ments were recommended for county home, jail and court house.

THE STAR joins with the citizens of Reynoldsville in extending a cordial welcome to all persons who come to town for Old Home Week.

Chief-of-Police Frank P. Adelsperger went to Pittsburgh Friday and brought a man back with him who was wanted here to settle for a board bill.

Walter and Fred Ward, of Blacklick, Indiana county, formerly of this place, are among the visitors in town to enjoy the Old Home Week festivities.

Rev. T. R. Johnstone, of Ottumwa, Iowa, who has been visiting relatives in town several weeks, preached an excellent sermon in the Baptist church Sunday morning.

There will be an open meeting of the P. H. C. on Tuesday evening at which time Mrs. Bowly will receive her check for $1000. All members are requested to be present.

the teams for the city dray, hauled the largest load of coal away from George Henry's coal mine several days ago that has ever been hauled away from that mine.

Joe Horwitz, cartoonist for Pittsburg Herald, arrived in town Wednesday morning of last week. He will hereafter be located at his home in this place and will mail in all his work to the above named paper.

The Brookville band, composed of sixteen musicians under the leadership of J. M. Bennett, came to Reynoldsville this morning and have been playing on the streets all day.

A new company, with a capitalization of $100,000, is to be organized at DuBois to extend the trolley line from Sykesville to Big Run. A charter will be applied for under the name of the United Street Railroad Co.

A dozen pretty girls under fifteen years of age lined up on Main street Monday afternoon at 3:30 and raced for a gold bracelet. The jewelry was won by Martha Williams, daughter of Samuel Williams, of the east end of town.

Casper F. Hoffman, the jeweler, has placed on exhibition during Old Home Week a collection of firearms, knives and other instruments of destruction that is attracting more than passing notice. Some of the pieces are very old.

The funeral of Paul B. James, whose death was mentioned in THE STAR last week, was held at the home of his parents Thursday afternoon, conducted by Dr. J. A. Parsons and Dr. A. J.
Meek. Interment was made in Beulah cemetery.

S. K. Furman, wife and children, of Harrisburg, came to town Thursday to visit Mrs. Furman's mother, Mrs. Kate Harris, who resides near Rathmel.
Mr. Furman returned home, but Mrs.
Furman and children remained for Old Home Week.

H. F. Lavo and family were called to Williamsport Thursday to attend the funeral of the former's mother, Mrs.
Ellen Lavo, who died at 6:30 a. m., August 15. Deceased was 64 years old.
She had been ill ten months. Dropsy was the cause of her death.

Dr. R. M. Boyles, of Reynoldsville, who was formerly a resident of this place, was here Tuesday on business.
Incidentally, like all the other good citizens of Reynoldsville, he was booming things for the Old Home Week.—Falls Creek Herald.

Hon. R. H. Longwell, of Brookwayville, one of Jefferson county's representatives in the last state legislature, was in town Saturday on business and incidentally mentioned the fact to his friends that he will be a candidate next year for the Republican nomination for re-election.

Mrs. Ira Smith went to Chicago, Ill., on Monday of last week to visit with an aunt for a couple of weeks and when she arrived in Chicago she found a telegram awaiting her that her Grandmother Brakbill, of Mt. Pleasant, Pa., was not expected to live. The following morning Mrs. Smith returned to Mt. Pleasant.

A. J. Reese and wife, of Punxsutawney, George Carmalt and wife, John Lanzendorfer and wife, Mrs. Daishore, of Philadelphia, were guests of Harry Sykes and wife a short time yesterday and in the afternoon the party, including Mr. Sykes, left for the mountains north of Penfield.

The following persons are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McKernan in west Reynoldsville, coming here to celebrate Old Home Week: Mrs. Robert Nelson and son, of Youngstown, Ohio, Miss Maybel Barton, of Binghampton, N. Y., James McKernan, of Ashtola, Pa., and Miss Sue McKernan, of Bingham-hampton, N. Y.

Like the World's Fair at Chicago, Pan-American at Buffalo, N. Y., and Jamestown Exposition at Norfolk, Va., Reynoldsville had not completed all arrangements for the great event the day the Old Home Week celebration opened, but the work has been finished and the town is now decorated gorgeously.

The Old Curiosity Shop will be opened Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock and will be in charge of Lyman W. Scott.
Dozens of relics have been placed in the hands of the committee, and every one having any article reminiscent of yon-ger days, is requested to lend it for use in the museum. Show cases have been placed in the room and every article is numbered and labeled, guaranteeing a safe return.

