Clarion fair this week. Organ recital Thursday evening. Organ recital in the M. E. church to-morrow evening. Born to Mr. and Mrs. T. C. McEnteer, Sept. 8, 1906, a son. Men are at work grading Eighth st. from Jackson to Main. Argument court will be held at Brookville next Monday, Sept. 17. Brookville fair association was favored with four ideal days for the fair last week. A number of town people attended the corn supper at Jacob Schwem's last evening. Naturalization court will be held in Brookville on Monday, September 24, at 9.00 a. m. Prof. Hines has opened his Monday night dances in Reynolds Park. Dance every Monday night. 'Snares of the Devil' will be Rev. A. J. Meek's subject at the Baptist church next Sunday evening. Frank King, son of Dr. J. C. King, went to State College Monday to attend the college in that place. Five hundred tickets were sold at P. R. R. station last Thursday for Brookville on account of the fair. A number of Reynoldsville people found it convenient to visit friends in Brookville last week—fair week. W. E. Kunselman has been hired as janitor of the M. E. church. Mr. Reddick resigned to go out west. Prof. H. D. Patton, Prohibition candidate for Lt. Governor, lectured in Centennial hall last Friday evening. Members of John M. Read Lodge, F. & A. M., picniced at Wishaw Park last Thursday. It was a lovely day for a picnic. The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church will hold a market on Saturday afternoon in the room vacated by Harmon's shoe store. The attendance at the Brookville fair last Thursday was a record breaker—18,000 to 20,000 people present, according to reports. John Zimmerman, who now resides in Butler county, sold his farm in Washington township, Jefferson county, to Daniel Mowry yesterday.

The monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Work Society will be held at home of Mrs. James Campbell or Jackson street to-morrow afternoon.

E. C. Burns, of this place, won first prize at the county fair last week for having the finest two horse family turnout on exhibition at the fair.

Hereafter every person that has a lock box in the post office will be expected to send their key when they want other people to get their mail.

A freight wreck on P. R. R. near Shannon Saturday afternoon delayed the eastbound passenger train due here at 6.15 p. m. over two hours and a half.

Monday of next week the Punxsutawney Spirit will begin the publication of a daily paper. It will be called The Daily Spirit. It will be an afternoon paper.

Yesterday was Mrs. G. G. Sprague's 81st birthday and Mrs. Dr. B. E. Hoover, a daughter, gave a dinner to a few friends in honor of her mother's birthday anniversary.

The matrimonial bands of Lawyer Clement W. Flynn and Miss Althea Sutter, two prominent young people of this place, was announced in the Catholic church last Sunday.

Next Sunday evening Miss Myrtle Shober, who attended the Conservatory of Music in Pittsburgh the past summer, will sing in the Baptist church. Miss Shober is a sweet singer.

Rev. W. P. Murray, at one time pastor of the M. E. church at this place, was made presiding elder of the Erie district at the Erie annual M. E. conference in Meadville the past week.

The report of The Peoples National bank shows that the deposits in the bank have increased over $20,000 since the last report, notwithstanding the fact that the miners' strike was on during that time.

S. J. Burgoon & Son, who opened a plumbing shop in the Stoke building on Fifth street last January, are closing out their stock to quit business. Herman, the junior partner, has accepted a position in Boston, Mass.

Miss Mitchell, of Mahaffey, graduate of the musical department of Grove City college in vocal and instrumental music, sang in the Reynoldsville Baptist church last Sunday evening. George McLachlan, of Eleanor, sang in the same church Sunday morning.

A report has been circulated around town that the J. & C. C. & I. Co. would hereafter pay on 1st and 15th of each month, regardless of what day the dates would come on. This is not correct. The company will continue to pay on Saturdays, twice a month, same as before strike.

Josephine Stankevich, daughter of Paul Stankevich, died at home of her parents on Jackson street Friday evening, Sept. 7, 1906. Typhoid fever was cause of her death. Josephine was fifteen years old. Funeral service Sunday afternoon and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

Rev. J. W. Myers, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, is off on a two weeks' vacation. He went to Port Washington, Ohio, the latter part of last week and will visit several other places. There was no preaching in the Lutheran church last Sunday and there will not be any preaching in that church next Sunday.

