"Habit of Good Workmanship"

GOOD ADVICE ABOUT PLUMBING,
HEATING AND GAS FITTING.

To be positive that you will have the best material and workmanship possible—HAVE US DO IT—even if it does cost you a few more dollars than some others. When you're installing a plumbing and heating job, its not like papering a house. You don't expect to have it renewed every season. When its installed, it's in to stay. Will cheap material and workmanship hold? THINK. If we do your work the price is soon forgotten. Some people's work you never will be able to forget the price on account of numerous reminders in shape of repair bills. To be sure that you are getting the best, CALL ON US. Fine show room.

THE UNION PLUMBING COMPANY.

Store open from 7.30 a. m. to 8.00 p. m.

WM. PRIESTER DIED SUD- DENLY SATURDAY EVENING.

Expired While Sitting in Hammock Talking to a Neighbor.—Had Lived Here Many Years.

William Philip Priester, one of the well known citizens of Reynoldsville, having conducted a barbershop here six years and was in the furniture and undertaking business twenty years, died suddenly at home of his brother, Henry Priester, on Hill street, about 8.30 p. m. Saturday, July 7, 1906. Heart disease was the cause of his death. He had been in poor health about eight months. He returned from Cambridge Springs several weeks ago, where he had been two weeks for benefit of his health, but was not benefited. Mr. Priester was sitting in a hammock on his brother's front porch talking to David L. Postlethwait, a neighbor, when he quit talking and fell partly out of hammock before Mr. Postlethwait could catch him. When lifted up he was dead. In a second transition had taken place.

William Priester was born in County Deeds, Germany, March 15, 1846, and was 60 years, 3 months and 22 days old at time of death. He served two years in the German army, one year in the ranks and one year in hospital work. He was in the army during war between Germany and France in 1870. He learned the barber trade before enlisting in army and in Germany the barbers do much of the surgical work that is done by physicians in America, and that is why he was in the hospital the second year of his service for his country. Eleven years ago Mr. Priester returned to Germany for a two-fold purpose, to receive treatment for rheumatism and to attend a reunion of the soldier boys with whom he served. He was absent about four months.

In May, 1872, deceased came to America. He located first at Kittanning, where he ran a barbershop two years. He bought a shop in East Brady and remained there six years, coming to Reynoldsville in February, 1880. He conducted a barbershop here six years, then sold his shop and embarked in the furniture and undertaking business, continuing in that business with his brother, Henry, under name of Priester Bros., until time of his death.

Deceased was never married. He and his mother lived together until she died, 17 years ago, and after that he made his home with his brother. While a resident of East Brady Mr. Priester joined the I. O. O. F. lodge and the United Workmen. Since coming to Reynoldsville he had his I. O. O. F. membership transferred to the lodge in this place. At one time he was a member of the Knights of Pythias. While he was not a member of the Lutheran church in this place, yet he supported the church.

"Billy" Priester, as he was familiarly known, had a large circle of friends. Funeral service was held at residence of Henry Priester at 2.00 p. m. yesterday, conducted by Rev. J. W. Myers. Interment was made in Beulah cemetery.

The funeral was attended by a large number of people. About thirty-five Odd Fellows attended in a body and had charge of the service at the cemetery. The floral tributes were beautiful.

The following out of town relatives and friends attended the funeral: Paul W. Metzenthin and wife, of Steelton, Daniel Nolan, Jr., and wife, of Clarion, Frank A. Herpel, of Bradford, Will F. Herpel, Charles Mitchell and wife, of Punxsutawney, Mrs. Sue Wickerly, of Allegheny, Mrs. Christine Herpel, of Fairmount City, Charles Kah, of New Bethlehem.
