Ministerial Endorsement—The play is strictly moral, it is a play to which you can safely take your family. Should 'The Drummer Boy of Shiloh' return to our town I would make a great effort to attend the performances again.—William J. Miller, Pastor First English Lutheran Church, Leechburg, Pa.

From beginning to end there is a piquancy about 'The Real Widow Brown' which is delightful and refreshing. It is full of good things and there are many of them that it is difficult to pick out those which are better than others. The members of the company are all clever in their various roles, in fact the show is one of continual merriment.

Among the Brookville players was John Scheafnocker, son of Sheriff Scheafnocker.

There continues to be much discussion concerning the feasibility of dropping the 'ville' from the name Brookwayville, and judging from the apparent disposition of many citizens the majority favors a short name. In fact there seems to be so much interest in the question that the day is not very distant when the real desires of all citizens in the borough will be given a chance for expression for or against cutting the tail off the name of this village.—Brookwayville Record.

Wedding Monday Evening. John D. Marshall and Miss Lola Whited, both of Hawthorne, Pa., were married by Rev. J. A. Parsons on Monday evening, Feb. 18, at 6.30 o'clock at the home of Harvey S. Deter on Grant st., who is a cousin of the groom. Mr. Marshall at one time lived in Reynoldsville, and is known here by a number of people. The wedding was attended by only a few relatives. An excellent wedding supper was served after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall left on Tuesday for an extended wedding trip. All their friends in Reynoldsville wish them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Battle of the High Schools. Fame is but a bubble after all and that should soothe the wounded feelings of the Reynoldsville high school basket ball team. They have put up a first-class game this year and had good reason to believe themselves destined for championship honors. They may be, even yet, but a certain band of athletes from DuBois put a bad dint in their halo Monday evening in Evans' skating rink. It was a remarkable game, abounding in excitement, but all too rough for skill or the pleasure of the big crowd present. In the first half the Reynoldsville boys played well, keeping the score very close and some pretty goal throwing was done by Hoffman and Sykes. But it seemed to be a test of endurance and in this the DuBois players had a shade the better of the argument. At the close of the game the score stood 34-19 in favor of DuBois and the cheerful yell that went up was from the throats of the DuBois victors. What the Reynoldsville players thought of the lamentable roughness that characterized the game may be seen in the High School Bulletin. In justice to them it should be stated that they were more injured against than sinning and most of the blame is due to the DuBois referee who made no effort to prevent it.

NOT GUILTY OF MURDER. Joseph Leichner Sentenced to Huntingdon Reformatory. Joseph Leichner, the seventeen-year-old young man of Reynoldsville, who shot John E. Pyne, nine-year-old lad at Helvetia December 9, 1906, was tried in the Clearfield county court last week on charge of murder, and the jury on the case brought in a verdict of not guilty. Leichner went on the witness stand and told a straightforward story of how the shooting occurred, denying any intention of shooting and claiming he thought he had his finger on the safety trigger when the shot was fired. After the verdict of the jury was announced an indictment was read charging Leichner with involuntary manslaughter, to which he pleaded guilty, and Judge Smith sentenced him to the Huntingdon reformatory to be released within the year pending good behavior. Lawyer Clement W. Flynn, of Reynoldsville, was Leichner's attorney and ably handled the defense.

Birthday Party. On Friday of last week a few friends and neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John I. McDonald, on Beech st., to celebrate the birthday of Mrs. McDonald. The friends began to gather about 10.00 a. m. and took possession of the house, and at 12.00, noon, all sat down to a splendid and abundant dinner. Free conversation was indulged in until 2.30, at which time the friends were called to order and Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, in a few timely words, presented Mrs. McDonald with a sum of money and several beautiful and substantial presents, consisting of glassware, pictures, dry goods, etc. Rev. Dr. J. A. Parsons led in a feeling and touching prayer, in which he commended all to the care and keeping of God.

Those who were present were: Thomas Claubaugh and wife, Mrs. John Cooper and two children, Mrs. Jane Crawford, Mrs. Ann Siple and daughters, Misses Flo, Jennie, Clara, Leana and Alma, Robert Siple, wife and three children, S. C. Showers and wife, Mrs. Hattie Donahue, Rev. Parsons and wife, Rev. Meek and wife, Mrs. Carl Hutchins of Brookville.

The occasion was a very pleasant one and all joined in well wishes for the remaining days of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald. A GUEST.

'The Real Widow Brown.' Unlooked for complications frequently arise when people, tired with love's young dream, seek a congenial partner through the medium of the matrimonial papers. This is what happens in the case of 'The Real Widow Brown,' a clean, farcical play bubbling over with jollity, which will be seen at the Park theatre to-night, Feb. 20. In most plays the characters are made to bring about situations which are strained and unnatural, but in Mr. A. Q. Scammon's latest for public approval old lines have been ignored. The real widow is impersonated by an audacious young man while another gay young man 'makes up' and assumes to be an old deacon who believes he has found his affinity through the Matrimonial Times, and with whom he has been in correspondence. The mistaken identities furnish excellent opportunities for fun and merriment. The situations and climaxes are irresistibly funny, and the combined efforts of a clever company of farceurs to amuse and create a vast deal of laughter is crowned with success. The music is bright and up-to-date. The costumes are artistic and the singing and dancing specialties are uncommonly good.

