The * Star.

Subscription $1.00 peryearin advance. C.A. STEPHENSON Editor and Pub.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1907. Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville

SUMMERVILLETELEPHONENO, 61.

EVERYBODY SHOULD BOOST, RATHER THAN KNOCK, THE OLD HOME WEEK, AUGUST 19-24, 1907. IF YOU WANT ANYTHING IN DEC-ORATIONS. FLAGS OR NOVEL-TIES FOR THE OCCASION COME AND SEE THE 8

Stoke & Feicht Drug Co REYNOLDSVILLE, PA

A Little of Everything.

Ox roat at Baum's grove to-day.

Brookville Big 4 Fair next week

The Emerickville band will play at the ox roast in Baum's grove to-day. The big turtle that was on exhibition last week in room near Imperial restaurant, died Sunday. At the monthly meeting of Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association last week $2,800 was sold. It is reported that there are 125 cases of typhoid fever in Ridgway. The infection came from one spring. Extra copies of the DAILY STAR for each day this week are on sale at THE STAR office for one cent a copy.

Mrs. Samuel Epler was thrown out of a buggy Saturday and had her face badly skinned and neck sprained.

The first newspaper published in Reynoldsville was issued May 8, 1871. John A. Doyle was editor and publish-

W. T Cox bought the lumber in the incline down which Breton, the flying autoist, rode and made the mid-air

Mrs. E. S. Srewer accidentally cut a gash in her left wrist Saturday evening that required two stitches to sew up

Misses Grace and Laura Clawson entertained a number of their friends at the home of their mother on Grant street last evening. Reports of the condition of The Peoples National and The First National this issue of THE STAR. Next Monday evening, Sept, 2, Labor Day, a basket picnic will be held in Mammoth Park under suspices of Im-banks of Reynoldsville will be found in proved Order of Red Men. There will be an old time dance after supper. The Presbyterian church will take up its regular work next Sunday Christian Endeavor and men's meetings at 6 36; preaching both morning and evening at 11.00 and 7.30. Prayer meeting this evening at 7.45. Several days ago while John King and wife were driving to Bloomington Mines their horse ranaway and they were both thrown out of the buggy.

Mrs. King was badly bruised. Kerman Guthrie, a registered pharmacist, one of our town boys who was employed in a drug store at Clearfield, is now employed in the Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store is this place, taking the place of A. M. Woodward, who has gone to Clearfield.

Mr. King sustained a broken rib and

The family and near relatives of Mrs Jane E. Brisbin, of West Reynoldsville, celebrated her 83rd birthday on the 30th Instaut. The guests carried well filled baskets and dinner was served. Her kind neighbors remembered her by sending in a basket of groceries, for which Mrs. Brisbin was very thankful Horsee G. Miller, editor of the Punxsutawney News, was in town a couple of hours Saturday evening. He had been in Brookville Saturday attending the funeral of a cousin, Albert B. Miller, who died is Pittsburg and was buried in the Brookville ceme-

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Climpses of the People who are Passing To and Fro.

Mrs. C. R. Hall is in Pittsburg this

Miss Grace Meek is in Pittsburg this week.

Miss Frances Flynn is visiting in Pittsburg. Miss Sara Johnston is visiting her nother at Strattonville. Dr. J. A. Parsons and daughter, Miss Mary, are in Pittsburg this week. Miss Elizabeth Davis, of Scranton, is visiting her parents in this place. Miss Berna Hoover went to Brookville yesterday to visit a week or two.

Mrs. W. C. Henry and children, John and Madge, are visiting at Hamilton. W. L. Fisher and wife, of Indiana were visitors in town the past week. Mrs. S. V. Hays, milliner, is in Pittsburg this week seeing the fall styles.

Pansy Mills, of New Bethlehem, visited Mrs. W. W. Fetter the past week.

Walter Bone moved from Prescottville to Clymer, Indiana county, this week.

Miss Ella McDonald, of Falls Creek, spent Sunday with Miss Elizabeth Tanfe. Dr. Chifford L. Kaucher, of Reading, spent Sunday with his parents in this place G. B. Woodford, of the Woodford cigar store, is at Jamestown, N. Y. buying goods. Joseph McKernan, Jr., of Ashtola, spent Sunday with his parents in West Revnoldsville. A. W. Woodward, of Adriondock, N

Y., spent Sunday at home of his brother in this place. T. C. McEnteer and wife went to Pittsburg yesterday to visit William Bucke and family. M. W. Reitz, of Braddock, who was visitor in town the past week, returned home yesterday. Raiph Kirk, of Paterson, N. J., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Kirk, in this place. H. C. Keiler and wife, of New Bethlebem, were guests of M. S. Sterley and wife over Sunday.

