

XIRAGOOD Clothes Command Favor
—Lead in Quality

It's harmless for boys to play soldier; but pretense in clothes-making brings trouble.

Pretense is shamming the real; claiming quality and value that does not exist.

All pretense is carefully avoided at this store by selling XIRAGOOD clothes; the most durable, reliable brand made; the honest, guaranteed kind.

It's inside worth—as well as outer attractiveness—that makes XIRAGOOD best. You get more than it's cost in long, hard wear; and the satisfaction that comes from lasting, good appearance.

Sailor and Russian Suits for boys 2 1/2 to 10 years, large collar trimmed with silk braid, emblem on shield. Made in serge, worsteds, chevrons of various colors and patterns.

THE EDISON PHONOGRAPH

To the Edison Phonograph can be applied the old saying: "A pleasure shared is a pleasure doubled." It is the art of entertainment expressed in tangible form. There is never a crowd when one of the three is an Edison Phonograph. Love songs, dances, funny songs, ballads, all kinds of music in your own home, with less trouble and greater enjoyment than any other form of entertainment, and especially than any form of musical entertainment. You cannot possibly know how well the Edison Phonograph reproduces by listening to any other make of talking machine.

To him who has the strength of mystic lines,
In white-blue far too white with its portage,
And he smiles as subject of the rhymes
That "football" says, "one who never plays."

To him whose words have not the power to sink
Deep into minds that have a broader scope,
We'll but explain our feelings in return,
As right is right, at least that's what we hope.

If he in desperation should take
A little trip along the sporting lines,
Would he be a great name for himself to make?
Or bet himself back to the pines.

Or let him don the football togs and go
But down upon the sidelines and then there
Express his purpose, to expose his slats
And get trampled in the mud most-every-where.

'Twould show perhaps that he was then a sport
And willing for to do what he could:
Might he get a chance to lay his bulk
In the inch mud where it would do most good.

Far better it would be if he but went
Far from the shelter of poetic lines,
Than try to secure one who never plays—
In he himself so one a hero finds.

But even if our player did not play,
Did he betake himself back to the woods?
As Spaulding made his togs and makes the
That player surely was there with the "goods."

Last Wednesday afternoon the Senior class enjoyed an excellent time at the expense of one of our number. Mr. Robertson, wishing to show his interest in the English literature class, went to sleep. Mr. Bright, thinking he might have been up late the night before, left him enjoy his slumber undisturbed. He enjoyed himself for about five minutes when he woke with a start. Mr. Robertson's face has hardly regained its natural color yet.

Last Friday morning at a meeting of the Senior class, Mr. Shields was unanimously elected class president.

ADVICE TO UNDERCLASSMEN

If you aim at graduation
And diplomas hope to win,
You must always get your Latin
From the time you first begin.

When your Virgil you've completed,
And the victory you have won,
You may know that you've been faithful
If your teacher says "Well done."

Learn declensions, conjugations,
And constructions by the score;
When you think it near completion,
Begin anew and learn some more.

But the fun is worth the trouble,
When on that one great day,
You may come back for the last time
And with diplomas march away.

To-morrow the Seniors will canvas the town with course tickets for the lecture course. The course this year promises to be an excellent one, being largely selected by the Senior class. The numbers are all recommended and are guaranteed to give satisfaction. At the low price of $1.00 no one can afford to miss it. Reserved seat tickets will be sold at Stoke & Felcht Drug Co.'s store for ten cents additional. The first number is Hruby Brothers, November 11th, and is a male musical company of rare and far-famed ability.

If Koehler would only mend his ways

And we'd have a palace on the hill

Can any one tell where the gentlemen's exchange is? The frequency with which swapping is done indicates there is one nearby.

Fonda, you may be very persuasive, but Hamlin prefers to stay where there are a few boys.

One of our old Freshmen papers has been found, written in the spring of '06. From it we clip the following definition for dishwashing by a Senior girl of '08: "Dishwashing is a superfluous, ingenious contrivance for the reddening of the hands. It brings the bright, flaming red corpuscles very near the surface, driving the white ones inward forever. It is very monotonous for one, endurable for two, and really exciting for three."

The Seniors are stranded upon the island of despair, floundering around amid the sea of forgotten conjugations,

I wait two lads of room 12,
And the cause is Lillian Ewing,
The comrade of Helene.

Oh, Freshman—that is Roland,
He has both eyes on Lill,
As she with Charles, the Sophomore,
Goes trotting up the hill.

Roland comes behind and grumbles,
He really looks quite sad;
And walks quite fast and stumbles
And still keeps getting mad.

Lill trots along unconscious
Of the trouble she has made,
Vowing that in the future
Her school work won't be delayed.

That she'll get down to business
And study with a will,
So that of High School knowledge
She'll surely get her fill.

She'll have naught to do with H. S. boys,
Sykes and Wisor may both get busy
For Lillian is going to be good.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by Stoke & Felcht Drug Co. druggists, 50c. Reynoldsville and Sykesville.
