GET IT AT Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.

Back of It

We stand back of everything that is sold in our store. If there's any dissatisfaction we want to know it, for we work all the time to please more, and get rid of the causes for complaint. That's one reason why our trade is so large.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. REYNOLDSVILLE, PA.

A Little of Everything.

K. L. Styles is spending a few days in Chautauqua. The Masonic picnic will be held at Wishaw Park September 6. The Daughters of Rebekah will hold a picnic in Reynolds Park to-day. Pifer family reunion will be held in Wishaw Park to-morrow, Aug. 23. Rev. J. C. McEntire will preach in the chapel at Wishaw Sunday evening. Monday, August 20, 1906, a daughter was born to Dr. and Mrs. H. B. McGarrah. The Protected Home Circle will hold a picnic in Mammoth Park to-morrow, Aug. 23rd. The annual harvest home picnic at Oak Ridge, or Aleola Park, will be held August 22, 23 and 24. The Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association sold $5,800 at the monthly meeting held Monday evening. Charles Pifer had his left eye badly injured several days ago while at work at steel plant. A piece of knot hit him. A number of young people of this place took a hay ride to home of Misses Julia and Delva Schugars last Friday evening. Persons wanting to engage Wishaw Park for picnics can do so by calling on W. C. Euler, Imperial restaurant, Reynoldsville. Miss Edith Herpel entertained a party of eighteen of her friends last Thursday evening. Light refreshments were served. Constable Perry B. Love and family attended the Simpson family reunion at home of George Simpson near Corsica last Saturday. The Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Sunday school and congregation held a picnic in Romantic Park, Sykesville, last Saturday. There is talk of organizing a board of trade in Reynoldsville. If our town is to progress as it should we must have a live board of trade. The date of institution of the tribe of Improved Order of Red Men at Kittingan has been changed from September 8 to September 22. Will H. Bell and P. McDonald have had the wooden sidewalks in front of their Main street properties torn up and will have brick sidewalks laid.

Dr. B. E. Hoover was called to Winslow, Gaskill township, this morning to see his father, S. T. Hoover, who was injured several days ago. Fred Beebe and Miss Elva Cox, of Pardus, were united in marriage at 8.00 p. m. on Thursday, August 16, 1906, by 'Squire E. Neff' at his office in this place. The Skyesville trolley car on Jefferson Traction Co. line jumped the track on Jackson street Friday afternoon, delaying the car an hour or more. Two experienced oil operators were in town last week. They looked over the land in this section and it is likely several wells will be drilled near town in the near future. No preaching in the Baptist church next Sunday. Rev. J. E. Dean was to have preached in the Baptist church last Sunday morning, but on account of ill health did not preach. The P. R. R. will run a special train from Reynoldsville to Oak Ridge to-morrow for accommodation of those who want to attend harvest home picnic. Train will leave here at 8.08 a. m. Mrs. Caroline Moheny, of Pittsburg, came to home of Ex-Postmaster A. M. Woodward Monday on a short visit, and had a slight paralytic stroke on entire right side Monday evening. Mrs. Smith's committee of the M. E. Helping Hand will hold a market Saturday afternoon and evening in room vacated by Harmon's shoe store. Sherbet and ice cream served in evening. A special train was run over P. R. R. from Pittsburg to DuBois Monday carrying Knights of Pythias members to DuBois to attend the K. of P. Grand Lodge meeting in that place this week. The Emerickville cornet band has been engaged to play at the harvest home picnic at Knoxdale to-morrow and the P. O. S. A. picnic at Romantic Park, Sykesville, on Labor Day, September 3rd. About five hundred people attended the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school picnic at Romantic Park, Sykesville, last Thursday. It was an ideal day for a picnic and everybody seemed to have a pleasant time. If the day is favorable a large crowd will attend the reunion of the teachers and pupils of the Dennison school in Beechwoods on Wednesday of next week, August 29. The reunion will be held in Ross' grove in Beechwoods. The Protected Home Circle will hold a picnic in Mammoth Park to-morrow. A game of basket ball will be played in the park in the evening between the Christian Endeavor team of Falls Creek and the Epworth League team of Reynoldsville. The Chautauqua vesper service in the M. E. church last Sunday evening was attended by a large number of people. Vesper service from 7:30 to 8:30 o'clock will be held again next Sunday evening and instead of preaching a short address will be made. A heavy rain last Saturday caused floods which done much damage to the Sligo branch of the Pennsylvania railroad. Several hundred feet of track is said to have been washed out of position and business on that line will be tied up for a few days. All the doctors of Reynoldsville, with one or two exceptions, attended the Jefferson County Medical Society's annual picnic in the Driving Association Park last Friday. A number of Reynoldsville people, not connected with the medical profession, attended the picnic. The Jefferson County Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet in one day convention in chapel at Panocest on Thursday, August 30. A picnic will be held in connection with the convention and an interesting day is expected. All are cordially invited to attend. Dr. McCallister and wife, of Ridgway, were guests at J. Van Reed's last night. They came to DuBois yesterday and could not get a place to sleep in that town and came down to Reynoldsville to get a bed. The K. of P. convention in DuBois has drawn a large crowd to that town. Large crowds attended the harvest home picnic and carnival at Nolan Park, Clarion County, four days last week. It is claimed by those who have been at Nolan Park, that it is a large and delightful park, the best park in this section of the state. It is a short ride from Summersville on the P. S. & C. R. R. A large number of the Daughters of the American Revolution from DuBois and a few visiting members from Pittsburg and Clearfield met at the home of Mrs. A. L. Keagle in Rathmel Saturday afternoon. The regular society program was carried out, after which supper was served by the hostess. They returned to DuBois on the trolley late in the evening. On Tuesday of this week, August 14, 1906, Herbert B. Ellison, of Pittsburg, and Edna Cox Humphrey, of Reynoldsville, were married at the Baptist parsonage, in East Brookville, by the pastor, Rev. L. B. Underwood. They will reside in Pittsburg.—Brookville Democrat. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Humphrey, of Main street.

