

Frank's Restaurant

SEALSHIPT OYSTERS PURE FOOD.

The only absolutely fresh, wholesome, appetizing oysters ever sold in bulk. They are practically shell oysters as they are merely slipped from their own shells into a porcelain-lined case which is sealed, thus forming a shell on a large scale. This case is embedded in ice in a Patent Sealshipt Carrier, not opened till it reaches the dealer.

All the piquant "half-shell" flavor, the delicate tang given by the salt-water, the smooth firmness, the nourishing quality, the natural color are fully retained. No preservatives are ever used.

Sealshipt Oysters Fresh Daily.

THE HIGH SCHOOL BULLETIN

Editor-in-Chief: Graydon Robinson.

Freshman Reporter: George Smith

The R. H. S. football team went to Clarion Saturday to play the Normal, where they were defeated 11-0. The first half and the first part of the last half it was a very close game, a titer side making long gains. It was only in the last five minutes that Clarion scored, both times illegally. The first time seven men of the Clarion team were off side and by reference to Rule VIII, Section 2, it can readily be seen that it was illegal. The R. H. S. official, Gibson, protested, saying it was his duty to call fouls and was going to penalize Clarion, but their officers overruled Mr. Gibson and called it a touchdown. Their second touchdown was illegal by Rule VI, Section 8. They kicked the ball. It struck about a foot inside our goal line and rolled over where their man got it before it had been touched. By rights it was a touch back and should count nothing. The Clarion team outweighs our team by 20 to 25 pounds per man and it seems funny that a team like Clarion, because they could not win by fair means, should try to win by foul. We were in a hurry to catch our train and did not have time to take long to protest, and as we had not yet received our guarantee, we had to finish the game to get our money.

The Seniors are still in the lecture course business.

Football to-night—R. H. S. vs. Desire. This will be a good game and every one is asked to come. Game called at 4.00 p. m.

The Senior class this year seems to be a very sleepy bunch. It is surprising that a class which retires as early as we do should need sleep in school.

Seven orations for seven girls—one apiece. Glad there aren't any more girls.

Football game here October 31, 1907, Halloween Day, DuBois H. S. vs. R. H. S. We want to advertise this game in advance so as to get a big crowd. Tickets 25c.

Miss Milliren—Earl, what are the palisades? Earl—Bluffs!

"If I had a rope I bet I could draw that sheep," was heard in rhetoric class Thursday afternoon.

Miss Milliren—What is a quadruped? Junior girl (thinking awhile)—Oh, yes, I know. It is one of those thousand legged worms.

Junior girl—Miss Milliren, did Bryant write his poem entitled "June" before or after he died?

Ask any one of the Junior girls what study means.

One of the Junior girls likes Room 13 so well that she leaves her Latin tablet and other useful articles there.

Juniors, what do you know about reading seven orations of Cicero?

Miss Milliren—What is the meaning of subtle? Junior—Cunning or kind.
