NINE GRADUATES.

Commencement Exercises in Parochial School Hall Friday Evening.

There were nine graduates from the parochial school this year. Commencement exercises were held in parochial school hall last Friday evening. There were five girls and four boys in the class, as follows : Margaret Wildauer, salutatorian, Josephine Montgomery, valedictorian, Mary McMartin, Eleen McEnteer, Frances McCarthy, Daniel Fitzpatrick. Martin Yeungert, Fred Williams, Melvin Fisher. The hall was nicely decorated with class colors, blue and yellow, and flowers. The class motto is : "Out of School Life into Life's School." There was a large crowd present and the exercises were very good. In addition to the orations and essays Margaret Martin and Mary Bolger played plano solos. Father Brady presented the diplomas. Monday evening the Junior class and former graduates of the school gave the graduating class of 1906 a banquet in the school hall.

Money Used for School,

Since our last issue we have learned that the purse of $325.00 presented to Father Brady by friends May 29th, the 25th anniversary of his ordination as a priest, will not be spent by him for self, but will be expended to fit up another room in the parochial school and to buy a typewriter and other equipments for the rooms that have been opened for several years The three rooms used are not sufficient to accommodate all the scholars and, through the generosity of Father Brady in using his gift for the school purpose, the fourth room will be opened for next term of school.

Beside the purse from friends, gold headed cane from Knights of Columbus and Morris chair from school children. Father Brady received a number of of other valuable presents.

Property Wilfully Destroyed.

Early Thursday morning of last week the boiler house of the Widnoon Coal Company's plant at Lawsonham was destroyed by fire and a number of the buckets, by which coal is transported from mine across the creek to railroad on a cable, were knocked off the cable, entailing a loss of about $1,500 to the company. Circumstantial evidence was strong that the burning of boiler house was incendiarism and that the buckets were knocked off the cable for purpose of destroying property and throwing the mine idle for a time.

The company has not had any trouble with their miners, having signed the scale immediately after the district convention at Clearfield, and have been doing a good business ever since. The destruction of the property is rather mysterious.

During the heavy storm about 2.00 p. m. Saturday the dwelling house of F. M. Brown, on Grant street, was struck by lightning. The electrical bolt struck the large chimney in front of house, tore large hole in roof, ran along gas pipe to rear of house and started a small fire under the shingles on side of house, the house being shingled part way down the side. By tearing off a few shingles the fire was

DEATH FROM CONSUMPTION. Mrs. Frank Wiley Died Monday-Interment at Knoxdale Caroline Reinard Wiley, wife of Frank

C. Wiley, died Monday morning, June 11, 1906, aged 21 years, 9 months and 25 days. "Lina," as she was familiarly called, was a patient sufferer with consumption. She did not fear death and was conscious to the end, conversing with loved ones. Her last words were: "I see Jesus and he is becoming for me to come." A smile was visible until her last breath. She leaves the following loved ones to mourn her early demise: Husband, two year old daughter, Virginia, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Reinard, Knoxdale, sisters, Mrs. Harry Truman, Sigel, Mrs. Ida North, Punxsutawney, Mrs. Twila Fuller, of Fuller, Miss Hilda Reinard at home, brothers, Max and Frank at home. The floral offerings of friends were fine and many. Funeral at eight o'clock this, Wednesday, morning from her late home. Interment at Knoxdale in Centre Hill cemetery after a service in Knoxdale church, conducted by Rev. A. D. McKay, of Reynoldsville.

Wedding Anniversary.

Friday, June 8, was the fifty-second wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Hoover, of Winslow, Gaskill township, parents of Dr. B. E. Hoover, of Reynoldsville, and about sixty neighbors and friends gathered at the Hoover homestead to celebrate the anniversary. The following Reynoldsville people drove over to Winslow to enjoy the event : Dr. J. H. Murray and wife, Miss Olevia Murray, Miss Edna Holman, W. C. Murray and family, Dr. B. E. Hoover and family, Mrs. G. G. Sprague, J. R. Milliren and wife, W. W. Higgins and wife. It was a beautiful June day and dinner was served in the orchard. Mr. Hoover is 83 years old, Mrs. Hoover is 78. Mrs. Hoover knew the friends would assemble at their home that day, but it was a surprise to Mrs. Hoover.

Hoggish Trick.

A Reynoldsville lady worked all day Thursday of last week baking pies and cakes, frying chickens and fixing up other things to be packed into a basket to be taken over to Gaskill township Friday to a wedding anniversary picnic, and when the basket was taken out of the carriage Friday it was set in a fence corner and forgotten for a short time. When the basket was wanted it was discovered that a four-legged pig had found it and had eaten all the good things. That may, or may not, account for the fact that Dr. Hoover, dentist, was in his office Saturday morning looking down in the mouth.
