The vote was 367 for acceptance and 242 against. The miners in this section began work Friday morning.

Bad Sidewalks. There are some very dangerous sidewalks in town. When the matter is carefully considered it is surprising that property owners do not keep their sidewalks in good condition, as they are liable for damage if some person is injured. Damage suit would be brought against the borough, but the borough would hold the property owner responsible and collect the amount of damage from the person on whose walk the accident occurred. This being the case, it is wise for a property owner to allow his or her sidewalks to get in bad condition?

Fish Electrocutted. A large number of fish were electrocuted in the dam at Soldier Monday by a live electric wire dropping into the dam. The trolley line runs along edge of dam and a short circuit on the feed wire set fire to a pole and burned off the wire, which dropped into dam. All the fish caught in the surcharged water were electrocuted. Some lads who saw the large dead fish floating on top of water, started to wade into the dam to get the fish, but they did not wade in far and did not have to be told to get out. The surcharged water acted as an electric battery on the boys' bare feet and legs.

It was used as a Union church for a number of years. With the consent of Mr. McGhee, Robert Waite, who owned the land, deeded the church to the trustees of the M. E. church about two years ago, when Rev. J. C. McEntire was pastor. The church has been repaired at a cost of $250.00 and the Methodist congregation will have it dedicated next Sunday evening. BOY DROWNED IN RIVER.

John Montgomery, Thirteen Year Old Boy, Was Drowned in Allegheny River Last Week.

John H. Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Montgomery, of Sligo, and nephew of Mrs. L. P. Miller, Mrs. Harriet Morrow, Ida Reynolds and David Reynolds, of Reynoldsville, was drowned in the Allegheny river at Phillipston, two miles above Red Bank, Wednesday afternoon, July 18, 1906, and the body was not found until Friday evening. Hundreds of people joined in the search for the body, and a large amount of dynamite was used to make the body float, but body was not found until after it had been in the river two days and two nights. The water in river was muddy, which made the search more difficult.

Interment was made at Waterson, across river from Red Bank, on the farm of the bereaved father, at 10.00 a. m. Sunday forenoon.

John Montgomery was born at Sligo June 28, 1893, and was 13 years and 20 days old at time of death. Charles Montgomery, the father, passenger engineer on the P. P. R., hauling one of the trains from DuBois to Red Bank and return, owns a farm at Waterson with two houses on it, his sister living in one house and the man who does the farming in the other. John was staying with his aunt and helping on the farm and on Wednesday afternoon, with some other boys, went swimming in the river. He was a good swimmer, but it is supposed that he was seized with cramps, as he called for help, but before any one reached him the boy went down to death.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery, who are well known in Reynoldsville, Mrs. Montgomery, nee Sue Reynolds, having been born here and spent her girlhood days at this place, have the sympathy of their many friends in Reynoldsville.

Mayme Montgomery Married.

Miss Mayme Montgomery, connected with the Bazaar millinery store at 4727 Liberty avenue, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to G. F. Ebers, general manager and president of the Pittsburg Drug Company. The ceremony was performed by Father Tobin of St. Mary's R. C. church, and took place on Monday evening, July 16th, 1906. The announcement of the wedding was a great surprise to many of the bride's friends. Mrs. Ebers has been a resident of this vicinity for several years and has a large circle of friendly congratulations for a long and happy life. The groom is one of our rising young business men and has many friends. The happy couple is residing at the Majestic apartments on Millvale avenue. They will not take the wedding trip until next month.—The East Endor, Pittsburg, July 20.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Montgomery, of West Reynoldsville, well known and highly esteemed in Reynoldsville. THE STAR joins with her host of friends in extending congratulations and good wishes.

Our Free Site Land is Advertised for Sheriff Sale.

In the sheriff's sale notices published in this issue of THE STAR will be found the advertisement for sale of the Reynoldsville Land Improvement Company's land that was purchased for free sites for industries that want to locate in Reynoldsville. The entire claim against the Land Improvement Co. is not over $1,600.00, and $800.00 of that amount has been pledged on condition that the entire amount is raised to pay off the indebtedness. We now have five or six industries that we would not likely have had if it had not been that the town was able to give free sites to these industries. Are we going to sit down, fold our hands and let the sheriff of Jefferson county sell this land because the citizens of Reynoldsville will not raise $700.00 or $800.00 to pay the debt against the land? Can the property owners of Reynoldsville afford to let this valuable tract of land be sold by the sheriff? We say most emphatically they cannot. It will be the greatest mistake our town has ever made to lose this land. Don't let it get away from the Land Improvement Co. We must have it for free sites if we want our town to grow, and we are certainly all interested in the future welfare of the town.

If all who can will help a little the $800.00 can be raised without making it a hardship for any one. The town papers have been urging the citizens for some months to pay off this debt, and the matter has been taken up by some enterprising citizens, but the citizens in general have not been interested and the majority are expecting a few to contribute the necessary amount to pay off the claim against the land. This is not a matter that should be met by a few citizens, but every business man and property owner should be interested in seeing this debt paid, and should contribute towards paying it. Don't stand in your own light. Put your shoulder to the wheel. Whatever is done must be done quickly. The time for discussing the matter has passed. Action is necessary.
