A Little of Everything.

The pheasant and squirrel hunting season opened yesterday.

A valuable draft horse owned by Thomas Tapper, liveryman, died last week.

Jacob King, our oldest citizen, was 94 years old on Monday of this week, Sept. 30.

Sixty-three years ago last Sunday twelve inches of snow fell, so says Mr.
Ninian Cooper.

Under the new game law the season for killing squirrel is open from October 1 to December 1.

The Presbyterian Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. D. W.
Riston on Grant street Friday afternoon.

There will be a concert given in the M. E. church Thanksgiving night under the auspices of the M.
E. choir.

Dr. Lang, a prominent physician of Pittsburg, was in town Friday to see Mrs. Will F. Herpel, who has been ill for sometime.

The two cent a mile fare went into effect on the P. R. R. yesterday.
The company has discontinued the sale of round trip tickets.

Trinity Lutheran church. Sunday school 9.45 a. m. Communion service 11 a. m. Luther League 6.30 p. m.
Vesper service 7.30.

A number of high school girls were out serenading school directors and other citizens Friday evening. The girls sing very nicely.

Lewis Wagner, who moved from Rathmel to Rural Valley, Armstrong Co., about a year ago, has fitted back to Rathmel and will reside there again.

Dr. S. Reynolds, who will move to Warren next week, gave a dinner party to the doctors of Reynoldsville at his home on Main street last Friday evening.

Mrs. Harriet Rephaer, who moved away from Reynoldsville several years ago, has moved back to this place.
Her many friends are glad to have her reside here again.

James Fye and Ed Crawford were injured in the old Klondyke mine near Rathmel last Friday by the explosion of a lamp, pieces of the lamp hitting them on head and face.

Rev. W. E. Frampton, of Sykesville, will preach in the M. E. church at this place next Sunday morning. It is not known positively yet who will preach in the evening.

Rev. Henry Madtes, of Monessen, has accepted a call to become pastor of the First Baptist church in Punxsutawney. He begins his work the first Sunday in November.

Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the First M. E. church, was called to Canada Monday on account of the serious illness of a brother-in-law, who had a stroke of paralysis a few days ago.

Drayman George Hartman's large gray horse, valued at $300.00, died in a livery stable at Punxsutawney early Monday morning. Mr. Hartman had driven to Punxsutawney Sunday for a load of household furniture and on the way over the horse took sick near Panic, but was able to continue the trip to Punxsutawney.

Beautiful Display in the Sky at 6.30 Last Evening.

A remarkable story is told of a phenomenon in the heavens last night about 6.30 that is vouched for by the foreman of THE STAR and a friend who witnessed it. While they were standing talking near Frank's Tavern a brilliant golden ball of fire appeared suddenly in the northern part of the sky, remained stationary just a moment and then, dividing itself into three distinct balls of almost equal size, of brilliant and flaming beauty, moved slowly and with a graceful downward curve across the sky. Except for its gigantic size it resembled the appearance of a sky rocket with its beautiful play of bright colors. As the three stars moved over the sky, a pale lam-bent trail was left in their wake, completely resembling the description of a comet.
The mysterious stars disappeared behind the eastern horizon and, though not a star had been visible before, immediately after the disappearance of the strange phenomena, a half dozen came into view along the track of the meteoric stranger.

A small blaze on roof of house occupied by Oliver H. Rose on Jackson street called the fire company out about 11.00 a. m. Thursday. The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective flue.

H. J. Pollitt, who has been superintendent of the woolen mill at Craigsville, Pa., about a year, moved to that place last week. The family left here Thursday. Their many friends were sorry to see them go.

Mrs. F. C. Wilson, of Haralson, Ga., has our thanks for a package containing freshly picked figs and cotton buds.
Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, who have been at Haralson several months, formerly resided in Reynoldsville.

Solomon Friedman, who has been a merchant in Reynoldsville about seven years, expects to close out his business here and move away. Mr.
Friedman may not be able to get away from Reynoldsville until early in next year.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the M.
E. church will be held at the home of Mrs. J. R. Milliren on Hill street Friday afternoon. Luncheon served at six o'clock. Husbands of the members invited.

A reunion of the London family will be held at Romantic Park, Sykesville, on Saturday of this week, Oct. 5. All relatives and friends are invited to attend this reunion and take along with them baskets well filled with good things to eat.

Edward Woods and wife, of Brookville, who were married September 24, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C.
F. Hoffman on Hill street Monday.
They stopped off here on return from wedding trip. Mr. Woods is nephew of Mr. Hoffman.

John H. Kaucher, K. C. Schuckers, W. W. Wiley and F. A. McConnell, of Reynoldsville, are stockholders in a big gas well that was struck near Polk, Venango Co., last Thursday.
It is reported to be one of the largest wells ever struck in Venango county.

