Fell Off Cherrytree.
One day week before last Ex-Postmaster A. M. Woodward drove out into the country for some cherries and climbed a tree to pick the pretty red fruit. He stood between the blue sky and mother earth with only the limb of a cherrytree to keep his avoirdupois from yielding to the influence of gravitation. The limb was strong enough for support when Mr. Woodward first stepped out on it, but he ate so many cherries that the weight was too much for the limb and it broke, precipitating the ex-postmaster to earth in no gentle manner, in fact the contact with the sod was so unexpected and violent that Mr. Woodward was speechless for several seconds for lack of breath. As a result of the drop from cherrytree Mr. Woodward was confined to bed several days last week.

ATTEMPTED HIGHWAY ROBBERY
Assault in County Jail With Bullet Hole in His Breast.

Last Friday night Giuseppe Briollo, of Wishaw, according to his story, was on his way home when a man, whom he recognized as Consolato Malomaccio, stopped him on public highway and demanded his money or he would kill him. When informed by Giuseppe that he had no money, the highwaymen tried to execute his threat by slashing Giuseppe with a knife, inflicting severe wounds on his head and neck, almost cutting Giuseppe's throat. Giuseppe says five others joined Malomaccio and from injuries and fright he fainted. During the excitement some person shot Malomaccio, but the bullet struck the breast bone and deflected to right side and over the ribs without proving serious.

Malomaccio was arrested Saturday and given a hearing in 'Squire Neff's court in this place Saturday afternoon on charge of assault and battery, with intent to rob. Malomaccio was taken to the county jail at Brookville Saturday evening by Sheriff Schaeffoeker.

Your Home Paper.
Just let your subscription go. It's only a small sum—the publisher doesn't need it. If he asks you for it get as hopping mad as you can and tell him to stop your paper—you never read it anyhow. Go home and borrow your neighbors. When the reporter calls always be busy. Make him feel as if he was intruding. When the advertising or job man calls, say you don't need to advertise—everybody knows you; that you will get along without printed stationery—it's too expensive; that business is slack and you must economize. Never recommend the paper to anyone; when you speak of it say, "Yes, we have a little sheet." Keep it up a year or two and you will have a dead newspaper, a dead set of merchants and a dead town.—St. Marys Gazette.

Excursion to Niagara Falls and Buffalo.
If you wish a day of rare enjoyment go on the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh R'y excursion to Niagara Falls and Buffalo Sunday, July 22nd. Special train will leave Sykes at 6:00 a. m. and the round trip fare will be only $2.50. Tickets will also be good returning from Buffalo on regular trains Monday, July 23rd.

Easy to buy, easy to pay for—lots in Point View on monthly payments.
The Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association does not build or deal in houses, but they do advance a liberal proportion of the money required to buy or build. The money so advanced is repaid, both interest and principal, in small monthly installments, seldom much more than you pay for rent.

TROLLEY EXPANSION.
Jefferson Traction Line to Unite With New Indiana System.

The building of a new street railway and inter-urban trolley system to connect Indiana and surrounding towns, including an extension to Punxsutawney to connect with the Jefferson Traction Company's line which was described in the Spirit some months ago, is about to materialize.

Behind the project are some of the leading capitalists of Punxsutawney and Indiana, prominent among whom are the principal stockholders of the Jefferson Traction Company.

With Indiana as the starting point lines will be constructed to Clymer, Creekside, Blairsville and Punxsutawney, covering in all a distance of over 50 miles.

The first spur to be constructed will be the one connecting Indiana and Clymer. Engineers and right-of-way men were sent to the field Monday and actual work on the grading will be begun in a week or ten days. As soon as the right of way has been secured for the Indiana-Clymer line the company's agents will locate a line to Creekside, both of which will be completed this fall.

If the present plans of the company materialize work on the Punxsutawney and Blairsville extension will be begun late in the fall for at least as soon as the weather settles next spring.

The new trolley system will mean much for the business interests of Punxsutawney and Indiana and the other towns interested as well as a great convenience to the residents living along the lines and, as heretofore stated in the Spirit, will be part of a system which will ultimately connect Punxsutawney, Reynoldsville and DuBois with Pittsburg.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

The Spirit of Vengeance.
He whose misfortune it is to be revenged is indeed an unhappy man. It keeps him busy all his days trying to "get even" with people and the more he gets even, the more rugged and corrugated becomes his path. A vindictive man is seldom a grateful man, for the quality of gratitude cannot exist where the opposite quality absorbs the whole being. Life is so short that we cannot afford to expend even a fraction of it in making it unpleasant for a fellow mortal.—Punxsutawney Spirit.
