COMMENCEMENT WEEK

In the Reynoldsville High School Was a Brilliant Success.

The Reynoldsville high school commencement exercises were interesting and entertaining from the senior reception to the alumni banquet. In last week's issue of THE STAR we published a full account of the senior reception in I. O. O. F. banquet hall Friday evening, May 4, the baccalaureate address in the M. E. church Sunday evening, May 6, by Dr. Nathan C. Schaeffer, the grammar grade commencement in Assembly hall Monday afternoon and the junior electionary contest on Tuesday evening, May 8, and we will not take space to republish what has already been published except to reprint the names of the grammar graduates and junior contestants.

GRAMMAR GRADES.

There twenty-four graduates: Florence Gray, Elsie Kroh, Ona Kroh, Gertrude Hammond, Sylvia Epler, May Liddle, Blanche Dillman, Edna Mauk, Elvie McCroight, Ada Hetrick, Frankie Hoffman, Jane Smith, Aldine Reed, Anna Trudgen, Sara Ford, Frances Green, Lester Lose, Carroll Murray, Logan Willis, Tom Edleblute, Joseph Farrell, Harry Fisher, Milo Coleman, John Boardman.

JUNIOR CONTESTANTS.

Following are the names of the contestants and their selections: "Winners by Five Points," Walter Booth; "The Lance of Kanana," Miss Alda Means; "Jathrop Lathrop's Cow," Miss Jessie Campbell; "King Robert of Sicily," Bert Hoffman; "The Mysterious Postal Card," Miss Nellie Foley; "The Sign of the Cross," Miss Lillian Harries; "A Soldier of France," Miss Mildred Sutter; "The Death Disc," Miss Joan Milliren; "The Land of the Long Shadow," John Thornton.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES.

The class day exercises of the graduates was held in Assembly hall Wednesday evening and a large crowd of people were present to enjoy the excellent program rendered by the thirteen graduates. Thirteen may be considered an unlucky number, but there was nothing unlucky about the class day exercises, everything passed off nicely, and the graduates deserve credit and praise for the ease, grace and mastery manner in which they delivered their orations, essays, etc. Blaydon's orchestra furnished good music. The singing of Walter Irwin delighted the audience. The program was as follows:

Overture by orchestra; salutation, Miss Ida Williams; class history, Miss Ethel Kunes; oration, Garfield Harries; class essay, Craig King; solo, Walter Irwin; class poem, Miss Cora Robertson; oration, Edward Brower; class prophecy, Miss Bertha Bowers; class oration, Carl Kirk; class song by class; oration, Harvey Meyer; recitation, Frank Strauss; oration, Leonard Harris; ladder oration, Frank King; reply, Bert Hoffman; valedictory, Miss Maude Pratt.

ALUMNI OFFICERS.

At the annual business meeting of the Alumni Association Thursday afternoon the following officers were elected: President, Carl Kirk; Vice-President, Miss Geneva Milliren; Secretary, Miss Christine Brown; Treasurer, Miss Edith Clark.

COMMENCEMENT NIGHT.

Thursday evening Mr. Charles W. Thwing, LL. D., of Cleveland, Ohio, delivered an able and instructive address to the graduating class in Assembly hall. Dr. Thwing is a brilliant and prominent man in educational circles and the people of our town were highly honored in having the pleasure of listening to an address delivered by him. After Dr. Thwing's address Dr. A. J. Meek, in behalf of the school board and superintendent of the borough schools, presented the graduates with their diplomas.

ALUMNI BANQUET.

At 10.30 Thursday night the alumni banquet at Hotel Imperial began and it was about 2.00 a. m. Friday when it ended. There were over sixty people present, and it was one of the best banquets ever given by the association. Messrs. Green & Conson, proprietors, spread before the banqueters a feast fit for a king, and program committee arranged a spicy and enjoyable intellectual feast. A new feature at this banquet was alumni songs in which all joined in singing. The songs are published on another page of this issue.

Prof. C. J. Scott, superintendent of borough schools, was toastmaster and filled the office in a dignified and pleasing style. The toasts and toasters were as follows: "The Seats of the Mighty," Dr. A. J. Meek; "Les Femmes," Lawyer Will C. Smith; "Yesterday and Tomorrow," Miss Margaret Stoke; "Unlucky Thirteen," Garfield Harries; "Ode," Miss Blanche Thornton; "Good Night," Raymond E. Brown.

SUCCESSFUL TERM.

This was a very successful term of school. Prof. Scott, an able man, and his corps of teachers did excellent work, and the pupils who did not make advancement can blame no one but themselves.

MRS. F. K. ARNOLD.

ANOTHER VACANT CHAIR.

Mrs. F. K. Arnold Peacefully Passed Her Eternal Home.

At 8.15 Wednesday evening, May 1906, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. W. B. Alexander, on Grant street Mrs. F. K. Arnold calmly and peacefully fell asleep never to awaken to earthly scenes again. The transition was a gradual and peaceful that her heart had ceased beating before the loved ones around the bedside fully realized that the silken thread had been broken and that her spirit had winged its flight to that "bourne from whence no traveler ever returns." It was fitting that a life so gentle and kind as Mrs. Arnold's had been should slip out of this world without a struggle. She had lived in peace with her neighbors and friends and the world in general, and it doubtful if there is another person in this place that has more warm friends among the people in all walks of life than had Mrs. Arnold. After disquiet had taken place the expression of her face was as calm and serene as one in a sweet and undisturbed sleep. She had been in bed six weeks, but did not suffer any pain. Weakness from old age and heart trouble was cause of her demise.

