It was reported here Sunday and since that from twenty-eight to forty non-union miners at Eleonora were poisoned Saturday by eating canned meat or in some other manner, but we were unable to find any person, by telephone or personal interviews, who knew anything positive about the report, only that such a report had been circulated. A letter was received here several days ago from a large shirt factory in eastern part of the state that is looking for a new location, inquiring for a building suitable to accommodate the plant and if there would be any trouble in securing sufficient help to operate the plant. Friday evening about forty persons assembled at the Lutheran parsonage—uninvited and unexpected, but heartily welcomed—to enjoy the anniversary evening with Rev. Myers and his estimable wife. The visitors were not unmindful of the fact that on such occasions presents and refreshments are customary, and they carried with them out glass, china and other valuable and useful things for presents and also a generous supply of refreshments. It was one of those oasis that a minister occasionally enjoys in his life's work. Pastor and people separated that night with an increased cordiality for each other.

MURDER AND SUICIDE. Richard Nelson Stabbed David Wilson to Death and Nelson Committed Suicide in Jail. A double tragedy resulted from a drunken carousal at Falls Creek on Decoration Day. The barrooms of Clearfield county were closed on Decoration Day and David Wilson and Richard Nelson, both young men of DuBois, were among a number of DuBois fellows that went to Falls Creek that day because the barrooms were open and they could get something to drink. Wilson and Nelson got into a quarrel and Nelson stabbed Wilson. The knife blade was thrust into Wilson several times and the knife penetrated Wilson's left lung, causing his death Monday evening of this week. Albert Dempsey went his first trip east of the Mississippi in that time. Milton Dempsey left here seven years ago and after spending a couple of years in California, Mexico and Arizona, located at Leadville. We clipped the following from the Leadville Col. Herald Democrat: "Milt and Al. Dempsey are in town from over the range, preparing to leave on a vacation trip to Pennsylvania, where they go to visit their old home and participate in the golden wedding anniversary of their parents. The popular young prospectors and miners will carry the wishes of a score of friends with them for a glorious holiday trip and a safe return to the camp above the clouds." Children's Day. THE NATION'S DEAD HONORED. MEMORIAL DAY FITTINGLY OBSERVED IN THIS SECTION. Reynoldsville, Rathmel and Beechwoods Patriots and Friends Scattered Flowers Lavishly. Wednesday, May 30, the nation's memorial day for the men who were willing to sacrifice their all in time of war for love and loyalty to their country, was celebrated at Reynoldsville and other places in this section in a fitting manner. Many of the business places, including the barrooms, of Reynoldsville were closed several hours during the forenoon and a large number of our people took part in the memorial exercises. The Keystone band lent its cheering presence to the occasion and by its excellent music did much to make the Decoration Day program a success. The parade formed on Main street about nine o'clock and marched to Beulah cemetery, where beautiful and fragrant flowers were strewn on the graves of the departed veterans and the usual Grand Army exercises were observed. Firing squads from the Sons of Veterans' Camp visited all the other cemeteries nearby to fire a salute over the graves of the soldiers who have answered the last bugle call. BEECHWOODS. There is no other countryside where such a large crowd of people assemble on Memorial day as they do in Beechwoods. A Memorial Association was organized several years ago by the patriotic and loyal citizens of Beechwoods and the association has charge of the memorial exercises on the 30th of May each year. In the forenoon people from far and near meet at the Association park at cross roads, about half mile from Beechwoods cemetery, form in line, headed by a brass band, and march to the cemetery, where appropriate memorial services are held. This year the usual exercises were held and there were at least two thousand people present. At the cemetery Rev. J. M. VanHorn offered prayer, the people joined in singing America, the band played, Rev. F. M. Redinger delivered an address, flowers were strewn on soldiers' graves, band played and then the people returned to park for dinner. While the dead soldiers are not forgotten and the memorial services are as solemn in Beechwoods as at any other place in the country, yet it is a day of family reunions and where friends and citizens of other days meet and greet each other. The large hearted and hospitable men and women of Beechwoods provide an abundance of good things to eat and a picnic dinner is spread and no one need go hungry. Ye editor was invited to break bread with the families of William Cooper, Robert Hunter and W. C. Klingenfelter and we were well provided for. After about two hours for hand shaking and devouring the good things to eat, the afternoon program was taken up, which was as follows: Music by band; invocation, Rev. F. M. Redinger; short speeches by young Americans; address by A. H. Woodward, Esq., of Clearfield; music by band; short talks by old soldiers and others; benediction, Rev. Geo. H. Hill. A business meeting was held in school house and the following officers of the Association were re-elected for another year: President, W. C. Smith; Vice-President, J. N. Atwell; Secretary, T. J. Sterrett; Treasurer, R. M. Morrison. RATHMEL. The loyal citizens of Rathmel held memorial day exercises in Prospect cemetery. Sunday schools, Sons of Veterans and citizens formed in line in Rathmel and marched to Prospect cemetery where befitting exercises were held. Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of Reynoldsville Baptist church, delivered a patriotic and stirring address. For Sale. One hundred fine residence lots on Fourth street, on easy terms to suit the purchaser.
