SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Report of Seventeenth Annual Convention Held in Summerville Last Week.

One of the best, if not the best, Sunday school convention ever held in Jefferson county was held in the M. E. church at Summerville May 28-29, 1907.
Much credit is due our worthy president, C. R. Crissman. The convention opened on Tuesday afternoon, May 28, at 2.30 o'clock with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. M. V. Kelly. A most hearty welcome was extended to all present by Rev. C. J. Zetler, which was responded to by Rev. Small. President Crissman presided at every session.
The program was a full one and well carried out. Topics such as "Preparation and Presentation of the Primary Lesson," "My Experience and Observation in Intermediate Work," "Use of Picture and Story," "The Bible in Study and Class?" "What are we Working for?" "Opportunities Unimproved," "The Boys' Brigade," and many others were well discussed. Many beautiful thoughts, high ideals, practical truths and good advice were brought out, which, if used by the schools of the county, will add greatly to the advancement of Christ's kingdom.

Those deserving special mention for carrying out the program were: Nannie Corbett, Mrs. A. Shirey, Capt. S. A.
Craig, Rev. S. D. Waldrop, Rev. P. J.
Slonaker, Dr. A. J. Meek, Rev. U. O.
H. Kerschner, Prof. M. L. Jones and T.
C. Swartz.

Rev. M. V. Kelly, Rev. A. D. McKay, Rev. Main, Mr. H. W. Love, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Brookville, and Rev. Henderson, one of the secretaries of the Sunday Union, led the devotional exercises.

S. B. Forsyth, one of the State Field Workers, was present and talked on "The Relation of the Sunday School to the Church." "After the Convention What?" and "A Front Line County."

In order to be a "Front Line County" the county must be organized into districts, must hold annual conventions, statisticians must be sent to the state officers, state pledge must be paid, county represented at state convention, 50 per cent of the schools in the county must have cradle rolls, 30 per cent home departments and 20 per cent teachers' training classes. That means 83 cradle rolls, 44 home departments and 29 teachers' training schools. Can we reach the standard?

On Tuesday evening we were favored with a lecture by Rev. C. L. E. Cartwright, of Braddock, on the subject, "The Marble Waltooth." Wednesday evening Dr. W. W. Hall, of Pittsburg, gave a lecture on "The Palace of Gold and How to Build It." Both of these lectures were excellent. Full of very interesting and helpful thoughts, and many who heard them will certainly be inspired to live better and more noble lives.

Excellent music was furnished by the Summerville choir, a girl chorus and a number of friends favored us with solos.

The nominating committee, Dr. A. J.
Meek, Rev. R. F. Main, Rev. S. B. Rohland, Miss Margaret Butler and Mrs.
Amos Shirey, gave the following list as the officers nominated for the coming year: President, C. R. Crissman, of Summerville; vice-president, George R.
Gibbalt, of Brookville; secretary, Miss Margaret Butler, of Reynoldsville; treasurer, W. B. Cowan, of Brookville; home department supt., Rev. I. N. Earl, of Brookville; normal department supt., S. A. Craig, of Brookville; primary supt., Claire McCracken, of Richards-ville. By a motion the report of the nominating committee was accepted and the above officers elected for the ensuing year.

The committee on resolutions gave the following report:

WHEREAS, The Jefferson County Sunday School convention has been so hospitably entertained by the good people of Summerville and has enjoyed such a feast of intellectual and spiritual things, therefore, be it

Resolved, First, that we hereby express our sincere appreciation to the citizens of Summerville for the welcome accorded us on the floor of the convention and in their splendid homes.

Second, That we express our appreciation of the way the speakers handled their subjects, especially the work of the state workers and visitors.

Third, That we pledge ourselves to co-operate with our officers in bringing our county up to the "Front Line" position.

Fourth, That we extend a vote of thanks to the M. E. congregation for the use of their church and to the choir for the good music furnished during the convention.

Committee, S. D. Waldrop, Claire
McCracken, Jennie E. Hauck

The committee on organization reported that a committee on organization be appointed at this convention to work up the organization of the county.
By a motion the committee was to be appointed by the president. The committee on finance reported that the finance suffer from a lack of organization and that an effort be made to organize the entire county and to infuse new life into all our township organizations so that all may send to our annual convention their contribution as well as their report and other evidences of God's grace and favor. We know of no other source from which to look for an increase of our revenues. We urge a more prompt payment of dues.

A motion was carried to pay the secretary $25.00 a year for service.

A number of invitations were extended for next year's convention and by acclamation Reynoldsville was chosen as the place for the next convention.

The convention was well attended.
Delegates of every denomination were present. Twenty-two ministers were there and added much to the convention. A great deal has been done during the year, but there is much more to do. The report for the state office will be ready by July 1.

Non-sense Literature.

I believe it was De Quincey who said, "None but a man of extraordi-have added that none but a man of extraordinary taste can fully appreciate first rate nonsense.—Japan Times.

SHORT TALKS BY/ L. T. COOPER,

THE STOMACH.

My but peoples' stomachs do cause a lot of trouble. I offered to wager some doctors in St. Paul, Minn., that one half of all sickness is caused by the stomach. After I assured them that my medicine did nothing but put the stomach in shape and they had spent a day listening to what people who called on me had to say, they had to agree with me. They heard people come in and tell me that for years they had been near the grave with Bright's disease, or lung trouble, or kidney complaint and all manner of diseases and that the New Discovery had cured them. Of course these people were mistaken, it was nothing but their stomachs. As a matter of fact when the stomach gives out most everything else is thrown out of order too.

When a person feels tired and dull and despondent, is losing flesh and don't sleep well, has a poor memory, a bad taste in the mouth, a coated tongue, and other troubles he's liable to believe a lot of things are the matter with him. His chances to one it's his stomach. I've seen Cooper's New Discovery bring back health to too many people in just this shape to believe anything else. Here's a letter about it:

"I suffered for a long time without knowing just what was the matter with me. I seldom felt like eating. I lost greatly in weight. My digestion was extremely poor and when I did eat I invariably suffered afterward. I was constipated and frequently suffered from nerve racking, violent headaches. When I heard of what the Cooper remedies were doing for others I resolved to try them."

"Relief came with the first bottle. My appetite and digestion improved rapidly.
I am no longer constipated nor do I have those dreadful headaches. I sleep well and am gaining flesh." C. H. Powell, 13 Harrison Addition, Duluth, Minn.

We are selling immense quantities of these medicines and our customers express great satisfaction.

Meanings of Dyke.

"Dyke" has even more divergent meanings than ditch in Lincolnshire and bank in Holland. In Scotland it means a low wall or fence of turf or unmortared stones and in some parts of northern England a "dyke" is a hedge. Yet there are other northern districts where it is a pond. Originally, in English at any rate, "dyke" or "dike" and "ditch" both meant what ditch still means to us, but as the digging out of a ditch necessarily involves the raising of a mound with the dug-out earth, the words came to signify ditch and mound together. In some places, in some cases, the ground is An even more curious word that has developed a sense of parently quite opposed to its original one is that of "down a hill." "Of dune," the Anglo-Saxon for "from the down, or hill," became "adown," and this was contracted into our modern adverb "down," which certainly has no hilly sense now.—London Chronicle.
