Why Our Fountain Drinks Taste So Good.

All the world loves good soda, and soon all the world will be drinking--we won't say good soda, because all soda is not good soda.

But that part of the world around here will have no trouble in getting good soda, and with the soda goodness goes the service goodness.

That is why our soda was so good last year. That is why our soda is going to be good this year.

A little better this year, though, because we know more. Try it to-day.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

G. W. Lenkerd, of Reynoldsville, and Miss Julia F. Alexander, of Allegheny City, Married May 23.

George W. Lenkerd, one of our energetic and enterprising young men, who was principal of our public schools five years and raised the schools to the present high standard, and Miss Julia Forrest Alexander, an accomplished young lady of Allegheny City, Pa., were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's mother on Termon Avenue, Allegheny City, Wednesday evening, May 23, 1906. Rev. C. W. Blodgett, pastor of the North Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, officiated. The bride, attended only by her brother, Charles Alexander, who gave her away, wore a girlish gown of French mull, daintily lace trimmed, and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The house was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and sweet peas, white and pink predominating, those being the chosen colors, which were further carried out in the dining room, pink shaded candelabra being used on the tables. The guests included relatives and immediate friends of the contracting parties. Reynoldsville guests present were: Dr. John H. Murray, Henry Herpel, Misses Lillie Lenkerd and Irene Phillippi. Mr. and Mrs. Lenkerd left Allegheny Wednesday night on an extended trip through Canada. They will return to Reynoldsville this week and will stay at Hotel Imperial until they get their home on Grant street ready for occupancy. They will be at home to their friends after July 1st.

Mr. Lenkerd's numerous Reynoldsville friends extend congratulations and good wishes for a happy and successful matrimonial journey through life.

Missed Some News.

In order to give the employees of THE STAR office a vacation to-day the paper was printed last night and we are unable to give a full report in this issue of the reception given Father T. Brady last night; and cannot give an account of the meeting held in the opera house last night to arrange for a Fourth of July celebration at Reynoldsville.

Decoration Day at Rathmel.

Decoration Day exercises will be held at Rathmel this afternoon. If the weather is favorable the exercises will be held in Prospect cemetery, if inclement exercises will be held in Church of God. Dr. A. J. Meek and Rev. J. C. McEntire, of Reynoldsville, will be the speakers for the day. The Bloomington, M. E. Union and Church of God Sunday schools and the Sons of Veterans will march to the cemetery.

Home on Furlough.

Duncan M. Dunsmore, Jr., electrician in dynamo room of the armored cruiser, Colorado, is at his home in West Reynoldsville on a nine-day furlough. The Colorado has just returned from a trip to the West Indies and is now in the navy yard at Brooklyn for repairs and that is the reason Duncan has a short furlough. Duncan enlisted in the U. S. navy two and a half years ago and has three years to serve yet.

Decoration Day Program.

The Sons of Veterans will have charge of the Decoration Day exercises at Reynoldsville to-day. The parade will be formed at 9:00 a. m. sharp on Main street, between Fourth and Seventh streets, in following order: Sunday schools, Keystone band, secret societies, W. R. C., S. of V. and G. A. R. Will march to Beulah cemetery and at entrance will open ranks and let the Grand Army men march into cemetery first. The usual memorial services will be conducted in cemetery by the Sons of Veterans.

Ordained Twenty-five Years Ago.

Father T. Brady, pastor of the Catholic church at this place, was ordained twenty-five years ago yesterday. He served the Reynoldsville church the first year while located at New Bethlehem, but has been pastor at this place twenty-four years. He said Thanksgiving Mass yesterday morning and last evening a reception was given him in the parochial school hall. As THE STAR was printed last evening to give the office employes the privilege of observing Decoration Day, we did not get a report of the reception for this issue.

AN OLD SOLDIER GONE.

James L. Long Expired at Home of His Daughter.

James Leonard Long, a respected old citizen, who had resided in Reynoldsville almost a quarter of a century, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas C. Shields, on Third street at 6:45 a. m. Wednesday, May 23rd, 1906. Bright's disease was cause of his death. He had been ailing for a year but was only in bed a week. The last words he spoke, shortly before dissolution, was, "I want to be with my wife." He peacefully and calmly departed from this life.

Mr. Long was born in Washington Co., Pa., June 10, 1833, and would have been 73 years old next month. January 12, 1863, he was married to Louisa Belle Powell, who died seventeen years ago next September. Unto them one daughter was born, Mrs. Kate Shields, with whom Mr. Long made his home after he lost his wife.

Mr. Long was an old soldier, serving in the war between the north and south. He was a member of the G. A. R. Post at California, Pa. He was a carpenter by trade. Politically he was a Republican and while a resident in California, Pa., he was elected as member of town council and also served on the school board for a number of years. In early life he was leader of the M. E. choir at California a number of years. He moved to Reynoldsville 23 years ago.

