A Little of Everything.

Can you write it 1907? This is the second day of a new year. Mrs. J. D. Woodring is lying at the point of death. The passenger traffic was heavy on the P. R. R. during the holidays. The public schools open to-morrow after a two and half weeks' vacation. Father Ed. M. Driscoll, of New Bethlehem, was a visitor in town yesterday. Miss Aldine Reed will entertain a number of her young friends this evening. All red headed girls admitted free to the great Raymond show Thursday, Jan. 3. A freight wreck on the P. R. R. near Summersville Wednesday delayed passenger trains several hours. Rev. J. A. Parsons cut his right wrist badly Monday morning by accidently breaking a window pane. In the absence of Mrs. A. J. Meek Sunday Miss Katherine King presided at the pipe organ in the Baptist church. T. C. Shields has been taking an enforced vacation since Christmas, suffering with blood poisoning in the right hand. Harry A. Martin will leave here to-morrow morning on a two weeks' trip to Kittanning, Arnold City, Pittsburg and Finsville. Harvey S. Deter will deliver an address to the Central Y. M. C. A. of DuBois next Sunday afternoon. Subject: "Decision of Character." D. M. Shearer, carrier on rural free delivery route No. 2, was given some of the Morrison-Hunter wedding cake last week, which he enjoyed very much. James A. Hetrick, of Hornstown, who cut his right foot badly a couple of weeks ago with a broad ax, was in town Monday hobbling around on crutches. The Athletic basket ball team defeated the Ridgway team in a game at the Park Theatre last night. The score was 35 to 21. It was a good game. The county commissioners appointed John H. Davis, of Delancy, as mercantile appraiser for 1907. The appointment was made the latter part of last week. For popular power Morgan Wood must be awarded the palm. He took the audience by storm and shook it as needs by the wind.—Montreal, (Can.) Witness. The Reynoldsville High School basket ball team was defeated in a game at New Bethlehem last night. Score 20 to 27. They played New Bethlehem's first and best team. The greeting of the New Year at Reynoldsville was not very boisterous. Whistles were blown and a little shooting done, but not sufficient to disturb the slumber of some of our citizens. Two home teams, High School vs. Independents, played a game of basket ball in Evans' rink Christmas afternoon and the high school team defeated the Independents. Score 12 to 20. It was a good game. It was stated in THE STAR last week that Charles J. Bangert had bought the Big Run Tribune. We were misinformed. Mr. Bangert has again taken up the editorship of the Falls Creek Herald. The Pennsylvania railroad passenger station at this place is draped with crepe on account of the death of A. J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, who died last Friday afternoon. Bertha and Emma Starr and Louisa Snyder have returned from a visit at Chandler, Oklahoma. Emma took ill with typhoid fever on the trip home and had to stop in Ohio a couple of weeks, but is now at her home.

L. M. Waltzel, manager of the Ridge Supply Co. store at Iselin, Indiana Co., was the guest of his brother-in-law, yo editor, Sunday.

J. H. B. Taylor and James Lawrence were called to Clarion yesterday on account of the serious illness of the former's mother.

Hardwood wainscoting, new and modern counter, new paper and paint have made a decided improvement in the office at Frank's Tavern.

The New Orleans Picayune in speaking of Mr. Morgan Wood's lecture says: "It was one of the most eloquent and forceful speakers that has ever faced a New Orleans audience." At Assembly hall Thursday evening, Jan. 3.

We neglected to state last week that P. T. Shannon, section foreman on the Pennsylvania railroad at Reynoldsville, was given $50.00 by the railroad company for having the best section of track on the Low Grade Division.

Symposium under auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Paul at the M. E. church at 6.30 p. m. next Sunday, Jan. 6. Subject: "Why am I a Christian?" from five different points of view. Attend and take some one with you.

Albert Moore, of Allens Mills, and Miss Bertha Starr, of Emerickville, were united in marriage at the home of Irven Burkett in West Reynoldsville January 1, 1907. Rev. J. W. Myers performed the marriage ceremony.

When Postmaster Burns applies for new postage stamps this year he will be furnished stamps with Reynoldsville related plainly upon each stamp. This is a new arrangement the postoffice department put in force the first of this year.

The monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Paul will be held in the M. E. church next Friday evening. Rev. J. A. McCamey, pastor of Brookville M. E. church, will be present and deliver an address. All members of the Brotherhood are requested to be present.

