Mrs. Redding was a member of Pocahontas Council. Mr. Redding was a glass cutter.

Last Friday evening Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, baptised three persons by immersion in the baptistry in the Baptist church. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, and a number of his congregation were present. Dr. Meek offered prayer. One of the hymns sang was "Blessed be the Tie that Binds." We might add just here that there never was a time in the history of the churches in Reynoldsville when there was such harmony and friendly feeling existing among the churches of the town as there is now. And why not?

PRINCIPAL C. J. SCOTT RESIGNED

Was Elected Principal of the Uniontown Schools with Salary of $2,000 per Year.

Prof. C. J. Scott, who was principal of our public schools two years and elected for the third term, has resigned the principalship here to accept the principalship of the public schools at Uniontown at a salary of $2,000 a year, double what he was getting here. There were one hundred applicants for the principalship at Uniontown and Prof. Scott was selected by the school board of that town as the best man for the position. Prof. Scott's resignation leaves the Reynoldsville board without a principal, but the board will not likely be in a hurry now to hire a principal. One or two applications for the position have been made since Prof. Scott resigned. Prof. Scott is a bright and ambitious young man. His numerous friends in this place will wish him success in his work at Uniontown.

Paving Contract Let.

At an adjourned meeting on Wednesday night of last week the town council let the contract of paving Jackson street, from Fifth to Seventh street, to Contractor Thomas E. Evans, of Reynoldsville. The street is to be paved with repressed beveled paving brick. The average price of completed work is to be $1.33 per square yard.

New Encampment Date.

The time for holding the annual Sons of Veterans encampment in Reynoldsville has been changed from July 24 to August 6 and the week following. This change was rendered necessary by the lateness of the spring harvests. A large number of the members come from farming settlements and it would be impossible for them to attend until after the early harvesting was completed, hence the change.

Taken to Hospital Last Night.

William Alexander, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred K. Alexander, was taken to the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburg last night for an operation for appendicitis. William complained yesterday morning of having stomach ache and about noon a physician was called and he pronounced it a case of appendicitis. The boy was taken to Punxsutawney on the 10.45 trolley and from there to Pittsburg on the B., R. & P. night flyer.

Cashier Resigned.

J. S. Howard, cashier of the Citizens National bank, has resigned that position and J. W. Hunter, assistant cashier, has been elected cashier of the bank. Mr. Howard resigned the position to embark in the hardware business with his father at Gallipolis, Ohio. He expects to leave here about the 15th of July. During Mr. Howard's three years' residence in Reynoldsville he has made many friends who will wish him success in his new business.

Meek, Dr. J. A. Parsons and Dr. John H. Murray delivered addresses. There was a large audience present.

Family Reunion.

Sunday, June 30th, was the 81st anniversary of Mr. Ninian Cooper's birthday, and as that would not be a suitable day for a family reunion the reunion was held at home of J. K. Johnston on Grant street last Wednesday. The following persons were present: H. B. Cooper, wife and three children, of Brookwayville, James A. Cooper and two daughters, of Warsaw, W. W. Cooper, wife and two sons, Joseph Hunter, wife, three daughters and one son, Merrill Klingensmith, wife and son, Frank Morrison and wife of Beechwoods, J. A. Johnston, wife and two children, of Reynoldsville. Mr. Cooper has two sons and three daughters-in-law, two daughters and two sons-in-law, seventeen grandchildren and one great grandchild and their has never been a death in any of the families of his children or their children's families.

Large Sum Subscribed.

The Methodist Episcopal congregation at Brookville is contemplating the erection of a new church at that place and last Sunday an effort was made to see what amount the congregation would subscribe towards the new church. Mr. Joseph W. Powell, of Buffalo, N. Y., who was at Reynoldsville last year when the new M. E. church at this place was dedicated, was at Brookville Sunday. We understand $25,000 was subscribed on Sunday and on Monday Frank Kretzler, of Nebraska, Pa., a former resident of Brookville, paid $10,000 for a property at corner of Pickering and Jefferson streets—two lots—and presented it to the congregation to erect the new church on. The old church property will sell for $15,000 which provides $50,000 for the new church property, and a number of the financially able members have not given their subscriptions yet. The congregation expects to build a $90,000 church.

ORDAINED LAST EVENING.

Rev. John J. Myers is Now a Lutheran Minister.—Service Witnessed by Large Congregation.