Misse Edna Angevine, of Rexford, Pa., was the guest of W. W. Higgins and wife Old Home Week. Miss Florence Worden, of Ashtola, who was visiting in town, went to Lock Haven the first of this week.

Miss Mabel Barton, of Bingham, N. Y., who was the guest of the Misse McKernan, left here Monday.

Ray Moore and wife, of Boliver, N. Y., who were guests at home of T. C. McEnteer, returned home Monday.

Paul A. Hoffman and wife, of Renovo, spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Rev. aud Mrs. J. W. Myers.

Miss Bessie Brady, who makes her home with her grandparents, at Ridgway, is visiting her parents on Jackson street.

Mrs. J. K. Lawrence, of Spruce Creek, Pa., visited her step-daughter. Mrs. Alex Riston, in this place the past week

J. G. Cathers and family returned to New Kensington Monday after spending a week in this place and Rathmel.

W. J. Cable and wife, of East Brady, who were visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Best, returned home yesterday.

Bert G. Woodward, of Adirondocks Mt., N. Y., several years ago a teacher in our public schools, is visiting to town in this week.

S. K. Furman and daughter, Miss Ethel, came to town yesterday. Mrs. Furman and other two children have been here ten days.

C. E. Carruth, wife and children, Mrs. D. E. Hibner and children, of DuBois, were visitors at home of Rev. J. C. McEntire last week,

Will Prescott, wife and two sons, of Harmony, visited the former's mother and sister, Mrs. Hannah Prescott and Mrs. John M. Hays, on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hemer, of East. Brady, are among the visitors in town. Mrs. Hemer, whose maiden name was Florence Stone, formerly resided here.

John McQuone, now residing in California, visited his sister, Mrs. James Degnan, the first of this week. This was Mr. McQuone's first visit in Reynoldsville in thirty-one years.

James C. Mitchell, for many years a resident of Reynoldsville, who moved to Idaho Springs, Celorado, several years ago, came all the way back to Reynoldsville to meet his old time comrades during Old Home Week.

Rev. C. A. Wilson, of Ridgway, who was the guest of Dr. A. J. Meek three or four days and preached in the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening, went to Pittsburg yesterday. He is taking a month's vacation.

Rev. T. R. Johnstone, of Ottumwa, Iowa, who visited two months with his sister, Mrs. W. L. Johnston, in West Reyaoldsville, left here at noon yesterday to visit in New York State a few weeks and will then return home.

Mrs. Thomas Purtell, of Deposit, N. Y., and son, John D. Purtell, of Scranton, Pa., Miss Louise Hurd, of Galeton, Pa., and Miss Mipnie Guthmiller, of DuBois, are visiting at the nome of P. A. Hardman. Mrs. Purtell is Mrs. Hardman's mother.

Nothing Like it Before. Full Week of Pleasure.

The Old Home Week celebration and reunion, the greatest and most success ful event in the history of Reynoldsville, or any other town in Jefferson county, officially closed last Saturday evening at ten o'clock with the Keystone band marching up Main street playing "Home, Sweet Home," and the vast throng joining in singing the old song. From the inauguration of Old Home Week at 12.01 a. m. Monday. August 19, with bon fires, noise of cannon, shricking of whistles and ringing of bells, until the singing of "Home, Sweet Home" Saturday night, it was a glorious success. It is doubtful if ever as many thousand people attended a celebration in any other town that were as well entertained and returned home as well pleased as did the thousands who attended the celebration in Reynoldsville last week. Every day jolly crowds promenaded Main street and turned it into a midway plaisance. No expense had been spared to beautify the town and it was lavishly decorated. The free attractions engaged were the kind the people did not tire of and each day the multitude was ready to see the daring performances repeated.

The industrial parade Tuesday afternoon was the grandest parade of the kind ever seen in this section of the state. Our merchants and industries certainly deserve credit and praise for the special efforts made and the expense incurred to make this feature of Old Home Week a success. They succeeded beyond expectations.

The parade of the lodges on Wednesday was very spectacular and was one of the finest lodge parades ever seen in Reynoldsville.

