

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance.

C.A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10 1907.

Entered at the post office at Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter.

SUMMERSVILLE TELEPHONE NO. 81.

GET IT AT

HAPPY BABYHOOD

depends on a healthy, velvety skin, free from rash or other tantalizing affections.

BOOTH'S COMPOUND DERMA-TALCUM

is the only nursery powder possessing reliable absorbent and anti-septic properties.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. REYNOLDSVILLE, PA.

A Little of Everything.

Basket ball to-night. "The Lion and the Mouse."

Dr. J. A. Parsons preached at Rathem last night.

What's that? Oh, yes, the Golden League. I get my money in five years.

Thursday, April 4, 1907, a daughter was born to Prof. and Mrs. C. J. Scott.

Herpel Bros. have had their old machine shop in West Reynoldsville torn down.

S. R. Miles, of Albion, Pa., was here the past week on account of the serious illness of his father, Robert L. Miles.

Ex-Postmaster W. C. Schultze and wife will celebrate their golden wedding on Saturday of next week, April 20.

Sunday morning, April 7, 1907, twins, boy and girl, were born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Green at Imperial Hotel.

The monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Paul will be held in the M. E. church Friday evening of this week.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid Society will hold a market at Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store Saturday afternoon and evening.

Why not join a home company where you are protected by the inspection of the insurance department? This is the Golden League.

Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church, read a paper before the DuBois Ministerial Association Monday morning.

The ninety horse power boiler in the Sykes Woolen Mills Co. plant is too small for the work and a new two hundred horse power boiler is now being put in.

About twenty Reynoldsville people were at Punxsutawney last night to hear Booker T. Washington, the noted colored man, lecture in the Jefferson theatre.

T. J. Connell, of Galeton, Supreme Treasurer of the Order of the Golden League, and J. E. Sanford are in town organizing a branch of the above order in this place.

Marie Dunlap, daughter of C. L. Dunlap, of Prescottville, recently completed her fourth year in school with the record of never having missed a day in four years.

About seventy Reynoldsville people were at Punxsutawney Monday night to see Robert Mantell, the noted tragedian, in "King Richard III" at the Jefferson Theatre.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Alex Stoke on Grant street Friday afternoon. Luncheon at 6.00.

"The Lion and the Mouse" at Assembly hall to-morrow evening by Edward P. Elliot will be an excellent entertainment. Don't miss it. Tickets are on sale at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store.

After Sept. 30, 1907, people can travel on railroads at rate of two cents a mile. Last Friday Gov. Stewart signed the two-cent rate bill which is now a law, but does not go into effect until Sept. 30.

The Franklin & Clearfield railroad engineer corps has been surveying in this section the past week.

James Hughes and Grier O. Sweltzer will open a new shoe store in the room formerly occupied by Peoples National bank next door to Shick & Wagner.

The Young Ladies' Sodality Society of the Catholic church held a bazaar in the I. O. O. F. hall Friday and Saturday of last week, serving an oyster supper on Friday evening and chicken supper Saturday evening.

Herbert Rue, of Camden, N. J., a traveling salesman, occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. He is a good talker.

The county will build a new bridge across Soldier Run near the old Baptist church in Prescottville. It will be an iron bridge with cement and brick floor.

W. E. Kunselman and wife were called to Ringgold township last Friday on account of the death of the latter's father, Uriah Harmon, who died Thursday.

Prof. Charles S. Marsh, of Reynoldsville high school, and Prof. Joseph R. Wilson, of West Reynoldsville high school, were in Punxsutawney Saturday assisting County Supt. Teitrick in the examinations for common school diplomas.

A congregational meeting will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church this, Wednesday, evening to vote on authorizing the board of trustees to have the amendment, required by law, added to the church charter.

James Armagost, of East Brady, who was injured in the freight train collision three miles west of Reynoldsville on the 13th of last month and who has been at home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Armagost, in this place since the collision, was able to return to his home yesterday.

The spring session of the Clarion Presbytery will be held in Big Run on the 16th inst. J. K. Johnson has been elected as delegate from the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church.

W. C. Mealing, who was agent at this place for the Scranton Correspondence school several years, has been granted exhorter's license and is moving to Spring Creek, Pa., this week to take up work as a Methodist preacher.

A bright little four-weeks-old baby boy that had been left on the door step of a resident in Perry township the week before was taken to the county home last week.

Mrs. Levi M. Beebe and Mrs. Edward Barry were in Brookville yesterday attending the funeral of their grandfather, John McCullough, who died Sunday and was buried in Brookville cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The supervisors of Winslow township held their regular monthly meeting at Reynoldsville Saturday and W. A. Reber, one of the supervisors, who resides in the newly incorporated borough of Sykesville and is not now a resident of the township, resigned as supervisor.