A large number of relatives, friends and neighbors attended the funeral of Josiah Deter on Grant street last Wednesday evening. Funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. W. Myers, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. The body was taken to Eddyville, Armstrong county, Thursday morning for burial.

Miss Isabel Arnold, who returned a few days ago from an European trip, gave a very interesting and instructive talk before the Christian Endeavor Society in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening on the World's Christian Endeavor convention, which she attended at Geneva, Switzerland.

Peter Cantafeo an Italian who was arrested for trying to shoot one of the constabulary at Florence the Sunday night of the tragedy at that place, was given a hearing before a justice at Punxsutawney and being unable to secure $1,500 bail for his appearance at next term of court, was taken to the county jail Thursday by Sergt. Joseph Logan.

When P. J. Ward was constable in West Reynoldsville it was his duty to levy on the household goods of a man who "cut a wide swath," but failed to liquidate his debts, and when Constable Ward went to the house to levy on the goods the man was not present, but his wife said, "You are the meanest man I ever saw," and Mr. Ward replied: "My G—, woman, you saw one man meaner than me or I would not be here."

The centennial exercises of the Plains Presbyterian church, Butler Presbytery, Rev. John Waite pastor, will be held from September 16 to 23. The church was organized in 1806. The congregation held meetings in a tent from 1806 to 1820, when a log church was erected. In 1839 a brick church was built. The present church built in 1878, is a frame building. Rev. Waite, ex-treasurer of Jefferson county, is the fifteenth pastor.

Rev. Parsons Returned. Dr. J. A. Parsons, who has been pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church two years, has been returned for another year.

Bank Reports. Reports of the condition of the three banks of Reynoldsville, The Peoples National bank, The First National bank and The Citizens National bank, will be found in this issue of THE STAR.

Located at Rathmel. Dr. Ira D. Bowser, graduate of the Western University of Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh Medical college, and son of Dr. A. H. Bowser, of Reynoldsville, has located in Rathmel. He opened an office at Rathmel Thursday.

Chic-Corn Club Annual Dinner. Members of the Chic-Corn Club held their annual chicken and corn supper at the Mitchell farm Monday night. The members took their wives along this time. The men cleaned the chickens and fried them and cooked the corn on a big wood fire and the ladies watched them do the work.

Building a Greenhouse. G. M. Davis, of West Reynoldsville, is having a greenhouse built near his residence. Charles Arnold is doing the work. The greenhouse will be 30 x 110 feet. It is Mr. Davis' intention to raise vegetables this winter and if it proves successful he will build a large addition to the plant next spring.

Meeting at Opera House. A meeting of citizens will be held at the Reynolds opera house to-morrow, Thursday, evening, Sept. 13, at 8.30, to make arrangements for the reunion of the 105th Regiment Pa. Vol., to be held in Reynoldsville on Thursday, October 18th. Every person interested in this reunion, and all citizens should be, are requested to attend the meeting to-morrow evening. A number of committees will have to be appointed.

Star Soloist. As for the soloists Miss Miller was, unquestionably, the star. She sang with dramatic vigor that never once seemed to require the singer to force her beautiful voice. Miss Miller's singing was marked by a beauty of phrasing and a polished surety that accorded exactly to the form and spirit of the music.—Pittsburg Bulletin. Miss Miller will sing at the organ recital in the M. E. church to-morrow evening.

Charged with Murder. In March, 1905, the barn of William Dinger, of Porter township, Jefferson county, was burned and a girl named Blanche Reed, step-daughter of Mr. Dinger, was burned to death in the barn. Ezra Caylor, who was accused of setting the barn on fire and tried for arson, but was acquitted, was arrested last week on charge of murdering Blanche Reed. He is now in the county jail at Brookville.

T. J. Hetrick Dead. T. J. Hetrick, of Knox township, brother of our townsman, H. M. Hetrick, died at his home near Knoxdale, at 1.00 a. m. Friday, September 7, 1906. He had been ill a year. Liver trouble was cause of his death. Mr. Hetrick was 50 years old. He is survived by his wife and three children. Funeral service was held in the Lutheran church at Knoxdale at 10.00 a. m. Sunday and interment was made in the Knoxdale cemetery.

