Don't Buy Cheap Shoes

CHEAP shoes are never really cheap; the price may be low, but the quality is usually lower.

We sell shoes at as low a price as quality goes. But if you want extra good quality, see what we'll do for you at $3.50, $4.00 or $5.00. At that price we'll show you a Selz Royal Blue Shoe that's certainly the best shoe value you'll ever see for the money.

We know it will fit and wear well. Ask us about the foot-form last.

A Little of Everything.

Extra police are on duty this week.

Old Home Week postal cards at Breakkeys.

Lookout for pickpockets and crooks this week.

Did you hear the Old Home Week opening last night?

Before leaving "Old Home" get a souvenir at Breakkeys.

There is no special day at Reynoldsville this week. Everyday will be a big day.

The M. E. Sunday school held a picnic at Romantic Park, Sykesville, last Thursday.

The Reynoldsville baseball team was defeated at Nolan Park last Thursday by the Brookville team. Score 13-11.

Annual picnic of the Knight Templars was held at Wishaw park last Thursday. About forty attended the picnic.

The case of Lena Dinger was tried in the county court last Thursday. The verdict was, not guilty but pay the costs.

The first and last quarterly conference of the present conference year will be held in the M. E. church Thursday evening.

The tannery at Tomahawk, Wis., of which L. G. Gaylor, formerly of Reynoldsville, was superintendent, was destroyed by fire recently.

In the presentment of the grand jury to court last week several improvements were recommended for county home, jail and court house.

THE STAR joins with the citizens of Reynoldsville in extending a cordial welcome to all persons who come to town for Old Home Week.

Chief-of-Police Frank P. Adelsperger went to Pittsburg Friday and brought a man back with him who was wanted here to settle for a board bill.

Rev. T. R. Johnstone, of Ottumwa, Iowa, who has been visiting relatives in town several weeks, preached an excellent sermon in the Baptist church Sunday morning.

There will be an open meeting of the P. H. C. on Tuesday evening at which time Mrs. Bowby will receive her check for $1000. All members are requested to be present.

At the last meeting of the directors of the Citizens National bank Eugene E. Doble was elected assistant cashier of the bank. Mr. Doble took up his work in the bank this morning.

At the election held in the Methodist Episcopal church last Wednesday Dr. L. L. Means was elected as lay delegate to attend the Erie Annual M. E. conference at Erie the first week in September.

Joe Horwitz, cartoonist for Pittsburg Herald, arrived in town Wednesday morning of last week. He will hereafter be located at his home in this place and will mail in all his work to the above named paper.

A new company, with a capitalization of $100,000, is to be organized at DuBois to extend the trolley line from Sykesville to Big Run. A charter will be applied for under the name of the United Street Railroad Co.

The funeral of Paul B. James, whose death was mentioned in THE STAR last week, was held at the home of his parents Thursday afternoon, conducted by Dr. J. A. Parsons and Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment was made in Beaman cemetery.

S. K. Furman, wife and children, of Harrisburg, came to town Thursday to visit Mrs. Furman's mother, Mrs. Kate Harris, who resides near Rathmel. Mr. Furman returned home, but Mrs. Furman and children remained for Old Home Week.

H. F. Lavo and family were called to Williamsport Thursday to attend the funeral of the former's mother, Mrs. Ellen Lavo, who died at 6:30 a. m., August 15. Deceased was 64 years old. She had been ill ten months. Dropsy was the cause of her death.

Dr. R. M. Boyles, of Reynoldsville, who was formerly a resident of this place, was here Tuesday on business. Incidentally, like all the other good citizens of Reynoldsville, he was booming things for the Old Home Week.—Falls Creek Herald.

Hon. R. H. Longwell, of Brockwayville, one of Jefferson county's representatives in the last state legislature, was in town Saturday on business and incidentally mentioned the fact to his friends that he will be a candidate next year for the Republican nomination for re-election.

Two of Pittsburg's greatest newspapers have sent staff representatives to Reynoldsville to report the great Old Home Week celebration. The Gazette Times is represented by George E. McLinn and the Dispatch by William M. Long. Speaking of Reynoldsville, the gentlemen spoke in very complimentary terms of the evidences of business enterprise everywhere exhibited and of the preparations made for the entertainment of guests.

Change in Route of Parade.

On account of part of Jackson street now being paved, and consequently impassable, the line of march for Merchants' miners and manufacturers parade to-morrow has been changed slightly and will be as follows: Form on Grant and Fifth streets, march down Grant to Third, down Third to Main, up Main to Tenth, down Tenth to Jackson, down Jackson to Seventh, up Seventh to Main, down Main to Third street and disperse.

Is Now Prominent Preacher.

Rev. G. S. Womer, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Hollidaysburg, Pa., and wife came to this city Saturday evening to visit old time friends—several days. Rev. Womer, who was a coal miner boy in Reynoldsville some years ago, is now an able, successful and prominent preacher in the Central Pennsylvania M. E. conference. He is one of the young men that has gone out from our town of whom the town has reason to be proud.

Charged With Running Speakeasy.

Friday Constable Leech took Mrs. Carmelina Provenzano, of Soldier, to county jail at Brookville on charge of running a speakeasy. Mr. Provenzano skipped out or he would also be boarding with Sheriff Schenckler. This couple were arrested some months ago on same charge, but the evidence at that time was not strong enough to convict them of selling liquor illegally.

Taken to Mercy Hospital.

Ralph Whittaker, the boy who accidentally shot himself at this place Sunday, July 21st, and was taken to the Adrian Hospital in Punxsutawney, was brought to this place last Wednesday and taken to the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburg Friday. If the bullet, which is still in his head, is located it is likely an operation will be performed. The Adrian doctors failed to locate the ball by use of the X-rays.

You Will Want a Copy to File.

The DuBois Courier in a notice this morning about THE STAR being issued daily said: "It will be a valuable publication for both the residents of Reynoldsville, who will want to file the copies for future reference, and for the many visitors who are expected to return for a brief visit to their former home."

Some Advertisements Remind You

Of an empty wagon going down hill, the lighter the load the greater the noise. We are not smarter than other people. Our money won't buy goods cheaper than other peoples money. People don't buy our goods because we claim they are worth double what we ask for them. They buy them on their merits and they know that what they see in our store and ads is so.

Performance Follows Promise

In this store just as surely as night follows day. No haphazard advertising, but store news faithfully carried out. Our ads faithfully mirror our merchandise of clothing, furnishings, hats caps and merchant tailoring.

What we say is so, and the people believe us. A store and public pulling thus together are found to be of mutual benefit to each other. Every department filled with good first class goods. We invite you to call and investigate our goods and convince yourself.

Trusting that Old Home Week will give you the best time of your life and to have the pleasure of meeting each one and all this week.