Visitors came from the north, south, east and west to participate in the celecration and old gray haired men declared at close of the week that it was the most enjoyable week of their lives, and they, with thousands of others, returned to their homes carrying with them a warmer place in their hearts for Reynolosville than they ever had

It is doubtful if ever as large and good natured crowds assembled on this mundane sphere before as assembled in Reynoldsville last week. There was only one disturbance reported during the entire week. Everybody was out for a good time. They were not looking for trouble. The men who labored hard to make Old Home Week a success can feel that their labor was not in vain, for they certainly furnished a week of pleasure to many thousands of people, and besides that they gave Reynoldsville more advertising than the town has ever had since it was incorporated thirty-five years ago. Who can tell what benefit Old Home Week will be for the prosperity of Reynoldsville in the future? The object of the promoters of Old Home Week was not that it would be a money making scheme, but it was to bring back the former citizens who have moved into other towns and localities that old acquaintances might be renewed, and, more especially, as an advertisement Mart Gleason, John Crawley and wife, for the town, and who will gainsay that Harry Belnap. Joe McKernan and they have succeeded gloriously?

Bought a Drug Store.

A. M. Woodward, druggist and expostmaster, who has been a citizen of Reynoldsville a number of years, has bought the Stoke & Feicht Drug Company store at Clearfield. He went to that town last week. He will move to Clearfield. Mr. Woodward, wife and daughter Zoe, have a large circle of friends in Reynoldsville who will be sorry to see them move away from our town, but will wish them success in their new home. The people of Clearfield will find Mr. Woodward a very pleasant gentleman.

Second Annual Picnic.

Second annual P. O. S. of A. pienie will be held in Hand's Park, near Stanley, Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 2. Nine camps are invited, namely, Reynoldsville, Sykesville, Rathmel, Emerickville, Falls Creek, DuBois, Curwensville, Clearfield and Rockton. There will be splendid speeches, baseball games, foot races, potatoe race, etc. All members are requested to bring all their friends.

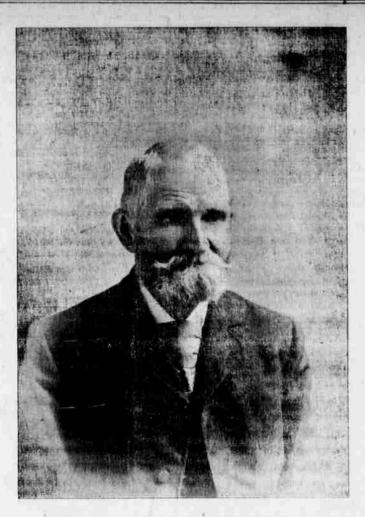

Smathers-Baughman.

Samuel H. Smathers, of Strattonville, and Miss Mary E. Baughman, of West Reynoldsville, were married at the Methodist Episcopul parsonage in Reynoldsville Wednesday, August 21. at 5.00 p. m. Dr. J. A. Parsons performed the ceremony. The couple have a home at Strattonville already furnished and will go to housekeeping at once.

Committee Returns Thanks.

The committee in charge of the Old Home Week curiosity shop desires to thank all who loaned relies or in any way contributed towards making this feature of the celebration a success.

Mrs. David R. Cochran is visiting in Kittanning. She attended the Bowser reunion yesterday, which was held on the Kittanning fair grounds. Misses Alms Daugherty and Mamie Baum, of Falls Creek, were guests of Misses Althea and Carrie Brewer last week.

THE LATE THOMAS S. M'CREIGHT.

Old Settlers Dance in Park Theatre was a Big Success.

The Old Settlers' Dance in the Park Theatre Friday night was a delightful event in which scores of old timers mingled once more as they used to do 'way back in the seventies and earlier. Dave Reynolds, who used to make the rafters ring in the days when the brick tavern was the social center of the section, was the fiddler, and "Uncle" Ed. Sceley, another pioneer, helped him along. There was a time when Woodward Reynolds' tavern, now known as Frank's Tavern, was the meeting place of the young people for a dozen miles around and sleighing parties from points as far distance as Luthersburg and Brookville used to come and spend the night in a merry frolic and dance. Many a one on the floor Friday night recalled those days with regret and joined with zest in an event which may never again be repeated. No one under fortyfive was allowed on the dancing floor, though the galleries above were packed with younger couples envious of the fun they could not share. Miss Sue Reynolds acted as planist. To the lively beat of good old dancing tunes the couples whiled several hours away and broke up at last with sincere regret. Among those on the floor were Jerry Allen, "Cad" Hall and wife, Philip Goodwill, "Jack" McEntire and wife, Elisha Evans and wife. Caesar Ferris and wife. "Jim" Degnan, 'Squire Neff and wife, "Jim" Gillespie, "Jack" Dean, Wm. Comins and wife, Tom McEnteer.