Last evening Rev. John J. Myers, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Myers, of Reynoldsville was ordained for the ministry in the Lutheran church. The ordination services took place in the Trinity Lutheran church on Jackson street, of which Rev. J. W. Myers is pastor, in the presence of a large congregation. The sermon was preached and ordination ceremony was conducted by Rev. J. W. Miller, D. D., of Greensburg, assisted by Rev. Kummer, of Johnsonburg, Rev. D. M. Kemmer, of Pittsburg, and Rev. Crickenberger, of DuBois. It was a very impressive ceremony.

Rev. John J. Myers is a graduate of Thiel College, Greensburg, Pa., and Lutheran Theological Seminary, Chicago, Ill. He will locate at Oak Grove Parish, Beaver Co., the first of next month.

Very Pretty Wedding.

A quiet though very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Peter's Catholic church, Westport, Md., at seven o'clock Monday morning, June 17, 1907, the principals being Mr. Hubert Rusch Farrell, of Elkins, W. Va., and Miss Anna D. Getty, youngest daughter of Mrs. Mary C. Getty, of Westport. The nuptial-mass ceremony was used, the pastor, Rev. Thomas E. Gallagher, officiating. The marriage was a quiet one, owing to the recent death of the bride's father. The attendants were Miss Marie Williams, of Westport, and Mr. Edward Scofield, of Baltimore. The bride was dressed altogether in white, and in her hand she carried a prayer book. Mr. and Mrs. Farrell left on the noon Western Maryland train for the groom's former home at Reynoldsville, Pa. They will make their home at Elkins. Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Farrell, parents of the groom, of Reynoldsville, Pa.; Mr. George Rusch, of Bedford, Pa., a cousin of the groom, and who has just graduated from St. Charles College, at Ellicott City, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Getty and children, of Elkins, and Cashier and Mrs. John J. McKone, of Tunnelton.—The Piedmont Herald.

School Supplies and Teachers.

We neglected to mention that the Winslow township school board was reorganized the first week in June. Noah Syphrit was elected president of the board, Frank P. Best secretary and Amos Goss treasurer. O. H. Broadhead was appointed to fill the unexpired term of I. G. Mansfield, who could not hold the office on account of being a citizen of the new borough of Sykesville.

The regular monthly meeting of the board was held at Frank's Tavern last Saturday. At this meeting it was decided to buy the school supplies and hire teachers for next term on Saturday, July 20. The supplies will be bought early in the morning of that day and the teachers will be hired after the supplies have been purchased.

Miss Lenkerd Will Teach at Latrobe.

Miss Lillie Lenkerd, one of Reynoldsville's primary teachers, was elected to the position of first primary teacher by the school board of Latrobe, Pa., on last Wednesday evening at a salary of $60.00 per month for a term of nine months. Latrobe has a population of 10,000 with a school enrollment of 1,800 pupils and thirty-five schools. Miss Lenkerd will be the first primary teacher in the central building. In securing her services the school board of Latrobe has secured one of the best primary teachers in this county. Miss Lenkerd has been employed as first grade primary teacher in this borough for the past three years.

Struck by Trolley Car.

Mrs. Prudence Sprague, aged 82 years, of this place, relict of George G. Sprague, was struck by a trolley car near the Big Soldier coke ovens yesterday forenoon and narrowly escaped being killed. She was badly bruised and injured, but not dangerously. Mrs. Sprague was walking on the track going to Soldier to visit a daughter when she was overtaken by a car. The motor-man gave the alarm signal and Mrs. Sprague tried to get off the track in time to escape the car but did not succeed. The old lady was brought to home of her daughter, Mrs. B. E. Hoover, in this place.

'TIS WORTH THE EFFORT.

There is a Chance for Reynoldsville to Get P. R. R. Division Headquarters.

We understand that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has not decided yet where to locate their division headquarters, division yards and car repair shops for this division, but it is a sure thing that a selection will be made in the near future for that purpose. Railroad officials always make careful investigation before such an important matter as locating division headquarters, yards and repair shops is decided upon, and no doubt are now familiar with the desirable location that can be secured at Reynoldsville for such headquarters, superior to any other place on this division, and yet when other towns are making strenuous efforts to get the headquarters it would be advisable for us not to fold our hands and depend entirely on the good location we have to offer the company. We had better show that we are interested in the matter at least.

Prosperity Has Not Spoiled Him.