Congressional Conferees Meet. The Republican conferees of this congressional district met in Brookville yesterday to nominate a candidate for congress. They held two sessions yesterday and four ballots were taken without making a nomination. Another session will be held this forenoon. Died at Falls Creek. Alneeda, nine-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Craft, of Pittsburg, formerly of Reynoldsville, died at Falls Creek Friday night and was buried at that place Sunday. Mrs. Craft was visiting in Falls Creek when Alneeda sickened and died. David L. Postlewait and wife and Iryin D. Winslow and Miss Ethlyn Winslow, of this place, attended the funeral. Engine Jumps Track. A freight engine on the P. R. R. jumped the track near Hopkins about eleven o'clock Monday forenoon and it was well on in the afternoon before the track was cleared. The eastbound passenger trains due here at 11.42 a. m. and 12.52 p. m., did not arrive here until after three o'clock. The 1.29 westbound passenger train laid on the siding at this place until the track was cleared. Reynoldsville Lost. Reynoldsville and Brookville baseball clubs played a game at Nolan Park last Friday afternoon, resulting in a victory for the Brookville club. Score 2 to 5. The players in the Reynoldsville club were: E. A. Oberlin catcher, Harry Stormer pitcher, Pendleton, shortstop, John Foust 1st base, John Burge 2nd, Fred McEntire 3rd, Frank Bohren left field, Bloss center field, and Leo Nolan right field. Glass Situation. A meeting of the National Association of Window Glass Manufacturers was held in Cleveland, Ohio, last week and the manufacturers elected a wage committee to meet a wage committee from the Amalgamated Association. If these committees can agree on a wage scale the plant at this place will be started early. The Star Glass Company has everything ready now to start the fire. Butler Takes Charge. Bion H. Butler, of Southern Pines, N. C., at one time one of the editors of the Pittsburg Times, was in Reynoldsville last Friday a couple of hours and called at THE STAR office. Mr. Butler has taken charge of the Kane Leader, a newspaper owned by Elisha Kent Kane, a prominent prohibitionist in this state. The Leader will continue to be a strong prohibition newspaper. Mr. Butler will reside on his farm in Southern Pines and write red hot editorials for the Leader. In Central Office. Frequently people become impatient with operators in telephone central offices, but if they were to spend a little time in a central office and watch an operator work, perhaps they would not lose their temper quite so often. Remember when you call central that you are not the only person that uses a 'phone, a dozen other people may be calling central at the same time you call. Some times there may be occasion for complaint, but generally the girls give as prompt service as possible when a number of calls are being made at one time. A telephone girl is in a good position to hear people give vent to bad tempers. Supt. Johns Resigned. Thomas R. Johns, for a number of years superintendent of the mines at Walston, tendered his resignation to General Manager L. W. Robinson last week. The resignation was accepted and on Friday T. S. Lowther, of Reynoldsville, was appointed to fill the vacancy. Mr. Lowther was formerly superintendent of the Helvetia mines, but for the past three years has been employed as superintendent of the Rimersburg & Sligo Coal Company, of Rimersburg, Clarion County. Mr. Lowther will move his family to Walston in the near future. Mr. Johns has as yet made no definite arrangements for the immediate future.—Punxsutawney Spirit. Odd Case of Dementia. Sunday afternoon a young man, apparently about twenty-two years of age, got off the Pennsylvania passenger train at this place and started towards the residence of Rev. J. C. McEntire and, though a total stranger, was taken in and given supper. It was evident from his actions and talk that he was suffering from some mental disorder, but his appearance and manners indicated refinement and a good education. In the evening he walked up to the M. E. church with R. D. Albright and entered during the vesper service, but alone. After vesper service he went to M. E. parsonage and acted so strangely that Chief-of-Police Adelsperger was sent for and he gave the young man lodging in the town bastille. His parents reside in New Haven, Pa. Mr. Adelsperger telephoned Monday to the chief-of-police at New Haven, who knows the young man and said he would notify his parents, but his parents have not been heard from. William Walters is the young man's name. He can play a piano nicely and is a good singer.

