stabbed to death at that place Sunday morning and John Prezinski, a Slav who is charged with having committed the murder, is now in the county jail, having been taken to Brookville yesterday by a State Policeman. Mike Bessalo and John Prezinski quarrelled on their way home from a dance about midnight, while both were very muchly intoxicated. They came to blows and wallowed in the mud, but being unarmed they were separated by some companions before either one was injured. Mrs. John Celsbro, with whom Prezinski boarded, save about 1.00 a. m. Prezinski entered her house and seizing her bread knife, which lay on the table. rushed out again. When some men were returning from work early Sunday morning they found the lifeless body of Bessalo lying in the ditch. He had been stabbed to death. The State Police were promptly notified and two of them arrived at Walston just in time to arrest Prezinski as he was leaving his boarding house, evidently to salp out, as be had packed all his belongings in a telescope. Prezinski was taken to the Punxsutawney lock-up and his wounds were dressed, which consisted of abrasions on arm and face, two fingers almost severed from right hand and a hole in his breast, which it is thought was made with a prong of a coke fork. District Attorney James V. Murray held an inquest Monday afternoon which resulted in Prezinski being held for trial on charge of murder.

Fire at Desire Yesterday.

Four barns were burned at Desire yesterday and had it not been for the hard and heroic work of a bucket brigade the Wayne Hotel, W. I. Reed's business place and other buildings would have been devoured by the fire flend. It was a hard and hot battle. but the twenty or more men got the fire under control before it caught the Wayne Hotel barn and that is all that saved the business places, for had the hotel barn burned the men could not have saved the other buildings. The barns burned were only about twenty feet apart and were owned by Steve Roney, Frank Kelley, John Baisody and August Danielson. The fire started in Roney's barn, and as there was considerable hay in the barns, it made a hot and stubborn fire. It is supposed that some boys were smoking in the barn and dropped a lighted match in the hay. Mr. Roney had a small insurance on his barn.

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATION

Mr. and Mrs. James Hillis Were Married Fifty Years Ago.

On Tuesday of last week, May 7, 1907, Mr. and Mrs. James Hillis, of Paradise, father of one of our prominent merchants, John R. Hillis celebrated their golden wedding which was a happy and delightful event Nigh unto fifty neighbors, friends and relatives assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hillis on the 7th inst. to enjoy the anniversary occasion. At noon a sumptuous dinner was served. to which all did ample justice. Mr. and Mrs. Hillis received a number of useful and valuable presents.

May 7, 1857, James Hillis and Miss Jane Grames were united in marriage in Philadelphia. About two years after the wedding they decided to seek a new home in the western part of Pennsylvania and located in Jefferson county, on the land which is now their farm. The trip was made from Indians, Pa., to Punxsutawney by stage and when Mr. and Mrs. Hillis reached their little log cabin in the then vast wilderness it is no wonder that Mrs. Hillis grew homesick. From a home in the Quaker City with comforts of life, surrounded by a multitude of kindred beings, to a home in a log cabin in a vast wilderness surrounded by wild animals, was enough to make the most courageous heart feel faint and lonely. But she, like the wives of other pioneer settlers, faced the situation bravely and assisted her husband in making a comfortable home, which they are now enjoying to their declining years. Mr. Hillis is about 70 years old and his poble helpmate is about 72 years old. They are highly esteemed by all persons who have had the pleasure of their acquantance. Their numerous friends wish them many more years of health and strength sufficient to enjoy life together.

Mr. and Mrs. Hillis are the parents of two sons and two daughters, Mrs. J. M. Norris, of Paradise, Dr. R. J. Hillis, of Altoona, John R. Hillis, of Hillis & Co. furniture firm in Reynoldsville, and Miss Sara Elizabeth Hillis at home.

James Daugherty, of Johnstown, who was in for surety of the peace, and John Morrisey, of Ithica, N. Y., who was serving a light sentence for furnishing liquor to minors, were the jail breakers. They gained liberty by sawing two bars off the cage and two bars off the window. As Morissey's sentence would have expired in three weeks and Dougherty could have been released any time by putting up a bond, their escape was quite a surprise to the officials. A reward of $50.00 has been offered for the capture of the jail breakers, who are sure of a term in the penitentlary if