Two of Pittsburg's greatest newspapers have sent staff representatives to Reynoldsville to report the great Old Home Week celebration. The Gazette Times is represented by George E. McLinn and the Dispatch by William M. Long. Speaking of Reynoldsville, the gentlemen spoke in very complimentary terms of the evidences of business enterprise everywhere exhibited and of the preparations made for the entertainment of guests.

Fell Down Celler Steps.
Mrs. Jacob Booth fell down the cellar steps at her home last Thursday evening, and while not seriously injured yet her body was badly bruised.

Injured Foot on Rusty Nail.
John W. Ewing, brakeman on the Reynoldsville & Falls Creek railroad, has been hobbling around the past week with a very sore foot. He punc-tured his left foot by jumping on to a rusty nail.

Miner Killed.
Joe Plozesky, a miner, was electrocuted Saturday while at work in the Stanley mines by the trolley wire that furnishes electric power for the motors.
A cave-in of the roof knocked the wire down on him.

Three Months to Workhouse.
P. E. Martin, the man who drifted into Reynoldsville on the 2nd inst., day of the P. O. S. of A. reunion, and worked the short change trick on one of our business men, was tried in the Jefferson county court last week and was sentenced to the workhouse for three months.

One of the Twins Died.
Grace, one of the twin babies of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Green, aged four months, died at 9.30 a. m. Friday, August 16, 1907. Funeral Sunday afternoon.
Interment in the Catholic cemetery.
Thomas, Jr., the other twin, was not expected to live for a day or two, but this morning was much better.

Ox Roast.
An ox roast will be held at the Henderson Grange grove on Wednesday, August 28. This grove is located one mile east of Eleanor Shaft and two miles north of Big Run. The program for the day consists of ball games, music and speeches by prominent speakers. Meals and refreshments will be served in Grange hall during the day and evening.

Died at Winslow.
Clarence C. Smith, brother-in-law of Dr. B. E. Hoover, of this place, died at his home in Winslow, Gaskill township, Saturday, August 17, 1907, aged 52 years. Consumption was cause of his death. Deceased was married to Ella Hoover, whom, with six children, survive him. Funeral was held Monday.
Dr. B. E. Hoover and J. R. Milliren and wife attended the funeral.

Charged With Running Speakeasy.
Friday Constable Leech took Mrs.
Carmenella Provenzo, of Soldier, to county jail at Brookville on charge of running a speakeasy. Mr. Provenzo skipped out or he would also be boarding with Sheriff Scheafnocker. This couple were arrested some months ago on same charge, but the evidence at that time was not strong enough to convict them of selling liquor illegally.

An Emergency Hospital.
It is hoped that no accident will occur during the jollifications of Old Home Week, yet accidents do happen sometimes in large crowds and the committee has made provisions for such unfor-seen occurrences by opening a free emergency hospital in the rear of H.
L. McEntire's drug store. Several cots have been put in the room and arrangements have been made with the doctors of town to give their services free in the emergency hospital if needed.

Taken to Mercy Hospital.
Ralph Whittaker, the boy who acci-dently shot himself at this place Sunday, July 21st, and was taken to the Adrian Hospital in Punxsutawney, was brought to this place last Wednesday and taken to the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburg Friday. If the bullet, which is still in his head, is located it is likely an operation will be performed. The Adrian doctors failed to locate the ball by use of the X-rays.

Is Now Prominent Preacher.
Rev. G. S. Womer, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Hollidaysburg, Pa., and wife came to this city Saturday evening to visit old time friends several days. Rev. Womer, who was a coal miner boy in Reynoldsville some years ago, is now an able, successful and prominent preacher in the Central Pennsylvania M. E. conference. He is one of the young men that has gone out from our town of whom the town has reason to be proud.

"Regular as the Sun" Is an expression as old as the race. No doubt the rising and setting of the sun is the most regular performance in the universe, unless it is the action of the liver and bowels when regulated with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Guaranteed by Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. Druggists, 25c. Reynoldsville and Sykesville.

Old Home Week In- augurated With Bon- fires, Noies, Etc.

With the roar and shock of dynamite Reynoldsville's great Old Home Week celebration was ushered in one minute after midnight Sunday. Immediately after the reverberation had died away the air was filled with a pandemonium of whistles, shrill and hoarse, of church bells and cannon on three hills, east, west and north of the town huge bon fires shot high into the air and illuminated the valleys far and near.
Firemen run out the hook and ladder wagon and the clangor of the noisy bell made Main street merry. A martial band got busy and their music was punctuated with revolver shots and cheers. For ten minutes the town was turned into a perfect bedlam to express the joy of its citizens at anticipated pleasure. The noise ended ten minutes after almost as suddenly as it began, but the fires smoldered long into the morning.

