Mrs. Calvin was the mother of two sons and four daughters, all of whom have preceded her to that heavenly home excepting her youngest daughter, Mrs. Pollitt, with whom she made her home for several years.
Mrs. Calvin was a noble woman; always looking towards the welfare of others before self. She was a perfect christian and led a very active life until a few years back when her strength grew weaker. Her faith was strong in her Saviour, and almost every breath for days was a prayer. She joined the United Presbyterian church early in life and continued a member of that denomination until several years ago when she transferred her membership to the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church.

Hughes & Fleming had charge of the funeral.
Folded the hands that have faithfully labored,
Quietly clasped o'er the once troubled breast,
Gone are the heartaches, the waiting is ended—
Peacefully, tranquilly lying at rest.
Silent the lips that so often in blessing,
Comfort in trial and in grief did impart;
Closed are the eyes that were loving and tender,
Hushed are the throbbings of that loyal heart.
Willing to live and willing to suffer,
Trusting though billows would over her roll,
Happier still has she heard that sweet summons,
"Enter thy haven, O tempest-tossed soul."
