The entire Pittsburg, Shawmut and Northern railroad is practically being reconstructed. The line is being straightened out and the grade lessened between here and St. Marys. Large forces of men are working from this place to below Brookville, and it is reasonable to expect that the road will have trains running into Brookville in the course of a few months. The building of the projected Pittsburg and Northern will take the Shawmut to Pittsburg, and the arrangement with the B. & S. for use of the Shawmut tracks will take trains over that line into Buffalo. It is only a question of a short time until the Shawmut will be one of the leading railroads in this section of the country.—Brookville Record.

Raising Some Fine Fruit.

R. M. Fugate, a prosperous farmer who has a farm about two and one-half miles from town, brought to this office yesterday some pears that are hard to beat and fully demonstrates the fact that as fine fruit can be raised in this section as in any part of United States. There were four varieties in the lot brought in, Siskie, Bartlett, Bloodgood and Flemish Beauty. They are on display in one of the windows of the Express building.

Mr. Fugate is a firm believer in the fact that this is a great fruit growing country and at present has twenty acres of fruit bearing trees of various kinds under cultivation. It is his intention to place his entire farm under fruit cultivation.

Mr. Fugate states that the yield of fruit this year from the trees he has that are old enough to bear is very good. He expects to get about fifty bushels of pears alone, in addition to the large amount of other fruit. Although there are only four varieties in the number of pears brought to this office by Mr. Fugate he has in all about twenty different kinds.

Mr. Fugate is firmly of the opinion that this country is as well adapted to the growing of fruit as any part of the country. Care has to be exercised in studying the different trees to hold them back in order to escape the frosts.—DuBois Express.

Mr. Fugate is a Winslow township farmer. His farm, 80 acres, is located near Rathmel.

Pittsburg Exposition.

With the advent of cool weather, comes an increased attendance at the Pittsburg Exposition. The season is well under way and from present indications, the eighteenth season will go down into history as the banner season of the Exposition. Mgr. Fitzpatrick is striving to surpass the attendance of last year when in the neighborhood of 450,000 passed through the Exposition turnstiles. The musical attractions for this year are of such an attractive nature that but little surprise will be created if the half million mark is reached in the attendance record by the last night of the season.

The Theodore Thomas Orchestra has come and gone, Sousa is packing Music Hall every afternoon and evening this week and Victor Herbert comes next week for a stay of but one week but with promises of everything that is good in a musical way during his 24 concerts.

ALL TASTES FIND SATISFACTION

Beautiful and Instructive Exhibits Interspersed With Amusement Features of Latest Invention and Thrilling Character—20,000 at Opening.

The Old Point rang with the cheers of nearly 20,000 on Wednesday evening, August 29, the opening of the eighteenth season of the popular Exposition in Pittsburg. The steel and glass buildings have become one of the favorite amusement resorts of the Greater Pittsburg district, each succeeding year increasing its popularity and patronage until now it is almost impossible to accommodate the crowds which attempt to push and edge their way into Music Hall. Signor Creators, one of the renowned band leaders of the country—a musician who gained his renown in an evening and has retained it, adding laurels each year, had the honor of opening the Exposition season this year. He reigns supreme in the musical circles of Pittsburg for 10 days, bringing his engagement to a close on Saturday night, September 8. Then comes the Theodore Thomas orchestra, an orchestra which needs no introduction to Pittsburgers or to music-lovers in any part of the country. Following the Thomas orchestra comes Sousa, then Ellery, then two weeks of Damrosch. Damrosch will bring the season to a close on the evening of October 20. Before that time it is confidently expected that more than half a million people will have paid admission to the Exposition to hear the music and take in the new features of the Point show, which seems to change entirely each year.

Nothing But Words of Praise.
The crowds which have visited the Exposition in its opening days have had nothing but words of praise for everything connected with the show. On every hand something new bobs up to strike the eye of the visitor. The thousands who have visited the Expo thus far were particularly struck with the Hippodrome, which occupies the space in the Machinery Hall formerly occupied by the "Fighting Flames" show. The Hippodrome is a combination of a big circus and vaudeville show. There is a change every minute—one act an animal act; the next, trained, agile acrobats; horses as wise as men; in fact everything that could be found in the circus arena or on the vaudeville stage.

Another exhibition which has struck the fancy of the Pittsburgers and out-of-town visitors, especially the ruralites, is the display of southern products at the main entrance of the Exposition—the Southern Railway Exhibit. There is shown what can be raised on the fertile soil in the southern states—the exhibit shows everything that is worth raising from a peanut to a bale of alfalfa.

The City of Tacoma, one of the most wide awake and progressive of the western cities, is equally as anxious to advertise its state and its inducements to one who is thinking of migrating west. This city has an extensive exhibit at the Exposition showing samples of its natural products—specimens of its milling and wining products—in fact a little of everything, with excellent pictures of the principal buildings, sights, etc., in Tacoma.

Excursion Rates on Railroads.
The various railroads have made preparations to carry the thousands who are preparing to take in the Expo before October 20. Thursdays are the most popular days for the out-of-town visitors, when special excursion rates are granted. The excursion tickets also include the price of admission. The first of these big excursions will be on Thursday, September 8, then every Thursday till the close. Saturday excursions will also be run.

Your Own Examination

When you do come in to look at CLOTHCRAFT garments let your examination be as close and careful as you can make it.

CLOTHCRAFT Clothes will stand it. Behind every garment there is experience gained in fifty years of making the best.

CLOTHCRAFT Clothes represent the latest—the accepted style. They have the cut which will secure you a perfect, comfortable fit. The coats have the close collar, the smoothly setting lapels, the concaved shoulders, which always distinguish CLOTHCRAFT cut and make. And the real goodness isn't merely pressed in,—it is built in—tailored in—to stay.

CLOTHCRAFT makers have preached—and practiced—the ALL-WOOL doctrine always. Nothing is good enough—except wool—for Clothcraft.

Your examination will show you pleasing prices, also.

Will you examine to-day—now—while the assortment of fabrics and patterns is complete?