Even so it will be with this celebration we have planned for Reynoldsville. For one week the town will be in a blaze of glory, attracting attention far and near by the effort it is putting forth. But let do citizen forget that the purpose of this reunion is not merely for the sake of a week's excitement, but for the eternal welfare of the community. The week of glory will end, but its effects will remain for many years. And the duration of the stimulation will be in exact proportion to the effort expended by each individual now.

Dream That Came True.

Rev. G. S. Womer, of Hollidaysburg, an erstwhile Reynoldsville boy, in a reminiscent talk in the M. E. church at this place Sunday night, told of a dream that came true in his early boyhood days. On the commons, near where A. T. McClure now lives on Main street, then owned by Archie Campbell, were some apple trees on which some very sour apples grew. One evening Mrs. Womer told George that she wanted him to get her a few of those apples the following morning to use in some jelly she wanted to make. That night George dreamed that he had climbed an apple tree and while knocking apples off the tree a very cross looking old woman, with a broomstick in one hand, suddenly appeared under the tree and in no gentle tone demanded that he come down out of the tree immediately, which he did as quickly as possible, and only by quick action escaped the broomstick. In the morning, forgetting the dream, George went after the apples and while on the tree Mrs. Archie Campbell suddenly appeared, with broomstick in hand, and the dream of the night before became a reality. He escaped the broomstick.

INTER COUNTY LEAGUE

Organized at Sykesville Several days Ago With Six Teams in League.

The Inter-County League is the name of a new base ball league, organized at Sykesville recently. There are six teams in the league, as follows: Rathmel, Soldier, Sykesville, Eriton, Helvetia and DuBois Independents.
The schedule committee, Floyd Phillippi, of Sykesville, D. Mitchell, of Soldier, and E. C. Lynn, of Helvetia, have games scheduled for every day this week.

DEATH FROM DROPSY.

Mrs. John Biggie, Sr., Died Aug. 16—Buried Sunday Afternoon.

Mrs. John Biggie, Sr., died at her home in Dutchtown, near Rathmel, Friday, Aug. 16, 1907. Funeral service was held in the St. Marys Catholic church in this place Sunday afternoon.
Mrs. Biggie was born in Germany January 4, 1852, and was 52 years, 7 months and 12 days old at time of death. Her maiden name was Matilda Bloom.
Hughes & Fleming had charge of the funeral.

WILLIAMS GROVE PICNIC.

Reduced Rates Via Pennsylvania Rail-Road.

For the Grangers' Picnic at Williams Grove, Pa., August 26 to 31, the Pennsylvania Railroad will sell excursion

"Everybody Should Know"

Says C. G. Hays, a prominent business man of Bluff, Mo., that Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the quickest and surest healing salve ever applied to a sore, burn or wound, or to a case of piles.
I've used it and know what I'm talking about." Guaranteed by Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. Druggists, 25c. Reynoldsville and Sykesville.

Saturday, August 31st, is last day to pay borough taxes and save any discount.

Make our store your headquarters during Old Home Week. Millirens.

All merchandise reduced to 50c on the dollar at I. Horwitz clearance sale.

New caps at Millirens.

Walked Out a Window.

Marie Turney, a ten-year-old lassie of McDonald, Pa., who, with her mother, Mrs. J. S. Turney, is visiting at home of J. L. Foster on Jackson street, had a narrow escape from death or serious injury one night last week by walking out of a third story window while sleeping. Marie is a somnambulist and walking in her sleep is a common occurrence for her. The rear part of Mr. Foster's residence is three stories high and Marie was sleeping in a back room on third floor with Miss Hazel Foster and the window in the room, which runs down close to floor, was wide open and Marie, who was sleeping in back part of the bed, got out of bed, walked out of window and fell a distance of about twenty-five feet.
Her right wrist was sprained and her body was bruised considerably, but she miraculously escaped serious injury.

Cunningham is Popular.

Freddie Cunningham, the tight rope walker, is becoming a great favorite with the lads of Reynoldsville. Seeing him on the rope, acting with perfect ease and skill, one would suppose him a veteran in the business. Actually, he is but fifteen years of age and has been at his present dangerous avocation but three years. As a mere youngster in Kittanning he delighted in walking on fences, on tight clothes lines and in every other form of aerial feats and and gradually gained such skill that he was sought after by surrounding towns for public exhibitions. To-day it is doubtful if he has an equal or superior in ease of action while high in the air and in danger of momentary death.
Last night his exhibition drew a very large crowd and he repeated his successful feats of the afternoon.

