There has been considerable complaint to the principal of the schools about the school children running over lawns on their way to and from school. Parents should caution their children to keep off lawns. It is provoking when people put labor and expense on their lawns to have boys and girls race over and destroy them. The fact of the matter, older people are often very careless about tramping over lawns, and especially along outer edge of sidewalks. Be more careful about where you walk hereafter.

The recital given in Assembly hall Monday evening of this week by Prof. Edward P. Elliott, was a high class entertainment. The audience was not large, but it was a very appreciative one, and Prof. Elliott easily convinced his hearers that he is remarkably clever in his impersonations. Scenes from "David Harum" and "Christopher Jr." were Prof. Elliott's selections for the evening's entertainment. "Christopher Jr." was a very amusing and fascinating story of the matrimonial trials and tribulations of "Christopher Jr." and his wife "Dora," in three acts. Mr. Elliott impersonated nine characters in this comedy.

About 5.40 a. m. Saturday an east bound freight train was wrecked about one mile west of Benzette. It was a bad smash up, but no one injured. Paradise Telephone Company.

The Paradise Telephone Company will begin this week to build a line from Cool Spring Hollow, eastern end of Reynoldsville borough limits, out to Charles Keller's blacksmith shop, thence west through Wishaw to Pooheantown road, and probably to Panie. This company expects to connect with the Red Bank Telephone Co. line at this place and with Knoxville line at Panie. The company will likely extend its line from Keller's shop to Big Run. This will give the patrons of the Paradise company excellent telephone service. Secretary-Treasurer J. W. Syphrit is buying poles for the new line.

Gave Dog Strychnine Pills.

Mrs. Wm. Barge has been ill for sometime and her physician has prescribed strychnine pills. Yesterday her grand-child, little daughter of Mrs. Atmore Shaffer, who is just old enough to walk and talk, in some unknown way got the box of pills, and no one noticed her having it. There was a little curly pup in the house and when it was found lying on floor dead the family made an investigation and found that the little "to" had given the pup a number of the strychnine pills, which had killed it very suddenly. It is hardly necessary to add that the family was considerably alarmed when they discovered that Consta had been playing with the strychnine pills. She had put a pill in her mouth, but because it was bitter she spit it out. Had the pills been more palatable there would have been a dead child instead of a dead dog in that household.

Died in Hospital.

James S. Sheetz, son of Mrs. Gertrude Sheetz, of this place, died in the hospital at Monongahela City at 5.00 a. m. Friday, April 20, 1906. Typhoid fever was cause of death. James had been working in coal mines at Ivanhoe when he took the fever. A. H. Fleming, of Hughes & Fleming undertaking firm, went to Monongahela City Friday afternoon and brought the body to Reynoldsville Saturday noon. James Sheetz was born in Reynoldsville June 17, 1879, making him almost 27 years old. Funeral service was held at the family residence on Fourth street at 4.00 p. m. Monday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church. Interment was made in Boulden cemetery.

Deceased was at one time a member of Masonic Tribe No. 341, Improved Order of Red Men, of Reynoldsville, and a number of the members of that order attended the funeral. The Red Men furnished a very pretty floral piece, bow and arrow, the emblem of the order.

Fast and Close Game.

The game of basket ball last Thursday evening between two home teams, Enterprise Athletic Association and Reynoldsville high school teams, was one of the best and most hotly contested games played in the association rooms this season. At the end of the second half the score was tie, 13-13, and the teams had to take another whirl at it, which lasted about three minutes when the Athletics scored two, making the total score 15-13 in favor of the Athletics. The proceeds of this game will be used to buy uniforms. This is the first season basket ball has been played at Reynoldsville and now we have two of the strongest teams in this section.

The Keystone band gave a concert in front of the Association rooms before the game Thursday evening.

Applied for Macadamized Road.