The Falls Creek Herald is authority for the statement that Jones, the Falls Creek jeweler, who was tried and found guilty of stealing a pig in Beechwoods, and served time in the Brookville jail for same, is in the county jail again. This time on charge of setting fire to the barn of a relative.

By the explosion of two kegs of powder in the cellar of a Sykesville dwelling house last Thursday evening, the house was burned down and a young Italian almost burned to death. The young man had gone to cellar with an open lamp to fill a powder flask and the explosion followed.

I. M. Hoch was at New Maysville Monday afternoon attending the funeral of a nephew, L. O. Shingledecker, who died last Saturday morning. He was 22 years old. Consumption was the cause of his death. Deceased worked in the P. R. R. office at this place a couple of months several years ago.

Philip Koehler, agent for the Prudential Life Insurance Co., has been presented with a scarf pin, the setting of which is a piece of the original rock of Gibraltar. The pin was presented to Mr. Koehler by the insurance company for a certain number of new policies secured in six weeks last fall.

A basket ball team from Dayton, Pa., played the second Athletic team in Park Theatre at this place last Wednesday evening and defeated the home team badly. The score was 63 to 2 in favor of the Dayton boys. The whifore of the defeat was because the visitors outplayed the home team.

"Hello Bill" was played in the DuBois opera house Christmas evening and made such a decided hit that a return date has been made for same opera house for Saturday night of this week. "Hello Bill" will be presented at Reynoldsville opera house to-night, Jan. 2. Don't miss it. Tickets 25, 35 and 50 cents.

M. J. Farrell and daughter, Miss Unita Farrell, were at DuBois Friday attending the funeral of James Malloy, father of Mr. Farrell's son-in-law, T. V. Malloy. Mr. Malloy died in Allegheny City Christmas eve, Dec. 24, and was buried in the Catholic cemetery in DuBois Friday. Deceased was 66 years old.

James D. Kelly, at one time an engineer on Low Grade, who has a sister, Mrs. James Montgomery, buried in the Catholic cemetery in this place, was in town last week. Mr. Kelly is now in the employ of the contractors building the new Franklin & Clearfield railroad and at present is at Corsica.

E. C. Sensor, who is foreman for a lumber company at Newton Mills, Forest Co., spent a couple of days last week with his family in this place. Mr. Sensor had been at Fleming, Centre Co., attending the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Sensor, who was buried Dec. 21st. Deceased was 76 years old.

Thomas Powell, formerly of Wishaw, was killed in the air compressor at the Bowersville mines in Indiana county December 21st. He was a member of Mazomania Tribe No. 341. Improved Order of Red Men of Reynoldsville, and twelve members of the tribe drove to Bowersville Sunday, Dec. 23rd, and attended the funeral.

When Morgan Wood, who lectures in Assembly hall Thursday evening of this week as the third number on high school lecture course, lectured in Lansing, Mich., The State Republican said: "The opera house was packed to the sidewalk last evening and several hundred turned away. The lecture was eloquent, humorous and pungent."

Saturday, January 5th, a new tribe of the Improved Order of Red Men will be instituted at Kaylor, Pa., by District Deputy Grand Sachem, Grant Rhoads, of Reynoldsville. There will be over 130 charter members. About twenty members of the degree team of Mazomania Tribe, No. 341, of this place, will go to Kaylor to assist in the institution.

F. E. Dixon, who was passenger and freight agent at Falls Creek for P. R. R. having held that position at Falls Creek about twenty years, has been transferred to Franklin, Pa., where he will hold same position with P. R. R. Co. Mr. Dixon, who is a member of the Keystone Hardware Co. of Reynoldsville, is well known to a number of our citizens. The transfer is a promotion for Mr. Dixon.

Finger Amputated. R. B. McKee, drayman, had the index finger of right hand amputated one day last week. Blood poisoning was what made amputation necessary.

Died Last Night. Mrs. J. D. Woodring, highly respected and well known lady of West Reynoldsville, died at 11.30 last night. Funeral at 2.00 p. m. Friday. An obituary notice will be published next week.

Fast Game Basket Ball. The fastest game of basket ball ever played in Reynoldsville, so it is claimed, was the game at Park Theatre Friday evening between the Athletics of Reynoldsville and Olympian team of Warren. The score was 38 to 29 in favor of the Reynoldsville team. The Warren team is composed of pleasant, gentlemanly fellows, who play a good game of basket ball.