O. H. Johnston, wife and daughter, Miss Ruth, and Mrs. O. D. O'Dell were at Showers, Clarion county, Monday attending funeral of a relative, Claire I. Riddle, who died Saturday of typhoid fever. Deceased was only twenty-two years old. He contracted the fever in Pittsburg.

Frank Caruso, an Italian who was working in Camp Run coal mines, died at Camp Run Saturday evening from a stroke of apoplexy. Body was brought to Reynoldsville on the 11.42 a. m. train on P. R. R. Monday and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. The Princess Elena Society attended funeral in a body. Caruso leaves a wife and several children.

The bond social held in the Methodist Episcopal church last Friday evening was well attended. The illustrated lecture on forestry by Hon. S. B.
Elliott was interesting, instructive and highly enjoyed by the audience. Mr.
Elliott has given the subject so much thought and attention that he thoroughly understands it and is able to deliver an excellent lecture on forestry, and trees in general.

Sarañi Siranano, known as "Red Socks," who is believed to be one of the worst Black Hand men in this section, was arrested at Camp Run last Thursday afternoon by two state police. The charges against him are larceny, resisting an officer and felonious cutting.
"Red Socks" had been working at the Camp Run coal mines about three weeks. Officers had been looking for him for more than a year, but were unable to locate him.

Thomas Pifer, of Big Run, died Monday evening, September 24, aged 76 years. Mr. Pifer resided in Reynoldsville a number of years ago, moving from here to Paradise and from there to Big Run. He was a large man, weighing as high as 367 pounds before illness and old age reduced his weight.
Interment was made in the German Lutheran cemetery in Paradise Wednesday. He is survived by his wife, no children.

HIGH NOON WEDDING.

Miss Emily Pearl Barrett and Charles A.
Fye the Happy Couple.

At high noon on Wednesday, September 25, 1907, a very pretty wedding took place at home of Mr. and Mrs. B.
A. Barrett at corner of Third and Hill streets when their eldest daughter, Miss Emily Pearl, was united in marriage to Charles A. Fye, of DuBois.
The wedding march was played by Herbert Lowe, of DuBois. Amy Barrett, sister of bride, was flower girl.
The ring ceremony of the Methodist Episcopal church was performed under an arch of pink and white aster and ground pine by Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the First M. E. church of Reynoldsville. Miss Dora Hyskill, of Smicksburg, was bridesmaid, and Jesse Fye, of DuBois, brother of the groom, was groomsman. The bride was neatly attired in a pretty white dress and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas.
The house was beautifully decorated with pink and white aster and ground pine.

Thirty guests were present. After congratulations and best wishes an excellent dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Fye left here on the 1.29 p. m. westbound train on P. R. R. on wedding trip to Pittsburg, Pa. Canton, Ohio, Cleveland, Ohio, and the lakes. They were given a liberal shower of rice at the railroad station before starting on their trip. They will locate in DuBois for a time, but expect to locate permanently some place in the western country.

Both young people are well known and highly esteemed. Mr. Fye is bookkeeper for Hibner & Co., of DuBois, and his bride taught several very successful terms of school in Winslow township. The wedding presents were very pretty and useful.

Victim of a "Red Devil."

Saturday evening, between five and six o'clock, while James Hetrick, of Brown street, was driving home on a wagon from his farm, he met an auto on Pike street, near Joseph Mc-Kernan's. His horse became frightened, plunged into the ditch by the roadside and threw Mr. Hetrick off the wagon seat, falling in front of the wagon in such a way that the front wheel passed over his left shoulder, narrowly missing his head, producing considerable contusion but no fractures. Mr. Hetrick claims to have signalled to the chauffeur to stop but no attention was paid to the signal and no effort made to relieve Mr. Hetrick in his distress. Mr. Hetrick is now very anxious to know the name of the chauffeur driving a big automobile of the "red devil" pattern out Brookville road Saturday evening about five-thirty o'clock.

BUILDING BOX FACTORY.

An Addition to the Macaroni Factory, Which is Running Full Capacity.

The macaroni factory at this place, Carmine and Joseph Marinaro proprietors, is doing such a large business that the proprietors are building a box factory in connection with the macaroni factory to make their own boxes to pack the macaroni in, and for shipping purposes. The box factory is 36 x 42 feet, one story high. In this new addition will be a gas engine, automatic nailer, combination box saw, etc.

Burglars in Town Last Night.

Burglars entered the residence of Ira Smith on Grant street last night.
They entered through a back window.
They only got fifty cents in cash. Mrs.
S. and children, who were alone, did not hear the uninvited visitors. They tried to get into Dr. DeVeere King's house but did not succeed. Perhaps were frightened away.

Ladies!

You are invited to call at Flo Best's millinery store Wednesday, Oct. 2, and see a beautiful line of trimmed hats for fall.

Do You Want a Bargain?

You will get it for one week only, beginning Saturday, Oct. 5. We will sell our entire stock of lace curtains and portieres at a price that will surprise you. C. R. HALL.

