Correct Living is the title of a new book just issued by Van R. Wilcox, the Trans-Continental Tramp. He narrates a few of the exciting and amusing incidents of his long tramp from Atlantic to Pacific Ocean starting from N. Y. City and walking the entire distance to Santa Monica, Cal., 3687 miles. He explains how he built himself up, from a physical wreck to a strong vigorous man. It contains several chapters of interest to all, such as "The Science of Eating," "What shall I eat?" "The No-Breakfast plan," "Tramps and Tramping," "Hidden Forces," &c. While the first edition of 5,000 copies lasts, it sells for 50 cents.

Since the above notice, Mr. Wilcox passed through the San Francisco earthquake and fire, from which experience he adds about four thousand words making a book about 5 x 7 inches, in cloth binding. Price one dollar.

There is no reasonable excuse for any man to live in a town if he doesn't like it. If you have no word of commendation to say for your town, its institutions or people, emigrate. You won't stop the town clock by going away. The church bells will have the same musical ring, the little dogs will play just as well and the pure air, bright sunshine and sparkling water will have the same health giving properties. Speak a good word for your neighbor if you can; if you cannot, don't everlastingly enlarge on his faults. If you have become thoroughly disgruntled move away; go somewhere where things will suit you.—New Bethlehem Leader.

The Lock Haven State Normal school closed the most successful year in its history. Its new catalogue containing 122 pages, beautifully illustrated, is now ready for distribution. This is one of the great schools of our state and affords the best available advantage for the training of teachers, fitting for college or business. Its department of music and elocution are also largely patronized and thoroughly equipped. The fall term begins September 10th. Address for catalogue, the principal, J. R. Flickinger, Lock Haven, Pa.

It is not generally known that it requires a two-cent stamp to mail a leather postal card when there is any writing, even initials of sender, on back of postal. If there is nothing but the address written on the leather postal it can be mailed with a one cent stamp, but any writing on it makes it merchandise, according to ruling of postal department, and must have a two cent stamp.

Never before has there been such a large stock of floor coverings shown in this town than we have this spring. We have over 50 patterns of 9 ft. x 12 ft. rugs from $5.00 to $50.00, and over 7,000 yards of carpet from 20c to $1.60 per yard. Come and see our stock; no trouble to show it. J. R. Hillis & Co.

Boys who are in the habit of killing our song birds with air guns and sling shots, are probably not aware that such sport is in violation of the state law, and any person who sees them kill a bird can have them arrested and fined for every offense.

Young men desiring rooms in the new dormitory of the Indiana Normal School of Pennsylvania will find it to their advantage to send in their applications at once. Address D. J. Waller, Jr., Indiana, Pa.

If a stand patter is one who will not change his political faith, a sit patter must be one who refuses to move away from the end seat in a street car.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Swab Reunion.

A very pleasant family reunion was held on Saturday, August 25th, 1906, at the beautiful country home of Adam Swab and wife, two miles west of Shermerville, in Clarion county, Pa. Of the family these were present: S. G. Sartwell, wife and three children, of Pittsburgh, H. A. Swab, wife and five children, of Reynoldsville, D. F. Swab, wife and three children, J. S. Swab, wife and two children, and W. R. Swab, wife and two children, of Falls Creek, Ross Haugh, wife and two children, of Brookville, and Miss Nettie and Florence Swab, still living at home with their parents.

In addition to the members of the family there were present the Rev. J. W. Myers and wife, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. Shaffer, Harvey Shaffer and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Brosius, Mrs. Slicker, daughters and son, Mrs. Harvey Yeany and Harry Mills. A bounteous feast was spread, of which all most heartily partook, after which a short address was made by Rev. Myers and a Morris chair, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Sartwell to the aged parents, was presented. One son and his family, residing at Wheeling, West Va., were not present. J. W. M.

New Real Estate Firm.

Having formed a co-partnership with C. A. Yeager, of Marlinton, W. Va., to do a general real estate business in coal, timber and farming lands, we are prepared to furnish those wanting Southern timber, or coal with anything in that line they may want. Mr. Yeager is a native of W. Va., and has had many years experience in the timber business, and is thoroughly posted in the timber tracts of that section, knowing where all the best ones are. I have spent most all my life in the lumber business, and we feel we are competent to pass judgement on a piece of timber when we see it, and we aim to make a personal investigation of every piece we list for sale. Those wanting timber or coal lands will do well to communicate with our main office, Yeager & Parrish, Marlinton, W. Va., or with me at my home address, Reynoldsville, Pa. ROBERT Z. PARRISH.

Clipping Expenses

THE National Cigar Stands have taken cigars out of the class of expensive luxuries. They save smokers nearly one-half their cigar money, and give them better-made, better-kept and better-quality cigars besides. Tobacco itself is not immensely expensive. The great cost of cigars has always been in the wasteful way in which they were sold. No other merchandise of such common use passed through so many hands and was loaded with so many profits between producer and consumer. The National plan reduces cost, not by reducing quality, but by cutting off all the "lost motion" in handling and all unnecessary profits. National Cigar Stands' cigars come to you straight from the producer. Just to see what this means in getting quality-for-price, try the