White, Len Seeley.

wife, George Harris, "Cash" Gibson,

Annie Winslow, Annie Mabon, Jane

Ann Barkley, Clara Seeley, Mrs.

Michael Montgomery, Mrs. Sol. Shaffer,

Lydia Miller, Hattie Morrow, Anna

Hendricks, Mary Bolger, Delia Saxton,

"Jim" Hughes, George Hughes, John

Howlett, George McDonald, Al.

, Full Statement Next Week. A full statement of the money re ceived by subscription and otherwise for Old Home Week, and how expended, with the names of all persons who subscribed or will subscribe, to the fund, will be published in the town papers next week. The expenses for Old Home Week exceed by $150.00 the amount raised by subscription and privileges for the celebration and unless some one who did not pay to the fund will help out the members of the committees, who have already paid liberally, will have to make up the deficiency. The names of all persons subscribing to the fund this week will be published in the list of contributors next Excursion to Toronto, Canada, Tuesday, Sept. 3rd.

Via B. R. & Ry. Special train leaves Falls Creek 6:10 a. m. Round trip tickets, good five days, also for stopover at Niagara Falls. only $4.00.

"Everybody Should Know"

Says C. G. Hays, a prominent business man of Bluff, Mo., that Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the quickest and surest healing salve ever applied to a sore, burn or would, or to a case of piles. I've used it and know what I'm talking about." Guaranteed by Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. druggists. 25c. Reynoldsville and Sykesville.

Otis Balcom, doctor of optics, formerly of Cincinnati, Ohio, will be at the City Hotel Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 5. 6 and 7. Special attention to the eyes of children. All examinations made with Electrical Retinoscope and Opthalmoscope and by the very latest methods in optics. No fees for examination.

Fine Collection of Antiques On Exhibition at Hall's.

Among a fine display of antiques in the window of Hall's store last week was a pewter teaset 325 years old, a copper tea kettle 250 years old, a tea caddy made from mahogany taken from an old cathedral in England, loaned by Mrs. Thomas Neal, of Jackson street; a a pitcher 200 years old loaned by Mrs. Dovle, of Jackson street: one pair brass candle sticks 170 years old, pitcher 300 years old, loaned by Mrs. Robert Sayers, of Jackson street: a ginger jar brought from Chien by Commodore Perry of the U. S. navy, given to Mrs. C. R. Hall by his neice; a veil designed and made 65 years ago. Two interesting aritcles seen in this window are an old reader of 1822, used by Mrs. Hall's mother when a girl, and an exoneration from military service in the year 1848. signed by Captain E. R. Brady, for Mr. Hali's father.

GOT CAUGHT IN THE CROWD.

John Wray's Invalid's Chair Overturned

and a Buggy Wheel Passed Over Him. John Wray, the paralytic who is a familiar figure on Main street, riding in his invalid chair, was almost killed about 6:30 Wednesday evening by being run over by a horse and buggy. Wray started to cross the street at Main and Fourth, picking his way through the crowd, and did not notice the approaching horse until it was upon him. His wheeled chair was overturned, the lower part of Wray's body is paralyzed and he was helpless until friends hastened to his rescue. He was carried to his home back of Hill street and a doctor was summoned. Though suffering internal injuries of a painful nature. Wray will recover.

Bought a Copper Mine.

J. E.son Smith returned Saturday evening from a trip to Globe, Arizona, where he and some other Pennsylvanians bought a group of copper mines. The Daily Arizona Silver Belt, published at Globe, Arizona, in its issue of Aug. 17 says: "T. P. Kelly, the well known mining man of the Pinto Creek section, will to-day receive $5,000 as the initial payment on the Grandstaff group of claims on Lower Pinto Creek from Messrs, J. Elson Smith and W. F. Meredith, two promineut Pennsylvania capitalists, who, with other business associates, have organized the Crown Point Copper company to develop the property. The full consideration for the ten claims contained in the group is $26,000 and the balance of the price is to be paid in nine months, according to the bond."

Lingenfelter and Wells Reunion.

The fourth annual reunion of the Lingenfelter and Wells families' will be held at Wishaw Park on Wednesday, September 11, day and night. All relatives and their friends are cordially invited to attend.

COMMITTEE.

Excursion to Ontario Beach and Rochester.

