Narrow Escape. Sunday afternoon three town girls had a very narrow escape from being killed on the P. R. R. No. 1 bridge just west of the big cut below town. They were out walking. The 4:20 p. m. west-bound passenger train had gone down and not expecting another train along soon they started across the bridge, but were only halfway over when an engine and caboose came out of the cut running at fast speed. As soon as the engineer saw the girls he reversed his engine and tried to stop, but did not succeed in getting the engine stopped until fifty or seventy-five feet on west side of bridge. Fortunately the girls were in center of bridge and jumped down on the pier and thus saved themselves from meeting a horrible death. RESPECTED CITIZEN GONE. Robert L. Miles Died Thursday Morning—Funeral Saturday Afternoon.

Robert L. Miles, an old soldier and highly esteemed citizen, died at his home on Main street Thursday morning, April 18, 1907, after long, weary months of intense suffering from cancer. He was ready and willing to answer the summons to the heavenly land. Robert Miles was born at Milesburg, Centre county, Pa., March 29, 1833, and was 74 years old last month. He was the second son of Rev. Samuel Miles, deceased, who was pastor of the Prescottville Baptist church twenty-eight years ago. When the north and south clashed arms and brave men were needed to meet the rebel forces, Mr. Miles enlisted in Company H, 28th regiment Iowa Volunteer Infantry as a corporal August 4, 1862. He served three years and eight months and was honorably discharged. During the service he was promoted to second lieutenant, then to first lieutenant and to captain in the regiment he enlisted in. He was in a number of hard battles. December 16, 1855, he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Keirn, whom, with one son and five daughters, survive the husband and father. Ten children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Miles, four of whom have crossed over into the Eternal Land. The son and daughters living are: Samuel R. Miles, of Albion, Pa., Mrs. John L. Marshall, of Rathmel, Mrs. Joseph Reynolds, of Spencerville, Ohio, Mrs. H. J. Hughes, of Reynoldsville, Misses Theodocia and Ida Miles, at home. He also survived by one brother and three sisters, Joseph Miles, of Lawrence, Kan., Mrs. David Reynolds, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. Solomon Spears, of Toronto, Canada, and Mrs. Hannah Spears, of Pittsburg. Mr. and Mrs. Miles moved to Reynoldsville over thirty-two years ago. They resided here about ten years and then moved to Altoona, where they resided about two years and moved back to this place twenty years ago, where they have since resided.

Mr. Miles joined the Baptist church early in life and was an active member. He was a deacon in the church a number of years. He was a staunch and active prohibitionist and firmly believed that the church and prohibition were inseparable. Deceased was a carpenter by trade and spent a number of years working at his trade. He was a member of the Grand Army Post of Reynoldsville. Funeral service was held at his late residence on Main street at 2:00 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, assisted by Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery. Henry Priester had charge of the funeral. Thus another old soldier, upright citizen and christian gentleman has been laid away in the "silent city" of the dead to await the resurrection morning. The following out of town relatives attended the funeral: S. R. Miles, wife and daughter, of Albion, Mrs. Hannah Spears, of Pittsburg, J. L. Marshall, wife and children, of Rathmel, Edward Marshall, of Altoona, Roy Marshall, of DuBois, Edwin Reynolds, of Albion, Ezra Butterbaugh, of DuBois, Samuel Miles, of McPherson, Clearfield county, Mrs. Martha Kopp and daughter, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Elsy and Mrs. Dougherty, of Altoona, W. An anniversary service will be held in the church on Sunday, May 12, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. B. Riker, president of Mt. Union College, Alliance, Ohio. CLEVER PIECE OF DETECTIVE WORK

Three Supposed Safe Crackers and Robbers Arrested Friday.

Were Given a Hearing Before Squire Will C. Smith who Bound them Over to Court—Were Taken to Jail Saturday.

Constable William I. Waugerman, of Winslow township, did a very clever piece of detective work last week and as a result three men are now in the county jail in Brookville that will have to answer for several penitentiary offenses that are charged against them. The charges in the criminal court will be running an opium joint and being opium smokers, either one of which is a misdemeanor, penitentiary offense, and charge of burglary. In the United States court they will be tried for robbing two postoffices.

Sunday night, April 7, robbers gained an entrance into the Supply Co. store at Big Soldier, blew open the safe, stole five or six hundred dollars worth of postage stamps, revolvers and other goods. Several members of the state police tried to run down the robbers, but failed to get even any clew of the robbers. Constable Waugerman began a still hunt and soon got evidence sufficient to make him think that three fellows staying at home of Mrs. Catherine McKee, near Prescottville, might possibly be the guilty parties. While Constable Waugerman was working on the case the postoffice at Falls Creek was robbed on Wednesday night of last week, the safe being blown open as had been done at Soldier. Mr. Waugerman felt so sure after the Falls Creek job that he was on the right track and he decided to arrest the three fellows before they disposed of the Falls Creek plunder, and with the assistance of Constable Perry B. Love, of Reynoldsville, and three state police from Punxsutawney, the fellows were arrested early Friday morning, before they were out of bed. A search was made and there was nothing found that would be evidence against the men. Constable Waugerman felt that it was up to him to find some evidence and he felt that he was dealing with three pretty shrewd fellows and he had both eyes wide open. In the room on second floor where one of the men slept was a cap over a stove pipe hole and Mr. Waugerman took the cap off to see if any soot or dirt would fall out and he found that the cap had been off not long before. He went to first floor and examined the chimney and succeeded in finding $99.12 worth of postage stamps rolled up in a paper. A search in the hen house resulted in finding a half pint of nitro-glycerine in rubber water bag, some caps and fuse under a hen's nest. Four opium pipes and a lamp for heating the dope were found in the house. At least two of the fellows smoked the opium pipes in the presence of two officers.

The trio were brought to Reynoldsville and locked up until Friday evening and were then given a hearing before Squire Will C. Smith on charge of having burglary supplies and running an opium joint. They could not be tried before a justice for postoffice robbery. There was enough evidence to justify Squire Smith to bind them over to court and the bail was fixed at $800.00 apiece. Being unable to give bail they were taken to Brookville jail Saturday morning. They gave their names as Frank Wagner, of Johnstown, Harry Williams, of Scranton, Pa., and George Dally, of Rochester, N. Y.

In the meantime the United States Marshal in Pittsburg had been notified of the arrest and Postoffice Inspector R. D. Gibbons, of Pittsburg, arrived here Sunday and on Monday he investigated the postoffice robberies at Soldier and Falls Creek. He thinks the evidence is strong enough against Wagner, Williams and Dally to give them a trial in the U. S. court, and they will be taken from Brookville jail to Pittsburg today. U. S. court begins May 6th. If not convicted in that court for postoffice robbery they will be brought back to Jefferson county for trial.

John H. Null, of Sykesville, ex-constable of Winslow township, who now has charge of the carpenter work for the B. & S. Co. at Sagamore, Armstrong Co., was in town Monday and made THE STAR office a call. Mr. Null says this company will have the largest tippie in Pennsylvania and the largest coal plant in the country at Sagamore. There are eight openings from which the coal will be run over the one tippie. The B. & S. Co. already has two hundred houses built at Sagamore and a number more will be built. Sagamore will soon be a big coal mining center.
