SYKESVILLE CITIZEN DIED WEDNESDAY.

F. C. Bonnett Expired at Adrian Hospital After Undergoing an Operation. Was Prominent in Business and Social Life of Sykesville.

Frederick Carl Bonnett, who for thirteen years had been a resident and business man of Sykesville, died at the Adrian hospital on Wednesday evening, September 19, 1906. He was taken sick about six weeks ago with gastric fever and was confined to his bed for three weeks after which he improved until three weeks ago, when he was able to leave his room and for several days he was able to be about the house but did not attend to business of any kind. On Saturday evening, Sept. 15th, he took a relapse and grew gradually worse. After a consultation of five or six doctors it was decided to take him to the Adrian hospital for an operation, which was done early Wednesday morning. The operation was performed at 8.30 a. m. He rallied from the operation and grew better until about six o'clock when he became worse and died a few minutes past six. His wife accompanied him to the hospital and remained with him to the end. His remains were brought to his home on Thursday morning. Funeral was held Sunday forenoon.

Mr. Bonnett was born in Henderson township, near this place, August 24, 1864. For many years he was a member of the Reformed church of Paradise and was a great church worker. December 26, 1892, he was united in marriage with Miss Laura E. Dickey, who was also a faithful member of the Reformed church. To this union were born four children: Rachel, aged 13, Ruth, aged 11, John, aged 9, and Naomi, aged 7 years. Besides his wife and children he is survived by father, mother, three brothers and three sisters, namely: Mrs. Mary Lydiek, of Mahaffey, Mrs. Bertha Wise, of Sykesville, Mrs. Carrie Reiter and Henry Bonnett, of Penfield, Charles A. and Jacob Bonnett, of Henderson township.

We can only say, as all others have said, that in the death of Mr. Bonnett Sykesville loses one her best and foremost citizens, a man loved and respected by all who knew him. He was looked upon as a man of sound judgment, and with business ability which enabled him to secure the confidence of all with whom he came in contact. He was ever ready to lend a helping hand to the interests of the town. We will miss him greatly not only in the business but in social circles as well. The funeral was held in the M. E. church at this place at 9.00 a. m. Sunday, conducted by Rev. N. H. Smith, of Troutville, pastor of deceased, assisted by Rev. R. C. McMinn, of the M. E. church, and Rev. J. W. Crawford, of the Baptist church, of this place. The body was then taken the Reformed church at Paradise where service was held by Rev. N. H. Smith, assisted by Rev. J. W. Crawford. Interment was made in the cemetery at Paradise. Priestess Brca., of Reynolds-ville having charge. Mr. Bonnett was a charter member of the K. of P. Lodge at this place and was also a member of the Uniform Rank Company as well as a member of the Protected Home Circle. Both orders turned out in a body and accompanied the remains to their last resting place. The Uniform Rank company mounted, acting as an escort and headed the procession followed by the remainder of the K. of P. Lodge. Six knights acting as pallbearers, and four as a floral committee, the flowers consisting of a pillow of carnations by wife and family, a triangle in the colors of the order by the K. of P., a bouquet of lilies by the U. R. Co., a broken circle by the P. H. C., and a bouquet of carnations by the Pythian Sisters of which his wife belonged, and many other bouquets by different people.

The funeral cortege was the largest held in this section of the country for many years, there being about sixty cabs, carriages and other conveyances while many were compelled to remain in town on account of a means of conveyance.