The Woman's Relief Corps, of which Mrs. Shields is a member, furnished a beautiful floral cross.

Funeral service was held at residence of Mr. Shields at 2:00 p. m. Friday conducted by Rev. A. D. McKay, and interment was made in Reynoldsville cemetery. A firing squad from Phil. Kearney Camp No. 36, S. of V. of this place, accompanied the body of the old veteran to the city of the dead and gave him a military burial.

Boy Died From Heart Failure.

Harvey, ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Platt, of Pardus, died suddenly Sunday afternoon, May 27, 1906, from heart failure. Harvey was out playing with some other boys and had run a short distance when he fell to the ground. He was carried home and expired in fifteen minutes. Funeral service will be held in the Sandy Valley M. E. church at 2:00 p. m. to-day, conducted by Rev. J. C. McEntire, and interment will be made in Epworth cemetery at Sandy Valley.

Mining Situation.

The mining situation has not changed any since our last issue except that a number of miners' families at Eleanor and Adrian have been evicted from the company houses. The miners submitted peacefully to the eviction. We understand that evictions will be made at Soldier next week. The idle men are being provided with sufficient food for themselves and families by the U. M. W. of A.

Memorial Services Sunday.

Members of the G. A. R. Post, Sons of Veterans and W. R. C. attended the memorial service held in the Baptist church Sunday at 11:00 a. m. There was a large congregation present. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the church, preached an able and excellent sermon. His text was: "And they warred against the Midianites as the Lord commanded Moses." The choir furnished special music for the service.

PLEASANT SOCIAL EVENT.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Herpel Celebrated Twenty-Fifth Wedding Anniversary.

One of the most pleasant social events that has occurred in this place for some time was the celebration on Friday evening of last week, May 25, of the silver wedding—25th anniversary—of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Herpel, which was held at their home on Pike street. There were one hundred and ten guests present. They began assembling at eight o'clock Friday evening and it was almost two o'clock Saturday morning when the last guests departed for their homes. The house was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and carnations. Miss Margaret Myers entertained the company with some fine piano music. Short addresses were made by Rev. John Launitz, pastor of the First German Presbyterian church of Allegheny City, and Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church of Reynoldsville. The luncheon that was served about ten thirty o'clock was excellent.

Charles A. Herpel and Miss Wilhelmina Mendel were united in marriage in Allegheny City, Pa., May 25, 1881, by Rev. John Launitz, who attended their silver wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Herpel have resided in Reynoldsville about twenty-two years and have a large circle of friends in this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Herpel were the recipients of a number of beautiful and expensive presents for their silver wedding anniversary. Following is a partial list of presents: Dozen solid silver teaspoons, dozen pearl handle knives and forks, cut glass fruit dish, silver bon bon dish, silver fern dish, china berry dish, hand painted china chop spoons, orange spoons, ice cream spoons, havlin berry dish and deserts, silver bake dish, silver wine set, half dozen Rodgers silver knives and forks, water glasses, china meat plater, dozen linen napkins, silver salts and peppers, silver meat fork, three silver berry spoons, two gravy ladles, nut cracker and picks, and other presents.

The out of town guests present were: Rev. John Launitz and wife, Mrs. Margaret Bentz, Mrs. Rosie Pruse, of Allegheny City, Mrs. Annie Annes, of Fairmount City, John H. Bell and wife, of Punxsutawney, Mr. and Mrs. Snedden, of Falls Creek, Thomas McMillen, wife and daughter, Miss Carrie, of Walston, S. B. Long and wife, of Sykesville.

Assaulted at Night.

A. R. Ritchie, superintendent of the J. & C. C. & I. Co. mines at Soldier and Sykesville, had been at the Sykesville shaft Wednesday night and was walking down through Sykesville to catch the last car for Soldier when two men walked up behind him and one of them struck him on back of head with a sand bag. The blow knocked Mr. Ritchie down, but did not knock him unconscious. Had the blow been a little lower down it would have accomplished the work intended by the assailants. Mr. Ritchie quickly got on his feet again, but before he was fully straightened up one of the men shot at him and falling to hit him his assailants ran away.

Removal Notice.

Herpel's barbershop has moved from the Syndicate building to what was the Dr. Murray building, opposite the postoffice, where we shall be pleased to serve all our old patrons and all others who may favor us with a call.

It is also a pleasure to say that Mr. Will Cummings, of Wilcox, Pa., will be my assistant. He comes highly recommended as an expert barber and an upright, moral gentleman.