Fatal Freight Ride. Harry B. Osborn, son of A. W. Osborn, of Summersville, boarded a freight train at that place going towards Pittsburg Thursday evening, but when the train stopped at Oak Ridge he was jarred off, falling under the wheels. He was picked up twenty minutes later by the crew of an east bound freight. Both legs were cut in two, one at the knee, the other at the ankle. He was hurried to the National hotel at New Bethlehem where four physicians attended him, one remaining with him till four o'clock Friday morning when he died.—DuBois Courier. Mrs. Nora Wayland, of Reynoldsville, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hetrick, over Sunday. A number of young people from Reynoldsville gathered at the home of Misses Julia and Delva Schugars Friday night and gave them a surprise. Numerous and catchy games were played, refreshments were served and after an evening delightfully spent they returned to their respective homes. They Say. That it isn't fair to beat a carpet when it is down. That having the hair shingled won't prevent water on the brain. That men as well as watches, are apt to get out of order in the spring. That when words fail a woman she cries. When they fail a man he swears. That anything comes to him that waits, especially if he waits on himself. That some men are always either drowning their sorrows or celebrating their joys. That one never realizes how far sound travels until a popular song has made a hit. That the only reason some men get married is to put the property in the wife's name. That even the fellow who is addicted to long winded stories may be short in his accounts.—Ex. Letter List. JUDGE REED REFUSES PETITION. Holds that Closing the Bars on certain Days is a Legislative, not a Judicial Act. Over in Clearfield county Judge Smith has made a ruling requiring all bar rooms in that county to close on legal holidays, and after the tragic occurrence at Falls Creek on Decoration Day, a large petition was gotten up and presented to Judge Reed asking that he make a ruling for Jefferson county similar to that made in Clearfield county by Judge Smith. Last week Judge Reed handed down his opinion on the request made by the petitioners, which he refused to grant on the ground that his complying with the prayer of the petitioners would be a legislative act and entirely aside from the duties of a judge. Judge Reed's opinion is a lengthy document in which he cited authorities to substantiate his position in the matter. Below we print one paragraph from the Judge's opinion: "The prohibited or restricted sale of intoxicating liquors is admittedly a legislative and not a judicial question. In this commonwealth the legislature has expressed the will of the people on the subject, and has declared that it be unlawful for any person, with or without a license, to furnish for sale, gift or otherwise, to any person any spirituous, vinous, malt or brewed liquors, on election day, on Sunday, nor at any time to a minor, person of known intemperate habits, or persons visibly affected by intoxicating drink. It is to be observed the legislature has expressly named the days on which licensed dealers may not sell intoxicating drinks; also the person to whom they may not sell at any time. Here we have a clear and unequivocal expression of the legislative mind on two subjects—the days on which the licensed bar shall remain closed, and the persons to whom sales shall not be made. It is a maxim in the law that in the absence of ambiguity no exposition shall be made which is opposed to the express words of the statute. The act of assembly under consideration is free from ambiguity, and no amount of sophistry can justify a departure from its plain provisions on the subject now before the court. It is too clear for argument that to add days to those designated by the legislature, or to enlarge the class of persons to whom sales shall not be made, is to assume and exercise a power that does not belong to the judicial office. This is not allowable by law, and cannot be justified on the ground of either immoderate praise or unjust denunciation. However desirable it may be to have those places closed on other days than those named in the act of assembly, and especially on those days which should be devoted to praise and thanksgiving instead of being given over to drunken and riotous conduct, it is more desirable that the judiciary shall not assume the functions of the legislature. Therefore the remedy for this evil should be sought for in the tribunal authorized to prescribe it." Luck and Chance. Luck and chance don't figure in the making of Prizer Stoves and Ranges. They are the result of good materials, careful workmanship and the best experience in stove making. They contain many good ideas that lighten kitchen work and add to the comfort and convenience of the house-keeper. Come in and let us tell you about them.