Sunday School Officers. Last Sunday the Baptist Sunday school re-elected the officers of 1906 for ensuing year as follows: Superintendent, George H. Rea; assistant superintendent, Leonard Harris; secretary, Miss Geneva Milliken; treasurer, Miss Margaret Davis; librarian, Miss Phyllis Hays; organist, Miss Vivian Tompkins; assistant organist, Miss Florence Harris.

Four Prayer Meetings Next Week. Next week being the week before the union gospel meetings begin there will be prayer meetings four nights during that week. Tuesday night cottage prayer meetings, Wednesday night regular prayer meetings in the churches, Thursday night cottage prayer meetings and Friday night union prayer meeting in one of the churches.

Isa Pearl Mogle Dead. Isa Pearl Mogle, thirteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Mogle, of Meredith, died at 8.00 a. m. Friday, Dec. 28, 1906. Cerebro-spinal meningitis was cause of her death. Funeral service was held Saturday afternoon, conducted by Dr. J. A. Parsons, of Reynoldsville, and interment was made in the Moore cemetery at Emerickville. Hughes & Fleming had charge of the funeral.

Royal Arcanum Officers. Century Council No. 789, Royal Arcanum, elected the following officers: Regent, James B. Orr; Vice Regent, Tofeol DeMay; Past Regent, L. L. Gourley; Orator, M. E. Weed; Secretary, M. J. Farrell; Collector, Samuel Sutter; Treasurer, W. H. Moore; Chaplain, James W. Gillespie; Guide, William Loding; Warden, Solomon Friedman; Sentry, H. K. Pifer; Trustees, M. E. Weed, Andrew Wheeler, Thomas C. Shields; Representatives, M. E. Weed, M. J. Farrell, L. L. Gourley.

Franklin and Clearfield. The DuBois Courier of Dec. 29 published a lengthy article about the proposed route of the Franklin & Clearfield railroad from Brookville to Clearfield, but did not give any authentic information concerning the proposed route. However, as the Courier stated, the general indications are that the Pennsylvania line will be used between Brookville and Falls Creek. The general impression is that the new railroad will strike the P. R. R. line west of the Brookville tunnel, where Wainwright's old saw mill stood. The construction of the Franklin & Clearfield railroad is well under way as far east as Brookville.

Worth Looking After. We have been reliably informed that it is the intention of the P. R. R. Co. to move the train dispatchers office from Reynoldsville to Pittsburg in the spring which means the removal of a number of families from Reynoldsville, not only including those connected with the dispatchers office, but also means the taking away of the work train from this place. It is possible that if the board of trade or a number of leading business men of Reynoldsville would take the matter up immediately with the railroad officials that the company might be persuaded to reconsider the matter and keep the dispatchers office at Reynoldsville. It is worth making an effort for, and the time to do it is before all arrangements are made for moving the office. Do it now.

Church Dedicated. The new Methodist Episcopal church at Wishaw, Rev. F. M. Reddinger, of Falls Creek, pastor, was dedicated free of debt last Sunday night. Dr. J. Bell Neff, of DuBois, preached the dedication sermon. While the people of Wishaw had given liberally for the building of the new church, yet there remained a debt of $350.00 to be raised on the day of dedication. Rev. C. W. Miner, of Punxsutawney, raised part of the money during the day and in the evening Dr. Neff, who is one of the most successful money raisers in the Erie conference, equal to a bishop, raised the balance of the $350.00 in the evening before the church was dedicated. It is a neat and comfortable frame church.

Lost Two Games. The Reynoldsville High School basket ball team, which had not lost a game this season up to Wednesday of last week, started out Wednesday morning to fill several dates in other towns, but they only played two games and lost both of them. Their first defeat was at Bolivar Wednesday night, where they played the first and best team of that town. Thursday night the R. H. S. boys played the ex-high school team of Johnston at the latter place and was defeated there. Friday night the team was to have played in Indiana, but on account of county institute at that place the game was cancelled. The players out on the trip were: Prof. Charles S. Marsh, Blair Sykes, Law Sykes, John H. Thornton, Eugene Murray, Bert Hoffman and Alex Gillespie.

Dr. Reed's cushion shoe for men. Adam Shoe Store. You will save money by attending the great sale at I. Horwitz store.

