Rev. W. W. Dale, of Franklin, who was the Methodist minister at Reynoldsville thirty years ago, is the guest of Dr. J. A. Parsons at the M. E. parsonage this week. When Rev. Dale was pastor here services were held in the Reynolds opera house.

We received an announcement last week of the marriage of Miss Mary Delaney Fitzhugh and Charles Test Prescott, of Bay City, Mich. The groom is a son of Hon. and Mrs. G. A. Prescott, of Bay City, and a grandson of Mrs. J. L. Test, of Reynoldsville.

Joseph S. Evans, son of E. L. Evans, groceryman, who enlisted in the U.S. Navy four years ago, served his enlistment and was honorably discharged at Boston, Mass., October 6, arrived at his home in this place Monday. During the four years' service Joseph saw much of the world.

The Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church elected the following officers last Friday for ensuing year: President, Mrs. S. S. Robinson; vicepresident, Mrs. Julia A. Reynolds : secretary, Mrs. J. A. Parsons; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. C. McEntire; treasurer, Mrs. C. A. Stephenson.

Jot down in your note book the date of the coming of "The Warning Bell." It is a play as fine as Shore Acres, Old Homestead, Way down East or any of that class and has more fun in it than Ninian Cooper has a hand saw that any of them. If you miss it, you will miss something, and it will be too late to correct your blunder after it has come and gone. Get wise before hand.

In another column of this issue of THE STAR will be found the program for the fourth annual convention of the Jefferson County School Directors' Association to be held in Assembly hall at Reynoldsville on Thursday and Friday of next week, October 18 and 19. This promises to be a very interesting convention and should be well attended by Reynoldsville people.

An Italian went to the home of Ed. Blackwell early last evening and wanted admittance and on being refused tried to force his way into the house. During the scuffle between Ed. and the Italian the latter drew a knife and slashed Ed. over the head and face, making a long and ugly cut. The Italian was sentenced to pay $11.00 fine or serve thirty days in county jail. A man named Miller, who was with the layed on the ground at this place Italian, was sentenced to pay $8.00 fine turday afternoon, but on account of or serve five days in the borough lock-up.

Collar Bone Broken.

Robert Boner, brakeman on the R. & C. R'y, fell one day last week while making up a train at London mine and broke his left collar bone.

Decorate for Old Soldiers.

The 19th annual reunion of the 105th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, will be held in Reynoldsville on Thursday of next week, October 18th, and the old veterans should be given a hearty welcome. The town should be nicely decorated. Get out your flags and bunting.

Coyne Charged with Murder.

Patrick Coyne, of Falls Creek, who threw his three-year-old son into the Monongahela river from the South 22nd bridge at Pittsburg ten days ago and jumped into the river himself, narrowthe Allegheny county jail Monday on a charge of murder. The body of the dustries in our town. boy was found Saturday.

Arrested at Dunkirk.

Salvatore Lahone, who was implicated in a shooting affair at Sykesville last January, which resulted in the death of Julius Slegewicz, in May, was arrested at Dunkirk, N. Y , last week. Chief-of-Police Palmer, of Punxsutawney, went to New York state after Lahone. He will likely get him to Brookville jail to-day.

Dr. Gould's Lecture.

Dr. Frederic A. Gould, pastor of the First M. E. church of Jamestown, N. Y., gave an able and very interesting address before the Brotherhood of St. Paul in the M. E. church at this place last Thursday evening. His subject was, "The Bad Citizenship of Good Citizens." The lecture and lecturer were worthy of a larger audience.

Wholesale House Opened

The Pittsburg Supply Company is the name of a new wholesale house opened in the Hoover block at Reynoldsville. Solomon Friedman, who has conducted a racket store in this place several years, is manager and agent for this supply company. The line of goods they handle is stationery, handkerchiefs, notions, jewelry, fancy goods. cutlery, soap, perfume, novelties, &c.

Married in Allegheny.

Arthur McClure, a merchant of Allegheny City, a former Reynoldsville boy, and Miss May H. Beckert were married at home of the bride's parents is Allegheny City at 1.00 p. m. Monday, October 8, and came to home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McClure, in this place Monday night. They were given a boisterous calithumpian serenade the same night.

Williams-Birchard,

Joseph C. Williams and Miss Statia Birchard were married at home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reece Williams, on Jackson street, at 6,30 p. m. Sunday, October 7, 1906. Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated. No one but parents of groom were present. Mr. and Mrs. Williams are at Buffalo and Niagara Falls on a wedding trip. Their many friends wish them happiness in life's journey,

Died in DuBois.

Mrs. Ell Boyer, mother of James B. Boyer, of West Reynoldsville, died at her home in DuBois at eight o'clock last Saturday evening, October 6. Deceased was 55 years old last May. She resided in Reynoldsville a number of years. Her husband died in July, 1905. She is survived by one daughter and four sons. Funeral service was held at home of O. H. Boyer, son of dedeased, with whom she made her home, at 2.00 p. m. Monday. Rev. E. Hetrick conducted the service.

Closet Needed at P. R. R. Station.

One of the accomodations badly needed at the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. passenger station at Reynoldsville is a closet for men. When the trains are late, which they frequently are, it is an outrage on the traveling public not to have a closet for men some where in or near the station. It is surprising that the P. R. R. Co. would not provide all accommodations possible at a station like Reynoldsville where so many tickets are sold to people traveling over their line.

Educational Meeting.