Mrs. Levi M. Beebe and Mrs. Edward Barry were in Brookville yesterday attending the funeral of their grandfather, John McCullough, who died Sunday and was buried in Brookville cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The supervisors of Winslow township held their regular monthly meeting at Reynoldsville Saturday and W. A. Reber, one of the supervisors, who resides in the newly incorporated borough of Sykesville and is not now a resident of the township, resigned as supervisor.

Mrs. Levi M. Beebe and Mrs. Edward Barry were in Brookville yesterday attending the funeral of their grandfather, John McCullough, who died Sunday and was buried in Brookville cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The supervisors of Winslow township held their regular monthly meeting at Reynoldsville Saturday and W. A. Reber, one of the supervisors, who resides in the newly incorporated borough of Sykesville and is not now a resident of the township, resigned as supervisor.

Mrs. Levi M. Beebe and Mrs. Edward Barry were in Brookville yesterday attending the funeral of their grandfather, John McCullough, who died Sunday and was buried in Brookville cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The supervisors of Winslow township held their regular monthly meeting at Reynoldsville Saturday and W. A. Reber, one of the supervisors, who resides in the newly incorporated borough of Sykesville and is not now a resident of the township, resigned as supervisor.

Mrs. Levi M. Beebe and Mrs. Edward Barry were in Brookville yesterday attending the funeral of their grandfather, John McCullough, who died Sunday and was buried in Brookville cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The supervisors of Winslow township held their regular monthly meeting at Reynoldsville Saturday and W. A. Reber, one of the supervisors, who resides in the newly incorporated borough of Sykesville and is not now a resident of the township, resigned as supervisor.

Mrs. Levi M. Beebe and Mrs. Edward Barry were in Brookville yesterday attending the funeral of their grandfather, John McCullough, who died Sunday and was buried in Brookville cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The supervisors of Winslow township held their regular monthly meeting at Reynoldsville Saturday and W. A. Reber, one of the supervisors, who resides in the newly incorporated borough of Sykesville and is not now a resident of the township, resigned as supervisor.

Mrs. Levi M. Beebe and Mrs. Edward Barry were in Brookville yesterday attending the funeral of their grandfather, John McCullough, who died Sunday and was buried in Brookville cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The supervisors of Winslow township held their regular monthly meeting at Reynoldsville Saturday and W. A. Reber, one of the supervisors, who resides in the newly incorporated borough of Sykesville and is not now a resident of the township, resigned as supervisor.

Mrs. Levi M. Beebe and Mrs. Edward Barry were in Brookville yesterday attending the funeral of their grandfather, John McCullough, who died Sunday and was buried in Brookville cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The supervisors of Winslow township held their regular monthly meeting at Reynoldsville Saturday and W. A. Reber, one of the supervisors, who resides in the newly incorporated borough of Sykesville and is not now a resident of the township, resigned as supervisor.

Mrs. Levi M. Beebe and Mrs. Edward Barry were in Brookville yesterday attending the funeral of their grandfather, John McCullough, who died Sunday and was buried in Brookville cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The supervisors of Winslow township held their regular monthly meeting at Reynoldsville Saturday and W. A. Reber, one of the supervisors, who resides in the newly incorporated borough of Sykesville and is not now a resident of the township, resigned as supervisor.

Mrs. Levi M. Beebe and Mrs. Edward Barry were in Brookville yesterday attending the funeral of their grandfather, John McCullough, who died Sunday and was buried in Brookville cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The supervisors of Winslow township held their regular monthly meeting at Reynoldsville Saturday and W. A. Reber, one of the supervisors, who resides in the newly incorporated borough of Sykesville and is not now a resident of the township, resigned as supervisor.

Mrs. Levi M. Beebe and Mrs. Edward Barry were in Brookville yesterday attending the funeral of their grandfather, John McCullough, who died Sunday and was buried in Brookville cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The supervisors of Winslow township held their regular monthly meeting at Reynoldsville Saturday and W. A. Reber, one of the supervisors, who resides in the newly incorporated borough of Sykesville and is not now a resident of the township, resigned as supervisor.

Boy Badly Injured.

Silas Katzen, young son of A. Katzen, the merchant, was run down on Main street last evening by a horse and buggy and was badly injured.

Will Buy Street Sweeper.

By reference to the report of the minutes of town council, published in another column of this issue, it will be seen that the street committee has been authorized to buy a street sweeping machine.

Robbery at Soldier.

Sunday night robbers broke into the Supply Co. store at Soldier, in which is the postoffice, and stole several hundred dollars worth of postage stamps, a number of revolvers and some other goods.

Second of the Series.

This evening, April 10th, the Reynoldsville Athletics and Reynoldsville High School five will meet in Evans' skating rink in the second game of basket ball in the championship series.

Glass Plant to Shut Down.