Monthly meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will be held at home of John Reed on Main street Friday afternoon.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING. J. Irvin Rea and Miss Laura Edna Hull Married Christmas Eve. On Christmas eve, Dec. 24, 1906, a very pleasant event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hull on Jackson street, it being the occasion of the marriage of their estimable daughter, Miss Laura Edna, to J. Irvin Rea, of this city. The marriage ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek at 7 o'clock in the presence of about thirty of their near friends and relatives. The bride and groom were ushered into the parlor to the wedding march rendered by Mrs. A. J. Meek. The parlor was beautifully and tastefully decorated with evergreens and potted plants. The bride and groom were both elegantly attired. The bride carried white carnations and was attended by her personal friend, Miss Minnie Dunbar, of Canton, Pa. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Thomas M. Rea. Over the heads of the bridal party was an evergreen wreath and a swinging bell while in the rear was a bank of potted plants. After the congratulations were extended the guests were invited to the dining room where a splendid repast was served and to which all did ample justice. The bride and groom arose from among the best families of our town and they enjoy a large circle of friends who wish them a happy and prosperous journey through life. Both the bride and groom were the recipients of some very excellent presents from their friends.

Box Rent Rates. In order to provide a definite and satisfactory rule for the collection of box rents the post office department has made a schedule, based upon the kind and capacity of boxes and the gross receipts at postoffice, which will be strictly adhered to by department in the establishment of all box rent rates from and after January 1, 1907. The rate for box rent at Reynoldsville on this new schedule of rates will be as follows: Small call boxes 25 cents, large call boxes 35 cents, small lock boxes 45 cents, medium lock boxes 60 cents, large lock boxes 75 cents.

Some people are under the impression that Postmaster Burns is responsible for the advance in box rent and that he gets the receipts from these boxes. That is not correct. The postoffice department fixes the rental rate for boxes and all money received for box rent is turned over to "Uncle Sam," same as money received for sale of postage stamps, etc. Then don't blame the postmaster. He is obeying orders. Heretofore there was no established basis for box rent.

Passing of The Enterprise. The Enterprise Silk Company, which operated the silk mill at this place five years, has quite business here, the lease having expired. The Enterprise Silk Co. had put a number of looms in the mill and these looms have been shipped to mills being operated by this company at other places. Just how long the silk mill will be idle is not known at present, but we hope the suspension will not be long. The silk will be one of the best industries in the town, giving employment to a large number of young people at good wages.

Eloquent Speaker. One of the most powerful and eloquent speakers in the county, Mr. Wood more than realized in the minds of his hearers the glowing tributes which have been paid him by press, pulpit and lecture platform all over this broad land, and should be again revisit the city he would draw one of the largest and most intelligent thinking audiences ever assembled in this city. It is hoped such a time may soon come. Lockport, (N. Y.) Daily Journal. At assembly hall Jan. 3rd.

Knights of Columbus. Friday evening of last week the following officers were elected in Council No. 935, Knights of Columbus: G. K. M. J. Farrell; Deputy G. K. Will O. Nolan; Chancellor, S. J. Burgoon; Rec., John Cawley; Fin. Sec., J. A. Welsh; Treas., Ed. Gooder; Lecturer, C. W. Flynn; Advocate, W. S. Kerr; Warden, J. J. Hoffman; I. G., John King; O. G., John C. Schultze; Trustees, Daniel Nolan, Martin Phalen and August Ba'durf.

Progressive Dinner. A progressive dinner was enjoyed by eighteen young ladies of Reynoldsville last Thursday evening. It was served in six courses, as follows: soup at the home of Miss Ida Williams, dinner at home of Miss Fannie Alexander, sherbert at home of Miss Lena Herpel, salad at home of Miss Maude Pratt, ice cream and cake at home of Miss Alice Mitchell, nuts, fruit and candy at home of Miss Florence Harris.

Luck and Chance. Luck and chance don't figure in the making of the Prizer Stoves and Ranges. They are the result of good materials, careful workmanship and the best experience in stove making. They contain many good ideas that lighten kitchen work and add to the comfort and convenience of the house-keeper. Come in and let us tell you about them. Sold and guaranteed by Reynoldsville Hardware Co.

Stockholders' Meeting. The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Reynoldsville, Pa., for the election of directors for the ensuing year and for the transaction of any other business that may properly come before it, will be held in the Banking Room on Tuesday, January 8th, 1907, at 3.00 p. m. K. C. SCHUCKERS, Cashier.

At the children's matinee Saturday a $3.00 Waterston fountain pen will be given to the child or pupil having the most written words made from the name "R-a-y-m-o-n-d", and there is much excitement among the children. His engagement is without doubt the event of the season.