Will Sell Hotel. W. S. Ross, proprietor of the Ross House, has had the ground staked off for a dwelling house for himself at corner of Pike street and P. R. R. crossing in West Reynoldsville. W. A. Leech will put up the building which will be brick. Mr. Ross expects to sell his hotel in the spring, move into his new house and retire from the hotel business. He has sold the Moor House to W. A. Leech, proprietor of the West Reynoldsville planing mill.

Franklin & Clearfield Railroad. There has been considerable talk and speculation about the course of the Franklin & Clearfield railroad east of Brookville, but the company has not been giving out the much desired information concerning their route east. Eventually, we believe, the route will be built via Reynoldsville, but for some time the company will use the P. R. R. track between Brookville and Fall Creek. This information comes from what we consider a reliable source.

Public Schools Opened. The public schools of this borough opened Monday with an enrollment of about 800, the largest enrollment the school ever opened with. The high school has the largest enrollment it ever had, 100 at least. The school building is now too small to accommodate all the pupils and over 30 pupils of the fourth grade were put in the chapel yesterday in charge of Miss Lois Robinson, the supply teacher. It will only be a few years until a new school building will have to be built in Reynoldsville, in fact the matter should be taken up by the school board this year. The parents generally are complying with the vaccination law and only a few pupils were sent home the first day of school because they had not been vaccinated.

"DOC" RADEBACH KILLED. Struck by a Passenger Train at Hyde City—Buried at Reynoldsville.

Ellsworth D. Radebach, familiarly known as "Doc" Radebach, who resided in West Reynoldsville about sixteen years and worked at the tannery, was killed by a passenger train at Hyde City, near Clearfield, about ten o'clock Tuesday forenoon, September 4, 1906. A freight train was waiting at Hyde City for passenger train and the crossing had been cut to allow teams to pass through. Mr. Radebach was walking over the crossing between the freight cars and was looking back talking to some one and stepped in front of the passenger train, which he did not hear coming, and was killed. The report that he was killed in trying to save his dog from being killed by the train, was a false report.

E. D. Radebach was born at Clearfield June 16, 1852, and 54 years old last June. He came to Reynoldsville about twenty years ago. His wife died six years ago last April. He moved from Reynoldsville to Clearfield four years ago last May. His body was brought to Reynoldsville Friday on the 1.29 p. m. train over the P. R. R. and was buried in the Reynoldsville cemetery.

Deceased is survived by five daughters. Two of the girls have gone to Clarion to live with an uncle, Mary, who has lived at home of W. H. Moore, groceryman, in this place since her mother died, will stay there, and Alice, the oldest, and Carrie, the youngest, will live in Clearfield.

Sudden Death Wednesday. John Swyers, a stone mason, died suddenly Wednesday, September 5, 1906, about 5.00 p. m. from heart failure at home of Ex-Constable John Brochey, who resides on what is known as the Goodwill place at north end of Fourth street. John had gone out for a bucket of coal and not returning in reasonable time some person went to look for him and found him dead. John Swyers was 56 years old last April. He had been in Reynoldsville a quarter of a century. At time of death he was working for and staying with Mr. Brochey.

The body was taken to Priesters' undertaking rooms and prepared for burial, but he did not leave enough money to pay funeral expenses, his father, who resides in Centre county, could not pay funeral expenses and the body was kept at Priester's until a subscription paper was circulated around town to raise money for funeral expenses. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery Sunday forenoon.

Might Have Killed Some Person. William Dodson, one of the men who was tried in the Jefferson County court ten years ago for the murder of a peddler near Brockwayville and was sentenced to twelve years in the penitentiary, but was pardoned on account of poor health before his time expired, is now in the Brookville jail. It is stated that on Thursday evening, while visibly intoxicated, Dodson met a man on the Main street in Brookville who was on the jury when Dodson was tried and sentenced to the penitentiary, and that after Dodson passed him he turned and fired two shots at the man and then threw his revolver away, which was afterwards found. It was a .38-calibre. It is miraculous that Dodson did not kill some person, as there were a number of people on the street at the time. Bail was fixed at $500 and Dodson was unable to raise it and will have to stay in jail until the next term of court.