Souvenir Pins.

One of the souvenirs on sale at various novelty stands in Reynoldsville this week which has some local significance, is the "Big Stick" scarf pin. It was designed by a former Reynoldsville boy and is now on sale at the Jamestown Exposition, Washington, D. C., Conneaut Lake and many pleasure resorts. The Union News Company has also taken it up and will have it on sale at all their stands and on trains.

The Big Stick pins on sale here are mounted each on souvenir cards bearing the inscription, "Old Home Week Souvenir, Reynoldsville, Pa., August 19-24."

The pins are designed to represent "Teddy's" big-stick. They are gold plated and sell at 50 cents each.

Kerchew is Under Ban.

People on the street last night were greatly annoyed by the presence of snuff in the air which caused continual sneezing. It finally became so bad that Chief-of-Police Adelsperger run three gentlemen into the lock-up and kept them for a time. They were given a hearing and plead that they did not know that the throwing of snuff was a criminal offense, and were only doing as many other fun seekers were. The three men were released with a warning not to throw the sneezy stuff again.
Snuff should be prohibited on the novelty stands. When they commenced its use last night many left the street, unable to stand the tickling sensation in nose and throat.

Relics at Cash Gibson's.

There is a remarkable collection of old relics on exhibition in the display window of C. C. Gibson: There are metal candle sticks and bells a century old, books printed at the beginning of the last century, spinning wheels, pans and irons, traps and carpenter tools used by generations gone hence long ago. Among the contributors to this collection are: C. J. Kerr, Mrs. Jane Sprague, C. C. Gibson, L. J. McEntire, Miss Ida Reynolds, Mrs. David Hillis, Mrs. John Zeitler, Mrs. John Barto and John Griffis.

Good Program Free.

The public school building will be thrown open to visitors on Thursday from nine until twelve, noon. There will be a chorus of one hundred voices who will sing the old time songs; also marching by the pupils. Some girls will represent the women of the revolution and will perform the minut in costume. Visitors are urged to come.
Orchestra will furnish special music.

Constabulary Drill.

Sixteen mounted members of the State Constabulary under Lieutenant Aigle, almost the whole squad now stationed at Punxsutawney, rode to Reynoldsville this morning and just before the parade gave an exhibition drill that attracted a big crowd. It was necessary for them to return to Punxsy immediately after the parade.

Winners of the Races.

Leo Nolan was the winner of the wheelbarrow race on Main street yesterday afternoon and was awarded a prize of $3.00 in cash. There were a number of entries and the race was warmly contested. Austin Schlabig, one of the contestants, fell while running and was slightly injured.

Special Services In Two of The Local Churches

In the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening a minister of the pieneer days of Jefferson county, Dr. R. S.
Borland, of Marcor, delivered a sermon from the words of the Preacher of Jerusalem, "Man goeth to his long home," and it was filled with allusions to the memories of early days when his village, Brookville, was practically the only town in Jefferson county, when Reynoldsville consisted of a few settlers homes and Luthersburg was the only hamlet of size along the early turnpike in this section.

When Dr. Borland closed his address the Rev. George Sylvester Womer now of Hollidaysburg, Pa., spoke of his boyhood days in Reynoldsville, of the landmarks that have disappeared and the familiar faces that remain. The whole service was appropriate to the occasion.

In the Baptist church Dr. A. J. Meek took for his text words found in Hebrews 3:13, devoting his remarks to the need of watchfulness on the part of young and old and made his remarks especially pertinent to the occasion.

He said in substance: "The citizens of our town have planned for the celebration of Old Home Week, having in view four things: First, a better acquaintance, to break over formality, to become more sociable. Second, to bring back former citizens, renew old acquaintances and form new friendships.
The eternal changes of time have transformed the town and its citizens.
Many have moved away, called hence by business interests. The Old Home Week says, come back and see how we are getting along and tell us your own experiences. Third, many who have lived here are strangers to many who live here now. Some will be here who were born here, reared, live and still stay; some who were here in the infancy of Reynoldsville and are now gone afar; some who have lived here a few years only. We extend a welcome to all and the spirit of friendship should be supreme. Fourth object, to advertise our town. Not every person in the union has heard of Reynoldsville, yet the products of its industries go far and wide. Its leather, coal, glass, brick, macaroni, woolen and silk products, steel construction work, etc., are distributed all over the United States and thousands are more comfortable through the use of our manufactured products.
For these reasons we have extended an invitation to all to come. We have a happy community and we want people to know it. We have decorated our streets lavishly and on every hand is the evidence of welcome.

THE PROGRAM.
