A Veterans Reminiscence.
(Written by Reynoldsville Boy.)
I've just been out on the porch, wife,
In my uniform of blue;
And as the G. A. R. marched past,
I felt like marching too.
It brings back memories of the time
When war waged in this land,
And every true American
Lent "Uncle Sam" a hand.
I think of how men fought and died,
Some wounded just like me;
To help Abe Lincoln win the day,
And set the negroes free.
Some sleep beneath the daisies now,
Some in a shady dell;
Some on a barren hill or plain—
Just buried where they fell.
There's only a few old veterans left,
That marched in 'sixty-one,
And they, like me, now realize
Life's race is almost run.
But while there's strength in this old frame
I'll try to see those boys march past
That marched in 'sixty-one.
JEAN ATHLYN.

Ringling Bros.' Great Shows.
Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows, at DuBois Monday, June 4th. This will be the only point in this vicinity where the show will exhibit this season, and no one should miss the opportunity to witness it. Ringling Brothers' circus has been the leading arenic exhibition of America for years, but the show has never been permitted to rest upon its reputation. Although it long ago passed the point of competition, every season sees a greater and grander show. This year's performance is entirely new, and entails the combined efforts of 375 wonderful artists in the equestrian, gymnastic, equilibristic, acrobatic and aerial line, together with fifty famous clowns and hundreds of lesser lights. Six hundred and fifty horses are used and a marvelous trained animal department is presented. The circus this season is greatly enlarged by the spectacular production of The Field of the Cloth of Gold, a pantomimic presentation of the well known and beautiful historical meeting between the young Kings of England and France. The vast menagerie has among hundreds of features the only living pair of giraffes, the first baby elephant successfully bred and reared in America, and the only rhinoceros in captivity. There is a gorgeous revival of the Roman hippodrome races, and many other stupendous features in this great circus. Circus day opens with a brilliant street parade, three miles in length. Don't fail to see it.

The Union Plumbing Co.

Is a little more than a year old. Our business has prospered from the beginning. In fact we had unsolicited work before our goods arrived and have had orders enough to keep us moving ever since—for which we wish to express our thanks to our patrons. But most of these knew us by past experience, and they knew from work that we had done for them—
That our work gives satisfaction after years of test;
That we give them honest value for their money.
TO PROSPECTIVE CUSTOMERS: We would be glad to refer you to people that we have done work for the past five years. And remember that we have done the plumbing in some of the best buildings in town.
