Dinger-Wagner Wedding.

Miss Minnie Wagner, of Worthville, sister of John H. Wagner, Mrs. A. M. Smith and Mrs. Clara M. Shick, of Reynoldsville, and Irvin Dinger, of New Maysville, were married at the bride's home at Worthville at high noon yesterday, January 8, 1907, in the presence of relatives of the contracting parties. The bride is known to a number of Reynoldsville people, having visited here and at one time clerked for a short time in Shick & Wagner's store. John H. Wagner and wife, A. M. Smith and wife, Mrs. Clara M. Shick and daughter, Mrs. C. J. Raymond, attended the wedding.

Daughters of St. George.

Mrs. Hannah Yenewine, W. P. P., assisted by Mrs. Annie Justham, installed the following officers in the Daughters of St. George lodge in this place for ensuing term: W. P. P., Miss Elizabeth Bolt; W. P., Mrs. J. A. Barclay; W. V. P., Mrs. Emma Bashor; W. R. Sec., Miss Elizabeth Northey; W. Treas., Mrs. Margaret Trudgen; W. Chaplain, Miss Grace Hocking; W. F. Con., Mrs. Emma Northey; W. S. Con., Mrs. Martha Miller; W. I. G., Mrs. Ella Deter; W. O. G., Mrs. Mary A. Gricks; Trustees, Mrs. Martha Miller, Mrs. Emma Bashor, Mrs. Emma Northey.

Resigned as Supt. Tannery.

Benjamin Sykes, who has been superintendent of the tannery at this place three years, has resigned his position with the Elk Tanning Co. to take charge of Vantassell's tannery in DuBois. Mr. Sykes' resignation takes effect on 15th inst. and he will go to DuBois next week to accept his new position as manager of the Vantassell tannery. Mr. Sykes and family have made many warm friends during their three year stay in Reynoldsville who are sorry to see them move away.

J. W. Sykes, of Curwensville, brother of Benjamin Sykes, will be superintendent of the Reynoldsville tannery.

Water Rates Reduced.

At a meeting of the directors of the Reynoldsville Water Company last Friday evening it was decided to reduce the water rate 25 per cent, which now makes the water rate $1.00 per month, or $12.00 per year, for use of water for house, bath room and closet. For a number of years the rate was $22.00 per year, for house, bath and closet, but several years ago the rate was reduced to $16.00 per year, and the reduction last week lowers the rate four dollars. Under the new rate, which is to become effective from first of this year, water for house use alone will be about $7.50 per year. The new rate is certainly a very reasonable one and will, no doubt, result in a large increase in the number of families to use town water.

Bomb Fiend's Deadly Work.

Saturday afternoon A. T. Bing and Mrs. E. C. Sensor received the startling and horrible news by telephone that their brother-in-law, William Z. McLearn, cashier of the Fourth street National Bank in Philadelphia, had been killed about noon Saturday by a bomb which had been exploded in the bank by a supposed crazy man who had made a demand for a loan of $5,000, without security, and when his demand was refused he dropped the bomb. Mr. Bing went to Philadelphia on the 6.08 train Saturday evening. The funeral of Cashier McLearn takes place in Philadelphia to-day.

Robert Steele is name of man who dropped the bomb, killing himself and Cashier McLearn, fatally injuring two other men, more or less injuring 15 or 20 others and wrecking the interior of the bank. Fragments of the crank who dropped the bomb were gathered up in a bucket. The body of Cashier McLearn was terribly mutilated.

A freight wreck on P. R. R. near Fuller Sunday evening delayed the 9.40 p. m. east bound train about two hours Sunday night, and a wreck near Sabula Monday morning delayed the 8.08 a. m. west-bound almost two hours Monday.

ANOTHER VACANT CHAIR.

Mrs. J. D. Woodring Departed This Life First Day of New Year.

On the first day of January, 1907, at 11:30 p. m., Mrs. Eliza A. Woodring, wife of Squire J. D. Woodring, West Reynoldsville groceryman, responded to the summons of the messenger of death and crossed the border line into the Eternal Land. Cancer of the stomach was cause of her death. She had been a sufferer for fifteen months. Funeral service was held in the Presbyterian church at 2.00 p. m. Friday, conducted by Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the church, assisted by Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the M. E. church. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery. Priests had charge of the funeral.

Maiden name of deceased was Eliza A. Patten, daughter of William and Jane Patten, both deceased. She was born at Minersville, Pa., October 16, 1845, and was 61 years, 2 months and 16 days old when her earthly career closed. December 31, 1867, was united in marriage to J. D. Woodring at Wilkesbarre, Pa., and their married life was 39 years and 1 day. Unto them four children were born, the oldest died in infancy. The two surviving children are, Mrs. Elizabeth Krumanocker, of White Haven, Pa., and William P. Woodring, associated with his father in the grocery business in West Reynoldsville.