Excursion to Buffalo and Niagara Falls. The Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh Ry. will run another low rate excursion to Buffalo and Niagara Falls on Sunday, Sept. 23rd. Special train will leave Sykes at 6.00 a. m. and returning leave Niagara Falls 7.00 p. m. and Buffalo 8.00 p. m. The round trip fare will be only $2.50 and tickets will also be good returning from Buffalo on regular train Monday, Sept. 24.

Special attention is called to the statement of the Citizens National Bank appearing in this issue. Their business has increased wonderfully since they nationalized the latter part of July. They have recently increased their board of directors by electing Dr. A. H. Bowser a member. Dr. Bowser is one of our old reliable citizens who is known here and in the surrounding country. The following members compose the officers and board of directors: David Wheeler president, Arthur O'Donnell vice-president, McCurdy Hunter vice-president, John S. Howard cashier, J. W. Hunter assistant cashier, John W. Stewart, J. G. Brown, J. M. McCreight, Dr. A. H. Bowser, John F. Dinger and Andrew Wheeler.

Steve Covenskieh, who was injured in Big Solder mine on Thursday, was taken to the county home Saturday. Miners that pay $1.00 per month to Adrian Hospital are taken there when injured and cared for, but Steve had not signed the dollar a month agreement since the strike and he was taken to the county home.

Home dressed meats of all kinds at Hunter & Millers' meat market. Trunks and suit cases at Millers. Boys' school suits at Millers.

MRS. AZUBA KEITH DEAD.

Died While Visiting in Brookville—Burial at Paxton, Ill.

Mrs. Azuba Keith, mother of Mrs. C. R. Hall, of Reynoldsville, who made her home with Mrs. Hall, died at the home of her grand-daughter, Mrs. W. T. Darr, in Brookville, at 9.30 p. m. Thursday, September 6, 1906. Mrs. Keith had gone to Brookville to visit Mrs. Darr a couple of weeks ago, where she took ill and passed away. Short funeral service was held at Darr residence Saturday at 10.00 a. m., conducted by Rev. Adams, and the body was taken on afternoon train to Paxton, Ill., for interment beside husband of deceased, who died seventeen years ago. Mrs. C. R. Hall, Mrs. W. T. Darr and Albert Keith, of Chicago, went with the body to Paxton.

Mrs. Keith's maiden name was Azuba Tuttle. She was born in Oneida county, N. Y., November 14, 1827, and would have been 79 years old next November. She was married to Albert Keith, Sr., in 1851. Unto them four children were born, two of whom died in infancy. One son, Albert Keith, Jr., of Chicago, and one daughter, Mrs. C. R. Hall, of Reynoldsville, survive her. They were both at her bedside when she departed this life. She had been a member of the First Presbyterian church at Paxton for many years. Mrs. Keith was an intelligent and bright old lady, and although well along in life's journey was young in spirit and enjoyed going out into society. She had many friends in Reynoldsville who were sorry to hear of her death.

Miss Rosa Mitchell, who has just graduated in music from Grove City College, both in voice and piano, will begin her work with private scholars in this town next week. She will also teach a vocal class for both boys and girls in Assembly hall of public school building twice a week after school. The children will be taught the elements of music and taught to sing by note. All parties wishing their children to take this work will have them report at Assembly hall Wednesday, Sept. 19, at 4 o'clock. Terms $3.00 each for a term of ten weeks.

Public Notice.

The parents and guardians of all children of the school age residing within the school district of Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., are hereby notified that the law with reference to vaccination will hereafter be rigidly enforced according to instructions from the State Board of Health, and all children who have not been successfully vaccinated will be prohibited from attending the Reynoldsville schools. J. S. HAMMOND, President. W. H. BELL, Secretary.

Joseph Alavino, who has a shoe shop in the opera house block, does all kind of repairing. He makes a specialty of putting on rubber soles and heels.

