A remarkable numismatic collection is on exhibition in Casper F. Hoffman's jewelry store window this week. It is the property of Otis Baloom, the optician stopping in Reynoldsville this week. In the collection are ancient European coins, Chinese notes, continental money, Confederate and state scrip, Indian wampum, rare gold, silver and bronze medals and many very scarce United States coins. The doctor's pet hobby is coin collecting and this is but a small part of his entire collection.

PAUL B. JONES DEAD.

Died at Woodland, Pa.—Consumption was Cause of Death.

Paul B. Jones, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Jones, of this place, died at 4.30 a. m. Tuesday, August 13, 1907, at Woodland, Clearfield Co. Consumption was cause of his death. Two years ago Paul knew that consumption was sapping his vitality, but he fought bravely against the disease and was traveling for a New York medicine company when he was stricken with a hemorrhage on Tuesday of last week and from that time until Saturday morning he had fourteen hemorrhages. Mr. Jones went to Woodland Friday and Mrs. Jones went over Saturday and were both at Woodland when their son died. Body was brought to Reynoldsville yesterday afternoon.

Paul Jones was born in Ohio Dec. 12, 1878, and was in his 29th year at time of death. He served three years in the U. S. navy and about one year in a U. S. cavalry company.

DAILY PAPER NEXT WEEK.

During Old Home Week "The Star" will be Issued Every Afternoon.

On account of the fact that there will be a big crowd in town all of next week and something "doin'" every day, we have decided to issue THE STAR daily during the Old Home Week. The paper will be printed every afternoon about 4.30. We do not expect to give telegraphic news but will make it an Old Home Week bulletin.

BULLET STILL IN HEAD.

Doctors Tried to Locate the Ball by Use of X-Rays.

Ralph Whittaker, the young man of this place who accidentally shot himself several weeks ago and has since been in the Adrian Hospital in Punxsutawney, is improving slowly, but the bullet is still in his head. Last Thursday the doctors tried to locate bullet by use of X-rays but failed to find it.

Shoulder Dislocated.

Bruce, four-year-old son of Robert Fergus, fell out of bed last Thursday night and dislocated his left shoulder.

Chop Mill.

John Zimmerman has ordered the machinery to start a chop mill in the same building with W. T. Cox's lath mill on Gordon alley. Mr. Zimmerman has ordered a burr grinder.

Too Much "Tangle-Foot."

Sunday evening a fellow from DuBois drove down Main street, and through several other streets, with his horses running at full speed and he was yelling like an Indian on the war path. He was arrested and spent Sunday night in the town bastle. Monday he paid a fine for his uncivilized conduct on Sunday.

Illustrated Address.

There will be services in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening at 7.45. A representative of the Home Mission Board of New York will give an illustrated address on the subject, "Getting better acquainted with our neighbors." The address is free. The public cordially invited to hear it. The prayer meeting will be led by the pastor this evening.

Buried Wednesday.

The body of Miss Barbara Deemer, formerly of Reynoldsville, who was killed by an automobile running over an embankment near Monterey, Cal., July 26, did not arrive in Brookville until Wednesday morning of last week, Aug. 7. Funeral service was held at residence of A. D. Deemer, brother of deceased, at 3.00 p. m. Wednesday, conducted by Rev. J. H. Jelbart, of New Bethlehem. Interment was made in Brookville cemetery. A number of Reynoldsville people attended the funeral.

An Earnest Request for Decorations.

The Old Home Week decorator committee earnestly urge the citizens of Reynoldsville to be liberal in the use of bunting and decorative material next week. Not only the business section but the residential as well should be exhibited to the visiting hosts in festal attire. There will be scarcely a house without a few guests and the "welcome" pennants, which are pretty and inexpensive, with a little bunting will be very appropriate. An Old Home Week celebration such as this comes but once in a long time and the importance of having the town appear at its best cannot be overestimated. During P. O. S. of A. and S. of V. reunions, some very pretty display windows were arranged with the national colors. During Old Home Week every business man should try to fix up a special exhibit in his display windows with the red and black and by doing so he will materially aid in making Old Home Week a success and at the same time increase his chances of patronage. The people see and appreciate and will help the man who helps his town.

BROKE CAMP YESTERDAY.

Sons of Veterans Have Folded their Tents and Gone.—Encampment Drew Large Crowds.