Walk-Overs, Walk-Overs, Walk-Overs shoes for men. Price $3.50 and $4.00. Adam Store Store. You will save money by attending the great sale at I. Horwitz store.

Queen Quality, the shoe that "fits." Price $3.00 to 4.00. Adam Shoe Store. You will save money by attending the great sale at I. Horwitz store.

INDUSTRY SEEKING LOCATION. The Standard Tie and Equipment Co. Have Submitted a Prospectus. The Standard Tie and Equipment Company, of Pittsburg, which has been incorporated for the purpose of acquiring the business of the Truss Steel Tie Company and adding thereto the manufacture of other specialties which are largely in use by railroad companies, is looking for a new location for their plant and have sent a copy of their prospectus and a proposition to citizens of Reynoldsville. The proposition is as follows: We present our enterprise all ready to go ahead and do a successful and profitable business whenever a suitable factory is ready for occupation. We propose to employ such a number of men as may be required for our business, and to increase the force as rapidly as our business demands. 90 percent of our employes will be skilled workmen. We propose at the first stages of the business to pay none of the officers any salary, all having agreed to work actively for some time in the Company's interests without making any charge for their services. We propose to build a plain, substantial one-story brick building, 60x150 feet; also a storehouse 40x200 feet, and we will obtain all the material, if possible, in your town. We will submit specifications and drawings to your builders, and place a contract for the construction of our buildings in your town. By carrying out the above building plans, we shall have suitable buildings in which to place our machinery, and hold in our treasury sufficient working capital to carry forward our business. We expect your people to buy from our treasury stock to the amount of $40,000 net cash, for which we will issue our stock at the rate of 20 cents on each dollar so paid, or $500.00 in stock for each $100.00 in cash. All of our shares are of one kind, full paid and non-assessable, and every holder of stock is on the same footing. We will accept a deed in fee from your Land and Improvement Company for a suitable amount of ground to be selected by our Company without any cost to it, provided we erect, equip and operate such a plant as is above proposed, and provided also, a suitable switch be placed to our plant free of cost. We propose that all subscriptions to stock shall be paid into our treasury as follows: 1/2 of amount subscribed when list is completed to $40,000. 1/2 of amount subscribed when building is ready for roof. 1/2 of amount subscribed when building is complete. 1/2 of amount subscribed when factory is ready for operation.

AN AGED LADY GONE. Mrs. Polly R. Ross Departed This Life Dec. 26—Buried in Indiana Co. Mrs. Polly R. Ross died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Haugh, near Prescottville on Wednesday, Dec. 26, 1906. Catarrh of the stomach was cause of her death. She had been ailing for a number of years. Her maiden name was Polly R. McCreeight. Was born in Armstrong county, Pa., February 28, 1828, and would have been 79 years old next month. She was married to Robert Ross, who died twenty-eight years ago. She united with the United Presbyterian church when twenty years old and was ever afterwards a faithful and consistent member of the same. Funeral service was held at Mr. Haugh's residence Thursday evening, conducted by Rev. John Sample, assisted by Rev. A. D. McKay, and Friday the body taken to home of John F. Ross, son of deceased, at Rochester Mills, Indiana Co., where another funeral service was held, conducted by Rev. Crawford. Interment was made in the Oakland cemetery, Indiana Co., Saturday along side husband of deceased.

Cured of Lung Trouble. "It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble was entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. stores, Reynoldsville and Sykesville, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Stockholders Meeting. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Land & Improvement Company will be held Monday, Feb. 18, at 8.00 p. m. in Centennial hall for the purpose of electing a board of directors and the transaction of such other business as may be presented. S. B. ELLIOTT, Pres. H. ALEX. STOKES, Sec'y.

Woman's Judgment. The woman who exercises good every day common sense, and profits by her own experience and that of others, will recognize in the Prizer Ranges a perfection in stove making not found in other makes. We would be pleased to have you examine them—and we believe you will confirm this statement. Sold and guaranteed by the Reynoldsville Hardware Co.

Ford's cushion shoe for woman. Price $3.50 Adam Shoe Store. The Great Raymond and his popular company of funmakers return to the Park Theatre Thursday, Jan. 3, for a three night engagement. Mr. Raymond is the magnetic magical in America to-day and is accompanied by a clever vaudeville company of singers, dancers and funny comedians. You will save money by attending the great sale at I. Horwitz store.

We wish all our friends and subscribers happiness and prosperity in this year of Our Lord, 1907.