Thanking the people of this community for the generous patronage in the past and assuring you that we will do all in our power to merit your confidence in the future, I remain, Yours truly,

H. W. HERPEL.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN O'HARE.

Succumbed to Pneumonia After a Long Struggle.—Buried Sunday Afternoon in Catholic Cemetery.

Mrs. Sadie L. O'Hare, wife of John O'Hare, died at her home on Hill street at 11:30 a. m. Thursday, May 24, 1906, after a brave fight for life. Pneumonia was cause of her death. She had been ill three weeks. Ten days before she expired the doctors gave up hope of her recovery and said she could only live a day or two, but she rallied a little and then she and her loved ones become hopeful that her life might be spared, but the hopefulness was of short duration and the death messenger called her to the Eternal Land.

Mrs. O'Hare was born in Reckenton, County Durham, England, October 2, 1872, making her 34 years, 7 months and 22 days old. Her maiden name was Sadie L. Lydon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lydon. Her mother died July 17, 1904. When deceased was three weeks old her parents moved from England to Hubbard, Ohio. In 1882 they moved to Reynoldsville and in 1884 moved to Rathmel. Ten years ago the 20th of this month deceased was married to John O'Hare, who was then proprietor of the City Hotel in Reynoldsville. Mrs. O'Hare was a pleasant, good natured woman, kind hearted and generous, helping the needy frequently, and had a large circle of warm friends in Reynoldsville and Rathmel, where she was well and favorably known.

Mr. O'Hare bought Wm. Priester's house on Hill street a couple of months ago, had it remodeled and fixed up nicely and moved into the house after his wife took sick, but she was never able to enjoy their new and elegant home.

Mrs. O'Hare is survived by her husband, five children, Lucilla, Leone, Pauline, Kenneth and Clement, her father, John Lydon, Sr., of Rathmel, two brothers, John Lydon, Jr., of Rathmel, Patrick Lydon, of Illinois, two sisters, Mother M. Lucilla, of Villa Marie, Pa., and Miss Kate Lydon, of DuBois.

Mrs. O'Hare was a faithful and zealous member of the Catholic church, member L. C. B. A. and the Protected Home Circle. She carried $1,500.00 life insurance in the Protected Home Circle.

Short funeral service was held in the Catholic church at 2:00 p. m. Sunday and High Mass was said Monday morning. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery Sunday afternoon.

It was the largest funeral held in this place for many months. The Catholic church was entirely too small to accommodate the large crowd that attended the funeral. Over fifty members of the Protected Home Circle attended in a body.

The flora tribute was elaborate and beautiful: Broken circle from Protected Home Circle, of Reynoldsville; cross in massive style with spreading base, from B. P. O. Elks, of Reynoldsville; standing cross of assorted flowers, from Fraternal Order of Eagles of Reynoldsville; pillow, from Mrs. Carmine Marinaro and Mrs. Alex Watson, of Soldier; pillow from Mrs. Dennis Dempsey and Mrs. John Boyle, of DuBois; large floral piece from J. E. Dalley and wife, of DuBois; cross of roses from John Bradley and wife, of Rochester, N. Y.; large floral piece from J. E. Hogan, of DuBois; large floral piece from S. E. Foster and John Bradley, of Rochester, N. Y.; large bouquet from L. C. B. A. of Reynoldsville; bouquet white carnations, Mrs. Fair, Misses Blair and Murphy, of DuBois; bouquet of white carnations, Mrs. Gramlich and daughters of DuBois; bouquet of assorted carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Edelblute, of Reynoldsville; bouquet carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Fred K. Alexander, of Reynoldsville; bouquet of carnations Chas. P. Koerner, of Reynoldsville.

The following relatives and friends from a distance attended the funeral of Mrs. John O'Hare Sunday: Clarence O'Hare, of Staunton, Ill.; Vincent McBride and wife, of Youngstown, Ohio; Miss Agnes O'Hare, of Pittsburg, Miss Ella Madden, of New Castle.

Brotherhood Meeting and Lunch.

The first meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Paul was held in the Sunday school room of the M. E. church last Thursday evening. The regular order of business was taken up and two candidates were initiated in first degree. After adjournment the members of the Brotherhood went to festal room of the church where the Helping Hand Society served a very nice lunch. After lunch a male quartette, Harvey Deter, Arthur Tyson, George White and John Tyson, sang a couple of selections and addresses were made by Rev. J. C. McEntire, Hon. S. B. Elliott, Dr. J. A. Parsons, S. S. Robinson, Philip Koehler and Mrs. A. T. Bing. O. L. Schlumpf, president of the Brotherhood, presided. It was a very pleasant social event, and all present apparently had an enjoyable time.

The regular meetings of the Brotherhood will be held in the Sunday school room on the first Thursday evening of each month.