An educational meeting was held in Assembly hall at this place last Friday evening. County Supt. R. B. Teitrick and Dr. J. George Becht, principal Clarion State Normal, were present. Dr. Becht gave the address of the evening on "Habit." A number from suburban villages, Winslow and Washington townships, who are interested and engaged in educational work, were present. The citizens of Reynoldsville were not as well represented as they should have been at a meeting of this kind, which was interesting and profitable to all who attended.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

All Citizens and Business Men Requested to Attend Meeting to Organize Board of Trade.

There will be a meeting in the Reynolds opera house to-morrow, Thursday, evening, October 11, for the purpose of organizing a board of trade. All citizens and business men are urgently requested to attend this meeting, which is very important meeting for the future of Reynoldsville. Every property owner and every person interested in Reynoldsville should encourage the organization of a board of trade. The town needs just such an organization. Don't depend on a few live citizens to organize the board, but you be present and assist in pushing it along. Lend a helping hand and you will be rewarded by increase in business or an increase in ly escaping drowning, was committed to | the value of your property when the board of trade lands several large in-

Dr. Roads an Earnest Worker.

Rev. Charles Roads, D. D., field worker for the M. E. Sunday School State Union, was in Reynoldsville over Sunday and conducted meetings in the M. E. church in the interest of the Sunday school, that being Sunday school rally day. A worker's conference was held in the church Saturday evening and Dr. Roads gave a talk on 'Men's Classes, Lesson Preparations, Home Co-operation." Sunday morning he gave a twenty minute talk before the Sunday school, at 11.00 a. m. he preached a sermon; at 2.30 p. m. gave an address to the children, "Blackboard and Cradle Sermon"; at 3.15 an address to parents of the cradle roll, and at 7.30 p. m. delivered a sermon. On account of the inclement weather the attendance at these services was not as large as it would have been had the weather been pleasant.

Dr. Roads is an able and earnest Sunday school worker and certainly does good work if the Sunday school workers who hear him follow his advice in the work.

Lots of Fun.

In spite of the fact that The Warning Bell is built around a strong emotional story, of thrilling interest, giving opportunities worthy the efforts of the best living character actors, the play sparkles with the brightest and richest comedy, containing, as it does, five excellent comedy parts. The transitions from humor to pathos and the revenge are as rapid and brilliant as the flickering of sunshine and shadow in the woodland or the shimmer of moonlight on the waves. No play before the public offers a wider range in the field of acting, running the entire gamut of expression from the funniest humor and comedy to the top notch of emotional acting, and always true to nature. It is a real play. At the Reynolds opera house Monday evening, October 15. Tickets 35, 50 and 75 cents.

Two Weddings Last Evening.

MOORE-CLAWSON.

Ira K. Moore and Miss Carrie A. Clawson were married at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clawson, on Main street at eight o'clock last evening, October 9. Rev. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the M. E. church, officiated.

Thomas Clawbaugh and Mrs. Mary Ross, both of Reynoldsville, were married at the home of the bride on East Main street at eight o'clock last evering, Oct. 9. 'Squire E. Neff performed the ceremony.

Dr. Borland to Preach.

The Rev. R. S. Borland, of Mercer, Pa., will preach in the Syphrit M. E. church next Sunday morning, October 13th, in the Bollinger M. E. church at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and at Sykesville in the evening. Dr. Borland has the reputation of being one of the strongest and best men in the Erie conference and the people on the Sykesville charge should not miss hearing him.

Luck and Chance,

Luck and chance don't figure in the making of the Prizer Stoves and Ranges. They are the result of good materials, careful workmanship and the best experience in stove making. They contain many good ideas that lighten kitchen work and add to the comfort and convience of the house-keeper. Come in and let us tell you about them. Sold and guaranteed by the Reynoldsville Hardware Co.

Caught By Decoy Letter.

An Italian, who attempted to extoil money from a Braddock hotel keeper by threntening to kill him if the money was not sent to Brookville October 6th was arrested in the Brookville postoffice Saturday by two Pittsburg detectives as he was receipting for a decoy letter that had been sent to Brookville.

The first letter to hotel man demanded $1,000 or his hotel would be destroyed and as he did not give up the $1,000 he received a second letter in which a demand was made for $2,000 to be sent to a certain address at the Brookville postoffice on October 6th, or the hotel and proprietor would be blown into pieces. The hotel man gave the letters to Pittsburg detectives and a registered decoy letter was sent to Brookville and when the Italian called for the letter be was arrested

An Initial Party.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church will hold an "Initial Party" in the Sunday school room of the church at eight o'clock on Thursday evening of this week, October 11. The following poetical explanation of the party was printed on the invita-

And now give ear, prospective guest, The plan we will proclaim; Please bring as many cents along As letters in your name.

We'll welcome you with outstretched hands, Your contribution, loo; And twelve comundrums on a card We will propound to you.

That same cognomen, here again, Will doubtless make you sigh, For your initials must begin The words in each reply.

Most dainty fare we shall prepare, And all shall share our cheer, You'll all agree that this will be, THE event of the year.

Sensational Plays.

Why do people go to see the bloodand-thunder plays, full of absurd and impossible things? It is because they like a strong thrilling story with lots of action and lots of hearty laughs thrown in. They are willing to put up with lots of rot to get the other things that they want. There are plays that have all these good things without any of the trash; plays that tell a real story that is possible and reasonable, and yet as full of interest, excitement and comedy as the other kind, and yet that an intelligent person can hear and enjoy and know that he has heard and seen something. "The Warning Bell" is one of these. Its characters are real, living natural and have the true ring. This is a real play and a good one. At Revnolds opera house Monday evening, Oct.

Republican Campaign Rally.

A Republican campaign rally will be beld in Punxsutawney on Tuesday night of next week, October 16. A large number expect to go over from Reynoldsville.