WEDDING AT BEECHWOODS. Mr. Frank Morrison and Miss Elizabeth Hunter Married Dec. 27. One of the exceedingly pretty matrimonial events of the holiday season in which two of the most prominent young people of the Beechwoods country were the principals, was the marriage of Mr. Frank Morrison and Miss Elizabeth Ethel Hunter. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hunter, near Rockdale Mills, Thursday morning of this week, Dec. 27, 1906, in the presence of a company of 50 invited guests, all relatives and near friends of the contracting parties. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. George H. Hill, pastor of the Beechwoods Presbyterian church, who tied the golden knot at eleven o'clock. The appointments of the wedding were complete and pretty, and at no time has a deserving couple been started out in the bliss of wedded happiness and sunshine under more pleasant circumstances. Shortly before the appointed hour the guests were assembled in the spacious parlors of the Hunter residence and promptly at eleven o'clock, while the sweet strains of a beautiful wedding march were being produced by Mrs. S. M. Hunter, the bridal party was ushered to the place of honor where the offices of the ring ceremony of the Presbyterian church were performed and the happy couple pledged their troth. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white crepe de chene and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride's maid, Miss Hazel Kearney, wore a gown of white silk and carried pink roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Hugh Morrison. After the ceremony and congratulations the guests were ushered to the dining room where an elaborate wedding dinner was served, and to which all present did ample justice.

The wedding was one of the nicest appointed events ever given in the Beechwoods and the newly married pair, who are among the most prominent of the young people of that section, start out in life to-day with bright prospects for a happy and successful future. Shortly after the ceremony they drove to Falls Creek and took a north bound train for an extended wedding trip. They will return home next Tuesday and will be the guests of honor at a reception to be given at the home of the groom's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrison will reside at Beechwoods, where they have always been prime movers in church and social circles. The bride is the daughter of one of the oldest representative families of that district and is a young lady of pleasing personality and marked accomplishment, and she will prove a worthy helpmate, to her husband of her choice. Mr. Morrison is a gentleman of ability and energy and is considered among the prosperous young men of the district. He, also, is the son of one of the best families of the Beechwoods and is in every way deserving of the charming young lady who is now Mrs. Morrison. The bride was the recipient of many valuable gifts of remembrance from her friends. The Record joins their hosts of friends with hearty congratulations.—Brookwayville Record.

Acquitted of Murder. William North, who was tried in the Indiana county courts on the charge of murder, was acquitted. The trial lasted one week. William North was a deputy sheriff at Ernest last summer during the miners' strike. On the day of the shooting, June 28th, the miners from Creekside were marching through Ernest, led by the Ania brass band. Besides the deputy, there were also a number of State Constabulary stationed at Ernest, and while the march through the town was in progress a quarrel arose during which several shots were fired. After the disturbance had subsided, it was found that Nicola Maccora had been fatally wounded and one of the deputy sheriffs had also received a bullet wound. After Maccora's death North and several other of the officers were arrested, but North only was held for trial. The case was begun on Monday of last week and ended the latter part of the week with a verdict for acquittal.—Punxsutawney News.

R. D. Beer Dead. Reuben D. Beer, a former citizen of West Reynoldsville, who was well-known in this community, died at his home in Pittsburg on Monday morning, Dec. 31, after a short illness with grip and neuralgia. His death was sudden and unexpected. It is expected that the body will be brought to Reynoldsville on the noon train Thursday, funeral services will be held in Centennial hall after the arrival of train. John C. Conser G. A. R. Post, of which deceased was a member, will have charge of the funeral. Rev. J. A. Parsons will preach the funeral sermon. Interment will be made in the Beulah cemetery. Obituary notice will be published next week.

"Hello Bill" is All Right. A large and appreciative audience greeted George F. Hall in "Hello Bill" at the Grand Opera House last night. The play is a rather comedy and one of the brightest that ever came over the pike. It was one long glorious laugh during the time that the curtain was up. It was brim full and running over with wit and humor. The "pony ballet" made a decided hit. The jokes were mostly new and the songs were decidedly "catchy." In fact there was not a dull moment in the play.—Herkimer, (N. Y.) News, Sept. 20, 1906. At the Reynolds opera house to-night. Tickets 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Card of Thanks. We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during the sickness and after the death of our husband and father. Also thank Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Corbett, the Baptist choir and Baptist Aid Society for the beautiful flowers they gave.