The fourteenth annual field encampment of the Sons of Veterans held in Mammoth Park, Reynoldsville, closed yesterday. The boys pitched their tents in Mammoth Park on 6th street and had a week of fairly pleasant weather for camp life.

The program for the week consisted of drills, ball games, speeches, camp fires, &c.

Thursday afternoon Prof. S. C. Hepler, of New Bethlehem, principal-elect of our public schools, delivered an address, and on Friday afternoon, Soldier's Reunion and Relief Corps day, Dr. J. Bell Neff, of DuBois, delivered an address.

Sunday services were held at the camp in forenoon, afternoon and evening, conducted by Rev. J. C. McEntire, Dr. A. J. Meek, Rev. J. W. Myers and other ministers.

A committee has been appointed to look for a permanent place to hold the encampment each year, and as that committee is not ready to report yet, the boys broke camp without deciding where the next encampment will be held.

The Keystone Carnival Company, that was on the camp ground all week, disbanded here.

High School Annuals Arrive.

The Annual of the Reynoldsville High School for 1907, a book of nearly a hundred pages compiled by members of the last graduating class, arrived here Monday and has been placed in McEntire's pharmacy for sale. The book is very tastefully printed and is bound in dark blue cloth, making it well worth the 75 cents asked for it. Besides a number of full page illustrations, the Annual contains much valuable matter worthy of preservation, including the early school history of Reynoldsville and the prize orations of last term, also poems, essays, class nonsense and whimsies of especial interest to the students. There are but a limited number of copies and those desiring the work should secure it at once.

The class of '07 deserves praise for issuing this Annual. Nothing like it has been attempted heretofore in Reynoldsville and is seldom ever attempted outside of academic institutions. It not only puts into permanent form records of the class which will grow dearer to the students as school days recede, but serves as a criterion from which to judge the schools.

Souvenir Letters are Popular.

The souvenir letters of Reynoldsville, containing a finely printed Old Home Week invitation, are now on sale at Stoke's drug store as well as at N. A. Headley's in the east end. The souvenirs have taken the town by storm and the demand for them is heavy. A prettier Old Home Week invitation could not be devised and it sells for only 10 cents. Stop and see them at Headley's or Stoke's store.

Have You Rooms to Rent?

There will be a large crowd in Reynoldsville next week and there will be a demand for sleeping rooms, therefore, every family in town that do not expect to have all their bed rooms full during Old Home Week and will rent rooms for that week, are requested to report at Old Home Week headquarters this week how many rooms they will rent.

Big Attraction at Nolan Park.

To-day, Aug. 14, the harvest home picnic and carnival begins at Nolan Park and closes on Saturday, four days of big attractions. Special trains and excursion rates. One of the attractions is the diving horses. See full particulars of attractions in a large advertisement on first page of this issue of THE STAR.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to gratefully acknowledge the many acts of kindness and sympathy accorded us during the illness and after the death of our husband and father, and tender thanks to the kind neighbors and friends who assisted in the time of our bereavement. MRS. G. BOHREN AND CHILDREN.

Rev. J. S. Jewell, who was the guest of Dr. A. J. Meek several days, will preach in the Baptist church at New Bethlehem next Sunday.

Karl Wetzel, of Leola, a nephew of ye editor, was operated on at the St. Francis Hospital in Pittsburg Saturday forenoon for appendicitis.

C. E. Schugers, of Vandergrift, who was visiting his parents at Emerickville, will go to Latrobe, Pa., to-day to accept a position as bookkeeper.

James Lusk, son and daughter, Harold, and Miss Posie, attended the Scottish picnic at Edgemont Park, Falls Creek, Saturday.

William Alexander, who was in Mercy Hospital in Pittsburg six weeks, where he was operated on for appendicitis, was able to come home yesterday.

Dr. A. J. Meek, wife and son, Andrew, are spending a couple of days at home of G. M. Rea in Winslow township. Mrs. Meek is just recovering from a severe and continued illness.

Many children seem dull and backward in their studies, others complain of headache. All such should have their eyes examined. Gibson has cards and tests especially for such work. Consult him at Brookville Aug. 17 or at the Imperial hotel, Reynoldsville, Aug. 19.

If you wish to save money attend I. Horwitz clearance sale.

There will be dancing, roller skating and a host of other attractions and big shows at the grand harvest home picnic and carnival at Nolan Park on the P. S. & C. R. R. August 14-17, 1907.

PROMINENT BUSINESS MAN GONE.