At a meeting of the National Association of Window Glass Manufacturers held in Pittsburgh last week all the companies that sell their output to the National Brokerage Co. decided to shut down their plants the 20th of this month.

Huff Strouse Wedding.

On Thursday, March 28, 1907, Miss Elizabeth M. Strouse, oldest daughter of Tax Collector Amos Strouse, of Winslow township, and William W. Huff, of Renovo, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents at high noon.

Call for Silk Mill Stock.

Mention was made in THE STAR some weeks ago that an effort was being made to form five or six silk mills into a combine and that the mill at this place was to be in the combine.

Will Shoot and Tube Well.

The Reynoldsville Industrial Oil and Gas Co. made a contract several months ago with Messrs. Queen and Pitts, experienced oil and gas drillers, to drill four gas wells in this immediate vicinity 3,000 feet deep.

There May be Others.

The indications are now that there will be more aspirants for the Republican nomination for county treasurer in 1908 than has ever been known in one year before.

Boro "Dads" Meet.

Tuesday evening, April 2, the regular meeting of town council was at the office of Lawyer Clement W. Flynn, secretary of council.

Criminal Court.

Jefferson county criminal court opened in Brookville Monday morning with Judge John W. Reed on the bench.

Congregational Meeting.

The annual congregational meeting was held in the Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening of last week to hear reports from the different boards and societies of the church.

Annual Meeting.

At the annual congregational meeting held in the Baptist church on 2nd last, the congregation voted to change the name of the church from Soldier Run Baptist church to First Baptist church of Reynoldsville.

Signs of Push and Huddle.

The editor of the Kittanning Times, who was in this place recently, said in THE TIMES last week: "When one gets up in the Punxsutawney, DuBois and Reynoldsville districts you hear of nothing but trolley road extensions, new trolley roads and new industries."

It Will be First Class.

The fifth number of the high school lecture course will be given in Assembly hall to-morrow, Thursday, evening, April 11, by Edward P. Elliott, who will present "The Lion and the Mouse," a fascinating and intensely interesting story.

Important Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the stockholders of the Reynoldsville silk mill at 8.00 p. m. Thursday, April 11, in Smith & McClure's hall.

At a christening at Eleanor Saturday night.

A christening at Eleanor Saturday night, a free-for-all fight took place and during the melee Steve Vargo, a fifteen year-old boy was stabbed near the heart.

For further information concerning the Golden League.

For further information concerning the Golden League, call or address T. F. Connell, City Hotel, Reynoldsville.

We have something attractive for watch buyers.

Call and see. C. F. HOFFMAN, Jeweler and Optician.

Clover, timothy and slyke seeds.

Call and see. C. F. HOFFMAN, Jeweler and Optician.

Walkover, Gun Metal and Patent Oxforas for men.

Call and see. C. F. HOFFMAN, Jeweler and Optician.

Golden League, Golden League, Golden League.

Call and see. C. F. HOFFMAN, Jeweler and Optician.

NATIONAL GLASS BRICK CO.

The Above is the Name of a Company that Wants to Locate a Plant Here.

A meeting of the citizens of Reynoldsville was held in Centennial hall Friday night to hear the proposition of the National Glass Brick Co. that wants to locate a plant in this place.

Gentle Reminder.

We have sent out statements to a number of our delinquent subscribers and have a number yet to send out.

Prohibition Convention.

The Prohibitionists and all temperance people of Jefferson county interested in righteousness and the overthrow of the legalized saloon curse, are called to meet in Reynoldsville in Centennial hall April 13th, 1907.

"Pneumonia's Deadly Work"

Had so seriously effected my right lung," writes Mrs. Fannie Connor, of Rural Route 1, Georgetown, Tenn., "that I coughed continuously night and day and the neighbors' prediction—consumption—seemed inevitable, until my husband brought home a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, which in my case proved to be the only real cough cure and restorer of weak, sore lungs."

Frank Beam Dead.

Frank Beam, of Monongahela City, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. K. B. Deemer, at Deemer's Cross Roads, on Thursday morning, April 4, 1907. Consumption was cause of his death.

Letter List.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in post office at Reynoldsville, Pa., for week ending April 6, 1907.

Baister Oxforas for men superior to all others.

Call and see. C. F. HOFFMAN, Jeweler and Optician.

Queen Quality Oxforas nicer than ever before.

Call and see. C. F. HOFFMAN, Jeweler and Optician.

Have you seen the 5th Ave. Oxforas?

Call and see. C. F. HOFFMAN, Jeweler and Optician.

FOR SALE—Good 140 acre farm in McCalmont township.

Call and see. C. F. HOFFMAN, Jeweler and Optician.

Laurens toe is the new thing in men's Oxforas.

Call and see. C. F. HOFFMAN, Jeweler and Optician.

We have a line of large and small rugs this spring.

Call and see. C. F. HOFFMAN, Jeweler and Optician.