The High School Bulletin

EDITOR IN-CHIEF, BERT A. HOFFMAN.
CURRENT EVENTS, LENA HERPEL.
SOCIAL EVENTS, MILDRED SUTTER.

Dr. Greene spoke of strange things happening in the 20th century, but in the high school there are quite as many odd affairs. Now, for instance, when the gong rings it sends a great shock through the humors. This shock causes them to rush toward the cloak-room.

Manufacturing latin verbs gives an immediate profit but for some reason it has been discontinued.

Friday's literary in chapel was excellent.

Dr. Parsons led the devotional exercises and also gave a very nice talk in chapel last Wednesday.

Honest confession is good for the soul. This is a motto of one of the Juniors in the dark.

Have you brought my box of candy this morning?

Last Thursday morning a good many of the Seniors were side tracked, but the Janitor left them in at 8.15.

If the Juniors will please bring up the Bulletin that contains that bad grammar and slang that you speak of, we, as a staff and our school mates as witnesses, shall be willing to recall our errors. Be patient, your turn is coming.

Did you hear the debate on Tillman?

Miss Ethel and Helen Kunes pupils of the H. S. paid their last visit to chapel on Friday morning. They left at noon on that day to make their home in Virginia. We will miss them very much and trust their journey will be a pleasant one.

Miss Naomi Mitchell will go to Philadelphia this week to go to school. Her friends in Reynoldsville will miss her very much and wish her success in her school work in the "Quaker City."

In the literary program of the Shakespearean Society of room 15, given last Thursday afternoon, a very interesting debate was given, "Resolved that Senator Tillman's lecture was a Detriment to the Public." The affirmatives were Miss Elvira Johnston and Bert Hoffman; negatives Miss Minnetta Fuller and Charles Robertson. The affirmatives had many strong points but the negatives won by four points.

The R. H. S. Champs. defeated Indiana H. S. in a fast game of basket ball last Wednesday evening. The visitors were husky bunch and the outcome of the game looked doubtful. The game was highly enjoyed by the spectators. The team work of the locals was brilliant in spots, but on account of having very little practice their wind was bad. The team has to pay 30 per cent of gross receipts for the use of the hall and the visiting teams expenses and if the people wish to see good fast teams play here they will have to support us better in the future. The lineup:

I. H. S. 6	Score	R. H. S. 23
Marlin	Forward	L. Sykes
Graff	Forward	B. Sykes
Stewart	Center	Hoffman
Carnathan	Guard	Murray
Manors	Guard	Thornton
Douglas	sub. for Carnathan
Field Goals	—R. H. S. B. Sykes 2.
	Murray 3	L. Sykes 3
	Thornton	Foul Goals—Hoffman 2.
	Thornton	L. H. S.—Goals. Graff.
	Douglas	Foul Goals. Stewart 2.
	Referee	Chas. Marsh.

The Clearfield bunch were taken into camp by a score of 35 to 9. The game was highly enjoyed by the spectators. If you could judge from the groans that came from them every time Reynoldsville threw a basket. This is Clearfield's first game and they will give any team a good chase with more practice.

R. H. S. 35	Score	C. H. S. 9
L. Sykes	Forward	Johnston
B. Sykes	Forward	Gordon
Hoffman	Center	Clifton
Murray	Guard	Woolridge
Thornton	Guard	May Stewart.

No nights up late unless at books,
No brain chock full of empty nooks,
No smoking deadly cigarettes,
No pitching cents or making debts,
No smoking pipes on school house walks,
No loud disturbing evil talks,
No swiping editions nor a horse,
No ponies, trots or cuts or worse,
In fact—no other than "Nobody"
Will make "The Model Student."

Long Tennessee Fight.

For twenty years W. L. Rawls, of Belle, Tenn., nasal catarrh. He writes: The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return. Best salve in existence. 25c at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. Reynoldsville and Sykesville.