Gottlieb Bohren Died August 12.—Had Been in Business Here Sixteen Years and Was Well Known and Had Many Friends.

Gottlieb Bohren, a prominent business man, who was proprietor of the Bohren bakery sixteen years, died at his home on Main street at 2.00 p. m. Wednesday, August 7, 1907. While Mr. Bohren had been in poor health for several months, yet his death was rather sudden and unexpected, and the announcement of his demise was a surprise to his host of friends and acquaintances. He will be missed.

Gottlieb Bohren was born in Berne, Switzerland, Oct. 17, 1846, and would have been sixty-one years old next October. He came to America when 17 years old and worked in Pittsburgh two years and then came to Brookville, where he was united in marriage to Miss Anna Retzer on April 27, 1874, after which he moved to DuBois and started in the bakery business for himself and conducted the business for about nine years. From DuBois Mr. Bohren moved to Reynoldsville, where he worked four years for John C. Barto and then bought the bakery and store from Mr. Barto and continued in the business until time of his death.

Mr. Bohren was a member of the C. M. B. A., in which he carried a life insurance of $2,000. He had been a member of this organization about fifteen years.

Deceased is survived by his widow and seven children, five sons and two daughters, one son having preceded him to the Great Beyond. The living children are: Mary V., Fred A., George J., Frank A., John L., Annie M., Leo W.

Funeral services were held in the St. Marys Catholic church at 9.00 a. m. on Friday and Requiem High Mass was sung by Father Lynch. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. Henry Priester had charge of the funeral, which was a large one.

The floral tributes were beautiful, consisting of the following pieces and bouquets: Pillow from family, wreath from F. O. E., cross from C. M. B. A., sheaf of wheat from Reynoldsville B. E. team, bouquets from Arthur Barkley, Mrs. G. H. Yungert, Elene Nolan, Lillian Lewis, Rose Flannery, George Heckman, Mrs. Thomas Black, Charles A. Arnold, Mrs. Will Tyson, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey S. Deter, Mrs. C. F. Hoffman.

The following out of town relatives attended the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. Lew Brody, of Driftwood, Mrs. William Brody and son, William, of DuBois, Mrs. Black and Mrs. Bridge, of Punxsutawney, Mrs. Kelleher and daughter and two sons, of Anita. There were also a number of friends present from other towns.

In Memoriam.

Resolutions adopted by Reynoldsville Circle No. 317, P. H. C., August 6, 1907: WHEREAS, Our circle chamber has again been visited by the swift winged messenger of death, thereby removing from our midst our brother, Daniel M. Bowly, to the realms beyond the tomb;

Resolved, That we, as a circle of the Protected Home Circle, bow in submission to the divine will of One who doeth all things well, and that we hereby express our sincere sympathy at this sad time for the bereaved family of our departed brother.

Resolved, That our charter be draped for a period of thirty days and that these resolutions be recorded in our minute book and a copy of the same be presented to the family of the departed brother.

J. A. WELSH, MISS ELIZABETH SHUGHROU, MRS. MARY STROUSE, Committee.

Birthday Surprise Party.

Mrs. C. J. Christie, mother of our townsmen, W. S. Christie, was given a birthday surprise party at her home in Beechwoods on Thursday of last week, Aug. 8. About one hundred and fifty relatives and friends attended the party, which was a very delightful and enjoyable occasion for all, but more especially for Mrs. Christie. A big feast was spread at noon. Among the numerous presents received by Mrs. Christie were a silk dress and gold watch chain.

A number of Reynoldsville people attended the party. Among whom were, W. S. Christie and family, A. T. McClure and family, Mrs. F. D. Smith and children, James A. Campbell and wife.

"Everybody Should Know"

Says C. G. Hays, a prominent business man of Bluff, Mo., that Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the quickest and surest healing salve ever applied to a sore, burn or wound, or to a case of piles. I've used it and know what I'm talking about." Guaranteed by Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. druggists. 25c. Reynoldsville and Sykesville.

Sealed Proposals.

The Sykesville school board will receive sealed proposals until Aug. 20, 1907, for the furnishing of coal and kindling for the various schools of the borough. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

I. G. MANSFIELD, Sec.

If your children's eyes need care before starting to school, consult Gibson at Brookville Aug. 17 or Reynoldsville Aug. 19.

OLD HOME WEEK NOTES.

