

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance. C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1906. Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter. SUMMERVILLE TELEPHONE NO. 61.

Christmas Presents

- WATCHES FINE CHINA RINGS CUT GLASS LOCKETS SILVERWARE BRACELETS JEWEL SETS CHAINS JEWEL CASES POBS UMBRELLAS

Shoppers, read this list. Come get prices, compare quantities, and if you are not convinced ours are best, we don't expect you to buy.

C. F. HOFFMAN THE JEWELER

WHEN YOUR DOCTOR writes a prescription bring it right here to us and the medicine will be exactly as he wants it to be. When he tells you to get any sick room goods or family necessities, come here for them and you will get satisfaction in every particular.

We most cordially invite you to come here and do all your drug store trading, and we assure you that we will do everything in our power to make it advantageous and pleasant for you.

A Little of Everything.

Just twenty-six days of 1906 remain on the calendar. Teachers' county institute at Brookville week after next. The M. E. Sunday school will elect officers this evening for 1907. One more week of school after this week before the holiday vacation.

"New York Day by Day" was the attraction at Park Theatre last night. Meeting of the State Grange will be held in DuBois next week, December 11 to 14. W. S. Christy has bought the P. S. Hauck meat market and has taken charge of it.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran church will hold a market Saturday, December 8, in Henry's store. Miss Nellie Armor entertained the members of the Ingelow Club at her home on Grant street last evening.

Mrs. Jennie V. Matson, wife of Dr. W. W. Matson, of Brookville, died at her home Sunday morning. She had been ill six weeks.

Dr. John H. Murray is in Philadelphia this week attending the Masonic Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania as a representative from John M. Read Lodge F. & A. M. of Reynoldsville.

In the M. E. church last Sunday seven persons were received into the church by letter, four were received from probation to full membership and four were received on probation.

The monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Paul will be held in the M. E. church on Friday evening at eight o'clock. Light refreshments after the meeting. All members requested to be present.

Mrs. Pettinato, whose husband was murdered at Big Soldier Sunday, Nov. 11, was married again on the eleventh day after her husband was killed. She evidently did not grieve much over the loss of a husband.

The Falls Creek high school basketball team and Reynoldsville high school reserve team will play a preliminary game at Park Theatre this evening before the game between Indiana and Reynoldsville high school teams.

Ed. Gooder will move into his new room in The Peoples National Bank building this week. His new cases, counters, etc., arrived the first of this week. Mr. Gooder expects to be ready to do business in his new room next week.

In the case of the Reynoldsville Trust Co. and the Pittsburg Industrial Iron Works, in which the latter claimed $1,200 damage on a bond transaction, which was tried in the county court last week, the verdict was in favor of the Trust Co.

At a dinner given at the Commercial Hotel in Brookville last Thursday evening the announcement of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Reed, daughter of Judge John W. Reed, to William S. Eyster, of Ben Avon, was made by Mrs. Reed.

Lyman W. Scott, Charles Scott, Arthur Seelye and Charles Sensor returned Friday from a deer hunt near Dents Run. They brought a large deer—one hundred and eighty pounds—home with them. Charles Scott killed the deer. A young man was killed by a large deer near their camp last week.

Irvin Kunes, who has resided in Reynoldsville about eight years, is moving to Emporia, W. Va., this week where Mr. Kunes has had employment the past year. Mr. and Mrs. Kunes and family have many warm friends in Reynoldsville who are sorry to see them move away from our town, but wish them happiness in their new home in the southland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Hawthorne have moved from DuBois to West Reynoldsville to remain until spring at least. This move was made that the latter's father, Philip Koehler, and son Robert, would have somebody to keep house for them this winter. Mr. Hawthorn will still retain his position with the B., R. & P. Ry. and will travel to and from his work each morning and evening on the P. R. R.

Lawyer S. M. McCreight, Dr. H. B. McGarrath and Francis D. Smith start to-day for Demopolis, Alabama, where they are interested in a large lumber deal. Mr. Smith expects to remain at Demopolis for some time. The company they are interested in, which owns a large and well equipped saw mill, lath mill, etc., is the Black Warrior Lumber Company. Several other Reynoldsville gentlemen have stock in the company.

The recital given last week at the home of Dr. John Murray by Miss Mitchell's chorus classes was a most enjoyable affair. The parents could plainly see that the teacher and pupils had both been working. Besides the beautiful songs the children sang, there was a drill in rudiments and black board work, and it was surprising to see how well the children could sing the notes in different keys, in such a short term of lessons.

