaged one of our jewelers to make a gold button with the letters "C. K." beautifully engraved on it, meaning "Champion Krokinoles." They play to see who can wear the gold button the longest time, for when the champion is defeated he is compelled to surrender the button to his superior. Some of these games are very skillful and exciting. Each one goes into the game with a determination to win, for they see ahead of them that gold button and it looks bigger to them than the Klondike. It not only affords amusement for the young men but for everybody who sees them. Should be Inspected. The posts and joists in the Reynoldsville Hardware Company building should be examined at once by every lady in Reynoldsville and surrounding community to determine whether or not they are sufficient to carry the immense weight of furniture, carpets, rugs, matting, gas-carts, kitchen cabinets, curtain stretchers and window shades that are on the second floor of this building, and steps should be taken to lessen the weight. Later—Since the above has been written the load has been reduced to some extent by the sale of two very nice rugs. Played in Indiana. The high school basketball team of this place went to Indiana Monday and played a high school team of that place Monday evening, defeating the Indiana boys by score of 13-11. Bert Hoffman, John Thornton, Leonard Harris, Frank and Craig King, Eugene Murray, Graydon Robinson and Fred McEntire represented Reynoldsville at Indiana Monday evening. Mr. McEntire was referee. Congregational Meeting. This Wednesday evening, April 4, at eight o'clock, the annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church will be held. Reports will be heard from all organizations connected with the church and new officers will be elected. After the business meeting the ladies of the congregation will serve refreshments. All church members are expected to attend. The House-keeper. The Prizer Stoves and Ranges represent the best of every thing in stove making. They please the house-keeper, because they are what they want at prices they can afford to pay. Sold, guaranteed and recommended by Reynoldsville Hardware Co. Will Take a Vacation. The 15th of this month G. J. Corwin will close his photograph gallery for six or eight weeks, while away on a vacation. Millinery Opening. Fine display of New York and Philadelphia patterns at Flo Best's on Thursday, April 12th. Ladies, Attention! Thursday and Friday, April 5th and 6th, Mrs. L. P. Millirens will have opening of spring and summer millinery. Cordial invitation extended to the public to visit the millinery parlors in Sprague mansion, Main street. Prof. Hines will hold an Easter ball in the I. O. O. F. hall Monday evening, April 16. Ladies requested to dress in white. Gents 75 cents; ladies free. Hall will be beautifully decorated. Misses Dalley and Loidold, city milliners who have rented the balcony in Millirens department store, cordially invite all the ladies of Reynoldsville and vicinity to attend their millinery opening to-morrow, Thursday. Don't miss it. A skillful pianist will play during the afternoon and evening. Easter caps at Millirens. We have kitchen cabinets in five different styles and shall be glad to have you look them over. Reynoldsville Hardware Company. Go to J. J. Long's bargain store in Centennial hall building for bargains in all lines of goods. See the new hats at Millirens. Easter display of fine eastern hats at Flo Best's Thursday, April 12th. We are head quarters this year for clover and timothy seeds. Clover, medium choice, $9.00 per bushel. Timothy fancy, $2.00 per bushel. These seeds are warranted to be strictly good. Drop in and examine them. Reynoldsville Hardware Company. Millinery opening at Millirens Thursday, April 6th.

JOINT SESSION TO-DAY. Operators and Miners' Scale Committees Meet at 10:00 a. m. To-day. It looks very favorable now for an agreement between the operators and miners of District No. 2 on the wage scale question. A joint meeting of the operators' and miners' scale committees will be held at Clearfield at 10:00 a. m. to-day and the miners will present their scale. While it is possible the scale will not be accepted as presented, yet the indications are that the wage question will be amicably settled and that the men in this district will go to work. "The Fortune Teller." One of the largest and best comic operas traveling is "The Fortune Teller," which will appear at the Jefferson Theatre Punxsutawney on Friday evening of this week, April 6th. This will, no doubt, be the last opportunity of witnessing this fine comic opera. The cast is headed by Grace Orr Myers, one of the foremost prima donnas now before the public. The company carries a 60 foot car of special scenery and electrical effects, and numbers about 90 people. There will be a special return car to Reynoldsville after the performance. Anyone wishing to attend may procure very desirable tickets from Mr. J. Owen Edgblute, at the National Hotel, as he has a choice selection of seats. Murdered at Patton. It was stated in THE STAR last week that Jas. Donahue, familiarly known as "Cap," had been killed at Patton, but we did not have particulars of how he met his death. We have since learned that he was murdered by being knocked off of a high porch. His skull was fractured. He lived eight hours. Interment was made at Patton last Wednesday. The man who knocked "Cap" off the porch is now in the Cambria county jail awaiting trial at June term of court for murder. "Cap" Donahue was the son of Mrs. P. Donahue, formerly of Reynoldsville. They moved from this place to Patton about five years ago. Lutheran Church Services. Trinity Lutheran church, service next Sunday at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Lenten service Friday at 7:30 p. m. Emerickville Lutheran church, service on Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. Good Friday at 10:30 a. m. Confirmation and communion services on Easter at 3:00 p. m. Chestnut Grove Lutheran church, Lenten service on Thursday at 7:30 p. m. Confirmation and communion service next Sunday at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Sarah Thompson Dead. Mrs. Sarah Thompson died at home of her son, John P. Thompson, in this place, at 2:10 a. m. Monday, April 2, 1906. She had a stroke of paralysis five weeks ago, which caused her death. Her entire left side was paralyzed. Mrs. Thompson was born in Westmoreland Co., Pa., eighty years ago. She had been blind about a year. Funeral this afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. A. Parsons. Interment in Beulah cemetery. Hughes & Fleming undertakers. Arrested for Grave Offense. Allen Brewer, a glassworker, arrived in Reynoldsville Wednesday evening from Kane. Thursday Chief-of-Police E. P. Adelsperger received notice from Constable Dilly, of Kane, to arrest Brewer. Mr. Adelsperger found the man in the postoffice Thursday evening and arrested him, locked him up and notified the Kane official, who came here Friday morning and took Brewer back to Kane, where he was wanted on a charge of statutory rape.
