

AN OLD SOLDIER GONE.

Reuben D. Beer Died in Pittsburg and was Buried at Reynoldsville.

Reuben D. Beer, who had been a resident of West Reynoldsville 22 years, having been an active politician in that borough many years and was well known in this community, died at his home in Pittsburg at 7.00 a. m. Monday, December 31, 1906, after a short illness. The body was brought to Reynoldsville on the 12.52 p. m. train on P. R. R. Thursday, and was met at train by a number of old veterans, members of the G. A. R. Post, of which deceased was a member, six of whom acted as pall bearers. The body was taken to the M. E. church where funeral service was conducted by Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the church. Interment was made in Beulah cemetery.

R. D. Beer was born April 3, 1843, and would have been 64 years old next April. He was married to Nancy C. Boggess, of Upshur Co., W. Va., Nov. 1st, 1866.

When a boy his father moved into West Va., and it was from that state he responded to the President's call for soldiers in 1861. He enlisted in Capt. Pott's Company E, W. Va. Volunteer Infantry, June 22, 1861. He was honorably discharged on January 28, 1864, by reason of re-enlistment in Capt. Lindsay's Company E, 6th W. Va. Veteran Volunteer Cavalry, in which he served as Sergeant until discharged at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., by reason of general muster out. Among the battles he was in are the following:

Rich Mountain July, 1861, McDowell May, 1862, Cross Keys June, 1862, Cedar Mountain August 1862, under fire continuously for fourteen days during Pope's campaign on Rapidan, second Bull Run Aug. 29 and 30, 1863. Campaigned against Indians in the west after the war until mustered out.

Mr. Beer moved to West Reynoldsville in 1880 and resided there until 1902. He was in the employ of the A. V. R. R. for 20 years as carpenter and wreckmaster. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nancy C. Beer, and seven children, as follows: Harry B. Beer, Denver, Col., Capt. Robert B. Beer, of Papillion, Neb., Mrs. Minnie A. Gayhart, of Hot Springs, S. D., Mrs. Hettie C. Neff, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. Orpha N. Hagar, of Ellsworth, Pa., J. Lyndsay Beer, of Sewickley, Miss Cora Beer, of St. John's Hospital, Allegheny City. Harry Beer and Mrs. Gayhart were not able to go east to attend the funeral. Mrs. Beer and Mrs. Hagar did not come to Reynoldsville with the body. Mrs. Beer was not able to stand the trip.

Mrs. Beer, her widowed daughter, Mrs. Hettie Neff, and two sons, will make their home at the old homestead in West Reynoldsville.

Besides the flowers given by Pittsburg friends the Woman's Relief Corps of Reynoldsville furnished a beautiful wreath.

The Laboring Man Talks

Going my way? Yes, I'm a little late. Stopped to buy some Sealshipt oysters for supper.

"What are they?" Why, nothing but just the finest oysters you ever tasted in your life.

"Too dear for a workingman?" That's where you are dead wrong. They are the only oysters a poor man can afford to buy.

When you buy Sealshipt oysters you get solid meats, and you are not paying for dirty ice water. My wife says that a pint of Sealshipt will go as far as a quart of any other oysters.

And as for the flavor—you come down some Sunday night and my wife will give you an oyster stew that will make you think you never tasted an oyster before.

Million Dollar Business for Reynoldsville.

Plans are now being manipulated to conduct a million dollar business for this town. We would like to know whether or not the best men in this community are to be selected to handle this business? We would like to know whether it will be conducted by men who are in this business for the satisfaction of their own political greed at the expense of the people? We would also like to know why the expense of conducting this business heretofore has been steadily increasing out of proportion to the improvements we enjoy? We would like to know why the political grafters are getting so earnestly anxious about maintaining, in power, the individuals who have always stood by these same grafters? We would also like to know why these same grafters are anxious to turn down the men who have proven themselves worthy of the trust imposed in them, by the people? If we would ask you to name these men who are not worthy of the people's confidence you could count them on the spur of the moment. Something is wrong. Let the people look into this matter and learn what kind of men we are to have to conduct this million dollar business. Bear in mind our tax valuation is now over one million dollars. At 35 mills on the dollar it means a tax of over $35,000. Is this matter worth looking after? CITIZEN.

Quite a number of relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Marshall gathered at their home on New Year's Day in honor of Earl's 28th birthday. It was quite a surprise.

We were sorry to read in the Sykesville Post-Dispatch that Samuel Katzen, one of the jewelers of Reynoldsville, was quite ill. He didn't look that way on roller skates a few days ago.

Will Extend Line.

A meeting of the directors of the Reynoldsville Extension of the Farmers Telephone Co. was held in Lawyer Smith M. McCreight's office in this place last Friday afternoon. The officers of last year were re-elected, J. J. Sutter president, James V. Young vice-president, M. E. Weed secretary, A. C. Murray treasurer, S. T. Stoimer trustee.

This company now has a line between Reynoldsville and Knoxade, via Emrickville, and the company has decided to extend the line from Emrickville to Brookville. The telephone poles have already been distributed along the proposed extension and the work of setting up the poles and stringing wire will be pushed along as rapidly as possible. When the poles are up a through wire will be strung from Reynoldsville to Brookville, giving the company two wires between the two towns, one for local service and the other for through service.

When the line is completed to Brookville this company will connect with Red Bank line, giving the patrons of either company the service of both lines.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble was entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. stores, Reynoldsville and Sykesville. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Two Kinds of Girls.

There are two kinds of girls in the world, the girl who works and the girl who gads. Commend us to the former. Work lends dignity to a pretty girl, is an added charm to her. The girl who works, God bless her, combines the useful and ornamental. She might gad about, roll on sofas, gossip and read story books, but she prefers to be of some account in the world and goes out stenographer, teacher, saleslady or housekeeper and bravely makes her own way. Such are the salt of the earth and of such is the kingdom of heaven.—Ex.

We did our best but we were defeated. Our team work was brilliant in spots but it showed lack of practice. Butler was lucky in their shooting, while our team could not hit the basket. It was a good fast game and we should have had a better crowd. Although we were beaten it was by a worthy foe who deserved the victory. R. H. S. 17. Butler H. S. 30