Ex-Poetmaster A. M. Woodward, wife and daughter, Miss Zoe, of this place, attended a large wedding at Driftwood at 8.00 p. m. Thursday, Nov. 29, when Miss Irene Corbett, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. V. K. Corbett, and Roy Krider, both of Driftwood, were united in marriage. Miss Zoe Woodward, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Irvin D. Winslow, of Reynoldsville, now yardmaster at Driftwood for the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Woodward and daughter returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Ethel Bates was at Brockwayville last Wednesday attending the wedding of her sister, Miss Altie McLain Brown, who was married at noon, Nov. 28, to Amer R. Moorhead, of Brockwayville. The ceremony was performed at the M. E. parsonage by Rev. J. W. Blaisdell. The Brockwayville Record says: "Mr. and Mrs. Moorhead are an estimable couple and being among the best known young people of town and prominent movers in church and social circles, they have a host of friends who wish them deserved prosperity and happiness."

DR. GREEN'S LECTURE.

Del very Dramatic, Polished and Pleasing—Delighted his Audience.

Dr. Thos. E. Green, of Chicago, second lecturer on the high school lecture course, delivered an instructive, interesting and polished lecture in the Assembly hall Monday evening. His subject was "The Key to the 20th Century." His definition of history and delineation of the critical periods of history, were thoughtful and clean cut. He gave an interesting, but brief review of the importance of America in the world of history, and spent some time on the physical greatness of America. He held his audience by the beauty of his language, the force of his discussion and the charm of his personality. It is claimed by some that Dr. Green's lecture was one of the best ever delivered in Assembly hall.

Mrs. Flora Sentenced.

Mrs. Julia Flora, who was convicted of manslaughter at the recent term of criminal court in Jefferson county, was sentenced yesterday by Judge John W. Reed to serve one year and a half in the penitentiary.

Basket Ball To-Night.

The Indiana high school basketball team and Reynoldsville high school team will play a game in the Park Theatre to-night. Blair Sykes, Law Sykes, forwards, Bert Hoffman centre, Eugene Murray and John H. Thornton guards, will be the line-up for the home team.

In Memory of Perry A. Reno.

A bronze tablet, in memory of Rev. Reno, has been put up in the Methodist Episcopal church in this place, on which is the following inscription: "In memory of Rev. Perry A. Reno—1852-1906—pastor of this congregation from 1899 to 1904. During his pastorate plans were made and adopted for the present church building. Well done, thou good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

President's Message.

President Roosevelt's annual message read in Congress yesterday will be found in an abridged form on the last page of this issue of THE STAR, and should be very interesting reading for all our subscribers, as the president takes up matters of interest in general, such as proper use of injunctions, lynching, capital and labor, control of corporations, inheritance and income tax, the currency, the Cuban matter, rights of aliens, the farmer, divorce legislation, etc., etc.

Union Thanksgiving Services.

The Union Thanksgiving service held in the Methodist Episcopal church last Thursday forenoon was attended by the largest congregation that has attended a Thanksgiving service in Reynoldsville for a number of years. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, preached the sermon and Rev. A. D. McKay, of the Presbyterian, and Rev. J. W. Myers, of the Lutheran, and Rev. J. A. Parsons, of the Methodist church, were present and took part in the opening and closing exercises.

J. E. Ferrier Benedict.

J. E. Ferrier, foreman of one of the departments in the Pittsburg Industrial Iron Works plant in this place and Miss Fannie Marshall, a charming young lady of Vandergrift, Pa., were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Marshall, in Vandergrift Thursday, November 29, 1906. Only a few friends were present at the wedding. Mr. Ferrier and bride arrived in Reynoldsville Monday. A number of Mr. Ferrier's friends in this place received a wedding announcement from Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, on which it is stated that Mr. and Mrs. Ferrier will be "at home" after December 12.

Church Rally.

There will be a rally at the M. E. church in Sykesville this week, beginning to-night, Wednesday, Dec. 5, with a sermon by Rev. H. H. Barr, of DuBois. Thursday night Rev. J. A. Parsons, of Reynoldsville, will preach, Friday Rev. W. Miner, of Punxsutawney, Saturday evening Presiding Elder A. R. Rich, D. D., will preach and hold the first quarterly conference of this year. Sunday morning Rev. J. B. Neff, D. D., of DuBois, will have charge of services. The Sunday service will begin with love feast and close with communion.

