MAD DOG RUNS AMUCK.

Excitement at Sykesville Sunday-Man Bitten by Dog.

A mad dog created considerable excitement in Sykesville last Sunday afternoon. The dog ran the streets biting other dogs and snapping at people, a number of whom had narrow escapes. The dog ran into one house succeeded in biting one man's hand very badly before the dog was kicked out of the house. Five or six shots were fired at the dog, but they all missed the dog and it continued on its mad run. In about an hour the dog returned to town and was finally shot by Ray Null. The man who was bitten was a foreigner from DuBois. He was taken to the doctor's office, but he refused to let the doctor dress his hand. One finger was badly torn.

That Breach of Promise Case

The mock court trial to be given under the auspices of the Helping Hand Society in Centennial hall on Thursday evening. April 26th, promises to be an event of unusual interest. Judging from ewspaper reports it would seem to be the most amusing things nov offered for public patronage.

It will be, in the first place, an exact eproduction of a court scene in methods and procedure and on this account will e extremely interesting to ladies and others who have never attended a real

Best of all will be the refined fun of he whole affair. With M. M. Davis presiding as judge, Mrs. Joseph Cathers appearing as the broken-hearted plain-tiff, Mr. L. L. Gourley as the defendant, Col. Newton prosecuting the case and Clement Flynn, Esq., defending the ccused, to say nothing of the brillian array of court officers, witnesses and prors, it is pretty certair we shall have all the comedy and realty of a court ene and enough wholesome fun to las whole year.

Indeed it is safe to predict by thos n position to know, that from the opening of the court until the close of he case, the audience will be kep keyed up to the point of convulsions by he unique proceedings. Wit, pathos, cloquence, laughable le-cal bits and vagaries will be drawn upon without stint to keep up the current of merriment. As an entertainment of innocent fun. enducted with mock dignity and with ut the shade of offense to refined tastes the mock court trial will be, as men tioned above, an event of unusual in-terest. The following is the make-up of the court :