The supervisors of Winslow township have made application to have a mile of township road, from Cool Spring Hollow, eastern limit of Reynoldsville borough, to the cross roads at Fuller farm, east of Prescottville, macadamized under the State Highway law. The supervisors are expecting the State Highway Department engineer here soon to make the survey. The road will be macadamized twenty-four feet wide. Under this new law for improving highways the township pays 16 per centum, the county 16 per centum and the state pays the balance of the expense in paving the public highways. This is the first application, we understand, that has been made in Jefferson county under the new law for improving public roads.

This gives Reynoldsville borough an opportunity to get Main street macadamized from Seventh street, end of brick paving, to Cool Spring Hollow, to connect with township macadamized road, for the small sum of 125, or not over 25 per cent of the actual cost of macadamizing the street, and the state will pay 75 per cent of the cost of paving. An application should be made promptly and if the work is not done this year it will be done next year. This is certainly a good opportunity to get Main street macadamized.

Mrs. John W. Dean Dead.

Mrs. Emma Dean, wife of John W. Dean, died in the hospital at Warren at 9.45 a. m. Friday, April 20, 1906. Mrs. Dean had been in the hospital three years. J. H. Hughes, of Hughes & Fleming, undertakers, accompanied Mr. Dean to Warren Friday evening and brought the body to Reynoldsville Saturday evening. Funeral service was held at residence of W. J. Weaver on Hill street, at 2.00 p. m. Monday, conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery.

Deceased was born in Columbia county, Pa., February 5, 1846, making her 60 years old last February. Her maiden name was Emma Shoemaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shoemaker, both deceased. She was united in marriage to John W. Dean Oct. 7, 1867. They resided 35 years in Washington township, 30 years on a farm. Mrs. Dean was the last of five sisters. She is survived by her husband and three brothers, Amos and Ellis Shoemaker, of Washington township, and William Shoemaker, of Winslow township.

Death From Apoplexy.

Patrick Powers, an old soldier, who was an inmate of the county home, died at 4.00 p. m. Wednesday of last week at a house on "Poverty Flat," West Reynoldsville. Patrick received his pension and slipped away from the county home Monday of last week and came up to Reynoldsville to "celebrate." One of the county commissioners met Mr. Powers at this place Monday evening and wanted him to return to the county home, but Patrick refused to go. He said he was going to Ohio and never expected to go back to the home. It is reported that Powers was lying out doors all day Wednesday until a short time before he died. Apoplexy was what doctor pronounced was cause of his death. Body was taken to Hughes & Fleming's undertaking rooms, prepared for burial and was buried Friday morning. Powers did not have any relatives in this section of the country.

Defeated Bolivar Second Time.

The Enterprise Athletic Association basketball team of this place went to Bolivar, Pa., Saturday and defeated the Bolivar team in a game Saturday evening. It was a fast and intensely interesting game, but our team was too quick for the other team the last few minutes of the game. The score at end of first half was 11-7 in favor of Bolivar. Three minutes before close of game the score was 14-12 in favor of Bolivar, but in those three minutes the Athletics threw three goals, winning the game by score of 14-13. This is the second time the Bolivar team was defeated by the Athletics. They met their first defeat in the Association rooms at this place April 10.

John Thornton, Fred McEntire, Bert Hoffman, Eugene Murray and John C. Thornton, were the Athletic players in this game. Jesse Hirst and J. M. Dalley, of this place, and F. F. Dalley, of East Brady, accompanied the Reynoldsville team to Bolivar.

Baccalaureate Address.

The baccalaureate address to the graduating class of the West Reynoldsville high school was delivered in the Baptist church last Sunday evening by Prof. J. George Becht, principal of the Clarion State Normal school. Dr. Becht gave an excellent address, one that should be helpful and inspiring to all who heard it, especially the young people. His subject was "The Ideal Life." Dr. Becht is not a minister but he took a text from Joel 2:28: "Your young men shall dream dreams and your old men shall see visions." There was a large audience present. The auditorium of the church would not accommodate the people and the Sunday school room was thrown open. Bouquets of the class flower, carnations, were on the pulpit and around the platform.

The graduating exercises of the class will be held in the Reynolds opera house at 8.15 next Tuesday evening, May 1st.