Mrs. Woodring, who had resided in this place about twenty years, had a large circle of acquaintances and was highly esteemed. She was a bright and intellectual woman. Before marriage she taught school. She was a great reader and was a good talker, could deliver a good address before a public audience, which she did on several occasions during her residence in Reynoldsville. Mrs. Woodring had been an active and interested member of the Women's Relief Corps for seventeen years. She had filled the office of president and all the other offices in the Corps. She was a member of the Episcopal church, but as there was no Episcopal church here she became a member of the Presbyterian Work Society several years ago and worked with the ladies of that society.

The floral tributes consisted of a Maltese Cross from the Woman's Relief Corps, pillow from W. P. Woodring and family, bouquet from Presbyterian Work Society, bouquet of violets from Mrs. D. H. Krumanocker, bouquet from Mrs. Grant Scheafnocker, of Brookville, bouquet from Mrs. J. W. Shoemaker, of New York City.

"Where Are We At?"

Last Thursday evening Dr Morgan Wood, of Cleveland, Ohio, lectured in Assembly hall, the third number on the high school lecture course. His subject was: "Where are we at?" It was delivered in such a style and force as to elicit the closest attention of his hearers. For one hour and fifteen minutes words fell from his lips in torrents of such brilliant oratory as to delight all. Dr. Wood said as much in the hour and quarter as an ordinary speaker would say in an hour and three-quarters or two hours. He is magnificently endowed with voice and physique and is possessed of wonderful oratorical power. Dr. Wood pleased his audience at Reynoldsville.

Chorus Choir.

A meeting will be held in the Baptist church at 8.30 this evening to organize a chorus choir for the gospel meeting to begin next Monday. Prof. Harris, who will have charge of the chorus choir, is in town and will be at the meeting to-night. Prof. Harris invites all the singers of Reynoldsville, regardless of denomination of church membership, who wish to join the choir to be at the meeting in Baptist church to night.

Citizens Meeting.

A citizens' meeting will be held at Reynolds opera house to-morrow, Thursday, evening at 8.00 o'clock. The president and secretary of the Standard Tie and Equipment Co., a concern desiring a location, will be at this meeting to explain, describe and answer any questions our citizens may wish to have made clear to them. Everybody come to this meeting. No subscriptions to stock will be asked for at this meeting.

Five in Sixteen Months.

On the last day of 1906 the stork brought Engineer Charles A. Stephenson, of the P. R. R., twin babies. Sixteen months ago triplets were born to Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson, making five children born to this couple in sixteen months. One of the triplets died. Engineer Stephenson resides at East Brady. He is a nephew of ye editor.

David C. Rhodes Dead.

At 10.10 p. m. Wednesday, January 2, 1907, David C. Rhodes, a glassblower, died at his home on Main street from pulmonary trouble. He had been in poor health for a couple of years. Funeral service was held at the family residence at eight o'clock Friday evening, conducted by Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the M. E. church, assisted by Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of Baptist church. The body was taken to New Castle on the 8.08 a. m. train over P. R. R. Saturday. Funeral service was held at home of deceased's mother in New Castle Sunday afternoon. Interment was made in Oak Park cemetery. Mrs. Rhodes, mother of deceased, came to Reynoldsville five weeks before her son died and remained here until he passed into the Eternal Land.

David C. Rhodes was born at New Castle, Pa., June 29, 1869, and was in his 38th year. He was the son of Robert and Mary J. Rhodes. His father died 24 years ago this month. He began work in glassplant about 17 years ago, when about 20 years old. He came to Reynoldsville over 5 years ago. August 2, 1902, he was married to Mrs. Margaret Kleinbans. He was a member of the M. E. church on probation, a member of the Glasshouse Union and Fraternal Order of Eagles No. 540. A casket bouquet of flowers from Mr. and Mrs. J. Owen Edelblute, casket bouquet of ferns from Mrs. A. M. Applegate, and a beautiful wreath from the Order of Eagles were the floral tributes. Hughes & Fleming had charge of the funeral.

J. Owen Edelblute, George Harris and John O'Hare, members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, accompanied the body to New Castle.

Assessors' Returns.

Assessors' returns showing the amount of real and personal property, and the valuations thereof, in Reynoldsville, West Reynoldsville, Winslow and Washington townships, as follows:

Reynoldsville—Number of taxables 1106, number of acres 357, value of real estate $918,357, number of horses 135 value of horse $4,550, number of cows 85, value of cows $1,255, valuation of occupations $71,180, total value $995,372.

The Trail to Kaylor.

