The Position Taken by the Presbyterian Church on the Liquor Question.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church at its last Annual Session in Des Moines, Ia., in May handed down in part the following ruling: "Our members are hereby warned most solemnly, against signing, or presenting for citizens signature, or in court license petitions which tolerate the continuance of this unholy traffic, or in any other manner abetting this terrible business." This ruling it will be seen not only forbids members signing petitions, but even forbids attorneys who are members of the church to present liquor license petitions in court. In this the General Assembly has gone one step farther than ever before.

The Synod of Pennsylvania, which is the next court of our church, which met in Lancaster, Pa., two weeks ago, not only stands by the above ruling of the General Assembly but has gone as far as to set a definite object before the members of the church in temperance work in this State. The resolutions of the Synod in part are as follows:—

"We urge all the pastors and members of the church of this synod to use their influence for the election of men to the upper and lower houses of the State Legislature who are known to be in favor of a county local option law, or other effective temperance or prohibition measures, and who are known to stand for strict honesty in every department of government affairs. We urge every church, Sunday school and young people's society in the Synod to send a petition to the State Legislature this winter requesting the passage of a county local option law in the State."

The Presbytery of Clarion, which is the next court of our church, at its meeting in Clarion, Pa., Sept. 18th and 19th, passed the following resolution:

"WHEREAS, The General Assembly of the Presbyterian church and Synod of Pennsylvania have repeatedly declared that a member of the Presbyterian church cannot engage in the sale of intoxicating liquors, or rent property for saloon purpose, or go on liquor dealer's bonds or sign petitions for liquor licenses and continue in good and regular standing in the church. Be it Resolved, That the Presbytery of Clarion require that the pastors and sessions within the bounds of this Presbytery shall enforce these rulings handed down by the Assembly and Synod; and further that each pastor in the presbytery shall on or before the first Sabbath in November, 1906, read from his pulpit this resolution of the Presbytery of Clarion."

The Session of the Presbyterian church of Reynoldsville in full sympathy with these rulings and resolutions of the three highest courts of our church, and in accord with their ordination vows, would hereby kindly call the attention of the members of the church to these rulings and resolutions and govern themselves accordingly.

Signed in behalf of the Session.
A. D. MCKAY, Moderator.
WM. L. JOHNSON, Clerk.