On account of my leaving Reynoldsville I expect all parties indebted to me to call and make payment before Oct.
10th, 1907. All accounts not paid on that date will be left for collection.
C. F. Hoffman.

Hartman, the drayman, gets all his coal at George Henry's mine.

A magnificent display of trimmed hats at Flo Best's Wednesday, Oct. 2.

Who is who and why? Go to P. O. S. of A. hall Friday eve., Oct. 11, and see.

Remember the date, Friday evening, Oct. 11.

ASSOCIATION GROWS

Interest in Business Men's Club on the Increase.

They Meet Again Thursday Evening and Every Citizen is Cordially Invited to Come Out and Help Push a Good Thing Along.

It takes something more than an obstruction in the cogs to keep the wheels of the indefatigable Ex-Old Home Week committee from going around. It is trying to reorganize itself into a business men's and citizens commercial, civic or industrial association,—whatever you will that means booming the town—and got far enough on in the movement to elect officers and appoint a committee to draft constitution and by-laws. Legally it would be hardly possible to do business until this matter is settled and organization completed. But the chairman of that committee didn't get his training with the Old Home Week bunch and to the chagrin of the veterans, failed to rush his work through in time to have it acted on at the meeting Thursday night. Delay of that kind at the start might have caused the death of the infant association. It is difficult to arouse interest in a movement of this kind and still harder to maintain that interest when there is "nothing doing."

Realizing this, the gentlemen present, a goodly number and among them many not at the first meeting, decided to go right on with other business and discuss it at least, even if they could not take official action.

Joe Williams, Charles Milliren and Thomas Nolan were appointed to look after a suitable location for association rooms. All these gentlemen belonged to the "Old Guard" and were right on deck with a report of a half dozen propositions. A lively discussion was precipitated and the various rooms, offered all the way from $1.00 per meeting night to $24.00 per month, received attention flattering and otherwise. This matter will be settled later on.

The matter of organizing the trustees was discussed by Messrs Emig and Breakey but this is dependent upon the constitution and by-laws which failed to get there.

At this juncture the chairman waved his wand, the secretary shifted his writing pad and the association was transformed into the "Hallowe'en Club," charged with hammering out a carnival and masquerade for the night of October 31st.

Jarvis Williams, for the arrangement, Joe Williams, for the finance, and W. W. Higgins, for the advertising committees submitted their reports and arrangements were made to start off the campaign for the success of the masque this week. All the committees received the familiar old instruction from the chairman to "get busy."

Once more Chairman Gillespie done his conjuring feat and the gentlemen found themselves a board of trade considering an industrial proposition.
Secretary Lord, in behalf of E. A.
Reitz, presented the proposition of the inventor of the adjustable window screen. Briefly, it was to assist Mr.
Reitz to get his patent on the market, either by organizing a local company manufacturing the screen on a royalty basis, or by any other method they could devise. The matter was given a thorough discussion and while it was not possible to take any official action, the individual sentiment expressed was distinctly favorable to helping the inventor in some way.

The next meeting will be held in the Old Home Week rooms Thursday evening, Sept. 3, when it is hoped to complete the organization and get matters on the move all along the line. This is a "citizens club" in which the voice of every resident of town is needed. It has had a successful start and needs only the continued interest of the people to make it the greatest factor in the upbuilding of Reynoldsville that has ever existed. Come out and help.
It is free to all and all are welcome.

Closing Out Entire Stock.

The Cash New York Racket store is closing out $4,500 worth of stock at 25 cents less than cost to quit business.

A surprise party was given to Mrs.
J. F. Hinderliter on Monday, September 30, by the Irene Temples of Soldier, Rathmel and Reynoldsville. The ladies passed a very enjoyable day. An excellent dinner was served at 12 o'clock by Mrs. W. H. Koehler, Mrs.
Harry Belnap and Mrs. Geo. McGrody.

Don't fail to see the display of trimmed hats at Flo Best's millinery Wednesday, October 9th.

Bargains in household goods. Inquire of C. F. Hoffman.

For one week only, beginning Saturday, October 5, we will sell lace curtains and portieres at a great reduction. Call and examine them. C. R.
Hall.

Don't miss the closing out sale of $4,500 worth of goods at the Cash New York Racket Store. All goods must be sold. Going to quit business.

James W. Spry, grocer, has secured the exclusive selling agency in the East End for the famous Cowsango butter and cheese. The finest goods in the market. Try them and be convinced.

Closely Contested Football Game.

The football season was opened on the Reynoldsville grounds Saturday afternoon by a closely contested game between the Reynoldsville and Punxsutawney high school football teams.
The visitors defeated the local team by score of 5-0. The Punxsutawney boys outweighed the Reynoldsville boys and had the advantage in that respect. It was an interesting game and was highly enjoyed by the large crowd of spectators.
