Nearly everybody in Reynoldsville reads THE STAR and the easiest, cheapest, most effective way possible to get what you want and get it quick is to put an ad in our want column. You may want a situation, or want help, want to sell something or buy something, rent a house or sell your store,—it's all the same. You only need to tell the people to get what you want—and THE STAR want column does the work.

GOSPEL CAMPAIGN OPENED MONDAY

Dr. A. J. Smith Failed to Arrive Monday but Chester F. Harris and the Secretary of the Brookville Y. M. C. A., Assisted by Local Ministers Successfully Inaugurated the Work.

With an audience that filled Centennial hall from wall to wall the union evangelistic campaign of the Methodist Episcopal, Baptist and Presbyterian churches was inaugurated Monday evening of this week. The extensive advertising of the past few weeks had aroused a high degree of interest. Four, five, even a dozen prayer meetings a week have been held at private residences for a month past, much personal exhortation has been practiced and sectarian lines seem to have been buried that one great effort may be made to better the spiritual condition of the town. Seldom has a more representative gathering been witnessed in town than assembled Monday evening.

For a week past Chester F. Harris, of Cleveland, Ohio, has been training a union choir and over one hundred persons formed the chorus Monday evening, all seated on the raised rostrum in front of hall. A piano had been put in for special use during the gospel services and was played by Miss Sara Corbett. Instrumental music was rendered by W. W. Kiple, the violinist, and F. P. Alexander, cornetist.

The only disappointment of the opening was the failure of Dr. Arthur J. Smith, leader of the campaign, to arrive Monday. A telegram was received stating that he had been detained in New York City. In his place H. W. Love, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Brookville, gave an address that commanded close attention throughout.

PIONEER SETTLER PASSED AWAY

Mrs. Joseph Morrison Died Friday Morning—Interment in Beechwoods Cemetery.

Mrs. Mary A. Morrison, relict of Joseph Morrison, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hood Knox, on Grant street, at 8:00 a. m. Friday, January 11, 1907. Heart failure, superinduced by old age, was cause of her death. Mrs. Morrison was out and walked to lower end of lot and back Thursday afternoon, apparently in usual health. She took ill about 3:00 a. m. Friday. Funeral service was held at residence of Mr. Knox Monday forenoon, conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek, assisted by Dr. J. A. Parsons. Interment was made in Beechwoods cemetery beside husband of deceased, who died in 1904.

Mrs. Morrison would have been 85 years old next June. Her maiden name was Mary Ann McIntosh. She was born on mid-ocean while her parents were coming from Ireland to America. Her parents were among the old pioneer settlers of Beechwoods, having located in Beechwoods almost 85 years ago. Deceased was married to Joseph Morrison April 1, 1852. They began housekeeping on what is now known as the old Morrison homestead in Snyder township, near Sugar Hill, where they resided until moving to Reynoldsville twenty years ago.

Unto Mr. and Mrs. Morrison two sons and one daughter were born, who survive their parents. They are: Robert H. Morrison, on old homestead in Snyder township, William James Morrison, of New Kensington, and Mrs. Annie E. Knox, of Reynoldsville. Deceased is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Lavina Hughes and Mrs. William Stevenson, of DuBois. Early in life Mrs. Morrison united with the Baptist church at Allens Mills and remained a faithful member of same.

MINISTER KILLED HIMSELF.

Rev. John W. Van Horn Sent Bullet Crashing Through His Brain—Death Was Instantaneous.

Rev. John W. Van Horn, of Sugar Hill, who was installed as pastor of the Presbyterian churches at Sugar Hill, Hazen and Richardsville about one year ago, shot and instantly killed himself at Hotel Evergreen in Falls Creek about 10:30 last Wednesday night. The Monday previous to the sad tragedy Rev. Van Horn mysteriously disappeared from his home and there was no trace of him by his family, until he appeared at Hotel Evergreen about 9:30 Wednesday night, registered and asked for a room. The proprietor of the hotel, who talked to him before he was shown to room, says he appeared to be perfectly rational. When Rev. Van Horn did not respond to a call at 8:30 the next morning, the proprietor became a little alarmed. At 11:00 a. m. the room door was forced open and the minister was found in bed with a .32-calibre revolver under him. He had placed the revolver in middle of his forehead and fired the shot that crashed through his brain, causing death instantaneously.

There is no doubt but that Rev. Van Horn was suffering from mental trouble when he so mysteriously disappeared and finally committed the awful deed of taking his own life. His family relations were peaceful and sweet and he was highly esteemed and loved by the members of his congregation. There is no conceivable cause for the deed excepting temporary mental derangement.

When moving to Sugar Hill Rev. Van Horn was injured by being struck on head with a heavy piece of furniture and it is generally believed that finally affected his brain. Rev. Van Horn was pastor of Valley for a number of years. He is spoken of as an able and faithful minister. He was 47 years old. He leaves a wife and four children, two daughters, aged respectively, 14, 12, 9 and 7 years.