A new steam heating plant costing $600.00, has been put in the M. E. church at Sykesville, and there is a debt of $1,000.00 on the parsonage, which was built two years ago, and to provide for this debt a rally will be held this week. The pastor and people expect to make provisions for the debt during this rally.

Fancy vests for Xmas at Millirens.

Methodist day at Hall's Tuesday, December 11, 1906.

Waterhouse Xmas neckwear at Millirens.

There is comfort and satisfaction in having your money with the Citizens National Bank, an institution of unquestioned reliability.

Fancy silk mufflers for Xmas at Millirens.

Caps for Xmas at Millirens.

Features Worthy of Consideration.

Aside from the fact that the Herald Square moving pictures embody the very latest and best subjects to be had in the moving picture world, there are other things interesting to the theatre-goer. They are guaranteed to be perfectly steady and distinct, without the usual flicker which is so trying to the eye. The machine is made absolutely fire-proof, thereby eliminating this source of annoyance. There are no intermissions during which restless individuals, under various pretexts, climb over those who prefer to retain their seats, coming back with a rush when the next picture is started. The entertainment, when once begun, continues smoothly to the end. Those who enjoy a spicy yet in every way clean entertainment, will do well to secure seats early when the Herald Square Moving Pictures are offered.

At the Reynolds opera house to-night Wednesday, Dec. 5. Prices 15, 25 and 35 cents.

New Moving Pictures.

The way the Lyman H. Howe moving picture company keeps bounding ahead year after year is not only a fine indication of their popularity, but an emphatic guarantee of their superiority. They will present their program of entirely new subjects in Centennial hall on December 13.

Mr. Howe's pictures possess more attractiveness, more infinite charm, more dash and originality than any other similar entertainment. For these reasons it remains to day as it has always been for the past twelve years—easily the peer of all moving picture exhibitions. Their appearance here will attract all admirers of clean and wholesome amusement, as it does all over the country.

Bazaar and Market.

The Helping Hand Society will hold a bazaar in the festal hall of the M. E. church Friday and Saturday afternoons and evenings of this week. Fancy articles, domestic articles, dressed dolls, &c., will be on sale. Ice cream will be served each afternoon and evening. There will be a market Saturday afternoon.

Defeated Ridgway Team.

The high school basketball team defeated the Ridgway high school team in a game at the latter place Thanksgiving evening. Score 22 to 21. At end of first half the score was 7-7. On Reynoldsville team Prof. Chas. S. Marsh and Law Sykes played forwards, Bert Hoffman center, Eugene Murray and John H. Thornton guards. Blair Sykes and Graydon Robinson were substitutes.

Shareholders Meeting.

Reynoldsville, Pa., Dec. 5, 1906. The regular annual meeting of the shareholders of The Peoples National Bank of Reynoldsville, Pa., for the election of directors for the ensuing year and for the transaction of any other business that may properly come before it, will be held at its Banking House on Tuesday, January 8, 1907, at 3 p. m. F. K. ALEXANDER, Cashier.

Woman's Judgement.

The woman who exercises good every-day common sense, and profits by her own experience and that of others, will recognize in the Prize Ranges, a perfection in stove construction that is not found in other makes. We would be pleased to have you examine them—and we believe you will confirm this statement. Sold and guaranteed by Reynoldsville Hardware Co.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our thanks to the neighbors and friends who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and after the death of our daughter, Rhoda MR. AND MRS. J. A. HILES.

Now

Is the time to select your Christmas gifts. Our stock is complete, everything new. Make your selection now and we will hold same for you until Christmas.

C. F. HOFFMAN, Jeweler.

Oceans of kerchiefs at Millirens.

Deposit your will in a place where it may be found after death. Leave it in the vault of the Citizens National Bank if you like. No charge.

See the Bisque vases for Xmas at Millirens.

Everything new for Christmas at Hoffman's the jeweler.

New Indian baskets for Xmas at Millirens.

The Citizens National Bank limit their investments to securities of the most substantial kind; such as are easily converted into cash, free from speculative influences.

Gloves for the whole family for Xmas at Millirens.

First class overcoats for men, boys and children at a bargain at A. Katzen's.

Opera shawls for Xmas at Millirens.

Notice—If you are looking for anything in the line of holiday goods you will find it at Gooder's jewelry store in the new Peoples National Bank building on and after Dec. 10.

New neckwear for Xmas at Millirens.

GETTING READY FOR REVIVAL.

Union Gospel Meetings to be Held in Reynoldsville Next Month.

