Talking to a physician about twins and commenting upon the marvelous likeness they sometimes bear to one another, he gave an interesting fact regarding them. "You can always distinguish one from the other," said he, "no matter how great the resemblance, for the elder invariably has the broader face. Notice twins hereafter, and you can say with certainty that the narrower faced one is the younger of the two. I have no authority for saying that fewer male than female twins are born, but I am of the opinion that the couple are more frequently girls or girl and boy than boys. Twin brothers are few and far between."

A Terrible Punishment.

Herr Hager, a wealthy and absent-minded banker who lived in Berlin many years ago, frequently had watches picked from his pocket. At first he had recourse to all kinds of safety chains; then one fine morning he took no precaution whatever and quietly allowed himself to be robbed. At night, on returning from business, he took up the evening paper, when he uttered an exclamation of delight. A watch had exploded in a man's hands. The hands of the victim were shattered and the left eye gone. The crafty banker had filled the watch case with dynamite, which exploded during the operation of winding.

Salt and Epilepsy.

"Whenever we get a call to attend a case of epilepsy," said an ambulance surgeon at Bellevue, "we always find the patient's neck and face covered with salt. The efficiency of salt as a cure for epilepsy is evidently a relic of some old country superstition, though just what it is we've never been able to find out."—New York Sun.

Start and Finish.

"All men are created free," declared the flamboyant citizen. "That's right," assented the sour citizen. Marriage ain't forced on to nobody. When a feller gets spliced he does it on his own responsibility."—Pittsburg Post.

New Dish to Her.

"Did you notice the faux pas I made at the Gottawads last night?" asked Mrs. Oldcastle. "No," replied her hostess. "I seen you workin' over the chafin' dish, but I thought you was makin' a Welsh rabbit."—Chicago Record-Herald.

There is no policy like politeness, since a good manner often succeeds where the best tongue has failed.

Kitchen Troubles and the Remedy

An error commonly made by home owners is in underestimating the necessity of proper sanitary equipment for the kitchen.

Only a few years ago it was considered good form to encase the sink in wood thereby concealing the trap, making it inaccessible and offering a place for the collection of filth and vermin. If this condition exists in your household, examine into it and learn the true state of affairs.

Do not lose sight of the fact that your food is prepared in the kitchen and the utensils in which it is prepared depend on the sanitary arrangements for cleanliness, therefore safeguard against contamination of either food or utensils.

The most certain way to do this is to employ us to install a snowy white, spotlessly clean, "Standard" Porcelain Enamelled Kitchen Sink. You will find it a remedy for kitchen troubles.
