

A bill passed at the present session of the legislature, and which is now a law, provides the following bounties in Pennsylvania: Wildcat $4.00, fox $3.00, weasel $1.25, mink $1.25, horned owl $1.00, barred owl $1.00, goshawk $1.00.

Dr. John Watson, the noted author known as Ian M'Laren, died at Mt. Pleasant, Ia., Monday. Among his publications were, "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush," "The Days of Auld Lang Syne" and "A Doctor of the Old School." He was in his 57th year.

The Thaw murder case is losing public interest just now while the coming marriage of William Ellis Corey, president of the United States Steel Co., to Belle Gilman, the comic opera prima, is receiving special attention by people who enjoy such sensational topics. Mr. Corey was divorced by his wife, Mrs. Laura Cook Corey, a year to marry Miss Gilman.

In a sermon last Sunday a Pittsburg Presbyterian minister said: "There are some men who are satisfied with the religion which their wives possess. The wife attends church and is active in all church work. The husband hands the whole matter over to the wife and the wife represents him in the matter. Just as some men put their property in their wives' names, they like to have it in the family, but do not desire to make it a personal matter of their own." A few of this class of men will be found in Reynoldsville.

We have been informed that some American girls, uninvited and unexcused, attended the dance given in the O. F. hall last Thursday evening by members of the Princess Elena Italian Society and acted very bold and offensive to a number of the Italian girls present. It is said that they walked up and take hold of an Italian girl's arm who had one of her countesses engaged for dance and try to pull her away from her. The Italians were not pleased with their boldness. Informant did not give us names of the girls and we don't know who they were. Their actions were unladylike and becoming ladies.

State Senator John S. Fisher, chairman of the Capital Investigation Commission, is a candidate for State Treasurer and don't care who knows it. Mr. Fisher feels pretty confident that, if he is elected, he will be at the head of that department and he could carry out the money in a shovel without his knowing it. Senator Fisher is a clean-cut, honorable gentleman, of the kind whom the people are delighted to honor, and he will make the strongest candidate for the office which the Republicans could name. So far we can ascertain the sentiment of the community is for Fisher without a dissenting voice, and our three delegates to the State Convention will not have much difficulty in ascertaining that they are "at" on that question.

The custom for a number of years has been for the county treasurer to collect the county taxes over the county the latter part of the month of April for the purpose of reducing the poor, bond, state and county bills signed by Governor Pennell, to take effect immediately. The county treasurer, however, gives it to the tax collector. Campbell published a notice last week in the Brookville papers of his intention in the county to receive taxes and would have published the same notice in all the other county papers this week had it not been that the governor signed the bill, when he did. It is likely the tax collectors will give the tax payers due notice of the time and place to pay their taxes in time to save the five per cent discount.

At the Anti-Tuberculosis Congress held in Pittsburg the other day Dr. W. H. C. in an address on tuberculosis said: "This monster consumption, which, many times worse than the dragon. It devours, not a person here and there, but hundreds daily. In the past 24 hours there have been 498 funerals in the United States caused by tuberculosis. We were appalled at the slaughter at the battle of the trenches; we think it is awful that 4,000 persons are killed yearly by the disease; yet an average of 500 persons a day are killed by consumption." He said tuberculosis is not hereditary, but that children inherit from their parents a weakness or tendency which should be combated. He declared that consumption was not a disease to be cured by drugs, but one which only the greatest care could conquer.

Compliments Italians.

Captain J. F. Robinson, Lieutenant J. F. Egle and the members of Troop D, State Police, who attended the Princess Elena celebration at Reynoldsville Thursday, express themselves as being highly gratified for the cordial invitation they received to attend the function and the hospitable, courteous, broad gauged treatment they received at the hands of their hosts in Reynoldsville.

Capt. Robinson complimented the assemblage as being composed of as orderly, gentlemanly, uniformly courteous men as it has ever been his pleasure to meet and expressed the conviction that this country cannot show a more loyal, patriotic, law-abiding body of men than the Italian lodgesmen who assembled at Reynoldsville Thursday.—Punxsutawney Spirit.