It was stated in THE STAR last week that there was talk of engaging Dr. A. J. Smith, of New York City, and Prof. Chester F. Harris, of Cleveland, Ohio, who are now holding union gospel meetings in Brookville, to come to Reynoldsville next month and hold a series of meetings in this place. Dr. Smith came up from Brookville Saturday and met representatives from Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist churches in the Baptist church to talk the matter over and it was decided that these two gentlemen are to begin a meeting in Reynoldsville January 14, 1907.

An executive committee from three churches met in the Baptist church Monday forenoon and after electing a president, vice-president and secretary, appointed a number of committees. The executive committee is composed of following: Baptist, J. H. Corbett, president, Dr. J. C. King, E. D. Davis, Rev. A. J. Meek; Methodist Episcopal, S. S. Robinson vice-president, Phillip Koehler, C. A. Stephenson, Rev. J. A. Parsons; Presbyterian, T. F. Adam Secretary, A. T. McClure, L. M. Simmons, Rev. A. D. McKay.

Following committees were appointed by the executive committee, one member of committee from each church:

- Musie—John Trudgen, F. P. Alexander, Geo. A. Rea. Finance—Dr. A. H. Bowser, W. B. Stauffer, David Wheeler. Advertising—Irvin Klock, Dr. R. DeVere King, Harvey Deter. Visiting—Dr. J. A. Parsons, Rev. A. D. McKay, Dr. A. J. Meek. Devotional—J. K. Johnston, Dr. L. L. Means, Irvin Rea. Ushers—A. T. Bing, L. L. Gourley, M. C. Coleman.

Three members of the executive committee were instructed to see about a suitable building for holding the meetings in and to report at meeting of the executive committee next Monday evening.

A number of cottage prayer meetings will be held each week until the public gospel meetings begin. Five prayer meetings were held last evening.

A Presbyterian Church Supper.

The men of the Presbyterian church will serve a hot turkey supper in the church on Thursday evening of this week, Dec. 6th, from five o'clock until 8.30. This supper will be entirely prepared and served by men. This will give the ladies of Reynoldsville an opportunity to learn what the men can do in the culinary line. A good supper is promised. The orchestra will play and the following toasts will be given: "The Future Women," (1) from the preacher's point of view; (2) from the doctor's point of view; (3) from the teacher's point of view; (4) from the business man's point of view; (5) from the husband's point of view.

Any lady that will offer any criticism on the supper or on the way it is served, or will make any remarks or insinuations that can be construed as criticism, will be fined five cents for each offense. Or any lady that wants to see the cooks or dishwashers at work must pay five cents. The public is invited. Price 25 cents.

Reynoldsville Wins Game.

The Reynoldsville four-man bowling team defeated the Punxsutawney team Thursday evening, the visitors making a total of 1,806 pins to the local 1,790. The teams were composed of the following members: Reynoldsville, F. Barton, J. Barton, Kettinger and Morrison. Punxsutawney, Frank Rapp, Paul Pantall, Wm. Heyl and Tim Sullivan.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Holiday Photos.

Now is the time to sit for your holiday photos; nothing more appropriate for an Xmas present for your friends than a nice photo of yourself. We have all the latest styles of mounts to select from. See our carbon appias, they are the latest. We also have a fine line of oval frames for small photos. Gallery open until nine o'clock in the evening. Sittings made night or day at Vasbinder's. Special inducements for holidays. Give us a call.

Charming Gifts.

Plenty of them will be waiting for your inspection at Gooder's jewelry store, which will be located in the new Peoples National Bank building on and after Dec. 10th.

Santa Claus

Left some Hoosier Kitchen cabinets at "Halls," got one for your wife for Christmas.

Japanese china cups and saucers 25c at Millirens.

Presbyterian Day, Friday, Dec. 7, at Hall's furnishing store.

Manicure sets for Xmas at Millirens.

A store full of bargains at A. Katzen's.

Comb and brush sets for Xmas at Millirens.

Friday, Dec. 7, 1906, the ladies of the Presbyterian church take possession of the new store and dispose of any goods in our store for the benefit of that denomination. C. R. Hall.

Furs for Xmas at Millirens.

"QUEEN ESTHER."

Played by Home Talent in Park Theatre Two Nights Last Week.

The sacred and beautiful cantata, "Queen Esther," produced by local talent in the Park Theatre on Thursday and Friday evenings of last week, under the auspices of the Epworth League of the M. E. church, was greeted with a full house Thanksgiving evening and a fair sized audience Friday evening. It was well presented and the people were well pleased with the entertainment. All the participants deserve credit for the manner in which they performed the parts assigned them. The instructors were J. W. Keller, Arthur H. Haskins and J. A. Blyden. Mr. Blyden, who has had experience in theatrical work, gave good and effective service in getting the cantata properly presented.