Sunday, September 1st, via B. R. & P. Ry. Round trip fare $2.50. Special train leaves Falls Creek 6 10 a. m. and returning, leaves Ontario Beach 7.00 p. m. and Rochester 8.00 p. m. Tickets also good returning from Rochester on regular trains Monday, Sept. 2nd.

Sweeping cleaning sale is now going on at I. Horwitz store, opera bouse building.

For bargains go to I. Horwitz store. Sale lasting 20 days.

PIONEER SETTLER SUDDENLY EXPIRED SUNDAY EVENING.

Thomas S. McCreight was One of the Oldest and Best Known Residents of Paradise.

Thomas S. McCreight, of Paradise, Winslow township, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of that community, died suddenly at 9.15 p. m. Sunday, August 25, 1907, from heart trouble. His entire family was at his bed side when he expired. He was conscious until the last moment. He had been out in the yard in the evening and had taken a sinking spell. He was helped into the house and a doctor summoned, but his case was beyond medical skill and slowly he sank away until he peacefully fell asleep never to awaken in this life again. Mr. McCreight had not been in good health for some time, yet he was able to be up and around and his death was unexpected.

Thos. McCreight was born in Armstrong Co., Pa., April 25, 1830, and was 77 years and four months old at time of death. When two years old his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mc-Creight, moved to Winslow township, Jefferson county, and cleared 150 acres of land which constitutes the fine farm that deceased resided on. When old enough be attended district school in the winter and worked on his father's farm in the summer until 1862 when he enlisted in Company B, 135th P. V. I. for nine months service. In 1869 he married Frances P. McKee, of Bell township, Jefferson county. To Mr. and Mrs. McCreight were born eight children as follows: Lawyer Smith M. McCreight, of Reynoldsville, Thomas Edward, miller at Prescottville, James Madison, living on farm, Ida Ethel, at home, Mrs. Mary A. Sadler, of Sykesville, Cora B , Everett Lloyd, at home, Alberta G., deceased.

For about twenty-five years Mr. Mc-Creight engaged in lumbering and farming, but the past fifteen years devoted his time almost exclusively to his farm interests. When about twentyone years old he was elected constable in his township. For a number of years was a school director in Winslow township. He was a director in the Seeley, Alexander & Co. bank in Revnoldsville several years and was also vice-president of the bank at one time. He was a member of the Presbyterian church. Two years ago last June, on account of a deceased bone. Mr. McCreight had to have his right leg amputated below the knee. Funeral service will be held at the family residence at 2.00 p. m. to day, conducted by Rev. A D McKsy, pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, and interment will be made in the McCreight cemetery on the farm. Thus another old settler of this community has been summoned into "that bourne from which so traveler e'er returns" and the community has lost another good citizen. Mr. McCreight belonged to that sturdy class of men-honorable, industrious and temperate-who give horse galloped over him and a wheel of character and stability to a community, bonor. He was a genial gentleman, &

Rare Old Relics.

kind husband and father and a good neighbor.

M. J. Farrell has several relics which were not in the curlosity display this week on account of the fact that Mr. Farrell failed to see the request for relics to be handed to the committee. Mr. Farrell has an old fife that was played by Daniel Lucas in the Revolutionary War and played three months in Civil War by John Downey, fifer,

OLD HOME WEEK.

in Dublin in 1732.

afterwards promoted to colonel. He also has a catechism that was printed

Dedication McKinley Monument. Buffalo

For the Old Home Week and the Dedication of the McKinley Monument at Buffalo, September I to 7, the Pennsylvania Railroad will sell excursion tickets to Buffalo from all stations on its line more than fifty miles and not over 300 miles from Buffalo on August 31, September 1, 2 and 3, good to return until September 9, inclusive at greatly reduced rates.

For the fare from your station and additional information concerning the conditions of tickets and the train service, consult the nearest ticket agent.

Week Day Excursion to Niagara Falls and Buffalo.

Tuesday, Sept. 3rd, via B. R. & P. Ry. Special train leaves Falls Creek 6:10 a. m., and returing, leaves Niagara Falls 7:00 p. m. and Buffalo 8:00 p. m. Tickets also good returning from Buff-alo Wednesday, Sept. 4th. Round trip fare $2.50.

Mrs. D. R. P. Womer, of Kane, and three daughters, Mrs. R. L. Stiles, of Medera, Mrs. Eva Middleton, of Union City, and Miss Blanch Womer, of Kane, formerly all of Reynoldsville, are among the visitors in town for Old Home Week.

All merchandise reduced to 50c on the dollar at I. Horwitz clearance sale.