MRS. FRANCES KIRK HERPEL DIED!WEDNESDAY MORNING

She Had been Id Nine Months Suffering Intensely.-Funeral was Held Friday Afternoon at this Place.

Mrs. Frances Kirk Herpel, wife of Will F. Herpel, of Punxsutawney, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Kirk, on Main street, Reynoldsville, at 3 00 a. m. Wednesday, October 16, 1907. Brief mention of her death was published in THE STAR last week. Cancer of stomach was cause of her death. She had been ill nine months, two weeks of that time was spent in the Adrian Hospital. June 7th she was brought from hospital to home of her parents in this place and for a time was considerably better than she had been for several months, but later on she grew worse again. On account of getting better after coming to home of her parents, the doctors, including a specialist from Pittsburg, were unable to decide positively what was the real trouble until a few days before death. Mrs. Herpel was conscious up until the last moments and knew that she was passing from earthly friends

Frances Kirk Herpel was born at Hubbard, Ohlo, August 18, 1878, and was twenty-nine years, one month and venty-eight days old at time of death. When about two years old her parents moved to Reynoldsville, where deceased resided until August, 1905, when she was married to Will F. Herpel and they went to housekeeping in Punxsutawney. She was one of Reynoldsville's most highly esteemed young ladies. On account of her kind, loving and jovial disposition she had a host of friends in Reynoldsville and was loved by all who knew her. 'She was one of the charter members of the Ingelo Club, had been a member of the Presbyterian church and Christian Endeavor Society for years.

Funeral service was held at home of parents at 2.30 p. m. Friday, conducted by Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the Presbyterian church, assisted by Dr. A. J. Moek, pastor of Baptist church. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cometery. The floral tributes were beautiful.

Raiph D. Albright, proprietor of the Union Plumbing shop, sold his shop last week to C. E. Humphrey, of Sykesville. The deal was closed last week, but Mr. Humphrey has a job of plumbing to complete at New Kensington and Mr. Albright is doing the work at this place until Mr. Humphrey can come and look after it himself. Mr. Albright expects to go to Pittsburg as soon as Mr. Humphrey is through at New Kensington. Mr. Albright will not move his family away from town for Good Man for the Position.

Congressman W. B. Wilson, of Tioga county, who is now National Secretary-Treasurer for the U. M. W. of A., is a candidate for the nomination for president of the organization to take President John Mitchell's place, who will not be a candidate for re-election, Mr. Wilson has been known in this section for twenty-five years. He is a very conservative man and would make a wise counselor for the U. M. W. of A. as president of that organization. Our judgement is that the mi make no mistake in nominating and electing Mr. Wilson president of their organization.

Thomas Pontefract Nuptials.

At 10.00 a. m. on Wednesday, Oct. 16, 1907, Miss Emma Pontefract and Samuel M. Thomas were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Pontefract, on Hill street. Dr. J. A. Parsons, paster of the M. E. church, of which both young people are members, performed the wedding ceremony in the presence of the members of the two families. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left here on the noon train Wednesday on a wedding trip to Buffalo, Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Toronto, Canada. They have a house furnished on Pleas. ant avenue. They will be at home to their friends November 1st. Their many friends extend congratulations and good wishes,

Elopers Arrested.

Last Thursday an officer from Uniontown came to Reynoldsville looking for Lewis Sambretti and Mrs. Marie Rubino, who had skipped out from Uniontown without making known their intentions or their destination. Mrs. Rubino left her husband and one child eighteen months old, took $90.00 of her kusband's money and eloped with Sambretti, carrying a five months' old baby in her arms. They came to Reynoldsville and found lodging in a house near the tannery, giving their names as Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ross. By the aid of Chief-of-Police Frank P. Adelsperger the couple were located and the officers found them in bed. They were arrested and taken back to Uniontown to face the angry husband and to stand a trial before the court for their actions.

BROWN-ROBINSON NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED LAST SATURDAY

Ring Ceremony of the M. E. Church was Used by Dr. J. A. Parsons and Witnessed by a Number of Guests.

At 11.00 a. m. on Saturday last, October 19, 1907, a very pretty wedding took place at the home of S. S. Robinson, on Grant street, when his youngest daughter, Miss Nell L. Robinson, was united in marriage to Lawyer Raymond E. Brown, of Brookville, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Brown, of Reynoldsville. Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the M. E. church, officiated, using the pretty ring ceremony of the church. The marriage was solemnized in the spacious parlor in front of a bank of palms and ferns. The bride was dressed in a neat traveling suit. During the ceremony and congratulations Miss Edna Lewis presided at the piano. The house was tastily decorated with ferns, palms, smilax and carnations. A wedding breakfast was served immediately after the ceremony and Mr. and Mrs. Brown left here on the 12.52 p. m. train on P. R. R. on a wedding trip to Philadelphia, Pa, Washington, D. C., Jamestown Exposition at Norfolk. Va., and New York City. They will be absent ten days or two weeks.

There were forty-five guests present all relatives with the exception of two or three persons. The out of town guests were: G. W. Robinson and daughter, Miss Artie, of Tionesta, Mrs. Elizabeth-Stone Robinson, of Beaver, Pa., Mrs. John E. Cook, of Pittsburg, Mrs. O. N. Wilson, of Kittanning, G. H. Smith, Misses Myrtle Mitchell, Kittie Robinson and Caroline Aldrich, of Punxsutawney, C. W. Brown and wife, of Washington, D. C., Dr. J. W. Brown, of Ithaca, N. Y., Dr. Will Myers, of Old Forge, Pa, and Harry Myers, of Pittsburg.

The wedding presents were unusually pretty and expensive, consisting of cut glass, china, silver sets; gold coin, check for snug sum, linens, chairs, &c., including a rocking chair over one hundred years old that was at one time owned by the bride's great great grand-

The bride is one of our highly esteemed young ladies and the groom 's a brilliant and promising young lawyer of Brookville. They have a house rented at the county seat and will go to housekeeping there soon after returning from their wedding trip. THE STAR joins with their numerous friends in congratulations and best wishes for the future.

New Candy Store.

The new candy store and ice cream parlor of the Velvet Ice Cream and Candy Co., opened in the room next door to Butler's barber shop last Saturday, is a neat, inviting and up-to-date store and ice cream parlor. The show ca es and everything in the candy store are of the latest designs, the candy is fresh and bright, the soda fountain is very pretty and the ice cream parlor, with large plate glass mirrors around the walls, is a cozy place to eat ice cream. H. T. Peters and W. S. Christie, proprietors of this new store, run the Christie ice cream factory during he past summer and having to include a candy factory in connection with the ice cream factory, remodeled the room formerly occupied by Hunter & Milliren meat market for the candy store and built a brick addition to rear of room for the ice cream factory.

Announcement to the Public

We have opened an up-to-date ice cream parlor, ice cream factory and confectionary plant in the newly remodeled building next door to Butler's barber shop. We have engaged a competent and first class candy maker who is making fresh and choice candles every day. If you want good, pure candy, call at our store. Our rooms are open for inspection at all times. Try our home made ice cream. Nothing better. Orders for ice cream will be filled promptly.