One of the enjoyable and pleasing features of the entertainment was the drill by forty little boys and girls. They were well trained and made a fine appearance. Miss Lillie Lenker deserves credit and praise for training the boys and girls so thoroughly for the drill. Mrs. Fred Pifer assisted Miss Lenker. The Epworth League will realize about $100.00 out of the entertainment. Following are the cast of characters and grand chorus in "Queen Esther."

CAST OF CHARACTERS.

- Ether (Queen).....Mrs. J. W. Gillespie Ahasuerus (King).....Albert Strouse Haman (King's councillor).....John Thornton Mordecai (a Jew).....Dr. Harry King Zeresh (Haman's wife).....Mrs. C. W. Flynn Mordecai's Sister.....Miss Elva Coleman Prophetess.....Miss Mary Parsons Persian Princess.....Miss Mary McDonald Scribe.....Leonard Harris Hegar.....Will Trudgen Herald.....Chas. Kirchertz Harbonah.....Prof. J. R. Wilson Maids of Honor.....Miss Flora Northy Miss Anna Myers Persians, Jews, Pages, Guards, etc.

GRAND CHORUS.

- Mrs. L. D. Klenhans Pearl Barrett Christine Brown Edna Lewis Mrs. K. C. Schuckers Florence Thornton Vera Applegate Josephine Gibson Carrie Albright Tae Farrell Etta Brennan Mary Ross Caroline Robinson Maude Shobert Cora Millren Lillian Phillips Bessie Brady Nora Pifer Lizzie Northy Alberta Dickcy Genevieve Millren Edith Tyson Mrs. Thos. Justham Ada Phillips Margarette Applegate Ada Hetrick Flora Bray Myrtle Binney Hattie Wray Laura Clawson Celia Youst Jennie McGaw Lillian Northey Wm. Trudgen Lena Hempel Helen Guthrie, Sadie Ford, Hazel Hoffman, Thessa Burns, Lillian Ewing, Arthur Tyson, Dr. Harry King Graydon Robinson, Alex Gillespie Leonard Harris, Prof. J. R. Wilson. Chas. Kirchertz, John Northey K. C. Schuckers, Harvey Deter

Died in Prescottville.

Miss Rhoda Pearl Hiles departed from this world to her home above on November 27, 1906, after an illness of one year and a half. Tuberculosis was the cause of her death. Rhoda was born at Brady's Bend, Armstrong Co., Pa., Jan. 20, 1885, making her 21 years, 10 months and 7 days old at the time of her death. She is survived by the following relatives: Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hiles, one sister, Mrs. David Hamilton, two brothers, Harper J. and David Austin.

Funeral services were held at the home of her parents on Thursday afternoon at 2.30. Rev. J. A. Parsons conducted the services.

Flowers were given by the following: Hoort of chrysanthemums, by Lewis E. Little, spray of carnations by Nellie Harris, bouquet of carnations by Florence Bernauer, Christmas and Maggie Hiles, bouquet of carnations by Mrs. Dorwart and Mrs. Bert S. Burns, bouquet of pansies by Mrs. David Johnson.

Weep not for me when in the grave You've laid my peaceful head, Nor when returning to your home, You've left me with the dead.

'E'en when at home, O! do not weep To see my vacant place, Nor whisper soft my name and sigh Because you miss my face.

Weep not for me, I am happy, safe, At home among the best, Amid the holy, blessed throng I shall forever rest.

A few more years will pass away And we shall pass away, We'll meet at home in Christ's abode And ever there remain.

Weep not for me, I am secure, I am saved through Jesus' blood And all my sins are washed away In that dear precious blood.

Weep not for me though I no more, But trust ye in His word, I am happy, safe forever more, I am present with the Lord.

—COUSINS.

Manufacturing Plants

Interest all our people, but not more so than the handsome line of useful holiday goods being shown at our store. The ladies of the Presbyterian church take full possession of these goods on Friday, Dec. 7th, and will dispose of them at 10 per cent of the proceeds for the benefit of that congregation. Come and help them out. C. R. Hall.

Pajamas for Xmas at Millirens.

On December 10th Gooder, the jeweler, will move his store to room in new National Bank building, where he will be prepared to show you the finest store, with the largest stock of holiday goods to be found anywhere in the county.

House coats for Xmas at Millirens.