"What Happened to Jones."

"Laugh and the world laughs with you." No saying ever carried greater meaning. Geo. H. Broadhurst certainly filled the bill to the letter when he launched his new world-famed farceal ecstacy, "What Happened to Jones." He has made the characters laugh and he has made the audience laugh. That's the secret of its unequalled success. That's why it seems always so fresh and entertaining. He has become such a favorite with the public in this role that they won't have him in anything else, it seems. Richard Milton, in his famous creation of "Jones" is supported by the strongest cast he has yet had, and that is saying a great deal. A very novelty specialty is introduced by Mr. D. C. Mott, who is said to be the handsomest man on the American stage. The production in detail manager J. A. Blaydon has secured for the Park Theatre for February 7.

Neighbors Got Fooled.

"I was literally coughing myself to death, and had become too weak to leave my bed; and neighbors predicted that I would never leave it alive; but they got fooled, for thanks be to God, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It took just four one dollar bottles to completely cure the cough and restore me to good sound health," writes Mrs. Eva Unapher, of Grovertown, Stark Co., Ind. This king of cough and cold cures, and healer of throat and lungs, is guaranteed by Stoke & Feicht Drug Co., of Reynoldsville and Sykesville. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Stockholders Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Land & Improvement Company will be held Monday, Feb. 18, at 8:00 p. m. in Centennial hall for the purpose of electing a new board of directors and the transaction of such other business as may be presented. S. B. ELLIOTT, Pres.
H. ALEX. STOKES, Sec'y.

IN MEMORIAM.

Resolutions Adopted by Reynoldsville Aerie, No. 540, F. O. E., on the Death of David C. Rhodes.

Inasmuch as it has pleased God in his wisdom to remove from our midst our brother, David C. Rhodes, by death, therefore be it—

Resolved, That in the death of David C. Rhodes this Aerie has lost a worthy member, and as a token of our grief, our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved wife, in the loss of her husband, our brother; that we recommend her to the care of our Heavenly Father, who has seen fit to make one more transformation to that Eternal City, where the bonds of brotherhood will never be broken.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the minutes of our order and that they be printed in THE STAR and that a copy of that publication be sent to his wife, Maggie Rhodes, the late home of the deceased.

J. C. SAYERS,
Geo. HARRIS,
J. O. EDELBLUTE, Com.

Soldier.

Miss Mary Askey, of DuBois, visited with her cousin, Miss Anna Sloan, one day last week.

The school teachers of this place took their scholars out for a sleighride one afternoon last week.

Miss Mary Hilbert and Miss Edna Kopp, of DuBois visited with Mrs. James Nelson last Sunday.

LaMar Ritchie, who is attending school at Reynoldsville, came home Friday night quite ill. He will be able to return to school Tuesday.

A number from this place attended a party at the home of Mrs. Mary Muth, near Paradise, one evening last week. All present report a very good time.

"The Volunteer Organist."

The reclaiming of a man is no small portion of the plot of "The Volunteer Organist" which will be seen at Park Theatre Monday evening, February 11. This man having fallen, through drink, to about as low a position in the social scale as would seem possible, has the eyes of his heart and soul opened before it is too late. The veil that has obscured from his vision all that is good and noble is gradually lifted and the man, who proves to be the Volunteer Organist, is made to see the folly of his way. As a grand moral lesson, no play of latter days can offer anything in comparison. It is sublime, impressive and is carried in one's memory for many a day after witnessing it.