Take your watches and clocks for repair to Samuel Katzen, the jeweler. He guarantees all his work for one year. Next door to Postoffice, Reynoldsville.

Public vendue at J. J. Smith's residence, Winslow township, to-morrow at 1.00 p. m.

HIGH CLASS ENTERTAINMENT. Pipe Organ Recital and Star Soloist in the M. E. Church

Those who go to the Methodist Episcopal church Thursday evening of this week, Sept. 13, to hear the pipe organ recital will not only hear a skilled musician play the big organ, but they will have the pleasure of listening to a star soloist. This entertainment will be a rare treat, and any person who enjoys hearing a master musician or a sweet singer, should not miss hearing Prof. Charles Price Mustin and Miss Christine Miller. It is seldom the people of Reynoldsville are given the opportunity of hearing such fine talent without going to the city to hear it.

The entertainment is given under the auspices of the church choir and proceeds will be used in paying the choir's subscription to new church and to buy music. The choir deserves praise and credit for their excellent music and faithfulness, and every Methodist should show their appreciation of the choir's work by attending this entertainment. This is the first time the choir has asked the church to patronize an entertainment, and this time they are giving an entertainment well worth the price of admission, which is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. Tickets on sale at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.'s store. Following is the program:

- Suite Gotique... Boellman

Josiah Deter's Funeral.

A large number of relatives, friends and neighbors attended the funeral of Josiah Deter on Grant street last Wednesday evening. Funeral service was conducted by the Rev. J. W. Myers, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. The floral tributes were beautiful. The body was taken to Eddyville, Armstrong Co., Thursday morning for burial.

List of flowers: Bouquet, Margaret Evans, bouquet Raymond and Orlan Draucker, bouquet, John H. Wagner and wife, bouquet Miss Carrie Albright, bouquet, Mrs. Dr. J. C. Sayers, carnations and roses Daughters of Rebekah, bouquet, Mrs. A. M. Applegate, bouquet, I. O. O. F., bouquet Miss Hannah Stauffer, bouquet, Dr. B. E. Hoover and wife, bouquet, Joshua Harris and wife, bouquet A. F. Yost and wife, pillow, A. Kingsley Yost, wreath, family; several bouquets without names of givers.

The following out of town people attended the funeral: William Marshall and wife, of Hawthorne, George Yost, of Putneyville, A. Kingsley Yost, of Horatio, Ed. Grinder and wife, Miles Grinder and son, Raymond, Mrs. Dodwell and Miss Blanche States, of Cloe City, Pa., Miss Maude Edean, of New Kensington, and Miss Mary Bell, of Punxsutawney.

Music Class.

About eleven o'clock Monday night ye editor was awakened from a peaceful sleep by sweet angelic music under our bedroom window. For a second we were not sure whether it was a welcome song on the eternal shores—such as editors no doubt will receive,—a dream or a serenade by a quartette of ladies. It proved to be the latter. After the first song some bold fellows down on Jackson street applauded and the serenaders skipped before we could pass around the angel cake and see who the sweet singers were.

A Charming Singer.

Miss Miller was perfectly at home in her work. Calm, dignified, and yet full of the exultation of the music, she sang in a manner to command the admiration of all who were familiar with what tradition demands from her part. She is, indeed, well adapted to oratorio music.—Pittsburg Post. Will sing at the M. E. church Thursday evening of this week, Sept. 13.

Knights of Golden Eagle Reunion.

A special excursion train will be run from Rathmel and Reynoldsville to Clearfield on Wednesday of next week, Sept. 19th, for the Knights of Golden Eagle Reunion. Train will leave Rathmel at 6.15 a. m. and will leave R. & F. C. station in Reynoldsville at 6.30 a. m. Fare for round trip $1.15. Returning train will leave Clearfield at 7.08 p. m.

Miss Christine Miller always sings as an artist, and her work in "Elijah" was of a character to establish her even more firmly in public favor. She has a magnificent contralto voice. "O, Rest in the Lord" as sung by Miss Miller could not possibly have been better sung, and brought out a storm of applause which almost carried the audience to its feet.—Pittsburg Leader. Will sing in the M. E. church Thursday evening.