Committees Are Getting Ready for a Big Celebration. Every Citizen Should Help Make It a Success. Don't Fail to Decorate. Big Crowds Expected Every Day.

The town should be elaborately decorated for Old Home Week, not only the business places, but residences as well. Every person should be interested enough in beautifying the town for this occasion to decorate their homes. In addition to the national colors red and black have been selected for Old Home Week colors. Our merchants have a large stock of red and black bunting for decorating. Get some and decorate.

There is considerable work to be done yet for Old Home Week and every person should act promptly. Get interested.

The stores will be closed on afternoon of Merchants' and Manufacturers' Day—Wednesday, August 21.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. and B. & P. Ry Co. will sell excursion tickets for Old Home Week.

One of the store rooms on Fifth street, near the gas office, will be used for old curiously and relic room. It will be opened to-morrow.

Persons who have not paid the amount subscribed for Old Home Week fund and wish to do so, can pay the amount to members of the finance committee, W. H. Bell, John Conser, Bert S. Burns, Joe Williams and James Spry. This should be attended to as money is needed to pay necessary expenses.

Below we publish a list of the business places that will be represented in the Merchants' and Manufacturers' parade on Wednesday, Aug. 21, and any individual, firm or company who have not yet made arrangements to be represented in this parade should look after the matter promptly and get in the parade. Following is a list of those who have already agreed to be represented in the parade:

Star Grocery, Reynoldsville Distilling Co., W. H. Moore, Hunter & Milliren, Henry Priester, N. Hamau, Ed. Gooder, Reynoldsville Hardware Co., Robinson & Munderoff, D. H. Breakey, L. G. Liddle, Bing-Stoke Co., Shick & Wagner, H. E. Phillips, J. J. Hamilton, Hughes & Sweitzer, A. Katzen, Harry Martin, Millirens, J. R. Hillis & Co., O. V. Stewart, Bohren's Bakery, G. T. Woodford, H. L. McEntire, American Silk Co., Adam Shoe Company, W. H. Bell, C. F. Hoffman, Stoke & Feicht Drug Co., D. Nolan Shoe Store, Keystone Hardware Co., F. B. Rhodes, Lucas & Debie, Singer Sewing Machine Co., N. A. Headley, E. M. Evans, Union Plumbing Co., I. D. Kels, D. B. & W. B. Stauffer, John P. Athanlian, Reynoldsville Brick & Tile Co.

THIS IS IMPORTANT.

May Miss a Good Industry if Citizens Don't Take An Interest.

As stated in THE STAR last week a meeting of citizens interested in the prosperity of Reynoldsville will be held in Lawyer Smith M. McCreight's office at 8.00 o'clock p. m. to-morrow, Aug. 15, to hear a proposition from one of our citizens to locate a home industry in Reynoldsville. This will not be a proposition to furnish capital to start some stranger in business. It will be a fair proposition and the gentleman who wants to present it should be given a hearing. Let there be a large attendance at the meeting to-morrow night.

We understand that there are other towns that would be glad to consider a proposition from those interested in the proposed industry, but Reynoldsville is preferred if the town wants to take up the matter.

Old Home Week Subscriptions.

Following subscriptions to Old Home Week fund were given after the list was published two weeks ago: John M. Hays $5.00, E. C. Burns $5.00, Smith & McClure $5.00, J. M. Dalley $2.00, M. M. Davis $1.00, E. Neff $1.00, Sam'l Katzen $2.00, I. Horwitz $2.50, Harvey S. Deter $2.00, P. J. Ward $1.00, Reese Williams $1.00, Luther M. Harris $1.00, Mrs. Annie Whitson $5 cts., John Frost $1.00, Mrs. Addison Gray 50 cts., Mrs. James A. Toson $1.00, Mrs. S. M. Whittaker 25 cts., H. Adelson $3.00, George Mellinger $1.00, Charles Flynn $1.00 Arthur Barkley $1.00, S. J. Burgoon $1.00, Strauss Bros. $5.00.

A "silver shower" at the meeting in headquarter rooms last evening increased the finances $21.50.

Old Home Week Service.

There will be special Old Home Week services in the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening. Rev. R. S. Borland, a pioneer minister in the county, will deliver the sermon and Rev. J. C. McEntire and Rev. J. A. Parsons will assist in the service. Dr. Borland was one of the most noted preachers in the conference and is deserving of a large audience in this service which inaugurates Reynoldsville's Old Home Week.