Elizabeth Goodlander Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Goodlander, deceased, was born in Lycoming county, Pa., October 10, 1821, and was 77 years, 7 months and 1 day old when she departed from this life. She was united in marriage with Frederick K. Arnold May 9, 1848, and the day of her demise was the 58th anniversary of her wedding day. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold resided in Luthersburg a number of years, moving to Reynoldsville in 1874. Nine years ago Mr. Arnold crossed the border line into the Eternal Land. Three children, one son and two daughters, James B. Arnold, of Philadelphia, Mrs. Clara E. Alexander and Miss Isabel R. Arnold, of this place, survive Mrs. Arnold. Mrs. Arnold resided on Main street, the second house above THE STAR office, a number of years. Last fall she sold this property and made her home with Mrs. Alexander.

"Ma," as she was familiarly known and spoken of by many townspeople, was a devoted wife, loving mother and kind neighbor. She had a beautiful and symmetrical character, ever and always the same. While Mrs. Arnold did not think the end was so near, yet she assured her loved ones that she was ready to go when the Master called, she was perfectly reconciled and submissive to the Lord's will.

Early in life Mrs. Arnold joined the English Lutheran church and never took her membership from that denomination. After moving to Reynoldsville she and her husband attended and liberally supported the Presbyterian church, there being no English Lutheran church here, but they never became members of that church.

The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful, and was an evidence of the high esteem in which deceased was held. After the funeral the flowers were sent to a number of sick people in town.

Funeral service was held at the residence of Dr. W. B. Alexander at 2.00 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. J. W. Myers, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church. Rev. McKay selected his text for a short sermon from Job 15-11, "Are the consolations of God small with thee?" Interment was made in Beulah cemetery. Hughes & Fleming, funeral directors, had charge of the interment.

$20,000 Athletic Building.

Mention was made in THE STAR several weeks ago that Mr. Dawson and others interested in the Enterprise Athletic Association, which was organized over a year ago and has been run successfully up to present time, would make an effort to organize a stock company to erect a suitable building for the Association. It is the intention now, if enough stock can be sold at ten dollars per share, to buy a piece of ground on Main street and erect a $20,000 building on it, with basement under entire building, two store rooms on first floor and gymnasium on second floor. It is to be a fire proof building. The subscription paper for stock is now ready to be circulated. Mr. Dawson headed it with fifty shares. A meeting will be held to-night to appoint a committee to solicit subscriptions for stock. It has been figured out that such a building will pay the stockholders 6 per cent on their investment. There is no denying the fact that the town is in need of rooms where young men can find wholesome exercises and good literature.

Brookville Masons.

Last Friday nine members of Hobah Lodge No. 276, F. & A. M., of Brookville, came up to Reynoldsville to attend the funeral of one of the old members of that lodge, David B. McConnell. Two members of Hobah lodge reside in this place and they also attended the funeral. The Masonic representatives from Brookville were: J. P. George, Major John McMurray, John T. Reed, Cyrus H. Blood, James L. Brown, Harry T. Love, J. N. Kelley, Wilson R. Ramsey, Byron M. Moore. Five of these gentlemen are Past Masters in Masonic lodge. Mr. George has been a member of the Masonic lodge longer than any other man in the county, having joined Hobah Lodge in 1855. Mr. Reed is the next in longer membership. Mr. George is not only the oldest Mason in the county, but he is also the oldest printer in the county that can still do work in a printing office.

Dempsey-Pollock Wedding.

Earl Dempsey, of Reynoldsville, and Miss Elizabeth Beveridge Pollock were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pollock, at Eleanora, Pa., at 4.00 p. m. Wednesday, May 9th, 1906, in the presence of about sixty relatives and friends. Dr. Harry G. Tensgarden performed the ceremony. It was a very pretty home wedding. An excellent wedding supper was served. Mr. Dempsey is a bright and promising young man and his bride was one of Eleanora's highly esteemed young ladies. Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey went to Dent's Run, where they will reside.

New Room for Barbershop.

H. W. Herpel, the barber, has purchased the Murray building opposite the postoffice and is having the rooms formerly used by Dr. Murray for office fitted up for barbershop. Mr. Herpel expects to have his new shop ready to move into in two or three weeks. He expects to have a very nice shop. Mr. Herpel will live in the building. There will be a reception hall, dining room and kitchen on first floor.

Killed by Express Train.

Sunday morning William Barclay, Sr., of Rathmel, received a telephone message that his son, William Barclay, Jr., of Edri, Pa., had been seriously injured. Mr. and Mrs. Barclay left here Sunday afternoon and found their son in the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburgh, where he died at midnight Sunday night. Mr. Barclay was struck by an express train on the P. R. R. between Edri and Avonmore about ten o'clock Saturday night and was so badly injured that he died the following night. Mr. Barclay had moved from Rathmel to Edri the first of this year. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge at Rathmel. He was about 35 years old. He leaves a wife and five small children. Miss Agnes Barclay, sister of deceased, went to Edri yesterday to attend the funeral, which takes place this afternoon at Edri. The Knights of Pythias of Edri have charge of the funeral.

The deceased had many friends in Rathmel, Reynoldsville and this community who were shocked and deeply grieved to hear of his sad and sudden death.

Annual Convention.

The 16th annual convention of the Jefferson County Sabbath School Association (Interdenominational) will be held in Corsica, Monday evening and Tuesday, May 28, 29.