Twenty members of Mazomania Tribe No. 341, of Reynoldsville, hit the trail for Kaylor, Pa., Saturday last and helped to paint the village a crimson hue that night. There was a notable gathering of Red Men there from numerous tribes around and when the pow-wow was over eighty-eight pale faces of Kaylor had been initiated into the mysteries of Ogarita Tribe, No. 500, I. O. R. M. The warriors from Reynoldsville were: District Deputy Great Sachem Grant Rhoads, D. H. Breakey, W. J. H. Kocheer, James Mowrey, E. M. Fuller, J. C. Cavender, Charles Yenewine, William Rhoads, George Hartman, John Collins, George Sheetz, F. O. O'Donnell, Samuel Waite, William Howlet, Thomas Corbett, Charles Young, August Guthrie, Roy Yohe, William Sharp and John Fuller. They left Reynoldsville at 4.25 Saturday, got to East Brady at 8.00 and had supper. Kaylor is only five miles from East Brady, but the trail that leads to it was the most wild and devious one that these warriors ever tried to follow. It leads by way of Brady's Bend and is about as straight as the Sandy Lick creek between Sandy Valley and Hopkins. The road leads through a region of rugged hills, rocky and wild enough to make witches' heath in Macbeth look tame; and added to this was the fact that the road might have been followed about as easily in a boat as a wagon. Kaylor was only five miles away but it took until eleven to reach it, and it was five-thirty o'clock next morning when the fun was over.

GOSPEL UNION CAMPAIGN.

The Evangelistic Meetings Begin in Centennial Hall Next Monday, Jan. 14.

The union gospel meetings to begin in Centennial Hall on Monday evening of next week, January 14th, under the direction of Dr. A. J. Smith, evangelist of New York City, and Prof. Chester F. Harris, of Cleveland, Ohio, has awakened considerable interest in Reynoldsville. Inquires have been made about Dr. Smith and his work, and in answer to such inquires the following statement is published:

Rev. A. J. Smith was born in the province Quebec, Canada, and came to the United States when ten years old. The drift of his whole life seems to have been preparatory to his particular calling. Educated in Brattleboro, Vt., and Boston, and expecting to enter business, he further prepared himself by a commercial course at Eastman college, Poughkeepsie. At 21 he went on the road as a commercial traveler, selling goods to the furniture trade. In 1885 he was led to give up business and go into the work of the Y. M. C. A. He served the association in Waterbury, Conn., New York and Chicago. In 1889 he accepted an invitation to become assistant pastor of Bethany Presbyterian church, Philadelphia, commonly known as Wanamaker's church. In this church Dr. Smith caught the evangelistic spirit and after prayerful consideration resigned to enter the general work. After leaving Bethany church Dr. Smith took a special course in the Dutch Reformed Theological Seminary at New Brunswick, N. J. Dr. Smith has been associated with Mr. Moody, B. Fay Mills, J. Wilbur Chapman and many other leading religious workers of the day. All these gentlemen, with Mr. Wanamaker and the session of the Bethany church, most heartily commend Dr. Smith as a christian gentleman and a singularly successful winner of souls. After six years of evangelistic work Dr. Smith accepted an urgent call to the First Presbyterian church of Savannah, Ga., where labored from 1896 to the end of 1900. During his ministry there great numbers were added to the church and the building was entirely remodeled at a cost of $9,000.

Since leaving Savannah Dr. Smith has devoted his entire time to evangelistic work. He has been associated with Dr. Chapman in some of his greatest evangelistic campaigns. He organized and directed the preparatory work in Atlanta, Ga., where several thousand confessed Christ. He was associated with Dr. J. P. Calhoun in the great meetings in Kansas City and Louisville, and has on many occasions acted as special representative of the Committee on Evangelistic work of the Presbyterian church.

Dr. Smith has been described as "a man with a message," and those who know him intimately say that the secret of his power lies in the fact that he is filled with the Holy Ghost. He has been influenced greatly by association with men like Moody, but he earnestly insists that the greatest influence in his life has been the earnest, patient life of his mother, who still lives in Boston Mass. He says that from his earliest recollection she tried to lead him to Jesus, and because of her faithfulness he was spared that sowing of wild oats which is the bane of so many young men.

Trolley Line To Big Run.

There is little doubt but that the extension of the street car line from DuBois to Big Run will be completed as soon in the spring as the weather will permit. The surveys have been completed and nearly all of the right of way purchased. Considerable of the work has been done on the extension from Sykesville toward Big Run, and it is understood that the remaining portion of the road will be hastened to completion. The company will likely build a power house at Big Run to furnish additional power for the operation of the line and also furnish Big Run with electric lights.—Big Run Tribune.

Burn's Anniversary.

The Scottish people of Soldier and surrounding towns are making preparations for a big celebration to be held at Soldier Hotel, Soldier, on Friday, January 25, in honor of Robert Burns, the Scotch poet. A good program is being arranged and will be published in THE STAR at the proper time.

The Burns anniversary this year at Soldier promises to be a fine event. Alex Watson is president of the organization and Thomas Nesbet secretary.