Flag Day. The strength and virtue of a community consist in the safety, intelligence and patriotism of its youth. The safety of a nation is not in the hands of its rulers, but in the lives of its people. Children should be taught to love their country, to value its institutions, to appreciate all that patriotism stands for. Friday, February 22, 1907, is therefore set apart as Flag Day. It is suggested that each teacher arrange a literary program for part of the day. Send a cordial invitation to your patrons to be present. Make suitable decorations. Let at least one flag float in or over every school in the county on that day. Sing patriotic songs. Let the program be a patriotic one pertaining to the flag and appropriate to Washington's birthday.

Popular Play. Dayton, Ohio, Journal.—'Drummer Boy of Shiloh.'—Last night witnessed the opening performance of this popular play, and to say it was a grand success is not paying too much credit. For a first night performance it was the best ever given in Dayton. The cast is all that could be desired and 'caught on' at once with the audience. Fred B. Wigle, as 'Uncle Joe,' is the finest negro character ever seen here. At Park Theatre Feb. 22 and 23, under auspices of the Sons of Veterans.

One of the funniest companies on the road to-day, 'The Real Widow Brown,' played by a company of unusual merit, will be seen at the Park Theatre to-night, February 20. The plot rests upon the idea of substituting a young man disguised as a widow for the genuine one who was to fill the position of governess to two charming girls. The complication arising from such a ludicrous impersonation are funny and can only be greeted with peals of laughter. The music is sparkling and up-to-date. Tickets on sale at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store.

You will save money by attending the great sale at I. Horwitz store. Keep the cold away from your feet with a pair of Adam's warm shoes.

WILL GO TO CLYMER

G. W. LENKERD HAS ACCEPTED NEW POSITION.

After March 1st he will act as Secretary and General Manager of the Clymer Brick and Fire Clay Company at Clymer, Indiana County.

G. W. Lenkerd, who has been secretary and manager of the Reynoldsville Brick & Tile Company since that company was organized in 1902, has resigned his position with the above company, to take effect March 1st, to accept position as secretary and general manager of the Clymer Brick & Fire Clay Co. plant at Clymer, Indiana Co. This is a large plant owned by eastern capitalists. The main office of the company is at Indiana, but the plant is located at Clymer, nine miles east of Indiana. Clymer is a new town, one year old, and has a population of 2,000. It has two railroads, P. R. R. and N. Y. C., and is connected with Indiana by trolley.

Mr. Lenkerd accepted the principalship of the public schools in this borough in August, 1896, and held that position until the close of the term in 1902, and he did excellent and efficient work. He raised our schools to a higher standard than they had ever attained before, giving our young people advantages equal, and in some respects superior, to the advantages given to pupils in larger towns. We claim that great credit is due Mr. Lenkerd for the high standing of our public schools. He was progressive.

In August, 1902, when the Reynoldsville Brick & Tile Company was organized, Mr. Lenkerd was selected as secretary and manager, and he took hold of that work, although new to him, with the same vim and push that he had put into the school work, and he has made a success of the work for this company, which is now well established and doing a good business. The Clymer Brick & Fire Clay Co. made no mistake in selecting Mr. Lenkerd for secretary and general manager, if they want a hustler in that position.

We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Lenkerd, who are highly esteemed by those acquainted with them.

Clyde Murray has been selected for the position of secretary for the Brick & Tile Co., to succeed Mr. Lenkerd. Mr. Murray is teaching school at Sigel this term, but has resigned that position to accept the new one.

The Good Work Goes On. During the evangelistic meetings held in Reynoldsville several of the Christians of Rathmel attended and were awakened to the fact that a union meeting held in Rathmel may result in the saving of souls. Sabbath evening, February 10th, they decided to put forth an effort to bring about an evangelistic meeting. Cottage prayer meetings will be held each week, as well as the regular prayer meetings in the churches, until the meetings are started. The plan is to have all the ministers who preach here work together and if possible to get an evangelist to come and carry on the meetings. W. G. Harris has been appointed as leader in the work until the meetings begin proper. Say, christian, where art thou? Why not join in and help in the work of the Lord? Sinners are looking at you for not being in the work, so lay down everything and use your influence for good. WORKER.

Overwork. More accidents involving loss of life have taken place on the railroads in the past year or two than in any previous period of equal duration. In this particular the United States has won a bad pre-eminence among the great countries of the world. There are several times more fatalities in this country on the railways every year than there are in England, Germany or France, in proportion to the number of persons traveling. Overwork on the part of the employes has been the cause of many of the casualties. Physical torpor due to excessive hours of labor of railway workers is accountable for the failure in many cases, to make use of the mechanical devices to prevent accidents.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Annual Meeting Postponed. The annual meeting for election of directors of the Reynoldsville Land and Improvement Co., called for Monday evening, Feb. 18, has been postponed until Monday evening of next week, Feb. 25, at eight o'clock, at Centennial hall, on account of there not being a majority of the stock represented. All stockholders are urgently requested to be present either in person or by proxy at this meeting in order that a board of directors may be elected, and that other business of importance may be transacted.

You will save money by attending the great sale at I. Horwitz store. Men's, boys' and children's overcoats at 40 per cent below marked price at the Peoples Bargain store. A. Katzen, proprietor.

If you buy mantles by the box, let us quote you a price. Union Plumbing Co. When you want satisfaction in shoes buy Walkover; price $4.00. Adam's.