Frank Kretzler, lumberman of Nebraska, Pa., who gave the Methodist Episcopal congregation at Brookville $10,000 Monday towards the erection of a new church, came to Brookville forty-four years ago without money and started a barbershop when the price for a shave was only 5 cents. Mr. Kretzler afterwards entered into the lumber business and is now a rich man. Riches, however, has not spoiled him, but enables him to show his generosity and large heartedness. He made his financial start in Brookville and for that reason felt he ought to give liberally at this time to the M. E. congregation. Some years ago he bought some timber land from a man who now resides in Reynoldsville, paying the man his price and all the timber tract was worth at that time. Recently our citizen received a letter from Mr. Kretzler, in which was enclosed a check for $100. Mr. Kretzler said he had sold the timber tract for a much larger sum than he had paid for it, and for that reason he had enclosed the check for $100. We have heard of other similar evidences of the liberality of Mr. Kretzler. This was not given to us for publication, but we publish it to show that there are rich men who are generous and not altogether selfish.

TWO INDUSTRIAL PROPOSITIONS ARE BEFORE THE PEOPLE

Chair and Window Screen Factories may be Secured for Reynoldsville in a Short Time.

AN OPEN FIELD FOR BOTH HERE

There are two industrial propositions now awaiting action at the hands of the people of Reynoldsville and within the next few weeks the citizens will be given an opportunity to help boost the town and at the same time secure a profitable income for themselves. The first is that of the chair factory and has been fully explained to the readers of THE STAR. The second is a plan to reorganize the E. A. Reitz Company, recently organized for the purpose of manufacturing a newly patented adjustable window screen, and place the business on a broader plane. During the past week Mr. Reitz and a representative have called upon many of the leading business men of town with models of the new patent and have endeavored to arouse interest. Almost without exception they pronounced the idea a good one and were quick to perceive the possibility of building up a large trade. Mr. Reitz has already shown his own faith in the future of his patent by putting his entire capital into the original company for its development and nearly a thousand dollars has been expended for machinery and equipment. But the present company's capital is inadequate to carry on the business on a large scale and it would take a long period to introduce the screen and build up the trade without ample working capital. For this reason it is desired to increase the capitalization to $22,000, and the citizens of Reynoldsville will be given first opportunity to secure an investment and an industry. Of the amount $12,000 will be retained by the company and $10,000 issued to the public. "Reynoldsville is my home," said Mr. Reitz, "and I would prefer to locate the plant here if sufficient interest is taken in the project. But," he continued, "I am determined to place the screen on the market and if Reynoldsville will lead no encouragement I shall be compelled to go elsewhere."

A building 40x100 feet would be erected in which would be the business office and storage room. The working department, fully equipped, would provide employment to about twenty men. While the main feature of the new industry would be the manufacture of the adjustable window screen, the mill equipment would allow of the making of many similar articles such as screen doors, ordinary window screens and other woodwork for which there is steady demand, and in this way the plant could be made profitable even while the work of introducing the new screen was in progress. The plans provide for the erection of a permanent building and the equipment would be complete enough to make successful competition possible with any plant now in the business.

These are projects which should be handled by a Board of Trade. Reynoldsville has none. For this reason progress is necessarily slow and the backers of each enterprise are compelled to personally solicit the support of the individuals of the community. The work is rendered much more difficult by the inability to get concerted action. Neither chair nor screen proposition requires any great capital and if, when calls are issued for meetings by the two companies, as they will be very soon, the citizens will turn out, and show some interest in the town, both can be landed with ease.

"The Lord helps those who help themselves" and a town which will not lift a hand to help itself deserves to perish.

A Memory of Childhood.

A tiny shoe, a memento of the childhood days of a Reynoldsville gentleman now nearing his fifty-ninth year, has been on exhibition in one of the Bing-Stoke Co. display windows the past week, and to the older generation has had a pathetic interest in reminding them of the pioneer days when shoes were a luxury and the modern machine made shoe unknown. This little shoe was made fifty-five years ago, by an itinerant cobbler, being shaped and sewed entirely by hand, and while not quite so stylish in its lines as some of its modern companions in the window, was doubtless fully as comfortable.

Struck Financial Rocks.

Campbell's Big Stock Co., a fairly good theatrical company that gave performances every evening last week under a big tent on the ball ground, disbanded at this place Monday and C. W. Parks, of Parks Stock Co., bought the tent, seats and other necessary paraphernalia. The expense of the company exceeded the receipts and financial embarrassment was cause of the disbandment.

Ed Gray purchased a lot in Point View this week on which he expects to erect a residence this fall.
