Sykesville.

While attending the Null-Dressler reunion near Home Camp on last Saturday, Delbert, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Null, of this place, met with a painful accident which resulted in a compound fracture of the left arm and the injuring of the back and hip. Delbert, who is but nine years old, while playing on the barnfloor with the rest of the children attempted to climb up over a hay ladder which had been turned up against the side of the barn and when nearly at the top the ladder tipped over and fell upon him. It took the combined efforts of three men to lift the ladder off the boy, who was immediately brought home and his injuries attended to. Drs. Hennelgh and Raine reduced the fracture and he is doing as well as could be expected.

The High School Bulletin

EDITOR IN-CHIEF, ALDIE MEANS.

Shakespearean Literary society met Friday, Sept. 14, and elected the following officers: President, Law Sykes; Vice-President, Neile Foley; Secretary, Eugene Murray; Attorney, Bert Hoffman; Critic, Prof. Marsh; Pianist, Alice Mitchell; Editor-in-Chief, Aldie Means.

We have been unable to hold chapel exercises on account of school being held in Assembly hall.

A re-arrangement of the first five grades has been made in order to accommodate the large number of pupils.

Two new members have been added to the faculty: Prof. Marsh, assistant principal, Miss Meek, teacher of the supply room.

Elvæ—It is always "Best" to be late. How about the B grade for "Sine pœllas, vita nihil est."

Four graduates of Reynoldsville high school were added to Room 15.

Eugene Murray, junior of '07, will receive all money subscribed for foot ball team at his office on the earliest date possible. Please be prompt.

People Don't Court Honestly.

"Remember that the girl of Monday morning is a very different creature from the little angel who cooed good-night a few hours before," said the Rev. Dr. Charles E. McClellan in a sermon at the Fairhill Baptist church last evening. The sermon was the first of a series on "How to be Happy Though Married," and the subject last evening was "Wooling and Wedlock."

"People do not court honestly," said Dr. McClellan. "The majority of them wear disguises through their courtship. That sweet, cooing voice, that gentle manner and gentle disposition are as easily put on as the complexion. That gentle, generous, kind-hearted fellow yonder, the soul of court eay and reverence when with her, is as overbearing and as cross as a hyena in the place where he works. Persons should court honestly and get acquainted. There should be no marriage until each person is thoroughly familiar with the home and business life of the other.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

In Reynoldsville.

Many of the best families in Reynoldsville and vicinity, are using the Prizer Stoves and Ranges with the best results. Every one sold has given entire satisfaction. We would be pleased to have you examine them. Reynoldsville Hardware Co.

We commend strongly the custom which seems to be coming into vogue of selecting a name for the farm and home and painting the same on a neat sign-board and posting it at the entrance to the place, together with the name of the proprietor. Doing so is quite likely to increase the interest and pride which the owner will feel in keeping the premises in neat and attractive shape, while we are not at all sure that it does not result in an effort on his part to raise a few more bushels of corn and oats to the acre and keep a better grade of live stock. It is worth while trying at all events and is a great convenience to the passerby.—Ex.
